Citizens of Los Angeles are aroused over the efforts being made to force through at the June 5 election another huge power bond issue of $35,000,000, all but $10,000,000 of which it is planned to spend in Arizona at the Boulder Canyon Dam which has not been built and cannot be built for a long term of years.

Under the leadership of the Los Angeles Taxpayers Association, which includes in its membership leading business men and women of the city, a vigorous campaign to defeat the unnecessary bond issue is being conducted. In a statement issued by this organization these points are made against the bonds:

"Secretary Herbert Hoover says that the only agency to build Boulder Canyon Dam is the Federal Government. Congress is expected to take favorable action as soon as the Colorado River pact is signed by all of the seven States that will benefit by building of the dam. Arizona is the only State that has not ratified the pact.

"Arthur P. Davis, director of the United States Reclamation Service, says that development and distribution of power developed at Boulder Canyon Dam must be controlled by the Federal Government or by an association of the seven States interested.

"No one says that Los Angeles or any other city or community shall develop and distribute power at the dam.

"Then why vote a Los Angeles bond issue which saddles additional debt on taxpayers for Boulder Canyon Dam, which does not exist?

"The essential and immediate needs of our city must be met before expenditures are made in Arizona for a project that has not even the official action of the Federal Government to make it a reality as yet. It will take years to build the dam after the Government has cleared away all obstacles.

"The bonding capacity of Los Angeles, fast nearing the limit of municipal credit, must be conserved for those more immediate needs at home: for development of the harbor, for schools, viaducts, a City Hall and a site to build it on, for playgrounds and additional land needed to protect the site of the new library.

"Bond measures amounting to $61,500,000 are on the June ballot. Of this amount, $26,500,000 is asked for the civic improvements at home that have been made imperative because of the rapid growth of the community. There will be further need of bond issues for other civic purposes from time to time, and if we exhaust the city credit by voting these needless power bonds the other bonds of Los Angeles will have no market.

"The Chamber of Commerce and other important organizations that have taken the lead in advancing the interests of Los Angeles are on record against the power bonds, declaring that as Boulder Canyon Dam cannot be built for many years the city should not vote bonds now for development of power there.

"Misleading propaganda has been distributed ot create the impression that Los Angeles can get power now from Boulder Canyon Dam. This, on the face of it, is absurd and will not fool the taxpayers and citizens who must pay the carrying charges on the enormous bonded debt of the city. Keep taxes down! Vote 'No' on Proposition No. 6, the power bonds, at the election June 5."

SYMBIOSIS MAY BE DISEASE SOLUTION

By Dr. E. B. Lewis, B. Sc. M. D.
1618 1-2 East 9th Street

"Symbiosis" is the word used to describe the consortium or partnership when two dissimilar organisms live together in more than the biblical sense of dwelling in harmony It is even over and beyond a life for a life and a tooth for a tooth. Symbiosis spells health and vitality for two creatures, either of which might become extinct and drop from the face of the earth without the other.

Mistletoe grows upon and at the expense of various trees. It gives nothing in return. This is contradictory to the state of symbiosis. It is called parasitism. The virus of rabies and hydrophobia, the baccilli of tuberculosis, of diphtheria, of typhoid grow and fructify in huge numbers at the expense of the fluids and tissues of man—they offer no "quid pro quo."

Mistletoe, bacteria and microbes of disease are parasites. Parasitism is an unfriendly act. It calls for a severance of relations and a declaration of war. Symbiosis is a socialistic dream of co-operation realized. It is a mutual arrangement by which each member of the symbolic family does its share for the general welfare and at the same time demands and obtains at the cost of death to both an equivalent return which can only be made by the other member.

It was the famous botanist, De Barry, who first applied the term, "symbiosis" to the little greenish scales which grow on rocks, old tree trunks and ruins. Lichens are romantic and inspiring alike to poets and to naturalists. Since 1879, however, De Barry discovered that these pale greenish scales are really two instead of one creature, and made them even more instructive and entertaining to man.

Lichens are molds and water plants dwelling in intimate and almost invisible contact. The fungus absorbs, from the soil, air and moisture minerals and other extracts necessary for the algae or water plants, whereas the latter makes starches, sugars and other solids needed by the two members of this partnership.

Insects and Plants

Some plants form symbolic combinations with insects. The regions between the joints or nodes of certain plants like the Acacia are hollow. These caverns are occupied by ants. The ants find good homes and food, and meet their share of the partnership by protecting the plant against lice and other predatory insects. There are hundreds of species of vegetation with hollow twigs, hollow stems and hollow pockets adapted to accommodate helpful insects. These plants have already received the name of "ant lovers" or "myrmekaphilous" plants.

Goal of Science

It is more than probable that ants are not as beneficent as many botanists might have us believe. It is well known that ants are seldom so tame that they will not bite the hand that feeds them. Indeed, the whole notion of symbiosis, now more than a generation old, calls for revision. Green plants may very well do without molds, although molds are perhaps uplifted by their association with the green plants.

Symbiosis as generally understood occurs only in human relationships. In the matter of such harmless germs as the lactic acid bacilli of Bulgarian milk, it is commonly understood that these bacteria once planted in the alimentary canal of man act as benign scavengers of the intestinal canal, and in exchange receive all the comforts of home, as well as their sustenance.

As man, perhaps at the moment of his first breath, receives the lurking principle of death in the guise of some parasitic baccillus, it is equally possible that he receives some antidotes or counter-agency with which to combat the parasite or that neutralizes its effects. The white blood corpuscles, certain enzymes and perhaps other substances yet to be recognized are to be found in man, vital examples of symbiotic living. Perchance the research worker in his laboratory may yet find some tiny, living thing capable of symbiosis with man, and at the same time a citadel in his tissues to repel disease.

SAVING THE POCKET BOOKS OF THE PEOPLE

That the City's municipal election system is saving the people of Los Angeles more than $3,000,000 annually in their electric bills because of the low rates maintained, as compared with rates charged by a private power company just outside the City limits, it was pointed out today by Chief Electrical Engineer E. F. Scattergood of the Power Bureau.

Mr. Scattergood further drew attention to the fact that the limit of feasible development of power along the aqueduct, has been reached. In this connection he emphasized the vital importance to the voters of supporting and voting for the Electric Power Bonds (Proposition 6) on the June election ballot.

"It is of vital importance that the City of Los Angeles develop a new and large supply of cheap electric energy to meet a demand for electric service that is now increasing at the rate of 22 per cent annually," said Mr. Scattergood.

"The City's municipal electric system has proved to be a splendid investment for the people. The Bureau fo Power and Light is paying all interest and principal charges on outstanding electric bonds out of revenues, as well as all other expenses, and at the same time is serving the people at extremely low rats.

"In the same way, the $35,000,000 bond issue will not cost the taxpayers one cent, because all interest and principal payments will be made out of electric revenues, returned under the present low rates.

"At the present time the City is forced to purchase from the Edison Company one-third of the electricity it distributes, at a price more than two times higher than its own cost of production. It certainly is not good business for the City to continue this arrangement any longer than it can be helped.

"If the proposed Electric Power Bonds are not voted it will mean an annual loss to the City and its people of approximately $5,000,000. And this is how the loss will be brought about:

"Of the total bond issue $25,000,000 is to be used for the complete construction of a 250,000 horsepower generating plant at the site of Boulder Canyon Dam and transmission lines from Boulder Canyon to Los Angeles That amount of energy can be generated and delivered to Los Angeles about $5,000,000 cheaper by the City than it can be purchased under the wholesale rates that the City is now required to pay the Edison Company for large quantities of power.

"This, of course, explains why the private power corporations operating behind paid agents and dummy organizations are desperately opposing the Electric Power Bonds If they can defeat these bonds they can force the City to continue to buy power from the corporations at rates that will return a fat profit to the corporations, but will mean the loss of millions of dollars each year to the City and its people.

"10,000,000 of the bond issue is to be used to make urgently needed extensions to the municipal electric distributing system inside the City. This will make it possible for the Bureau of Power and Light to extend service to many sections of the City that cannot now be served. This portion of the bond issue will be a particular and immediate benefit to newly annexed sections of Los Angeles."

WOODMEN EULOGIZE LATE COMMANDER

THE AMERICAN WOODMEN HOLD MEMORIAL EXERCISES IN HONOR OF LATE HON. C. M. WHITE

The Los Angeles camps of the American Woodmen conducted memorial exercises Sunday, May 27 at the First A. M. E. Church in honor of the late Hon. C. M. White former Supreme Commander of the order. Notwithstanding the fact that several other organizations held meetings at the same hour, yet a very representative audience of Woodmen and friends of the former Chieftian of Woodcraft were piresent at the ceremonies. The programme was very fittingly carried out and many touching tributes were paid to the memory of Mr. White. After the opening of the services by Commander L. M. Mitchell, a very praiseworthy recital of the achievements of the former Supreme Commander was made by Dr. H. H. Towles who has recently come to California from Texarkana, Texas. The Eulogy was delivered by Prof. J. Mitchell Smith, who captivated his audience by the masterly way in which he depicted, step by step, the life of the former chieftian from the time of his birth to his death. A life size portrait of the deceased Supreme Commander White was unveiled by Prof. B. H. Graham, the State Supervisor of the Woodmen in California, whose vivid portrayal of his personal connection and intimate friendship with Mr. White was very touching. Very appropriate expressions were also made by Rev. A. M. Ward at whose former church in Denver, Mr. White was a frequent visitor, and by Prof. C. L. M. Eason who has been a personal friend of Mr. White for several years. The musical numbers which consisted of vocal solos by Mrs. Lillian Mae Williams and Mr. Chas. B. Boston, a violin solo by Mr. H. A. A. Rose and a duet by Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Graham were all beautifully rendered.

MISS HEARD IN SENIOR RECITAL

By John A. Gray

A recital of interest was given by Miss Edna Roselyne Heard at the Old Chapel University of Southern California on May 29.

Miss Heard's programme presented the different schools of music as well as the modern French and Russian composers.

The audience was very appreciative and was composed for the most part of white people while the balance was made up of representative musicians and music-lovers of our own. It is to be regretted that we do not take a keener interest in affairs of this kind. It means much to the participants and has a psychological effect upon the other race. Miss Heard has the distinction of being the first race graduate from the voice department of the University. Her deportment and poise on this occasion was much commented upon, and praised.

Besides giving a very artistic and intelligent rendering of the difficult program, Miss Heard displayed a very beautiful and remarkable voice.

The Misses Elizabeth Mottern and Mary Taylor ably assisted as pianist and accompanist.

GREAT HOLLYWOOD BOWL SING

One Hundred Voices of Race's Best Singers on Music Week Program

On Sunday afternoon, May 20th, there gathered at the Hollywood Bowl, according to the estimate of the L. A. Examiner, 15,000 persons to celebrate the opening of Music Week.

The Red men were there and sang their quaint tribal songs; the Polish Chorus was there and sang its songs in Polish; the school children were there and sang their especially prepared patriotic songs, musical groups from nearby towns sang their songs, and the music-loving Negroes were there—and there strong and sang our songs, as only we can sing them. And not only did they sing jubilee and plantation melodies, but they sang a classic by Horatio Parker and the great Negro National Anthem, composed by J. Rosamond Johnson. After all was said and done Mrs. J. J. Carter, directress of the great afternoon program, Mr. Cadman, Composer-Pianist, Mrs. Carrie Jacobs-Bond famous song writer, Mr. Ogerhoffer, conductor of the Minneapolis Symphony and many others said the singing by the colored group was the best on the program.

So wonderfully well did the colored group sing they were compelled to give three encores.

This splendid group of singers was directed by Mr. Elmer C. Bartlett, [illegible] by Miss Theresa Johnson [illegible] Miss Lucien Kinney, who played the [illegible]

"THE RISING TIDE OF COLOR"

OWEN'S LAST SUNDAY WAS A STRENUOUS DAY

The Hon. Chandler Owen's last Sunday in Los Angeles was indeed a most strenuous day when he delivered two stirring addresses, one in the afternoon at the Independent Church and in the evening at Douglass Temple.

The Rising Tide of Color

Was his subject at the Independent Church. The meeting was under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary. Mrs. B. Prentice presided over the gathering and presented Mrs. C. A. Bass in a most fitting manner, and who in turn introduced the brilliant Editor of the Messenger the Hon. Chandler Owen. Mr. Owen was at his best and truly gave one of the most inspiring, thoughtful and stirring addresses which we have ever heard. He held the vast audience spell-bound and was the recipient of an ovation at the conclusion of the same.

OWEN MAKES THE SHINGLES RATTLE AT DOUGLASS TEMPLE

The far famed Douglass Temple on East 21st St. was crowded from pit to dome on last Sunday evening to hear the Hon. Chandler Owen, and for one hour and a half, the Messenger Editor veritably raised the roof of this famous edifice. By far the most enthusiastic audience of his present tour was carried away by his forceful and eloquent address. Owen himself outdid all previous efforts and it was indeed a fitting climax to his visit in Los Angeles. One long to be remembered and whenever he comes this way again he can be assured of a most hearty welcome indeed.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 6.—White people were urged to refrain from using elevators reserved for colored people in the sky scrapers here by the Junior Chamber of Commerce which made the matter the subject for its luncheon on last Thursday. A spirited discussion was held also on the matter of keeping hats on in elevators in which women were riding.

"Colored men invariably remove their hats in the elevators set aside for them and its a deared nuisance to keep pace with their politeness," said one speaker.

KILLED WRONG MAN

Decatur, Ga., June 6.—"I made a serious mistake," said Lewis Carmichael, Wednesday, after he had shot and killed Adam Harper. Carmichael said he thought he was shooting Lewis Burke who had been warned to keep away from his home.

Harper staggered home where remaining alone all night, he died next morning. Being only a "feeler" his death apparently made little difference and as Carmichael who well liked, the coroner's jury, returned a verdict of justifiable homicide.

SOCIAL EQUALITY

ATTORNEY TYLER TO SPEAK ON SOCIAL EQUALITY AT N. A. A. C. P. MASS MEETING SUNDAY AT EIGHTH AND TOWNE CHURCH

What is expected to be one of the largest and most important mass meetings in the history of the local N. A. A. C. P., will be held next Sunday afternoon, June 10, at the First A. M. E. Church, corner of Eighth and Towne. Attorney Willis O. Tyler, the matchless orator of the West, will give a profound and philosophic discussion on the subject of "Social Equality."

This is a subject of great importance but generally misunderstood. Attorney Tyler is always at his best when speaking for the N. A. A. C. P., and his address Sunday afternoon will be highly illuminating. A splendid program of music will also be presented by prominent musicians of Los Angeles. The meeting will begin at 3:15 p. m., and the public is invited to come early for seats. Admission free.

GREAT MIGRATION MOVEMENT

(By The Associated Negro Press)

Athens, Ga., June 6.—Both black and white people are migrating from Georgia. An estimated total of 100,000 persons is the number of Georgians who have left farms in this state since January 1. Of this number the greater part is composed of black citizens, although the number of whites who have abandoned the farms is placed at above 18,000. These astonishing figures and others were compiled by county agents throughout Georgia, grouped at the Georgia State College of Agriculture, and given to the public for the first time late Monday afternoon by Dr. Andrew M. Soule, president of the Institution.

In addition to the large number of individuals who have left Georgia farms and the most of these have even left the state, it is found that 11,840 farms have been abandoned in Georgia since the first of last January. Placing the very low average productive value of each of these farms of $175, the average for the whole United States last year, it is seen that the loss in farm production in Georgia in less than five months is $5,972,000.

The actual number of Negroes who have left Georgia within the five months is estimated to be 83,000, and attributing to each of them Negroes the ability to make one dollar a day, the productive value of the population that has left this state in five months would be the amount of a year amount to more [illegible]

THE NEGROES' POLITICAL STATUS CAUSING UNREST

THE LEADERS SEEM DISTURBED OVER THE GROWING PROBLEMS THEY ARE FACING

(By The Associated Negro Press)

WASHINGTON, D. C. June 6.—There is something mystifying about the future political attitude of Colored America. Political Wiseacres are silent. There seems nothing to do at present but think, think, think. All of the old time political dope having been miserably upset during the last two years, everyone is quite afraid to prophesy. "We don't know where we are going but we are on our way."

It is all due to the fact that the children of Aunt Hager are dividing their votes in places where the division means addition, and victory for others not accustomed, heretofore, to reap the benefit of the sundown ballots.

Do you know that the Democrats of the big northern states have already begun a definite organized program looking to educate the Colored voters up to the importance, or necessity, of supporting a "Conservative Democrat for President?" This is true in New York, Chicago, and other centers. A heretofore Republican leader of national reputation said recently: "I have come to the place where I am willing to go out and work for a Democrat for President if they nominate the right man." This man has the power to influence thousands of voters.

If there are those who are bold enough to come forth advocating the policy of "Stick to the Republican party," this wing of Colored America always comes forth with the admonition of no less a person than President Harding, in his famous Birmingham address, in which the executive advised Colored America to divide their votes. "We are taking the President at his word," remarked the same previously mentioned national leader.

Other Leaders Disturbed

It is quite apparent that the big leaders of the party and the practical politicians are greatly disturbed by this new psychology of Colored America. "They are taking the President too literally," is the assertion of one of them. In the mean time serious conferences are in progress in this city between those responsible for Republican success in 1924. The issue is not being dodged or whitewashed; it is being faced, bravely it may be said.

Listen to this from a prominent Senator, who hopes to continue with the title with out the addition of "ex:" "The advice of the President is all right in theory, but I am certain it has cost a number of men their office, and if things keep on, others of us will follow in their wake. We must give honest consideration to Colored constituents if we expect to remain in office. It is, to say the least, galling to discover that our negligence and indifference are being realized upon by the Democrats whom we have always said are the Colored peoples' enemies. The Democrats are taking the kink out of that assertion by giving more consideration and appointments in state and local offices than we have done. From now on, we must play different kind of politics."

In the Meantime

In the meantime, the children of Aunt Hager may well be described as "sitting on the lid." They are telling all their "Brothers and their sisters and their sons and their daughters and their mothers and their fathers" in the words of a present day Broadway star to "Play that thing," meaning the game of politics, in his instance. They are looking with deep concern on the statements, interviews and public utterances of Henry Ford of Detroit; they are wondering what may be done with a possible "Third Party," and they are even studying the program of the recognized Socialists. What are the Republicans going to do about it? Much of the answer to this question remains to be seen and heard.

NEWS GATHERED BY ASSOCIATED NEGRO PRESS

ATLANTA, Ga., June 6.—A new type of flim flam failed to work the early part of this week when J. A. Jordan, a white gentleman, entered the cafe of Howard McElroy at 324 Piedmont Avenue, and claimed to be a meter reader for the Georgia Railway and Power Company. Although Jordan exhibited a badge he didn't look "regular" to Mr. McElroy, who watched him take $13.50 from the meter and then attempted to detain him for questioning. The white man burst through the group of customers and fled with McElroy on his heels. After three blocks chase he caught and sat on him until a policeman arrived. Jordah was bound over in the Superior Court.

NEW YORK, N. Y. June 6.—Marcus Garvey has announced that the fourth annual convention of the Universal Negro Improvement Association, will be held in Monrovia, Liberia next year, instead of in New York in August as originally planned.

Mr. Garvey expects to take a shipload of delegates over from the United States, West Indies, and South America, and is said to believe that impetus will be given to the "Back to Africa" movement by holding his convention there. At present Garvey is defendant in the Federal Court for alleged mismanagement of the funds of the Black Star Line. Several unique angles have appeared on the case. While many who have followed the course of the Steam Ship company say that it never had a chance to succeed, there are others who contend that powerful shipping interests were determined that it should fail.

Philadelphia, Pa. June6.—Not the least striking chapter that was written into the annals of the 1923 Penn Relay Carnival was the part that the black athlete played in achieving fame, or in taking the white man's burden often in the relay races.

At least one-sixth of the athletes competing were gentlemen of color. It typifies their racial success as a whole, too, that Charlie West, the greatest athlete ever produced at Washington and Jefferson and a Negro, should win the pentathlon, the hall-mark of all-around athletes in the American colleges.

Added to this was the triumph of DeHart Hubbard, the colored broad jumper of the University of Michigan, in that event. But it was in the relay races that the presence of the dark-hued athlete was seen at his best. Rarely did any school, especially those of the larger cities, run a race without one or more of the relay men a colored runner. These black boys knew how to run,too, and did not suffer in the least in comparison to their Caucasian compatriots.

Stranger still was the League of Nations that comprised the Pentathlon finish. The winner was West, in whose veins flows African blood of Ethiopian ancestry. The chap who was second was Elkins, a full-blooded Indian and a pupil at the Haskell Institute for the warriors in Kansas.

Georgetown sent in Moroney, whose ancestors are Irish, and Plansky, whose blood is the heritage of a thousand Polish forebears. Newton, of Florida, was the only simon pure native son in the lot, representing the University of Florida, and dwelling in his own home town in the South.

The cosmopolitan aspect of this athletic function was not limited by any means to the British. Wherever one turned he found some chap whose ancestors had come through the melting pot. The meet revealed, too, that no one strain has a monopoly of the brawn, brains and speed that are essential in athletic tests of this nature.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 6.—Things are rather quiet on 35th Street, Chicago's gay white way. All of the cabarets except one have closed by order of the police department and the federal authorities which combined in making a drive on them.

Even Al Tearney's long considered immune and which although it was in the center of the colored district did not permit colored people to enter was ordered closed by Mayor Dever, Monday. Protests by colored citizens and its bad record were given as the cause.

The Entertainers Cafe which has been re-opened is still operating partially because it is said he has a friend at court, as well as because he has promised to allow no mixing of races. Many of the prominent citizens are expressing the view that the change is for the good, loss of employment by a number of musicians being the only untoward result.

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 6,—The trial of Marcus Garvey, charged with using the mails to defraud through the sale of stock in the BLACK STAR LINE is proceeding in the Federal Court before Judge Julian Mack. It is probable that weeks will be consumed in trying the case, particularly since Mr. Garvey has discharged his counsel, Solicitor C. W. McDougald and Vernal Williams, nad proceeded to act as his own counsel. Using a gold mounted lorgnette to read the papers he makes an interesting figure and is proving t chave astonishing ability as a cross examiner for a layman. Co-defendants with Garvey are George Eli Garcia, Secretary of the Black Star Line, represented by Henry Lincoln Johnson, eGorge Tobias, treasurer, represented by Wm. C. Matthews of Boston and Orlanda M. Thompson, vice-president, of the ill-fated steamship company.

Capt Joshua Cockburn, former skipper of the Yarmouth, who said he fell out with Garvey for business reasons as well as because they were both admiring the same woman; Edgar M. Gray, former private secretary to Garvey, who said he also served as advertising manager of the Negro World, Secretary of Branches of the U. N. I. A., Secretary of the African Communities League, and personal publicity agent for Garvey at a salary of $14, 00 per week and asst. U. S. Attorney Mattuck have been the principal witnesses thus far. They testified to loose business methods an dquestionable stock selling methods.

It is expected because of the scope of the government's charges, that all th esecrets of the U. N. I. A. will be aired.

WASHINGTON, D. C. June 6.—The U. S. Veterans' Hospital is momentarily quiet. Those interested in manning the institution and seeing it successfully launched after surveying the situation devoid fo sentiment and in the bright light of facts are said to believe that everything will work out satisfactorily in the end.

The hospital was opened last Saturday with Col. R. H. Stanley, a white army physician, and a white staff and colored nurses in charge. So far as known no colored doctors have been certified up to this time. Information circulated here is to the effect that the influence in the Veterans' Bureau who hav estaged the entire official opposition and who had control before the present director, eGneral Hines, assumed charge, have set forth the claim that the positions open in the Tuskegee Hospital, said to be the finest the government has yet built, called for doctors especially qualified in certain technical practice which few colored physicians have had any reason to qualify themselves for. Medical men of national reputation have been conservative in discussing the situation One of the best known physicians in the country who practices in Chicago said here recently, "I have not heard of Dr. George E. Cannon or Dr. J. E. Perry of the National Negro Medical Association being asked to confer on this matter. They would know better how to put their hands on the right men than any one else in America." Dr. Perry of Kansas City, Missouri, is president, and Dr. Cannon of Jersey City is chairman of the executive association.

In the meantime, Dr. Moton, who extended th egovernment the invitation to come to Tuskegee, and whose friends assert he was genuinely interested in having the hospital manned by Negroes has been subjected to attack because the white people of Alabama demanded the plum, and it was claimed compromised him into seeing their view. Dr. Moton's friends deny these charges as absurd, and say that he practically broke with the white people in the town of Tuskegee and Montgomery on the subject. Others have criticized Henry lLncoln Johnson because of his activity in rounding up eligibles and "appointing" them, without consultation, but it is reported here upon good authority that he was commissioned by the "powers that be" to go out nad bring in the men. As a lawyer, it is pointed out he would not necessarily be supposed to know all about medical qualifications. "He was obeying orders," said one Washingtonian, in on the know. On the other hand there are many who profess to believe that eventually control of the hospital will be turned over to the colored group.

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, June 6.—Production of cotton is increasing rapidly in Brazil. The hope and endeavor of the Brazilian administration is that cotton in the near future should be as important a product as coffee has been. The export of cotton in 1921 was 19,600 tons, and for 1923 24,000 tons.

PARS, June 6.—Speculation is rife here over a report from Egypt htat George Gould, the American financier, was a victim of "the African Pharaoh curse" of King Tut. Mr. Gould and his second wife were travelling in Egypt when the tomb was opened. He visited it and joked with Lord Carnarron, since dead, about the superstition. Within a few days both Gould and his nephew, Frank J. Gould, contracted heavy colds. After Carnarvon's death the financier is said to have worried a great deal over the mystery and legend, and though he was a strong and robust man when he came to Europe, he wasted away to less than 100 pounds at the end.

The letter was from Alfred W. Martin of the Ethical Culture Society of New York, who went to France to appeal from the decision to the French Government officials in charge of the school.

Washington, D. C. June 6.—Declaring that the Negro population is leaving South Carolina rapidly and that in his opinion many more were going to leave, Senator Dial of that State said today:

"While many people think that this is to the advantage of the South—and it may be in the long run—yet serious consequences will result to many landowners in the very near future. Some may say that we will get white population to take the place of the Negro—and this is to be hoped—but it cannot be done at once."

The Senator who has been investigating the possibility of securing foreign labor to replace the migrants had a long interview with the Swedish and Norwegian ministers. These gentlemen informed him he said that many of their countrymen had come to America but that they usually sought the middle west as it had a climate similar to their native country. He said in effect that they were splendid agriculturists but hardly interested in growing cotton. The senator advises southern farmers to grow more diversified products and make cotton a surplus crop. Such a possibility he suggests, is a long way off.

Kansas City, Mo., June 6.—The Southern Baptist Convention, white, in session here endorsed the establishment of a theological Seminary for Negroes in Nashville, Tenn. It was decided to appropriate $300,000 to purchase the St. Cecilia Academy, now a Catholic girl's school in the Tennessee city, providing the cash was available and that $50,000 a year be set aside from the $75,000,000 campaign for its support.

Several Nashville churches, objected on the ground that the institution is in the center of a white residential district and to establish the seminary there might excite race prejudice. Dr. Sutton E. Griggs appealed to the convention to provide for the seminary. The next meeting of the convention will be in Atlanta in 1924.

Montreal, Canada, June 6.—The Southern Presbyterian Church is holding its annual session in the chilling climes of Canada this year. One of the chief questions before the body has been the question of whether or not to remain in the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. This organization is fathering the inter-racial movement and in the report made by its president, Dr. Robert Speer, great stress was laid on this effort on the part of the council.

Characterising what he termed the racial problem as one of the greatest confronting the nation, the speaker asserted there must be a common ground for discussion and for the study of experience and information of the past year. Cooperation in promoting religious education and the maintenance of friendship among churches were given as other reasons for sustaining the council, Dr. Speer adding that the proper course for the church to follow "is not to withdraw but to contribute and guide the activities and policies of the council all that we can."

Indianapolis, Ind. June 6.—Wm. Jennings Bryan, now in Florida, from whence it is said he hopes to emerge in his quadrennial race for the presidency with the solid backing of the Solid South, last out in his fight to become Moderator of the Presbyterian Assembly in annual session here, before defeated by Dr. Charles F. Wishart of Wooster College.

Mr. Bryan who is fighting the theory of Darwinism and evolution, claiming it irreligious to believe that the white man ascended from a monkey, is making the round of the religious conventions. He left after his defeat for Kansas City, where he addressed the Southern Baptists.

The thirteen boards of the church have been merged into four. An effort was made by the colored delegates to have these boards adapted so as to give one or two colored members places on each board. This plea did not carry but the following resolution was adopted:

"That it is the sense of the assembly that racial groups be given representation on the boards of the church as soon as possible and so far as may be expedient."

New York, N. Y. June 6.—"Tuskegee Finds the Way Out" is the title of the latest film success, which was shown for the first time last week to the teachers, students and friends of Columbia University, who filled the Horace Mann Auditorium to capacity. The opinion was unanimous that it is the most entertaining educational film that has been shown.

The new picture is in seven reels and tells the story of Booker T. Washington's life work. It is the great educator's vision. In "Tuskegee Finds the Way Out" there is a note of human interest that is sustained throughout. One is both entertained and educated by this latest screen novelty. The photography is worthy of praise.

After the New York engagements the picture will be shown throughout the country under the direction of Charles Winter Wood. It was made by the Crusaders Film Company, New York.

New Haven, Conn. June 6.—The Dixwell Avenue Congregational Church of which Rev. Edward F. Goin is the pastor and has been ever since he took charge, coming direct from Oberlin College many ago, is to have an up-to-date Community House adjoining the Church on the South.

In a recent campaign for the Community House $40,000 was raised and building the structure will begin just as soon as conditions warrant. $80,000 is the estimated amount as the minimum requirement for the building and equipment.

There are between seven and eight thousand colored people in New Haven. Aside from what the colored churches attempt with the most limited. There is no directed place and there is no place in the whole city where colored boys or girls may participate in indoor athletics.

The Dixwell Avenue Congregational Church, because of its strategic location in the very heart of the colored settlement, has for some years carried on a program of community betterment. Miss Emmy P. Drake, a product of Fisk University, is the social worker. The support given the effort to build a Community House attest the faith of the city in both Dr. Goin and Miss Drake.

Dr. Hodgdon as a General officer of the Church is making official visits to all our Congregational Churches, and we are very fortunate in having his services for Sunday morning. He is an attractive speaker, and a splendid treat is in store for the members and friends of this Congregation. Good services marked the day on last Sunday. The Pastor occupied the pulpit at both hours, speaking in the morning on: "The Advantages of Remembering Christ." Text: "This do in Remembrance of me." In the evening he used as his subject: "Self Testing." A large number of members and friends partook of the Lord's Supper which was administered at the close of each service. Last Sunday Holy Communion was administered and a great spiritual sermon was delivered by the pastor from St. Luke 9:67. "No man having put his hand to the plough, looking back is fit for the kingdom of God.

At 8 p. m. the text was found in Rev. 22:17. The pastor preached another inspiring sermon helping us to give ourselves a self-examination.

Mr. George Holland of Monrovia rendered a beautiful solo at the morning hour in a very pleasing manner. We shall always be glad to have him in our midst.

The Bible Class and V. C. E. Societies are still making strides in interesting services. We invite you to meet with us and study God's word. Bible Class 5:30 Christian Endeavor 6:30.

The services here last Sunday were above the average in attendance and spiritual influence. The S. S. was well attended and the lessons were interesting.

The morning service was a General Class and Sacramental Service. The congregation well mixed with visitors and a goodly number communed. The power of the holy spirit was impressively manifested.

The Endeavor was exceedingly well attended and the young people took a very active part. The night service was also attended by a goodly number of visitors. The pastor spoke from the text, Go, teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the father, and the son and the holy ghost.

The congregation gave strict attention to the speaker. The gleaning from the rally are still coming in.

Next Sunday will be transfer day, let there be a full attendance and a liberal offering.

All services at our church were in keeping with the spirit of the day. Pastor Mitchell filled the pulpit both morning and evening. A most excellent exposition was given upon the subject, "Take no thought for the morrow, for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof."

The text was made easy to understand, with the revision.

Today's own troubles are quite enough for the day. In the evening, "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" Both sermons were instructive. The Bible School and the Y. P. S. C. E. had healthy meetings. The pastor will bring to us next Sunday special messages at the regular services. We invite non-church goers to meet us at 33rd and Hooper at 11:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. Good singing.

FOUNTAIN CHAPEL, Duarte, Calif.
Rev. William Prince, Pastor.

The barbecue given by the Ladies of the Missionary Society of the church on the 30th, drew a large crowd from Pasadena and Los Angeles. A fine program was rendered in the afternoon. Rev. J. W. Price of Watts and Rev. Gantt were the speakers for the occasion which was enjoyed by all. The Ladies took in $36, which is to be added to the Rally giving us a total of a little more than Four Hundred Dollars for which we are very thankful.

Miss Jennie Lockett, our superintendent of Sunday School, is laid up with a sprained ankle. Mr. Leslie William King and Miss Blanche Foote were united in marriage at the home of Mrs. Beckham, Saturday. The parents of the young people and a few friends were present. Th young bride and groom will spend their honeymoon with their aunt, Mrs. Beckman. Rev. William Prince performed the ceremony.

Last Sunday will be remembered as a particular day. The pastor preached at the Morning Service to a fine congregation. We had a wonderful time together.

Rev. Pollete, the ex-P. E. of the A. M. E. Zion church, preached at the evening service and his good wife, sister Pollette joined the church and the fire broke out again and is still burning.

Elder Wm. A. Washington, Pastor

The Pastor preached two wonderful sermon on last Lord's Day. Subject for Sunday morning sermon: Christ the Perfect Example, found in Acts 17:29-31. This sermon came as a direct answer to prayer in these days when everything and everybody is lifted up as an example but the Christ. We were exhorted to live Christ-like in our daily life. The o'clock, baptizing was held at the church.

Mid-Week Services

WALL ST. CHRISTIAN CHURCH—

Our services were excellent on last Lord's day. Our Bible School was well attended. Being Childrens' Day, we gave an extra touch to the service.

Rev. Jacobs preached in the morning. Subject, "Trusting the Promises of God. Text, First Corinthians 4-9. The 9th verse has the promise of reward for the laborer. The 9th verse shows we are laboring together with God. He brought us a wonderful message from God's word. He spoke impressively and all were pleased and seemed to be edified. Sister Keith, our missionary, had a splendid meeting. We also raised a collection for our national convention which will be held in Kansas City, Mo., this year. In the evening Rev. F. C. Cothran brought us a beautiful message—subject, "The New Birth." Text John 3: 3-5. He showed the necessity of being born again. Not of the flesh but of the spirit, by which we become a new creation in Christ. Rev. Cothran, his wife and two daughters were identified with the Wall Street Christian Church at E. 9th and Wall Streets, by relation. All are welcome to come and worship with us.

Elders: HOLLINS, BOOTH and HOPPER.

TRINITY BAPTIST CHURCH—
West 36th St. and Normandie Ave.

Sunday services were of that usual high order which is characteristic of a fast growing church. Our Sunday School continues to grow in interest. At eleven o'clock the service was given over to covenant meeting. Many beautiful testimonies were heard. The Holy Spirit was in evidence. The theme was, O magnify the Lord with me. The B. Y. P. U. was largely attended. At the evening service the pastor spoke on the Atonement. His text was taken from Isa. 53:6. It was enjoyed by all. Sunday, June 10th will be rally day. Come out and help us go over the top. On the fourth Sunday evening our Pastor will preach a special sermon to the graduates of Trinity Church. All graduates are urged to be present.

Sunday will be Old Folks Day. Let us all be present. Pray for us all and help us.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH—
Y. M. C. A. Hall, Hooper and 23rd Sts.
Rev. H. H. Brown, Pastor

We had excellent services all day last Sunday. Our Sunday School was well attended and the Lesson was interestingly brought home to the children. Dr. Brown's subject at the 11 o'clock service was, "Encouragement"—He used for his text—Luke V:4—"Launch out in the Deep." The service was uplifting and all received benefit. The B. Y. P. U. was in its usual session and discussed the Subject of The Lord's Supper. The discussion was spirited and brought out many points of interest and that to the profit of all. At night we were again blessed with a very helpful discourse by the Pastor. This Sunday night we will observe the Lord's Supper and extend the hand of fellowship to new members. Do not fail to be with us Sunday morning at which time we will observe Children's Day.

Keep in mind the Rally on the last Sunday of this month.

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH—

Rev. A. Milton Ward, Minister

The Rev. Dr. J. W. Johnson will occupy the pulpit Sunday at 11 a. m. and at 7:45 p. m. there is to be a special program by the young people, conducted by Payne Middleton, Field Secretary of the Allen C. E. League. The subject of the evening will be "Our Church of Tomorrow;" and the young people are to make up the entire officiary of the church. Special music by the Choir will be a feature of each service. Mr. Middleton will also conduct a special song service in connection with the evening meeting.

Interesting and inspiring services were held with the Rev. H. B. Gantt as acting pastor. Rev. Gantt preached morning and evening. The Choir furnished excellent music and there were four accessions to the membership of the church. Holy Communion was celebrated at both services; and a baby was baptised at the morning service.

There were seven accessions to the Sunday School last Sunday. The blue ship under Captain Johnson took a slight lead on the red ship. The latter is under the captaincy of Miss Gertrude Henry.

TOM THUMB WEDDING DELUXE

The Tom Thumb Wedding participated in by Miss Jessie Lee Hamilton as the bride; Master George Phillips Lee, bridegroom, with their attendant brideamaids, grooms, ring-bearers, flower bearers, with Master James Wilson as minister, at the Birch St. Christian Church on last Monday evening, was a gala affair and indeed furnished an entertaining feature unusual in the extreme.

Another feature was the vamps who followed the bridal party which was accentuated by Mendelshon's Wedding March to the delectation of all who were present.

This highly creditable affair was by Mrs. Jessie Strider on 1508 E. 15th St., who staged the scene and instructed the children. She had the valuable assistance of Mrs. A. C. Richardson and others.

Great credit is due Mr. Strider for the exquisite decorations in evidence. Prospective June brides take a tip: See Mr. Strider for floral decorations!

Reception for Assemblyman Roberts

The accusation that his own received him not cannot be justly hurled at The Forum and the —see Copy few, who met at Wesley Chapel, Friday evening to pay homage to Hon. Fredrick W. Roberts and his wife. No potentate, so far as pomp and style indicate, could have desired more attention and oratorical display than that exhibited during the evening.

The program moved without a hitch for it is common consent that there was plenty of good music, music that touched the heart, and well chosen addresses, replete with oratory and thought. Mr. Titus Alexander presented Atty. Alston as the Master of Ceremonies. With timely remarks Mr. Alston explained the purpose and intent of the occasion, and then called upon the only C. M. E. Choir to furnish music, and it did. Among its numbers was the suggestive and appealing Negro National Anthem by Johnson and they sang it as only the C. M. E. Choir can sing. Prof. Moore on behalf of the citizens of Los Angeles started the melee and it grew on and on until Editor J. B. Bass of the California Eagle waxed eloquent with his "Sambo" story. His Sambo so illustriously woke up in the assembly until vociferous "Amens" greeted the end of that nap. On the whole the program was one of merit for a meritorious occasion. Mr. Roberts was all that was said of him and more. His record in the assembly has been one of cool, calm, calculating effort, unstinted praise was his Friday evening and he felt it.

Before the response by Mr. Roberts he was presented with a token of appreciation and esteem. So great was the feeling and reaction that he fell amiss fro many seconds trying to realize if it was true. Refreshments closed the evening of a momentous and memorable occasion.

One of Black Star Line's Majesty's Multitudinous "Knights" Says "Honorable Chief Played The Races. Garvey's Rear Silenced. "Sir" Sidetracked.

Garvey played the races and "went broke," Sydney de Bourg, Knight Commander, Order of the Nile, and Leader of the Far Western Province of the West Indies, Duke of Uganda, Duke of Nigeria, etc., etc.—all titles graciously donated to him by the Hon. Marcus Garvey, Provisional President of Africa, President General of the Universal Negro Improvement Association and the African Communities League, President of the Black Star Line and president or president-general of a score of other things, more or less on paper.

This damaging testimony, like most of the testimony so far brought out in the case of the United States Government against Marcus Garvey, was brought out by Mr. Garvey himself who, in the capacity of his own attorney gives a vivid impression of a man pounding with sledge-hammer blows on the doors of a prison in an unreasonable attempt to get in.

"Sir" Sydney had been in Jamaica with Garvey during the famous trip.

After trying to break down the witness' testimony that he had lived luxuriously while in Jamaica on the money of his deluded and fanatic followers, Garvey opened the way for a devastating bit of testimony.

"Didn't you ever live in the same house as Mr. Garvey?" he asked the witness.

"Yes, once. After you came back from the races and said you were broke you lived at the same place with me," "Sir" Sydney gave answer.

The witness later said he had told friends Mr. Garvey went to the races every day while in Jamaica.

Willing To Use People's Money

That Garvey was always willing to use the money entrusted to his care by credulous people, was brought out in his questioning of the witness, when "Sir" Sydney testified to conversations with Garvey while they were in Jamaica about the latter's use in private of money on the Black Kings ton. Garvey said, the witness testified, "I know the ship will make no money. We'll lose money, but it is necessary for propaganda purposes and to take me from place to place." Later, "Sir" Sidney brought out that $30,000 had been paid for the ship and $20,000 for royalty.

What Miss Dorsa Thought of Garvey

That Miss Henrietta Davis, Lady Protector of the U. N. I. A., and Garvey's right arm in many ways, did not think much of her chief, Sir Sydney admitted in a statement in answer to one of Garvey's questions. "She said that you were the responsible man, and that I must let you go to the edge of indiscretion and break your head," "Sir" Sydney told Garvey in answer to the burning desire to know what Garvey thinks about Marcus Garvey.

During his examination of the witness Garvey's "legal brain," which is his own description of his mentality, showed many flashes of brilliancy, and at times Garvey's questioning of the witness was of a high order. Garvey's examination of the witness will be resumed this morning.

NEW YORK, June 13.—That Marcus Garvey played the races and "went broke" at the Jamaican race tracks during his trip to the West Indies was the startling testimony brought out on Thursday by the determined witness "Sir" Sydney de Bourg, "Knight Commander, Order of the Nile, and Leader of the Far Western Province of the West Indies, Duke of Uganda, Duke of Nigeria, etc., etc.—all titles graciously donated to him by the Hon. ing all her savings in shares of the Black Star Line, and said Garvey called her a "damn foolish woman" when she pleaded with him to return her life savings.

When Garvey started his cross-examination she burst into tears and finally went into a tirade that lasted several minutes. Garvey thundered at her to behave and asked her if she would like to see him locked up? She, apparently not getting the implied idea of the majesty of the person of the "Provisional President of Africa," replied "I don't care what they do to you. It won't bring me back my money."

John S. Scott of Stamford, Conn., and Post Office inspector Oliver R. Williamson identified circulars sent through the mails extolling the glories of the Black Star Line and full of alleged false statements for the purpose of boosting the sale of stock.

—Says Garvey Purchased Men.

The trial of Marcus Garvey and his three associates in the Federal Court on an indictment charging the use of the mails to defraud, was marked the day before with demands from Judge Mack to "Come on; get on, get on." Garvey, who is trying his own case, displaying a tendency to argue with the witnesses when their answers appeared to go against him and to have them repeat answers that seemed to favor him.

Dorothy Lawson, a dressmaker, testified that she paid $100 for Black Star Line stock. Asked why she made the investment, she replied:

"I made up my mind to do it after I read about the matter in "The Negro World" and after listening to Garvey's speeches."

She received the stock from Garvey but failed, she said, to get any explanation from him after the company went bankrupt.

John Mulzac, who holds a master's license, but served as super-cargo on the "Yarmouth" also testified against Garvey. Asked by Garvey:

"Did Mr. Garvey ever deceive you?"

The witness recounted a long series of alleged deceits which he said he had suffered by the acts of Garvey. He said that he had been induced to invest money in the business, that part of his wages was still due him, and that a promise that he would be made captain of one of the ships was not kept.

Penny Marked Black Star Architects

When Marcus Garvey traveled to other cities on expeditions for the sale of stock of the Black Star Line, Inc., he went in great splendor, according to Harry R. Watkins, a lawyer, who for a time was Garvey's chief stock salesman. Garvey's suite, said the witness, consisted in part of a twenty-piece band, four singers, several orators and much paraphernalia and insignia.

These trips, the witness said, were to Washington, Philadelphia, Atlantic City, Baltimore and Pittsburgh to stock-trip. Watkins said. Director Cyr $10,000 in the sale of stock, nearly but about 60 per cent of the stock four miles were committed to the promise of the trip. Prosecutor Edwin P. Marrinan, assisted on cross-examination, that the witness and James T. Spooner, another salesman, were arrested in Youngstown, Ohio, on a charge of violating the "blue sky" law.

BARE STORY OF BONDAGE IN CAROLINA

Battle Creek, Mich., June 8.—Slaves sold from one owner to another for $15 apiece, working day after day, year after year, for small portions of food meted out to them grudgingly, was the story told by Mr. and Mrs. John Roland, who came to this city a week ago after having fled from Morgantown, N. C.

Last year Roland, his wife and daughter fell into the hands of a rich plantation owner in Morgantown. A contract was made whereby Roland was to receive $10 a month and food. Finally the "rainy season" hit North Carolina. Roland was given only corn bread and water. He went to the "boss" and informed him that his wife and baby were starving. He was told that his supply of food would be limited until the rain stopped.

Roland and his wife, carrying their 4-months-old baby, fled by night. They finally reached Greensboro, Ga., from where relatives sent them on to Battle Creek. A North Carolina sheriff followed and asked Gov. Groesbeck of Michigan to send them back. Citizens secured the services of Attorney John C. Davis, who rescued the Rolands from the North Carolina officer. Extradition was refused.

PLEADS BEFORE SUPREME COURT

YOUNG ATTORNEY MAKES BRILLIANT SPEECH AND MERITS PRAISE

We are pleased to note that the Supreme Court of California, sitting in bank, heard a member of the race on a very important cast last Monday afternoon.

The case of Lawrence Cosey against the L. A. Railway Company has been pending for some time in the lower court. Attorney Afue McDowell secured a verdict for $1,000 against the railway company.

On appeal the Appelate Court thought this excessive to pay a colored youth for being kicked off a car, and consequently reduced the amount to $500 without costs. Undaunted, Atty. McDowell petitioned for a rehearing which the Supreme Court granted and heard last Monday afternoon. A decision has not been reached as yet but it is safe to congratulate both the young attorney, Mr. McDowell and the parents of the young man for fighting the case to an end. Few are successful in their suits against the big corporations and those few of our race who do have plausible cases are afraid to spend money and time in the prosecution thereof. This matter affects not only Mr. Cosey, but Mr. McDowell has made it costly to kick anyone when it means a fee of one thousand dollars.

GERMAN PROPAGANDA CUTS LOOSE AGAIN

(Crusader Service)

COLOGNE, June 11.—The German capitalists, hard pressed by Communist workers who are up in arms in the Ruhr and in Saxony, have long been hunting about for something to make an issue out in order to rouse Entente public opinion against the French occupation which they argue is considerably hampering the capitalist white guards in the war with the Communists. Not finding anything new, the German capitalists have returned to chew upon the oft-disproved and utterly repudiated statements of barbarities and atrocities committed by African troops upon the German population, and especially of sex outrages upon German women and boys.

A statement has been sent out to the effect that in the ancient German town of Trier, or the French Treves, close to Luxemburg border, French African troops are terrorizing the population who are living in "veritable terror" of these men.

"Moroccan troops harry through the streets of Trier," says the inspired report, "Bedouin spahis and Arab chieftains from the Sarahn desert stand smoking cigarettes observing the panorama-ley. With their brown and white uniforms and floating red robes, under which swoops gleam, they are exactly the American idea of chiefs. Among the African troops are numerous coal black Negroes dressed as Moroccans. The people live in veritable terror of these men. A German does not dare to speak in the hotel lobbies or on the street, but takes a visitor to a private room and demands a glass of sherry before speaking freely, alleging that French spies are everywhere.

"Accusations against the French African troops of misdeeds against women and boys have been made numerously to the French authorities by the city officials."

ATTY. W. O. TYLER SPEAKS ON SOCIAL EQUALITY

SPEECH DELIVERED FOR N. A. A. C. P. ATTRACTS LARGE CROWD

Every man has the unqualified right to choose for himself the people who are to associate with him on terms of social intimacy, those who shall come in his home, sit at his table, and enjoy his leisure hours, should be chosen by the individual independent of laws or statutes. This, as the Cosey that a man's home is his castle and is sacred to him. Whom one should marry, dance with, sit at the club with, are matters purely social and depend upon individual choice entirely.

But when a man leaves his home and walks into the streets there is a certain price he must pay for the benefits the government under which he lives bestows upon him. It is hard to conceive how a man riding on a street car gets the idea that the street car service is instituted and maintained solely for his benefit or that the right to nominate the passengers belongs to him any more than to any other person that does not own the line. I have never seen a definition of "social equality" and cannot say what it is, but it is clear what it is not.

Is it not social equality for a citizen of this republic to want equal protection of the laws; a Negro goes into a hotel for a bed or a meal because he is sleepy or hungry and no sane person would be heard to say that two men sleeping under the same roof in a hotel become "social equals" because they happen to be sojourning in the same town at the same time and find their way to the same hotel. Negroes ride upon trains because they must travel and eat because they are hungry,—they seek work because they must work and want education for themselves and children because these things are essential to happiness and good citizenship.

Civil rights,—the guarantees of the constitution, and justice under the law, these are the things the Negro insists upon having. Either the 13th, 14th and 15th Amendments are good or no part of the Constitution is good. If the 15th Amendment cannot be enforced, no part of the Constitution can be enforced. Oppression and the domineering spirit which subjects the Negroes to violence and to the fraud that deprives them of the equal protection of the laws, of their liberty, and of their vote, must be paid for not only by the Negroes but by the white people as well. Our effort is to so awaken the public conscience to these matters that they will come out of fairness and right before the price to be paid for them will make inroads on our republic which will undermine

LOCAL REALTY CO. BUYS LAND

PLANS LARGE SUB-DIVISION FOR RACE PEOPLE

The Oklahoma Investment Company has opened the road to the great field of agriculture. Good acreage has recently been put on the market for colored people, which heretofore has been a very difficult problem for our folk to procure, owing to the high prices, etc.

The Oklahoma Investment Company has partially solved the ranch situation among race people in and around Los Angeles. Mr. K. C. Venerable, head of the firm is working to appeal to all who desire to make a good [illegible] investment. Mr. Venerable said in part to the writer:

We are indeed glad to tell the public of this wonderful chance to become independent for life. We are exceedingly fortunate by being able to get such a valuable tract of land which has been divided into little acre ranches, plenty of water, partly surrounded by cultivation. We are sorry to say that we have only ten of these little acres left. You might further inform the public that they are located near Baldwin Park, which is only a few minutes ride from Central Ave. Limited space prevents our giving a full description of this property. We advise all who are interested to call at 1804 So. Central Ave. and talk the matter over with us, or call Phone 20026 and get further information.

The Negro is a born American and he feels that this is his country. He does not ask for any special legislation in his favor. He is willing to take his chance and is confident that he can bear his own burdens as well as the other races. He only asks to be let alone that he may expand and develop into a stalwart American citizen.

A TRIBUTE TO THE CRISIS MAGAZINE

By: E. J. Moore

NOTE: Because of the strenuous fight which The Crisis Magazine has been waging for the past thirteen years against lynching, peonage and vested conditions as they obtain, particularly in the Southern states, I volunteered to pay this tribute.

Thou mighty champion of a race, fight on!
Like Cato of old, thou dost continually grind;
Nor for one moment canst thou cringe or condone;
The victory, though long deferred, must be thine.

Do thou fight on and fiery words with truth unbiassed,
Put thou in our mouths, and make us to feel
And know what infinite power thou hast occasioned;
Thou that speakest with a thunderous peal.

Fight on, D'Cruis! thou idol of a race
Whose hearts beat with admiration for thy mighty shield;
And with tears of mingled joy and gratitude we greet
Thy message of "hope" unceasingly to man.

KLAN PUTS WREATH ON SOLDIERS

SHAFTS TORN OFF BY CROWD
Rockville Center Trustees Order It Replaced and It Is Again Snatched Away.

(Crusader Service)

ROCKVILLE CENTRE, L. I. June 13.— Flowers from the Ku Klux Klan are not wanted on the soldier's monuments at Lynbrook and Rockville Centre. Following Memorial Day Exercises at these towns, parades advanced with flowers to the monuments and found wreaths bearing cards from the Kluxers already in place. They were thrown aside.

At Lynbrook a man bearing the Knights of Columbus wreath found the flowers left by the Klan. The crowd murmured angrily when he announced the discovery, and its indignation was only satisfied when the Klan wreath had been removed. Then Surrogate Leon Howell of Nassau County, a speaker, assailed the masked night riders.

At this town, Rockville-Centre, Samuel W. Ellis removed the Klan's wreath, and shortly afterward persons who refused to give their names telephoned the town authorities and insisted the wreathes be replaced. The Village Trustees ordered it put back. But it did not stay back long. Early ysterday morning it was snatched away by an unidentified man. This time it was not replaced.

Mr. Ellis, who was responsible for the first removal of the wreath, insists the trustees exceeded their authority in ordering it replaced. The memorial monument was paid for by the Legion members and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Among the fourteen names are those of Catholics, Jews and Negroes. These are the people assailed by the Klan. We felt that these men who died in the service of their country would not want the tribute of such a un-American organization as the Klan.

AXE MURDERS BAFFLE BIRMINGHAM POLICE

Limited Intellects of Southern Police Unable to Solve Series of Nineteen Similar Murders.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 13.—Another example of the low mentality of the average Southern police force is given in the pitiful inability of the police of this city to solve a series of axe assaults which have taken place in the last forty-two months and have taken the lives of nineteen persons and resulted in injuries to seventeen others.

The latest victim of the axe assaults is Charley Graffeo, white, who was found dead last night with his skull crushed and his throat slashed. A blood-spattered axe stood behind the door. The dead man's pockets had been rifled and the store robbed.

While the attacks in some cases apparently have had robbery as the motive, in others they were regarded as the result of quarrels between Negroes who had stolen property and whites who were acting as "fences." The fact that several of the victims happened to be Negroes lead the Birmingham police to this brilliant deduction. In the meantime, the murders go unsolved, the perpetrator or perpetrators unarrested.

THE WORD NEGRO

No. 2 in a Series. Dr. David Newton Campbell Says It Should Be Abolished—Unlike Other Race Designations It Has No Ethnological Authority, and Connotes Shame and Degradation, He Says.

(By Dr. D. N. E. Campbell for Crusader Service)

Like charity, house-cleaning should begin at home. In the commendable endeavor for reform and uplift, Race Leaders should correct that long-standing misnomer "NEGRO" imposed upon the Afro-American Group by the common enemy. For the following reasons the word should be abolished.

Origin of Word "Negro"

1. The word "Negro" was applied incidentally to human beings for the first time by an ignorant Portuguese peddler traveling in Africa. Excited by the approach of some dark objects coming toward him, the Portuguese spoke thus:: "Camaradas! miro! miro! negroes——"

The excited Portuguese did not know what were the objects he saw walking toward him. Had he known, he would have completed his sentence. But he did not. See the dash after the word "Negro." He used "negro" as an adjective, a word which means 'black' in his language. NEGRO has been fastened on the Colored Race as a noun by slave-traders as a fitting badge of inferiority, and a reproachful and suitable word for slaves.

Unlike Other Race Designations, "Negro" Has No Ethnological Authority.

2. By geographical boundaries all other RACES are named, classified and distinguished save the so-called "NEGRO." Thus the Greeks are called Greeks because they are from Greece; Italians from Italy; Germans from Germany; Russians from Russia; Japanese from Japan; Chinese from China; Turks from; Turkey Jews from Judea and Jerusalem; Spaniards from Spain; Portuguese from Partugal; Indians from India, and we may continue ad infinitum.

Now, let us take this reproachful name "Negro." Unlike the other mentioned Races above, as the misnomer "Negro" any geographical location? No! If Consistency is a Jewel, should not our Race-Group have its geographical location also? Afro-American is the appropriate word, because it places the colored group geographically. What have you to say?

Biblical Ethnological Authority

3. The bible is the oldest ethnological authority. There is no place in the Bible where the Colored Race is called "NEGROES." In the Bible names of RACES are geographical also. In some instances Groups and Races are designated by tribal distinctions, such as Hebrews from Heber; Hamites from Ham; Cushites from Cush, etc. By what right or authority then should this reproachful name "Negro" be fastened upon the colored Group? It should be abolished! It should not be printed in any decent, progressive, or up-to-date Afro-American journal or newspaper.

Not Responsible

4. It should be remembered that Afro-Americans have been ONLY lingual WARDS of the Dominant Race (our common enemy). They have heard the word NEGRO all their lives, and should be excused from loving the word NEGRO so much, though dressed from the first to the last letter in the cap and gown of reproach. The lingual WARD'S environment excuses them in the past to accept and retain NEGRO; but there is no excuse for Race Leaders now to continue the use of such misnomer.

(NOTE: This question, brought up at the Conference of the Civil Rights Organizations in New York City, March 23-24, will undoubtedly be forced to the front in the All-Race Assembly which that Conference has called to meet sometime before April, 1923. If our readers have any views on the subject they would like to express they are advised to send them to the offices of this paper direct or to the Crusader News Service, 2299 Seventh Avenue, New York City, under whose auspices the present discussion was begun.)

NEW YORK, June 6.—Benjamin Kossoner, a young Jewish boy from the Bronx, is champion harmonica player of New York, but a close second treading on the heels of Ben's notes all the way is Herbert Leonard, a colored lad who lives in Harlem. These two were the leaders in a mouth organ contest which was open to the boys of New York, and they won from a flock of contestants who had come from all sections of the city.

Young Kossoner by his rendition of classical music and popular ballads won the approval of the three judges, but Leonard whose color made him stand out in bold relief against the field, won his place by ability to play the jazziest of jazz. He extracted notes from the harp such as no harmonica ever gave forth before.

Where to Attend Church

WESLEY CHAPEL.
9th and San Julian Sts.
Rev. A. P. Shaw, Pastor

The pastor filled the pulpit at both services Sunday. The usual good crowd, composed to a very large degree of young people, was present. The only Wesley Choir rendered numbers, sweet and appropriate. Mrs. Markham at the organ offered the evening's feature, a 15-minute organ recital of pieces familiar and dear. Next Sunday the children reign supreme. It is Children's Day. In the morning the pastor will preach his annual educational sermon which is expected to be an offering, precious for its inspiration and advice. The children take charge in the evening and they will be allowed to produce their wares as delightfully as they choose.

Next Tuesday night the Literary Society is offering a spicy entertaining program. Everybody is urged to spend this evening with the young people.

The Young People's League continues to grow in attendance and interest each Sunday evening. The Brotherhood of the Church is planning a unique program composed of men only the evening of June 15th. There are many departments of the Church which need working up, sick to be visited, strangers to be met and many phrases of life and church work which must be attended to. The challenge is for better, more friendly and sociable church fellowship.

SECOND A. M. E. CHURCH
1726 East 53rd Street
Rev. Robert House, Pastor.

Sunday School, 9:30 A. M., Preaching 11 A. M., subject: A Perfect Life Lived on Earth. A. C. E. League 7 to 8 p. m., Preaching 8 P. M., Subject "How to Get Things Done."

Last Sunday our Children's Day Anniversary services were well attended with a high spirit of enthusiasm. Three children were added to the church by the Sacred Rite of Baptism. We are still praising God from whom all blessings flow.

Come, you are welcome to worship with us.

FIRST A. M. E. ZION CHURCH.
Cor. Pico and Paloma.
Rev. W. E. Shaw, Pastor.
Res. 1217 Paloma Ave.

The services on last Sunday were excellent and the pastor thrilled our hearts with two wonderful spiritual sermons. The morning text was found in Matt. 3:14—"I have need to be baptized of Thee." Evening subject: Phil. 1:28—"Evident Tokens of Perdition."

These messages are so inspiring and powerful, they shall ever live in our hearts making us better men and women. There were several accessions to the church during the day.

The clubs reported very favorably on the class leaders Rally but a few more dollars must be gleaned by next Sunday to make the payment on the mortgage. Have you done your part? An excellent program was rendered at the Varick Christian Endeavor hour. This auxiliary in hand with the bible class invite you to take part in their meetings.

Keep off the date of July 10th—Big Mount Lowe Trolley Trip. Everybody is invited to bring along their friends and enjoy a day's outing.

This church extends to you a cordial welcome to all her services. Make it your church home if you haven't one.

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH
8th and Towne Ave.
Rev. A. Milton Ward, Minister

Rev. C. W. Bryant will occupy the pulpit Sunday morning and evening. Special music by both Choir at 11 a. m., and by the Senior Choir under direction of Organist Elmer C. Bartlett at 7:45 p. m.

Dr. J. W. Johnson was greeted by a large audience on Sunday morning and he delivered a good gospel sermon. Mrs. Leon Prather was the soloist and both choirs inspired the audience with good singing.

"Our Church of Tomorrow" conducted by Payne Middleton, Field Secretary of the A. C. E. League with the young people of the church in action in all departments of the church took the place of the regular evening services on Sunday night. The affair was largely attended and was pronounced "very good." Mr. Middleton delivered an interesting address and the singing by the Junior Choir including the anthem was inspiring. The address by the S. S. Supt. of tomorrow—Little Wm. Beverly was marvellous. The stewards, trustees, stewardesses, ushers and all took delight in serving their church.

The regular Children's Day program will be given on Sunday night June 24th.

Pastor Ward wires that Western University has closed another successful year with President F. Jones at the helm. Bishop Parks preached three times on Sunday morning, three times on Sunday and week day. Ward spent part of this the old fa[illegible] Sweet Springs Mo. at of his boy days.

The Sunday School was [illegible] ed, the lesson ably taught by [illegible] superintendent and teachers. The pastor filled the pulpit at both morning and evening service. At eleven o'clock his text was taken from Mal. 3:8—Will a Man Rob God? From the effort put forth in the Rally Trinity's answer was "No." For in three minutes $221.50 was laid on the table. The B. Y. P. U. led by Miss Francis Spikes is still [illegible] interesting programs. At night [illegible] served to the aged. A church for the people, with a welcome for all.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH.
Holding its Services in the Y. M. C. A.
9th and Hemlock Sts.
H. D. Prowd, Pastor

Truly the Lord was with us all day on Sunday. Right on the dot at 9 a. m. the Superintendent opened the exercises of Children's Day, and the program was an excellent one. The songs, the recitations, and the Lesson of the morning were up-lifting, and really opened the way for the day of spiritual delight. The teachers and the children deserve the highest commendation for their splendid renditions. At the 11 o'clock service the text was taken from Exodus 2:3—"And she laid it in the flags at the river's brink." The life of Moses was brought to the attention of the audience with telling effect, and to the edification of all. The B. Y. P. U. program was profitably carried out at the usual hour. The President announced a gentleman of learning and distinction as the speaker for the coming Sunday evening. The Rev. Dr. Young was present and spoke words of encouragement and cheer to the Young people. After the right hand of fellowship the Lord's Supper was observed with marked solemnity and comfort. Dr. Young gave us a very helpful address on the Holy Eucharist. We heartily invite all to attend our services of the coming Sunday, Dr. Young will preach at 11 o'clock, and Prof. E. W. Kyle of Denver will address the B. Y. P. U. at 7: p. m. Come praying for a blessing.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.
34th Street and Central Ave.
Rev. E. E. Lightner Pastor

The worshippers of this church enjoyed two excellent services the past Sunday. Rev. F. W. Hodgdon, of Boston Mass. was the speaker at the morning service. Text: "They require thy Soul." The splendid singing by the Choir elicited words of commendation from Mrs. Hodgdon, whose life work has been in the musical world. Miss Minnie Payne, recently of Athens Ga., was the Soloist at the morning service, and thrilled the audience in rendering: "The Lord is my Light." The Pastor filled the pulpit at the evening hour speaking on: "Proud of the Gospel."

This Sunday, June 17th will be observed as Children's Day. The Pastor will bring an appropriate message at the morning service. In the evening the Children of the Sunday School will render a program. You are cordially invited to worship with us at all these services.

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH—
14th and Birch Sts.

The last Lord's Day services were well attended as usual. Rev. Bro. J. Williams who is acting in the capacity of the minister preached two strong sermons. At the 11 o'clock hour he preached from the subject of Unity, St. John 17:11. At the evening hour he spoke from the 4th Chapter of 2 Timothy verse 7.

Services next Lord's Day as usual—Bible School at 9:45 A. M., Preaching at 11 A. M., Young People's Meeting at 7 P. M. and Preaching at 8 P. M. Prayer Meeting on Thursday Eve., 8 to 9 P. M. P. W. Zollar leader of Prayer Meeting. The public is made welcome always to this Church of Christ.

CHRIST TEPLE CHURCH—
Cor. 27th and Naomi Sts.
Elder C. P. Jones, Pastor

The Lord was with His people here Sunday, and most glorious services were held throughout the entire day.

Sunday School opened at 9:45 a. m. Brother T. H. Smith assistant superintendent presiding. Many beautiful and practical lessons were gotten from the life of Nehemiah.

At 11:30 a. m., Pastor C. P. Jones delivered a most glorious message from the text: "Return unto thy rest, O my soul; for the Lord hath dealt bountifully with thee." Ps. 116:7. We believe that the power of the Holy Spirit was felt by every person present. At the close of the sermon, when the Pastor extended an invitation to those who desired prayer for conversion or more spiritual strength, every young person in the house—and there were many—gave him their hand.

The young people held a good Union meeting at 6:45 p. m. Mr. Fred McAlister presiding. Mr. Jefferson Brown delivered an interesting address which was replete with helpful information.

For evening services the Pastor delivered a message full of power from Mal. 4:1-3. Everyone who heard and received the message was wonderfully helped thereby.

A two-weeks series of revival meetings will begin Sunday night, the 17th instant. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

WALL ST. CHRISTIAN CHURCH
8th and Wall Streets.

We had good services all day the past Sabbath. The audience seemed to be empowered. Rev. F. C. Cothran preached at the services and brought us two wonderful messages. He has lost none of his old time zeal, notwithstanding of his many unpleasant experiences since he has been in this work. He is truly a plain Gospel [illegible]. IN THE MUSIC WORLD

By: JOHN A. GRAY

It is interesting to note the amount of activity on the part of businessmen in the cause of music. Most of the large manufacturers and businessmen in the country are making a place for music among their employees. There are daily choruses, bands orchestras, concerts by visiting artists and many other forms of musical activity to be found among these groups. It is indeed gratifying to the musician to note these developments as it points to the future when his art will be universal. We are quoting the opinion of a few prominent men on this widely discussed subject:

Mr. Rodman Wanamaker of Philadelphia, says in this month's Etude:

"All my life I have associated Commerce, Art and Music. The installation of the noblest organ in the world in our Philadelphia Store, the jewel organ of the world in our New York Store, affording the opportunity for really notable music events, the developments of our orchestras, bands and bugle corps, the gathering in the stores of worthy paintings tapestries and other examples of the fine arts, were not to make an advertisement, but for the good that they may exert in the awakening of all our people to a higher appreciation of such things."

Dr. Frank Crane says:

"Organized labor ought to turn its attention to music. Music is perhaps the best recreation in the world. It cheers, inspires and drives away gloom. It is also the best unifier in the world. It is the best bond of comradeship."

Hon. James J. Davis, our Secretary of Labor, says:

"Every factory is a miniature republic; and the responsibilities of its statesmen are as great, in proportion, as the responsibilities of those who guide the destinies of the nation. In each of these miniature republics throughout the land music has its functions. Music makes for contentment, and a contented workman is a good workman, just as a contented citizen is a good citizen. Music as an aid to the workman is now taken really much of an accepted fact. The man who has spent the morning hours over a machine goes to lunch filled with the worries of the day's work. He is under both nervous and physical strain. Good music during his lunch time will wipe away the cares and worries of the morning and enable him to relax. It will inspire him with fresh vigor and energy and send him to his afternoon's task with a light heart and willing hands."

Thomas A. Edison says:

"Music, next to religion, is the mind's greatest solace and also its greatest inspiration. When you sit down to play existence to a higher plane you forget the world and all its cares to the body. The man who can arrange music as a background for conversation is a benefactor. It adds the feeling of [illegible]

GREAT LONE STAR CELEBRATION

Dear Friends and Members:

No doubt many of you will remember one year ago, June 19th, the Lone Star Club entertained the public with one of the biggest free barbecues ever given in California. Fifteen hundred pounds of barbecued meats were prepared and served to the Club's many friends. One of the daily papers said fifteen hundred pounds were advertised, but in their estimation, the President, M. T. Laws, must have driven a whole pan-handle herd to Santa Monica.

They are at it again. On June 19th, eighteen hours of continuous pleasure and outdoor picnic and dance. From 2:30 p. m. till 7:30, at Washington and Central avenue, the famous Black and Tan will entertain you. Following them from 8 p. m. till 12 midnite, Ory's Creole Band.

Scene of amusement will change, with an automobile and hayride to the new pleasure resort, Walton's recreation garden, Watts. Again the famous Black and Tan will entertain you at an all-nite picnic and dance.

We want you to come out, bring your basket and lunch, and meet everybody from home. Special tables will be provided for all.

Midnite vaudeville will help to entertain. Everybody should come out in honor of Abraham Lincoln!

OPEN LETTER

Dear Editor of the Eagle:

Being well aware of your kindly and charitable attitude toward your subscribers I respectfully ask that you publish this letter, with the hope that it will be helpful to those who may come after me.

A few weeks ago, I applied to a certain church for my letter, with the intention of leaving the said church as a Christian should. When I made application for the aforesaid letter, the minister of said church, who was presiding over the business meeting, forced me to keep silence, and after making several vain attempts to state my business, which was in accordance with Bentley rules and regulations, I was finally voted.

I make no comment on this circumstance; I feel that none are necessary.

Later, weary and heavy-hearted, I wandered into the Bethel Baptist Church, Wilmington, Dr. H. D. Trevit, Pastor, [illegible] and [illegible] a warm and gracious welcome, and there I am happy to say, I have found a true Christian haven where I may calm spirit and peace.

GARVEY GETS 5 YRS.

Mrs. Malone Presents Sister With Beautiful Property Site in Los Angeles

PRESENTS SISTER BEAUTIFUL HOME SITE.

ONE OF THE LARGEST CASH DEALS IN LOCAL RACE REALTY ANNALS CLOSED BY WM. H. GAMBLE.

A superb gift indeed! Who would not so consider a mansion comprising twelve rooms and a private three-room apartment?

Such is the present which Mme. Annie M. Pope Turnbo-Malone, head of the Poro College Company, St Louis, Missouri, has just made to her sister, Mrs. William Cooper of this city. This magnificent property is located at 1134 E. 23rd street and sale negotiations have just been concluded by Wm. H. Gamble, Realtor of 1207 Central avenue. The consideration involved was $12,000 cash.

This residence and its beautiful grounds comprise one of the most handsome properties in this residence district. The house is strictly modern with exquisite tast. Mrs. William Cooper, the much-to-be envied owner of the same is a long-time resident of Los Angeles, and has a host of friends and acquaintances to whom she has endeared herself by her delightful personality and lavish hospitality.

Mrs. Turnbo-Malone, of St. Louis, donor of the "gift magnificent" should need no introduction in as much as she with her husband, Mr. A. E. Malone, are the founders and managers of one of the greatest business enterprises of its kind in the world. Her beauty preparations enjoy an international reputation, and the graduates of her college, as well as the many cosmeticians, and beauty experts generally who use her "system" are considered among the best in their branch of endeavor.

In fact, it would be difficult to estimate the debt our Race womanhood owes to Mme. Turnbo Malone. After all, beauty and personal charm carry the broadest and deepest appeal in woman's age-old struggle to get not only what she fancies, but her right. And it is undeniable that beauty scores where brains, energy, even nobility of character fail to make a dent in "Mere Man." Therefore, one who devises means to enable Woman to enhance and preserve her charm and beauty, is indeed a Benefactor.

It is an eloquent tribute to Mme. Malone's sisterly generosity that she so munificently endows Mrs. Cooper, whom she expects to visit in the near future.

Wm. A. Gamble, who negotiated this noteworthy cash sale has been established in the realty field here for many years, and enjoys a well-earned and enviable reputation by reason of the efficiency and integrity which have characterized his dealings with the public.

Another deal recently closed by him is the purchase, by Mrs. Ophelia Williams, a pioneer resident of Los Angeles, and formerly of Birch street, of a beautiful modern bungalow at 318 East 32nd street. Mrs. Williams has just moved into her new home.

BEAUTIFUL RESIDENCE PRESENTED BY MRS. MALONE TO HER SISTER

COMMENTS

By: W. J. WHEATON

On this day, 146 years ago, June 14, 1777, the Continental Congress placed its official sanction on the adoption of flag, now our national emblem.

As we look from our window we see all about us evidence of patriotic loyalty as the emblem is displayed, floating from the staff, or draped from windows.

After showing that we too were imbued with the spirit of national loyalty by displaying the emblem from the window, we fell into a reverie, and found ourselves making the inquiry, What has the emblem meant in the national life of my race? Then the pages of Negro history began to unfold, and events marshalled themselves—not in orderly array—to pass in review.

First came Crispus Attucks, sink, bare and fearless. The flag must not been adopted when Attacks fell on Boston Common, but the red blood which dyed the green sward formed the basis for the stripe of red that adorns it.

Peter Salem, nor Law "The Negro" were not fighting under the flag of the day, but they made, or helped to make by their valor to the cause of America, the government over which the emblem floats.

And so on, down the line they march: Helping to repulse the British at New Orleans, or serving the guns under Perry, when the breeze from the waters of Erie streamed its challenge to the foe. They were there! Then the challenge came from traitors who wished to see the blue field with the wealth of stars, and the alternate stripes of red and white, supplanted by the stars and bars. It needed no urging to bring the black men to its rescue; they came with the marks of serfdom on their limbs. At Port Hudson they astonished the world when they carried the emblem over the parapets of the enemy. At Fort Wagner, in the rays of a declining sun they carried it into the interne of battle. When traitors tore the stars from the blue field they caught them ere they touched the ground and with their bayonet points planted them back again.

In Cuba, the Philippines: Where ever the flag has been endangered, there has the American Negro stood in its defense. When called to save the "World to Democracy" he followed the flag on the battlefields of France. Thousands of young Negro men, the direct of the race answered the call that those of the keenest sensibility and from them came the cries of woe for such the price the supreme sacrifice the ideals represented by the flag they followed.

It does not seem possible that a flag which has been defended so valiantly and supinely wave in this new life of its defenders. But it does! Every day sees them proscribed against. They are denied their Constitutional rights; the rights which were guaranteed them when they assisted in saving it to the nation. They are often denied the right to vote; they are "Jim Crowed" in travel; they are held in peonage, and they are lynched. Murdered by being burned to death, and the flag looks on complacently, and says that it is protection to protect those who murder (Continued on Page 5)

LIEUTS. GREEN AND CARROT MAKE RECORD ARREST

By: Charlotte Kimbrough

On last Monday evening, at 12th and Central Avenue, when Lieuts. Green and Garrot of the Detective Dept., L. A. P. Dept., assisted by Officer Corley, arrested Clarence Stevens, alias Walter Melvyn, alias James Sanders, alias James Martin, alias George White Lieut. Green had to work on cold cases. The much praise and credit cannot be given Lieut. Green and his co-worker Lieut. H. Garrott for the record of detective skill and honor they bring to the race.

MARCUS GARVEY GETS FIVE YEARS SENTENCE FOR FRAUD

Marcus Garvey, organizer of the Universal Negro Improvement Association, one of the most spectacular attempted Race "movements" of our time, has been found guilty of using the United States mails to defraud, and has been sentenced to five years in prison.

Charges Against Garvey

So, seemingly, ends the meteoric career of the man who launched the "Black Star" steamship line, promised his followers riches and dominion over an African empire in return for their allegiance to his order, and their financial support, and on the strength whose grandiose and impracticable promises millions have been contributed by the Garvey supporters, now rudely awakened from their dream.

Charges of corruption and extravagance were brought against and apparently substantiated, thus bringing forcibly to notice the old adage that he who would lead others, should first master himself. It is indeed to be regretted that such merits as Garvey's plan for racial regeneration and supremacy may have possessed, are now discredited through this pre-mimious end to the public career of this self-appointed leader.

The lure of the legal profession has entangled Sidney P. Dones, youthful head of the well-known Realty and Music House bearing his name, that he has announced his intention of entering Southwestern University to resume the study of law.

While Mr. Dones has completed a Correspondence Course in Law, and has specialized in several subjects at Southwestern, his new studies will comprise Criminal Law, Criminology and Psychology. (By Associated Negro Press)

Washington, D. C., June 20th: Haiti, the Black Republic of the West Indies, is again to the front. There exists there keen disappointment and depression. The Associated Negro Press is given this information from absolutely reliable sources, and unless there is a change of attitude in administration, the glowing promises of Haiti's future under American supervision, will be swept to the four winds in failure.

The Associated Negro Press has firsthand information and is giving the facts to the people of the United States in the line of public duty. This service has kept closely informed on the program under the Administration of President Harding, and the public has been led to believe that justice would be given.

The committee of the United States Senate, of which Senator Medill McCormick of Illinois is chairman gave out a report of promising import, although some parts did not meet with general approval.

Captain Marshall Deceived, Humiliated.

Captain Napoleon Bo Marshall, who was selected by the State Department to go down to Haiti as a representative of the government, and to bring about a feeling of good will between the people of the two countries, has been deceived and humiliated. Even his friends have been deceived and humiliated. Who is responsible for this?

Senator McCormick of Illinois, as chairman of the Haitian Committee, in his address in Chicago, prior to the departure of Marshall, declared publicly that he was turning over the work of the redemption of Haiti to Captain Marshall, Marshall was present. It was believed that the Senator was in earnest. The entire address was broadcast in its entirety with the full knowledge of the Illinois Senator. But from the very beginning, Marshall met a stone wall.

From the records of the State Department, Marshall is designated as a valet, and as a clerk he has been returned to Haiti. This amazing state of affairs has been known for some time, and has been the source of great amusement to the Captain's friends, who have remained silent, hoping that there might be an adjustment.

Senator McCormick Informed

The Associated Negro Press is informed that Senator McCormick, the State Department and other high officials of the government are aware of the facts in this case. When the Captain was appointed, Senator McCormick who had just returned from Haiti declared he "was resigning his position into Marshall's hands" immediately, (the revelation of the Marshall status strikes Colored America like throwing cold water in the face. The troubled mind of the group is in a state already).

Emmanuel John H. Russell, High Commissioner of Haiti, appointed through the good offices of Senator McCormick has unanimously applied himself to the task of [illegible]

James C. Dunn, Charge d' Affairs of Port au Prince, a white man, is now in Washington, and it is understood that in the face of all the humiliation through which Marshall has passed, Dunn is expected to ask for his withdrawall. Why? Marshall went to Haiti with the high purpose of being of service to his country, and the people of Haiti, in line with the expressed purposes of Senator McCormick.

Marshall did not, in the first place, seek the position. He was the most surprised man in the country when the fact was first mentioned to him. He heads a large law firm in New York; owns property, a Harvard graduate, and married the daughter of the late Judge Gibbs, who is an accomplished artist and musician. In Port au Prince, both the captain and Mrs. Marshall have entered loyally into the spirit of helpful service, and have become popular with the Haitian people, but seemingly persona non grata to white Americans who are controlling things with an iron hand. These white Americans, from all indications, do not wish Colored Americans to function on equal terms with Haitians and themselves. They have studiously ignored Captain and Mrs. Marshall socially, however, Marshall's status as a "Clerk" prevents him from being socially recognized officially. Nevertheless, President Borno, and other officials have defied custom and received both the Captain and Mrs. Marshall. On one occasion Marshall was invited to sit on the bench by a judge during a prominent trial; Marshall was refused "time" from his employment to go to the trial, it has been learned here from prominent Haitians.

Haitians themselves are saying: "If the white Americans treat Captain Marshall thus, what may we expect in justice, as Marshall represents the best in Colored American progress." The crisis has arrived, and American sincerity of purpose is placed to the acid test.

IN THE MUSIC WORLD

By: JOHN A. GRAY

"I wish to begin this summer well, to do something in it worthy of it and of me, to transcend my daily routine and mortal life now in the quality of my daily life. May the life of this summer be ever fair in my memory; may I dare as I have never done; may I persevere as I have never done; may I purify myself anew as with fire and water, soul and body. May my melody not be wanting to the season; may I attain to a youth never attained, may I gird myself to be a hunter of the beautiful, that naught escape me. I am eager to report the glory of the universe; may I be worthy to do it. It is reasonable that man should be something worthier at the end of the season than he was at the beginning.

Thus spoke Henry David Thoreau, and the prayer is so fitting at this time that we are broadcasting it for the especial benefit of the music talent. Now that the school term is about to close and vacation time is at hand, the average student feels that he should quit work in music.

If such a student would pause a moment and reflect, he could readily see that by working hard during the summer he would gain much in progress and development before the school term opened in the fall.

The summer should be the time for mental housecleaning, for the polishing up of previous knowledge acquired, for the classification of ideas, for the perfecting of plans for the future, for learning new things, and above all, the time for meditation.

The general idea that the vacation time is one for laziness, for loafing or for a continuous round of frivolity should be abolished. There is pleasure in study and work and there is always danger in idling. Of course a little relaxation is necessary but the whole summer should not be given to a butterfly existence.

If the student adopts the prayer of Thoreau, there will be no chance of wasting his youthful energy and strength in the foolish pursuit of frivolous pastimes. Such a student will find that he will be much better prepared to meet the requirements of the coming season.

Where to Attend Church

FIRST A. M. E. ZION CHURCH
Cor. Pico and Paloma
Rev. W. E. Shaw, Pastor
Res. 1217 Paloma Ave.

Very touching was the sermon preached by the pastor on last Sunday morning from 1 John 3:22. Many who heard this great message will not forget the great assurance given us in the text as a reward for obedience.

Rev. Shaw's heart is set on building up the spiritual side of our lives as well as meeting the many other problems that confront us as churches.

Sunday evening a beautiful stereoptican lecture was given by a fellow Missionary worker on the missionary extension in Alaska among the native Indians. These pictures help to broaden our view concerning the progress of the gospel in other lands.

Rev. Shaw will preach both morning and evening, Sunday, June 24th.

We especially invite you to worship with us at all times. Remember the prayer and praise service each Wednesday evening welcomes you. Bible Class 5:30; Young People's Meeting, 6:30—always good programs. Everybody welcome.

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH
9th and Towne Ave.
Rev. A. Milton Ward, Minister

The Rev. J. H. Green will occupy the pulpit Sunday at 11 a. m. and at 8 p. m. The Children's Day program will be given by the Sunday School. Special music by both Choirs at 11 a. m.

Sunday is to be red letter day for the Sunday School. Promotion exercises at 9:30 a. m. Certificates will be awarded by Supt. Orma Stratton.

Pastor Ward attended the 60th anniversary and commencement exercises of Wilberforce University, Ohio this week. Among the graduates is Miss Veola C. Brown of Los Angeles from the Divinity Department.

TRINITY BAPTIST CHURCH
West 36th St. and Normandie Ave.
Rev. J. A. H. Eldridge, Pastor

Sunday School was well attended and the lesson was taught with power by all teachers. Bro. A. A. Lassiter is certainly one Superintendent who deserves great credit for under his leadership Trinity's Sunday School stands second to none. Morning and afternoon was given over for the entertainment of the old people. The Rev. Mr. Green of Dallas, Tex., was our speaker at eleven o'clock. His text was taken from Psalm 66: 16. His subject was well handled and enjoyed by all.

Afternoon was covenant meeting for the aged. The evening service was given over to the children's program. The B. Y. P. U. is still making wonderful progress. All who desire to take part in orderly worship and service will do well to attend Trinity. Rev. Eldridge is without a doubt one of the leading pastors in the country. On the Fourth Sunday evening at eight o'clock he will preach a special sermon to the 1923 graduates of the church and community. The public is cordially invited to all our services.

TABERNACLE BAPTIST CHURCH
12th and Hemlock Sts.

Sunday School 9 a. m. Services 11 a. m., B. Y. P. U., 6:30 p. m. Services 7:30 p. m. Sunday morning Sabbath school was very fine. And old and young were present to assist our loving Supt. Sister Regular. We also had a very prominent young man with us from Oklahoma who gave a very pleasing address. We can only give God the praise for sending us such a wonderful messenger Rev. Davis who is preaching the word of God. Text was taken from Ephesians 1:5—Will of our Father, having predestinated us into the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself according to the good pleasure of his will. Then we were favored with a selection from Bro. Sutton. We also were very much pleased to have Bro. T. A. Harris and wife back again who have been visiting in the North. We must say that our Choir is at its best with Sister Annie Lewis at the piano. B. Y. P. U. was excellent lesson Luke 2:7-14. The B. Y. P. U. donated Bro. Foster $5.00 on his tarb for Evangelistic work and we all wish him a great success. Little Lorine Smith gave us a reading and mother a solo which was grand. We are very proud of our president Sister Bessie Settles who is putting forth her best effort for success. Evening Rev. Bro. Foster occupied the pulpit and gave us a beautiful illustration of the resurrection of Jesus Christ. We were honored with a solo by Sister Mamie Smith. We welcome all of the old members, visitors and friends to come and share our spiritual feast with us.

THE CHRISTAN CHURCH
14th and Birch Sts.

The services were very good all day with a very large attendance. The Bible School was well attended with both members and visitors. And the minister Rev. Bro. Isaac J. Williams preached from the subject: 1 Peter 1:18—For as much as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as Silver and Gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers."

And the young people's meeting was fairly well attended at the 7 o'clock hour and at 8 o'clock the minister took for his text 1 Peter 5:2—Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind.

The services for next Lord's Day as follows: Bible School at 9:45 A. M. and Preaching at 11 A. M.; Young People's meeting at 7 P. M. and Evening service at 8 P. M. make full of Lord's Day. Come and

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH
Y. W. C. A., 9th and Hemlock Sts.
Rev. H. H. Prowd, Pastor

Our Lesson "In the Sunday School—Esther the Patriot—was vigorously discussed; and called out the best in the teachers and scholars. The main points brought home to the children were—duty, devotion, and fidelity. At the 11 o'clock service the Rev. Dr. J. Madison Young occupied the pulpit and preached for us a most excellent sermon from the 11th verse of the 84th Psalm—"For the Lord God is a sun and shield: The Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will He withold from them that walk uprightly." Dr. Young is easily the greatest preacher in Los Angeles today.

The B. Y. P. U. carried out a most helpful program at 7 o'clock, when Mr. Kyle of The California Eagle gave us an eloquent address on the subject "Sunshine and Shadows." The Gentleman's poise, readiness, and evident research called forth the sincere commendation of the Pastor.

At night Dr. Prowd preached from the text, Luke 7:42—"Seest thou this woman." The Lord was with us to comfort and bless. Our Rally will come off this Sunday. We are aiming at One Thousand Dollars, and ask you to lend a hand. Come and help the good cause, and expect a return from Him who giveth all. Come praying for a blessing.

TABERNACLE BAPTIST CHURCH
1007 Central Temporary Location
Rev. L. B. Brown, Pastor

L. B. Brown filled the pulpit at both services, in the afternoon there was held a Missionary meeting. Mrs. Richards was the principal speaker.

A very delightful entertainment was given by the Willing Workers realizing $25.

Next Sabbath Rev. Brown will speak from Isaiah 21:4—Watchman, what of the Night? Subject: The Sign of the great Southern Migration. In the evening, Jer. 4:1—Subject: Looking for a Man.

Sunday School, 9:30; B. Y. P. U., 6:30; Prayer Meeting, Wed. Eve. All welcome.

ZION HILL BAPTIST CHURCH
1815 Hooper Avenue
Rev. Jas H. Holder, Pastor

Another soul-saving station was organized at 1614 Hooper avenue last Sunday, June 17th at 3 p. m. by Rev. James H. Holder of Indianapolis, Indiana, who has been called as pastor of said church. He filled the pulpit morning and evening. There was quite a large attendance. The collection for the day being $52.00. The public at large is cordially invited to come and hear the real Gospel in its purity.

Order of services: 11 A. M., Sunday morning; 7:30 Sunday evening, Prayer Service, Wednesdays 7:30 P. M.

We are now engaged in a great campaign beginning June 17th to last until July 8th inclusive.

WALL ST. CHRISTIAN CHURCH
33rd and Hooper Ave.
Rev. M. F. Mitchell, Pastor

The pastor brought us two soul-stirring sermons last Sunday, subjects: "A Survey of the Life of Esther;" in the evening, "What Must I Do to be Saved?" Both discourses were gladly received by the auditors. The outstanding feature since last report was the appearance of the "Brandon California Jubilee Quartette," in recital sponsored by the Excelsior Literary Society of our Church.

Next Sunday morning the pastor will deliver a special message, using as a text the 12th chapter of Heb. and the 1st verse. Sunday evening, pastor Mitchell by special invitation is asked to preach at the Immanuel Presbyterian Church, Figueroa and Tenth Sts. He will preach upon the text, "For none of us liveth to himself and no man dieth to himself." His Choir Chorus will render musical program. The pastor, Dr. Smith, insists that we bring as many of our people as we possibly can.

WALL ST. CHRISTIAN CHURCH
9th and Wall Sts.

Last Lord's Day was our Rally Day, the results financially were good. Rev. Cothran preached 11 A. M., Subj.: Greater Works. He showed that the greater works were done by the preaching of the gospel that its power is the work which heals the spiritually sick and gives spiritual life to the blind to see and the spiritually deaf to hear, these are greater works than physical healing. Afternoon at 3 p. m. Rev. Prowd spoke, Subject: Contribution. He brought us an excellent message on the spirit of giving and its reward. At the evening service—8 P. m. Rev. Jacobs spoke his subject: A Plumbline. I will set a plumbline in the midst of my people Israel. He showed that the plumbline was something that indicated how far they had deviated from God's law. The Gospel is our plumbline to show how far we deviate from the law of Christ, in this the Christian dispensation. We invite all who would be pleased to worship with us.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.
34th St. and Central Ave.
Rev. E. E. Lightner, Pastor

The past Sunday was observed as Children's Day at this church. The pastor occupied the pulpit at the morning hour taking as his subject: "A Child in the Midst." An excellent audience was in attendance. At the evening service the Sunday School

CHRIST TEMPLE CHURCH
Cor. 57th and Hooper Sts.
Rev. C. P. Jones, Pastor

—The people of God at this place were most gloriously blessed all day Sunday. The presence of the Holy Spirit was felt in every service beginning with the Sunday School which met at the usual hour 9:45 a. m.

At 8 o'clock the pastor gave a most worthy's message from 1 John 1:3—That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son, Jesus Christ. This man of God made his hearers to appreciate, perhaps as they had never appreciated before, the blessedness of fellowship with each other among God's people, and with Christ.

—The Young People's Union convened at 6:45 p. m. After an interesting Bible lesson, a short but beautiful program was rendered.

At 8 o'clock the pastor gave a most instructive Bible lesson on the eleventh chapter of Ecclesiastes. He then delivered his evening's message from Esther 5:2. Every one returned home feeling blessed for having heard the word of God.

Many visitors attended every service.

Revival services are being held at this place every evening at 8 o'clock —Everyone cordially invited to attend. Come and you will be blessed.

SUCCESSFUL RALLY IN SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA

The greatest Rally ever held in the northern part of the State took place on Sunday, June 10, 1923 at the First A. M. E. Zion Church, 1687 Geary St., San Francisco, Calif., of which Rev. W. J. J. Byers is Pastor.

On June 10th the money then reported amounted to $3800.00.

Rev. Byers is expected to be a visitor in Los Angeles some time during the near future.

THE DRIVE GETTING IN SWING

Special from Nashville, Tenn.: The Promotion Board of the National Baptist Convention located at 409 Gay street, in an effort to raise ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS to free the convention and its Boards of debt says:

Pastor are appointing committees to canvas their churches for a N. B. C. Dollar. Programs are being arranged for the "ALL TOGETHER DAY" the Fifth Sunday in July—29th. An exchange of pulpits is being planned and a new pastor will be in many pulpits. Deacon Windham of Alabama sends in a pledge for $2,000. Mr. Moses McKissack of Tennessee pledges $1,000 and others of various amounts from $1.00 to $100.00 The whole thing is getting in a swing and the drive seems an assured success. Many of the 18,267 preachers are being gripped with the idea of setting the pulpits of the 24,333 Negro Churches on fire and seeing for once the 3,426,506 Negro Baptists turn out en masse to see them burn and glow with holy fire. From such a union of purpose they say, there will be an enkindling of enthusiasm and a uniting of Baptists. They are after calling down the old time Baptist fire which will burn up all selfishness and send a tingle of joy to the very finger tips of our racial and denominational life.

WEDDING BELLS RING

The many friends of Mr. Harry Patterson were very much surprised to learn that he boarded the good ship Matrimony on last Friday evening.

For some time he has been accused of having a desire to desert single life and take unto himself a soul mate but stoutly denied the charges.

The lady? Well, she is none other than Miss Sarah Fambro, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fambro of East 32nd St.

Following the marriage which was performed by the Rev. T. L. Griffith and was a simple and quiet affair, the newlyweds caught the mid-night train for San Diego, where they will spend their honeymoon.

Mr. Patterson is an exceptional young man in the community and holds down a responsible position at Weinstock & Nichols, wholesale accessories dealers.

Mrs. Patterson is a type of young lady that stands out in the community as an example to womanhood.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson join the Eagle in wishing them a long, prosperous and happy career up the sea of Wedlock.

KING GRIFFIN RETURNS

MISS CLEO BROWDER A BRIDE

On Tuesday evening, June 13th in the spacious studio rooms of the Wilkins Music Academy, 1225 Central Avenue, Miss Cleo Browder became the bride of Mr. F. P. Boykin, Rev. N. P. Gregg, of the Independent Church of Christ officiating.

The studio rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion, with handmade sweet peas, asparagus fern and palms. In the center of the main room was a wedding bell four feet high and four feet in diameter, composed entirely of hand-made white sweet peas, under which the young couple were married. The decorations were designed and carried out by Elnora Howard Hubbs.

The bride wore an exquisite gown of white georgette crepe, richly hand embroidered with pearl beads, and a white picture hat. She carried a magnificent shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley, the gift of the groom.

Miss Hazel Robinson of Monrovia, presided at the piano and Mme. Elnora Howard Hubbs sang a vocal solo —"Because." Prof. W. T. Wilkins also played an instrumental selection, "To a Wild Rose." Miss Lucile Banton was maid of honor and Mr. Wm. Batchelor acted as best man.

The bride received many handsome presents.

The Eagle joins with a host of friends in wishing the young couple many years of happiness.

LOS ANGELES QUEEN OF SONG HEARD AT SAN DIEGO.

Mayme Wiley Lowe, messo soprano, assisted by Owen A. Troy, violinist and Estelle Roberts-Saunders, pianist, appeared in grand concert at Lincoln School Auditorium, Thursday evening, June 14, under the auspices of the U. B. F. and S. M. T. lodges of San Diego.

The reputation of these artists was so well known in San Diego that numbered among the large and appreciative audience were noticeable many of the city's leading and best musicians, and their enthusiastic applause plainly told the story that these talented people lived up to their reputations.

While there, the Thearle Music Company engaged the services of these musicians to render a concert through the Union-Tribune broadcasting station.

The recital Thursday evening was of a very high order and Miss Lowe conclusively proved that Negroes can sing the classics. Her voice is clear, rich and sweet as a bell and the upper registers are easily reached, apparently without effort. Her pleasing facial expression is very winsome and adds to her charm and grace.

As a violinist, Mr. Troy is a real artist and compares favorably with a large number of traveling musicians who are termed great. As an accompanist Mrs. Saunders was well received and won the plaudits of her hearers.

On Wednesday of this week Bessie Coleman, famous aviatrix, left Los Angeles for her home in Chicago. She was accompanied by Mrs. Henry Jones, of 129 West 57th Street, who is to make a summer tour of the large cities of the East.

Miss Coleman, who has won international renown as a daring flier, has been in the Southland since the first of the year. Her profession career here was cut short, however, but the injuries she received when her plane, on the occasion of her initial flight on last February 4th, fell to the ground. The little bird-woman, however, is now quite recovered.

After spending the summer in Chicgo and New York, Miss Coleman contemplates a return to this city, where she has contracted to do flying stunts for several prominent advertising firms. She has made a host of warm friends in Southern California, who will rejoice to have her with them again.

MR. LOUIE M. DRIVER WEDS MISS MYRTLE HENDERSON

MORE THAN TWELVE HUNDRED PEOPLE WITNESS THE UNITING OF THIS HAPPY COUPLE AMID PROFUSION OF FLOWERS AND EVERGREENS

On Tuesday evening, June 26, 1923 the Saints Home Church, 29th and Hooper streets was aglow with brilliant lights and smiling faces when Mr. Louie M. Driver led Miss Myrtle Henderson to the altar of holy wedlock. As they entered the doorway a thousand eager faces lined the aisles as the little flower girls bedded their pathway with flowers. What beautiful flowers they were, it seemed as if someone had gone down among the myrtle and the vine and plucked nature's most beautiful roses to strew along the pahtway of this happy couple now entering a life filled with sunshine and clouds.

When Mrs. Susie Driver, sister-in-law of the groom was seated at the organ there pealed forth voluptuous music that lifted the huge throng to their feet and took their minds back to pleasant memories. Rev. Dr. Wm. Washington of Bethel Temple officiated and prayed his benediction upon the young couple and started them up the hill of life together. The affair was among the most gorgeous ever witnessed in the city.

Mrs. Robert Louise-Lewis, who headed the decoration committee, deserves much praise for so artistically decorating the church.

The bride was dressed in a white satin gown artistically adorned with silver beaded trimmings. Her veil was one of the most tasteful designs and she resembled a queen during her coronation.

The groom wore a black broadcloth full dress suit as did his attendants, making a very classy appearance as they stepped to the tune of the march to the altar.

Those who stood with the bride were: Misses Georgia Cook, Vivian Davis and Buiah Ross. Those who stood with the groom were Messrs. Wesley Harrison Mason Driver and Ridell Scott. The little flower girls were Little Misses Ruth Watts and Dorothy Maya.

After the ceremony, the bride, groom and attendants marched to the dining hall where ice cream and cake were served most graciously. Thus ended one of the finest weddings in the history of the city's social set.

Louis M. Driver, a member of the firm of Driver Brothers, a graduate of Jefferson High School, class of 1922, is now employed in the postal service of this city. He promises his friends to emulate his father who has proven to be a good father and a splendid leader of his people. He wishes to thank those who gave him so many valuable presents.

Miss Myrtle Henderson comes from a fine family and has made a splendid record, both in school and home, and with her teachings she is prepared to govern the home to its rightful place in the nation.

The father of the groom is at the head of the great Church of the Living God in Christ, Overseer of the State of California, Associate Editor of the paper, "Whole Truth," and by his side has always stood his estimable wife, who has been the guiding hand that has led her son to his exalted place in the struggles of life. We hope for this couple abundant success and may their motto be: "Ne plus ultra."

FORESEES END OF WHITE MAN'S RULE

CAPTAIN SALISBURY, BACK FROM EAST, SAYS "DAYS OF WHITE MAN'S RULE ARE NUMBERED"

(Crusader Service)

New York, June 27, 1923:—"The white man's days in the East are numbered; fifty years will see Sumatra, India and the Phillipines all under native rule," is the prediction made by Captain Edward A. Salisbury, who arrived yesterday aboard the "Conte Rosso," completing a tour of the world made in the interest of the Southwestern Museum of California. "The one topic of conversation among white colonists in the East, whether they be Dutch, English, French or German," he said, "is, how long can it last?"

Captain Salisbury's addition to the long list of white explorers, travelers and observers who have brought this same message back to America, gives added significance to the general feeling the world over that white rule is about nearing its end, on account of the high reputation which Captain Salisbury bears as a close and truthful observer of world events and movements.

WHITE GIRL SPEAKS OUT FOR DEMOCRACY IN ADDRESS

PAULINE LIBERMAN (White Girl)—JEFFERSON HIGH GRADUATE WRITES DEMOCRACY

Our nation's highest ideals are embodied in the one word—democracy. First kindled in the hearts of our liberty-loving forefathers, that divine light has ever since been the zenith of our hopes as a people. Sometimes its flame has burned very brightly within us; occasionally, quite dimly; but never yet has it been totally extinguished, "and it never shall," vow true Americans.

We all agree that freedom and equality of opportunity make the best environment for humanity; but we cannot fail to perceive the difficulties involved in a form of government possessing these characteristics. Where the responsibility of government is vested in every citizen of the United States, is it not vitally necessary that every citizen be capable of exercising his power to the best advantage of the society of which he is a part? That is Democracy's greatest problem: That is why people have scoffed at our government, charging it with being impractical.

But we have an answer to their charges—a solution to the problem. It is education. Education that will reach every single American; education that will bring him to a realization of his position and develop his powers so that he may contribute his share to the life of the nation.

Since the age of grammar school children limits their comprehension of Democracy, and the number of college attendants is comparatively small, it becomes chiefly the duty of secondary schools to instruct young people in the principles which will later influence their actions in public affairs. With Jefferson as a model typifying all others, I shall endeavor to describe those features of the high school which virtually make it the "training ground for Democracy."

Of these, perhaps the most significant is its policy of freely affording the benefits of higher education to every boy and girl. No other factor could serve so well to create a common spirit among the people. No other influence could so effectively establish the social equality which must be a part of American life. There are foreign systems of education that teach a person to look up or down.

NOTED INDIANAPOLIS DIVINE ACCEPTS LOCAL PASTORATE

One of the events of interest to the Baptists in Los Angeles and Southern California is the calling of the Rev. S. A. Holder of Indianapolis, Ind., to the pastorate of The Zion Hill Baptist Church, a newly organized soul saving station which has its temporary quarters at 1614 Hooper Avenue.

This church was organized June 17, 1923 with 3 members and in the short space of 10 days the membership has grown to 40 including candidates for Baptism.

The Zion Hill Baptist Church is an old line organization and will adhere strictly to the doctrines and faith of the Missionary Baptist Church, as it is known all over the world.

Rev. James Halford Holder, son of the late Rev. J. W. and Laura Holder, who for 25 years gave their lives in the service of the Master, was born in Brasil, Indiana Dec. 6, 1892, attended the public schools of Pittsburg, Pa. and Indianapolis, graduating in Indianapolis. HON. CHANDLER OWEN RETURNS FOR BRIEF STAY

Mr. Owen expressed himself as highly pleased with the prospects for Negroes on the Pacific Coast, as regards economic advancement; assured by the open and alert mental attitude of those of our Race with whom he came in contact.

GIRL RESCUED FROM PEONAGE BY JERSEY CITY N. A. A. C. P.

Rumor that a fifteen-year-old colored girl had been brought from Kentucky to Jersey City, and was being held in peonage reached the Jersey City Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People recently, and a committee was promptly appointed to investigate, by Dr. George M. Cleveland, president of the branch. The committee was composed of Mrs. Alice Stevens, Miss Elizabeth Thomas and Miss Anna Hepner.

During the investigation, the girl became ill, and was removed to the City Hospital. From the hospital the girl was taken into the home of Mrs. Stevens. The girl, Anna Belle Wilder, then appeared before the Jersey City N. A. A. C. P. in the Lafayette Presbyterian Church and thanked the Association for her release, saying:

"I am fifteen years old. A white minister, Rev. V. D. Humphry, in Millburn, Kentucky, raised me from a baby. I finished the eighth grade in school. A little over a year ago a Jersey man told Rev. Humphry that he was coming North and wanted to take me. He said I could finish my schooling here. But since coming here I have not been allowed to go to the public school or Sunday School. I had to get up at 6:00 a. m. attend to the baby, cook breakfast, wash and iron, run errands and do other work, and retired about 11 or 12 at night. I have slept on the floor for over a year. Only in a while I would be given a nickel or a dime."

Dr. Cannon reports that the Jersey City N. A. A. C. P. will investigate other cases of colored girls brought from the South and subjected to hardship.

DAYNE WILEY LOWE SWEET-VOICED SINGER SCORES IN BRILLIANT RECITAL

A majority audience filled Trinity Hall, Sixth Hill street, on Thursday evening, June 28th, and was treated to one of the most artistic and thoroughly enjoyable musical programs that has been rendered in this city for many months. That Dayne Wiley Lowe, young soprano, Organ Kiwy, violinist, and Nadia McCullough, pianiste,

Miss Lowe is the possessor of a beautiful voice, full, richly toned and well cultivated. Its possibilities are unlimited. Her every effort was enthusiastically received, and she responded to encores.

Miss Kiwy is a master violinist. Her "Ave Maria" was rendered with a depth of feeling and a sympathetic appreciation that was truly wonderful. Her responses to encores were equally as pleasing.

Miss McCullough, pianiste, proved herself a worthy assistant to the artists. Her every effort was enthusiastically received, and she responded to encores.

"O Cieli Azzurri" aria from Aida, two exquisitely rendered numbers of the old Italian school, several "interpretive" songs, two Negro spirituals by the celebrated Czechish composer, Burleigh, a third from Dvorak's New World Symphony, and last but not least, the well-known Lullaby from "Jocelyn" with violin obligato.

This peerless program, making exacting demands upon any singer, was rendered with a high degree of artistry that aroused the greatest enthusiasm on the part of the respective audience.

The group of violin numbers, executed by Owen A. Troy, was received with equal acclaim. Mr. Troy's selections included a number by Kreisler, "From the Cane-brake," by Gardner, and a Negro Dance, by White.

Miss Nadia McCullough, brilliant pianiste well known in our musical circles, played the many and varied accompaniments to the vocal and violin numbers in an excellent manner, and a Liszt solo, a Liszt "Etude."

All these performers were most gracious in responding to encores, and they were the recipients of many exquisite beautiful floral pieces.

ONE WORLD WAR VETS

(Crusader Service)

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. June 26.—The minister in the public parks for an amusety meeting has been denied the Minneapolis Post of the World War Veterans, by the board of park commissioners.

Leslie R. Hart, representative of the post making the request, says he was told by the commissioners that the radical element was using the World War Veterans as catspaws to free political prisoners.

There are several colored vets in the Post of the World War Veterans here, as indeed throughout the country, many colored veterans declining to enter the ranks of the reactionary and prejudiced American Legion.

EUROPEAN SITUATION WORSE, SAY 'FRIENDS'

(Crusader Service)

WASHINGTON, D. C., The American Friends' Service committee has called upon President Harding to call "a new and real peace conference." Its letter follows in part:

"Did we win the gratitude of the people of Europe when we started our relief work, it is appalling to realize that their condition in many instances is worse today. We feel that in great sections of Europe, help has been lost and despair has poisoned great parts of the population like a disease.

"The occupation of the Ruhr has quickened the spirit of nationalism in Germany and given tremendous impetus to the forces of revolution. The mutuality between Poland and Silesia has been closed and as one said 'they hate what we do after they have done all they could.' Turkey and the peoples of the near east threaten trouble in the union of interest, and reconstruction is impossible the occupation of Ruhr."

WEDDING BELLS RING

The many friends of Mr. Harry Patterson were very much surprised to learn that he boarded the good ship Matrimony on last Friday evening.

For some time he has been accused of having a desire to desert single life and take unto himself a soul mate but stoutly denied the charges.

The lady? Well, she is none other than Miss Sarah Fambro, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fambro of East 32nd St.

Following the marriage which was performed by the Rev. T. L. Griffith and was a simple and quiet affair, the newlyweds caught the mid-night train for San Diego, where they will spend their honeymoon.

Mr. Patterson is an exceptional young man in the community and holds down a responsible position at Weinstock & Nichols, wholesale accessories dealers.

Mrs. Patterson is a type of young lady that stands out in the community as an example to womanhood.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson join the Eagle in wishing them a long, prosperous and happy career on the sea of Wedlock.

Miss Ada Bell Griffin who appeared in Detroit in Shuffle Along last Spring opening has returned to the city.

MISS CLEO BROWDER A BRIDE

On Tuesday evening, June 12th in the spacious studio rooms of the Wilkins Music Academy, 1325 Central Avenue, Miss Cleo Browder became the bride of Mr. F. P. Boykin, Rev. N. P. Gregg, of the Independent Church of Christ officiating.

The studio rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion, with handmade sweet peas, asparagus fern and palms. In the center of the main room was a wedding bell four feet high and four feet in diameter, composed entirely of hand-made white sweet peas, under which the young couple were married. The decorations were designed and carried out by Elnora Howard Hubbs.

The bride wore an exquisite gown of white georgette crepe, richly hand embroidered with pearl beads, and a white picture hat. She carried a magnificent shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley, the gift of the groom.

Miss Hazel Robinson of Monrovia, presided at the piano and Mme. Elnora Howard Hubbs sang a vocal solo —"Because." Prof. W. T. Wilkins also played an instrumental selection, "To a Wild Rose." Miss Lucile Banton was maid of honor and Mr. Wm. Batchelor acted as best man.

LOS ANGELES QUEEN OF SONG HEARD AT SAN DIEGO.

Mayme Wiley Lowe, mezzo soprano, assisted by Owen A. Troy, violinist and Estelle Roberts-Saunders, pianist, appeared in grand concert at Lincoln School Auditorium, Thursday evening, June 14, under the auspices of the U. B. F. and S. M. T. lodges of San Diego.

The reputation of these artists was so well known in San Diego that numbered among the large and appreciative audience were noticeable many of the city's leading and best musicians, and their enthusiastic applause plainly told the story that these talented people lived up to their reputations.

While there, the Thearle Music Company engaged the services of these musicians to render a concert through the Union-Tribune broadcasting station.

The recital Thursday evening was of a very high order and Miss Lowe conclusively proved that Negroes can sing the classics. Her voice is clear, rich and sweet as a bell and the upper registers are easily reached, apparently without effort. Her pleasing facial expression is very winsome and adds to her charm and grace.

As a violinist, Mr. Troy is a real artist and compares favorably with a large number of traveling musicians who are termed great. As an accompanist Mrs. Saunders was well received and won the plaudits of her hearers.

NOTED AVIATRIX FLITS EASTWARD.

On Wednesday of this week Bessie Coleman, famous aviatrix, left Los Angeles for her home in Chicago. She was accompanied by Mrs. Henry Jones, of 129 West 57th Street, who is to make a summer tour of the large cities of the East.

Miss Coleman, who has won international renown as a daring flier, has been in the Southland since the first of the year. Her profession career here was cut short, however, but the injuries she received when her plane, on the occasion of her initial flight on last February 4th, fell to the ground. The little bird-woman, however, is now quite recovered.

After spending the summer in Chicago and New York, Miss Coleman contemplates a return to this city, where she has contracted to do flying stunts for several prominent advertising firms. She has made a host of warm friends in Southern California, who will rejoice to have her with them again.

MORE THAN TWELVE HUNDRED PEOPLE WITNESS THE UNITING OF THIS HAPPY COUPLE AMID PROFUSION OF FLOWERS AND EVERGREENS

On Tuesday evening, June 26, 1923 the Saints Home Church, 20th and Hooper streets was aglow with brilliant lights and smiling faces when Mr. Louie M. Driver led Miss Myrtle Henderson to the altar of holy wedlock. As they entered the doorway a thousand eager faces lined the aisles as the little flower girls bedded their pathway with flowers. What beautiful flowers they were, it seemed as if someone had gone down among the myrtle and the vine and plucked nature's most beautiful roses to strew along the pathway of this happy couple now entering a life filled with sunshine and clouds.

When Mrs. Susie Driver, sister-in-law of the groom was seated at the organ there pealed forth voluptuous music that lifted the huge throng to their feet and took their minds back to pleasant memories. Rev. Dr. Wm. Washington of Bethel Temple officiated and prayed his benediction upon the young couple and started them up the hill of life together. The affair was among the most gorgeous ever witnessed in the city.

Mrs. Robert Louise-Lewis, who headed the decoration committee, deserves much praise for so artistically decorating the church.

The bride was dressed in a white satin gown artistically adorned with silver beaded trimmings. Her veil was one of the most tasteful designs and she resembled a queen during her coronation.

The groom wore a black broadcloth full dress suit as did his attendants, making a very classy appearance as they stepped to the tune of the march to the altar.

Those who stood with the bride were: Misses Georgia Cook, Vivian Davis and Bulah Ross. Those who stood with the groom were Messrs. Wesley Harrison Mason Driver and Ridell Scott. The little flower girls were Little Misses Ruth Watts and Dorothy Mays.

After the ceremony, the bride, groom and attendants marched to the dining hall where ice cream and cake were served most graciously. Thus ended one of the finest weddings in the history of the city's social set.

Louis M. Driver, a member of the firm of Driver Brothers, a graduate of Jefferson High School, class of 1922, is now employed in the postal service of this city. He promises his friends to emulate his father who has proven to be a good father and a splendid leader of his people. He wishes to thank those who gave him so many valuable presents.

Miss Myrtle Henderson comes from a fine family and has made a splendid record, both in school and home, and with her teachings she is prepared to govern the home to its rightful place in the nation.

The father of the groom is at the head of the great Church of the Living God in Christ, Overseer of the State of California, Associate Editor of the paper, "Whole Truth," and by his side has always stood his estimable wife, who has been the guiding hand that has led her son to his exalted place in the struggles of life. We hope for this couple abundant success and may their motto be: "Ne plus ultra."

FORESEES END OF WHITE MAN'S RULE

CAPTAIN SALISBURY, BACK FROM EAST, SAYS "DAYS OF WHITE MAN'S RULE ARE NUMBERED"

(Crusader Service)

New York, June 27, 1923:—"The white man's days in the East are numbered; fifty years will see Sumatra, India and the Philippines all under native rule," is the prediction made by Captain Edward A. Salisbury, who arrived yesterday aboard the "Conte Rosso," completing a tour of the world made in the interest of the Southwestern Museum of California. "The one topic of conversation among white colonists in the East, whether they be Dutch, English, French or German," he said, "is, how long can it last?"

Captain Salisbury's addition to the long list of white explorers, travelers and observers who have brought this same message back to America, gives added significance to the general feeling the world over that white rule is about nearing its end, on account of the high reputation which Captain Salisbury bears as a close and truthful observer of world events and movements.

WHITE GIRL SPEAKS OUT FOR DEMOCRACY IN ADDRESS

PAULINE LIBERMAN (White Girl)—JEFFERSON HIGH GRADUATE WRITES DEMOCRACY

Our nation's highest ideals are embodied in the one word—democracy. First kindled in the hearts of our liberty-loving forefathers, that divine light has ever since been the zenith of our hopes as a people. Sometimes its flame has burned very brightly within us; occasionally, quite dimly; but never yet has it been totally extinguished, "and it never shall," vow true Americans.

We all agree that freedom and equality of opportunity make the best environment for humanity; but we cannot fail to perceive the difficulties involved in a form of government possessing these characteristics. Where the responsibility of government is vested in every citizen of the United States, is it not vitally necessary that every citizen be capable of exercising his power to the best advantage of the society of which he is a part? That is Democracy's greatest problem. That is why people have scoffed at our government, charging it with being impractical.

But we have an answer to their charges—a solution to the problem. It is education. Education that will reach every single American; education that will bring him to a realization of his position and develop his powers so that he may contribute his share to the life of the nation.

Since the age of grammar school children limits their comprehension of Democracy, and the number of college attendants is comparatively small, it becomes chiefly the duty of secondary schools to instruct young people in the principles which will later influence their actions in public affairs. With Jefferson as a model typifying all others, I shall endeavor to describe those features of the high school which virtually make it the "training ground for Democracy."

Of these, perhaps the most significant is its policy of freely affording the benefits of higher education to every boy and girl. No other factor could serve so well to create a common spirit among the people. No other influence could so effectively establish the social equality which must be a part of American life. There are foreign systems of education that teach a person to look up or down.

Atlanta, Ga., June 23, 1923:—The Rev. Caleb A. HON. CHANDLER OWEN RETURNS FOR BRIEF STAY

The Honorable Chandler Owen, Editor of the "Messenger," returned to Los Angeles on last Monday, after a signally successful tour of Northern California, Washington and Oregon. Mr. Owen expressed himself as highly pleased with the prospects for Negro race on the Pacific Coast, as regards economic advancement; assured by the open and alert mental attitude of those of our Race with whom his activities brought him in contact.

Mr Owen will be in Los Angeles a few days longer; before returning to his editorial desk in New York.

GIRL RESCUED FROM PEONAGE BY JERSEY CITY N. A. A. C. P.

Rumor that a fifteen-year-old colored girl had been kidnapped from Kentucky to Jersey City, and was being held in peonage reached the Jersey City Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and a committee was promptly appointed to investigate. Mr. Wallace H. Cleaves, president of the branch. The committee was composed of Miss Alice Stevens, Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas and Miss Anna Hopper.

During the investigation, the girl became ill, and was removed to the City Hospital. From the hospital the girl was taken into the home of Mrs. Stevens. The girl, Anna Belle Wilder, then appeared before the Jersey City N. A. A. C. P. in the Lafayette Presbyterian Church and inspired the Association for her release, saying:

"I am fifteen years old. A white minister, Rev. V. D. Humphry, in Millburn, Kentucky, raised me from a baby. I finished the eighth grade in school. A little over a year ago a Jersey man told Rev. Humphry that he was coming North and wanted to take me. He said I could finish my schooling here. But since coming here I have not been allowed to go to the public school or Sunday School. I had to get up at 6:00 a. m., attend to the baby, cook breakfast, wash and iron, run errands and do other work, and retired about 11 or 12 at night. I have slept on the floor for over a year. Once in a while I would be given a nickel or a dime."

Dr. Cannon reports that the Jersey City N. A. A. C. P. will investigate other cases of colored girls brought from the South, and subjected to hardship.

SILVAYNE WILEY LOVE, SWEETLY VIRGINIA [illegible] SCORES IN BRILLIANT [illegible] RECITAL

A genuinely enthusiastic audience filled Hall, South Hill street, on Thursday evening, June 28th, and was treated to one of the most intimate and thoroughly enjoyable musical programs that it has been our pleasure to attend. Silvayne Wiley Love, tenor soprano, Byron Troy, violinist, and Miss Virginia McCulloch, pianist.

Miss Love is the possessor of a beautiful voice, full, pleasing, great in expression and well trained. She possesses a wonderful technique in singing. The selections rendered, displayed her versatility, and in keeping with the program, each number received hearty applause, and was followed by encores.

"O Cieli Azzurri" aria from Aida, was exquisitely rendered; numbers of the old Italian school, several "interpretive" songs, two Negro spirituals by the celebrated Quartette composer, Burleigh, a third from Dvorak's New World Symphony, and last but not least, the well-known Lullaby from "Jocelyn" with violin obligato.

This gracious performer, making an exacting demands upon any singer, was rendered with a high degree of artistry that aroused the greatest enthusiasm on the part of the responsive audience.

The group of violin numbers, rendered by Byron A. Troy, was received with equal acclaim. Mr. Troy's selections included a number by Kreisler, "From the Cane-brake," by Gardner, and 6 Negro Dance, by White.

Miss Mabel McCullough, brilliant pianiste, will indeed in our musical circles, played the many and varied accompaniments to the vocal and violin numbers, in an excellent manner, and [illegible] solo, a Liszt "Etude."

All three performers were most graciously encored by an encore, and they were the recipients of many unusually beautiful floral tributes.

WHITE BAPTIST HOME MISSION SOCIETY WOULD CONFISCATE NEGRO CHURCH PROPERTY.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH OF VALLEJO, CALIFORNIA, MAKES MOVE TO TRY TO REGAIN TITLE TO ITS RIGHTFUL POSSESSION

For more than five months the members of the Second Baptist Church of Vallejo, California, have found themselves victims of circumstances, in a state of confusion, dissatisfaction, and unrest, that is, the majority of them, due to the status of the church site as to its ownership from a legal standpoint.

Some fourteen years ago, at a cost of $2000.00, a site for a church was purchased, the membership at that time did not exceed two and one half dozen communicants including minors, active and superannuated members, however ,these were faithful, willing and earnest. To meet the initial payment on the purchase of this church site, it required great sacrifices on the part of the members.

During the struggle to meet the pressing obligation, the pastor then in charge of the little flock appealed to the American Baptist Home Mission Society through its agent—Dr. C. W. Brinstad, at that time of Oakland, Cal., for a little assistance. This Society came forward with a gift of $200.00 and a loan of like sum. The loan with its accrued interest has since been repaid. The gift however, was not returned, but was by some way unknown to the members, (except two who claim to have had knowledge of the transaction, yet it is unbelieved) and used, as the writer sees it, to stop any further effort on the part of the membership of this church, unless first obtaining the consent of the American Baptist Home Mission Society through its agent, Dr. C. W. Brinstad.

As time passed, the desire to erect a modern church edifice upon OUR property increased and plans were initiated by the present pastor, Rev. G. W. Hill, to raise money for church-building purposes. The membership was divided into two groups with a captain manning each group, a rally was launched and at its conclusion more than $2500.00 was raised and placed in bank as a nest egg so-to-speak for a building fund.

As a further evidence of the faithfulness with which the membership of this little church responds to the missionary cause when called upon to put over the program of the Northern California Convention which is being functioned by the American Baptist Home Mission Society as manager, aside from providing for the financial support of their pastor and the raising of funds for the erection of a church edifice, they subscribed more than $3200.00 to the New World Movement and have paid in more than $500.00 of the pledges.

During the closing months of 1922, some of the members encouraged by the desire of our beloved pastor Rev. G. W. Hill, found themselves seized and possessed with a peculiar malady, which, upon a careful diagnosis was fittingly denominated The Building of a New Church Fever, and for first aid relief a building committee was named and at the December Business meeting of the church reported progress. At the January business meeting, 1923, plans began to loom up so vividly and the imaginations grew so rapidly that one could not be blamed for viewing in the distant landscape the great cupola of a new church erected upon the site purchased by the members of the Second Baptist Church of Vallejo, but ere the fatal leap was taken and the report of the Committee on building adopted, a low but deeply accented whisper—let us investigate, was heard. The investigation revealed the fact that whereas the property purchased at a cost of more than $2500.00 including principal and interest had been paid for by the members and friends of the Second Baptist Church, save the $200.00 gift aforesaid, the title to the property was vested in Dr. C. W. Brinstad and wife in lieu of the trustees of the Second Baptist Church. This revelation caused the writer to exclaim—the jig is up! The Piper has ceased piping! The Fiddler has ceased for the time being, to finger his violin strings and to apply rosin to his bow! Especially is this true in so far as taking further steps to erect a new church upon the property of Dr. C. W. Brinstad and wife under the guise of its being the property of the Second Baptist Church until such time as the cloud upon the title to the property, by reason of the $200.00 gift, shall have been removed by due process of law. The agent—Dr. C. W. Brinstad, having informed the church that no release could be given it, even though the church refunded the $200.00 gift, caused a consternation among the majority of her members that will require much time to quiet.

A resolution offered by the writer praying that the church petition the president and general board of the American Baptist Home Mission Society to release its claim upon the property of the church, conditioned that the church refund the $200.00 gift with any reasonable amount of interest thereon that the society may ask was on motion of L. J. Williams, the sponsor for the agent of the Home Mission Society, tabled. A motion to discuss the church property question for the education and information of the members, was also by the same sponsor, tabled. But true to Holy writ, "relief comes to him who prays and waits (if not too long) and puts his faith in God." While L. J. Williams, supported by H. S. Amerson, church clerk, opposed every effort put forth in the church by the writer to prevent the church from regaining the title to its property in fee simple, the writer with bull-dog tenacity assisted age of his conviction like a valiant soldier never rested on his guns nor allowed his powder to become damp, but took up the cause for the church in spite of devils, fighting to become the true and lawful possessors of the title to the property for which the church had paid more than $3500.00 He drafted and offered to the church had paid more than which is self-explanatory and the same was adopted by a standing vote of more than two to one, or by 36 to 14.

Petition

To the President and Members of the General Board of the American Baptist Home Mission Society, Rev Dr. Brooks, Secretary,
No. 23 East 26th Street,
New York, New York.

Gentlemen: We, the members of the Second Baptist Church of Vallejo, California, did about March 1909, receive a gift of Two Hundred Dollars from the American Baptist Home Mission Society, through its agent Dr. C. W. Brinstad of Oakland, California, and for which gift the church property was mortgaged, but for which gift the church was at that time and is yet very grateful to the Society.

The church now desires to have its title to the property clear of any and all incumbences, that is to say, the church does not longer desire the American Baptist Home Mission Society to hold any further claim upon its property, and it therefore, by this instrument petitions and prays that the Society release its claim upon and to our property, and to turn the same back to us through its agent, and by due process of law, and for which the church is willing to refund to the Society the $200.00 gift, if so requested, and with any reasonable amount of interest that the Society may ask.

Permit us further to respectfully say, that the action requested by the church, on the part of the American Baptist Home Mission Society is very necessary, there being no other way to allay much hard feelings, confusion and disatisfaction that now exist in the church among the members on the account of the Society holding the title to the church property.

We further respectfully, earnestly and prayerfully ask, that if the right of action in this matter has been transferred by your Board to the Convention of Northern California, that you will please notify us of the same and meanwhile send this our petition and prayer to the proper person acting for the Northern California Convention.

Done by order of the church, in regular business meeting assembled, at Vallejo, California, on this the 15th day of June A. D., 1923.

Respectfully submitted,
(Signed) G. W. HILL, Pastor
(Signed) H. S. AMERSON,
Church Clerk

A reprot of the N. A. A. C. P. Mass Meeting held at Leake's Lake, Watts, on Sunday, June 17, would not be complete without commendatory mention of Mrs M. L. Rev. J. A. H. Eldridge, Pastor.

Trinity's Sunday School is the banner school of Los Angeles. The young men's bible class taught by the pastor is truly serving God. Their contribution is never under $5.00 a Sunday. Rev. Eldridge teaches that we serve God wit hour earthly efforts or not at all. Our attendance last Sunday was up to the standard. Rev. R. H. Wade general missionary, occupied the pulpit in the morning. His sermon on Salvation by Faith was beneficial to all who heard it. Dr. Wade is a doctrinarian of quality. The B. Y. P. U. was well attended and lesson taught with power At the evening service a splendid program was rendered by Mrs. F. Spikes and Miss Ollie Green, which was enjoyed by all. After the program the pastor preached a special sermon to the nineteen twenty-three graduates. His text was taken from Prov. 4:7. "In all thy getting get understanding." Th e message was inspiring and helpful to all. The house was crowded from the pulpit to the door. All seemed to have a glorious time. Visitors at all times.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH—
Services in the Y M. C. A.
Ninth and Hemlock Streets.

It was Review day with us in Sunday School last Sunday, and all took part in discussing the various lessons of the Quarter. Many new points of interest were brought out in the recapitulation. It was also Rally-Day for the Church, and it being the first rally all were anxious as to the showing. Dr. Prowd preached an appropriate sermon from Exodus 25:3. "Let them make me a Sanctuary; that I may dwell among them. " The fact that the rally money was exclusively toward the expected House of Worship, was kept before the people. So likewise was the necessity for the Church, and our obligation to extend The Redeemer's Kingdom. At the close, a partial report of our humble workers, showed a cash collection of $299.60. This did not include the day's Church Offerings for current purposes. We congratulated our workers, thank The Lord, and take courage. Those who reported were: Sisters Kensie, Geneva Jones, S. Bass, C. R. Evans, A. Ferguson, H. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Gallerson, Mrs. Murphey, Mr. J. E. Prowd. We sincerely thank all who helped us, and continue our appeal to our good friends for help in the good cause. The B. Y. P. U. carried out a splendid program at the usual hour. Dr. Prowd preached at night from Luke 6:38. "Give and it shall be given unto you." The Lord was with us, and we praise Him. Come and help us in the fight for Jesus. We live in peace, and preach the doctrine of love. Come and see us this Sunday but come praying.

H. D. PROWD, Pastor.

TABERNACLE BAPTIST CHURCH—
12th and Hemlock Street.
Rev. F. H. Davis, Pastor.

Sunday School was well attended and we are glad to say that by God's power we are getting reunited. Our pastor, Rev. F. H. Davis filled the pulpit Sunday morning and poured out the spirit of God to us. Brother Sanders lead the scripture reading. Solo was rendered by Sister B. M. Settles. Text, 1 Epistle of John 1:4. "And these things we write unto you, that your joy may be full." Solo by Bro. A. A. Sutton. We added to our membership one of our little Sunday School boys. At 7:30 Monday we will start prayer services one hour each evening. All are invited. 6:30 p. m. B. Y. P. U. Mrs. Writter favored us with a wonderful paper. And little Miss Lorane Smith an instrumental solo. Miss I. Filmore gave a reading and we were very pleased to have with us Mrs. Anna Noll who represented the T. B. U. at the Federation.

At evening services we had a very noted man, Rev. R. F. Fry from Kentucky, who preached from the 14:5 verse of Hosea. Our choir is one of the best in the city. Come and hear them sing. Sister Annie Lewis at the piano.

Mrs. R. PATTILLO PORTER,

CHRIST TEMPLE CHURCH—
Elder C. P. Jones, Pastor.
Corner Thirty-Seventh and Naomi Sts.

The people of God at this place enjoyed a day of spiritual feasting Sunday. Sunday School began at the usual hour, 9:45 a. m.

At 11:30 a. m. the morning services began. Pastor Jones arose before his people filled with the Spirit of God, and delivered a message from the text: "Thy Will Be Done. Matt. 6:10. His words sank into the hearts of his hearers, bringing peace and joy to some, conviction to others; but every one who heard, really heard and received the message was truly blessed; for the Holy Spirit truly gave the message, using Pastor Jones only as His mouth-piece.

At 7:00 o'clock the Young People's Union met, and after an interesting and instructive Bible discussion, the meeting was turned into a praise service. It was beautiful and encouraging to hear the young people speak for the Lord and ask prayer for strength.

At 8:30 a. m. delivered his evening's message from the text: "He that overcometh shall inherit all things: and I will be his God, and he shall be my son. Rev. 21: 7. The people of God left the house of God, feeling that it is well worth while to overcome.

All services were well attended, and many visitors were present.

The revival last week was a spiritual success. It continues this week. Every one is cordially invited.

E. F. YOUNG
Pastor.

WARD CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH—

We had a splendid spiritual service last Sunday. Sunday School was well attended. At the morning service the Pastor spoke from the text, "There hath no temptation taken you, but such as is common to man, but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able, but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

A goodly number of visitors were present and expressed their appreciation of the services.

At night the pastor spoke from the text, "Why art thou cast down, oh my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? Hope thou in God; for shall yet praise Him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God. Rev. Gregg, President of Wilberforce University will preach here July 1, at 3:00 p. m.

WALL ST. CHRISTIAN CHURCH—
33rd and Hooper Streets.
Rev. M. Frederick Mitchell, Pastor.

Sunday morning the Pastor filled the pulpit. This service was wholesome and inspiring. Sunday evening, pastor Mitchell and his choir on special invitation held service at the Immanuel Presbyterian Church, Figueroa at 10th Street. We enjoyed whole hearted fellowship at this church. Dr. Smith the pastor made us quite at home, having advertised in three of the daily papers our coming beside his church papers, we had about eight hundred people present. Pastor Mitchell preached using as a text, "None liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself," and he held his audience spellbound. The chorus under the leadership of Mrs. Bertha Miller Spurill rendered a most excellent musical program. Mrs. Spurill handled the pipe organ cleverly. Mrs. Mary Williams Moore charmed the audience with two contralto solos. It was a great occasion for us. The audience was so greatly interested that we were encouraged to hold services half an hour longer than usual.

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH—
14th and Birch Street.

On last Lord's day we had a spiritual feast. The Bible School was well attended and two persons were added to the school. At 11:00 o'clock, the minister, Brother Williams, took for his text the 10th chapter of Romans and the 9th verse "Confess with thy mouth, the Lord Jesus." And at the Young People's meeting we had quite a few to take part in the work and then we had a glorious meeting. We invite you to the Young People's meeting and at the 8:00 o'clock hour, the Rev. Brother Williams brought to us the subject from from the 12 chapter of Hebrews and the first verse. "Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us. These messages were most effective. We had with us the following preachers, Rev. Brother Owens of the Christian Church and Rev. Brother Green of the Baptist Church and Rev. Brother Neverns also of the Baptist Church. Next Lord's Day services as usual. Bible School at 9:45 a. m. and preaching at 8:00 p. m. More than 70 per cent of these club members, according to reports to the United States Department of Agriculture, completed the entire year's work as planned by agriculture extension agents

WILLIAM EARLEY DIES

William Earley, who passed away Saturday, June 23rd, at Elsinore, for the past two years has been an invalid, making his home with his brother and wife, Mr and Mrs. Walter Earley, where he received the tenderest possible care during the long period of his illness, from his sister-in-law, Mrs. Walter Earley, who is, perhaps, one of the most motherly young matrons of this community. For a number of years Mrs Earley delighted all California as a sweet soprano singer; but today she is sweetening, not only her own home, with her tender smile, but the community in which she lives.

Mr. Earley, the deceased, was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Earley, one of Los Angeles' oldest and most respected families.

He was buried from Roberts Undertaking Parlors on Tuesday afternoon of this week.

WILKINS PIANO ACADEMY, IN THEIR 10TH ANNUAL RECITAL

On July 10, the Wilkins Piano Academy will be presented in their tenth annual recital at the First Christian Church (White), on 11th and Hope Streets, (across from Gamut Auditorium.

We wish to say on account of the enlargement being made on the Independent Church of Christ, Mr. Wilkin's was forced to change his plans for this year's recital but since this has been a record breaking year for success with the Wilkins Piano Academy we need not worry for a place.

The officials of the Christian Church have offered the use of their auditorium for half the price of any other auditorium in the city in order to show appreciation and assistance to enable Mr. Wilkins to complete his musical education.

This is only one of the many favors shown the Wilkins Piano Academy which has been supported only for the past ten years by money collected for the lessons given in their academy.

Mr. Wilkins has been highly commended for his splendid record by the Mayor of our city and also the district Attorney and Elks Club of Pasadena.

We learn it is the plan of the Wilkins Piano Academy to sometime in the near future build its own school so let us as a race do our bit and fill the auditoium of the First Christian Church on July 10th at 8:15 o'clock.

We Should Ask the Board For Prin. Dunn's Resignation

MRS. OFFUTT GRADUATES

June is the month of graduates and many other happy events. None were more happy than the graduates of the California College of Chiropody who received the degree of "Doctor of Surgical Chiropody" the degree granted by the College and demanded by the State law, since 1914.

Among the graduating class was one of our own women—Mrs. Georgia Kenner Offutt, who is among the best known church and club workers of the State. She has made her home in Los Angeles and Pasadena for many years.

In response to many inquiries as to the College, its demands and degrees would say. The demands now by the State Law is a four year high school course or the equivalent to enter the College, which has a two year medical course and aspiring to putting on a three year course. The Faculty is composed of men and women who are all practicing M. D's. and specialists of San Francisco. A seventy-five per cent grade is required in class and examination in the following subjects: Anatomy, Histology, Bacteriology, Physiology, Materia Medica, Pharmacy, Chemistry, Dermatology, Orthopedic Surgery, General Surgery, Didatic Chiropody, Pathology, Physical Diagnosis. Eighty hours of practical work in the clinic, cast making, electric and hydro-therapy, baking and massage. After graduating from the College one must pass the State Board of Medical Examiners before being able to practice Chiropody. The tuition is Four Hundred Dollars for the two year course.

California is leading in this feature, being the first State to put in the two year course. New York, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania are following with effective courses. Other States are establishing Colleges and demanding legislation to cover the work.

Mrs. Offutt is among the representative citizens of Los Angeles, where she and her family have lived for many years. Having always been fond of study, the years devoted to rearing a family and home keeping never seemed to satisfy that longing for study. She was formerly a teacher in the public schools in her native home Missouri, before coming to California.

Mrs. Offutt is the mother of two children, Mrs. Ruby O. Venable, a teacher in one of the Los Angeles City Schools, and Mr. Byron Kenner who is perhaps the only race man marine engineer on this coast. Her husband who has always encouraged her in all line studies, is not only a student but a splendid mechanic.

Mrs. Offutt has not fully decided on where she will locate, but having won special comment for her efficient work in the class room and clubs, she has no doubt of a welcome.

Watts' Colored Population Makes Complaint

WATTS UNDER INJUNCTION

NEGROES PROTEST INFERIOR INFERIOR STREET IMPROVEMENTS

There is much furore in the City of Watts at the present time over the extensive program of street improvements now being conducted in that City.

South of Main Street, nearly all of the cross-streets running East and West have been paved. This paving has been laid at a cost of about $4.50 the lineal foot.

This portion of Watts is inhabited for the most part by race folk and they desired the streets improved, but are up in arms about the character and quality of the work which they claim is of an inferior kind. A large number of residents on Arland avenue have recently formed the "Arland Avenue Association" to fight the inferior pavement laid in that street. J. W. Hale is president of the Association. The paving was completed about June the 1st and before thirty days had expired it cracked and broke over fully one-third the entire surface, which demonstrated that it was unfit to withstand the wear of ordinary traffic.

The Association immediately engaged the services of Willis O. Tyler who made application to the Superior Court for an injunction against the City of Watts and against the paving contractor. The injunction was granted temporarily and the matter set down for hearing on July 16th.

Attorney Tyler says that the experts engaged by the Association to present its side of the case are agreed that the paving is not laid according to specifications. These improvements are costing the property owners from $600.00 to $1,500.00 per lot.

A committee has also been formed to contest the action of the Trustees in ordering an inferior pavement for Compton avenue and has engaged Attorney Tyler to again enjoin the City and thus save the placing of an inferior pavement on Compton Blvd.

EDUCATION CAUSE OF NEGRO MIGRATION

SOUTHERN STATES DENIAL OF EDUCATON CAUSE OF NEGRO MIGRATION IS CHARGE—ADVANCEMENT ASSOCIATION PUBLISHES STATISTICS FROM SOUTHERN REPORTS

Statistics showing the part played by denial of educational opportunities to southern Negroes in bringing about the northward migration, were published today by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 70 Fifth Avenue, New York City. The statistics, taken from state educational reports show that in some cases $10 or $10 is spent upon every white pupil in the southern states for all spent upon the colored pupil, and that colored teachers are so underpaid as to make it impossible in some cases for them to live upon their salaries.

Relative expenditures on white and colored pupils in a number of states, taken from recent state reports, are as follows:

Average Expenditure per Pupil.

	White	Colored
South Carolina (1922 Report)
Per pupil enrolled	$36.10	$ 4.77
Per pupil attendance	49.51	6.93
Alabama (1921 Report)
Rural schools	16.35	4.41
City schools	34.81	12.10
Florida spent (1920 Report)
On pupils
per inhabitant	10.47	1.83
Per pupil attending	54.69	13.31
Georgia (1921 Report)
Per pupil attending	31.57	3.87
Louisiana (1919-1921 Report)
Attendance basis	46.15	11.28
Enrollment basis	33.71	7.81

As evidencing the almost universal underpayment of colored teachers in the South, the following statistics are offered from the respective state reports on education:

Average Salaries of Teachers

	White (Monthly)	Colored
Mississippi Counties (1918-1921 Report)
Coahama	$141.32	$42.00
Calhoun	60.00	23.00

DR. CORNELIA EVANS, JUSTLY ON THE HONOR ROLL

We hereby write in honor of, and most heartily congratulate Dr. Cornelia Hoss Evans, on her successful post-graduate course in the higher realm of Chiropractic. Dr. Evans more than two years ago graduated with honors as Doctor of Chiropractic from The Los Angeles College of Chiropractic, and has, since that time, been practicing her profession with ability, skill and distinction. Among her patrons are some of our best white and colored families who are ready to testify to the benefits they have received under her treatments. Notwithstanding her duties as a Physician and other arduous tasks, the Doctor reached out to higher branches in her calling, and put in two years of hard study, in a post-graduate course and graduated last Thursday Evening June 28th, with honors, in a class of Seventy two students. She was the only colored one among them, and it is with a degree of pleasure that we mention the fact that she was unanimously elected president of the class, but which office she modestly declined. Dr. Evans has offices, 1415 1-2 East Washington Street, and carries the degrees of D. C. P. N. and P. C., which mean Doctor of Chiropractic, Doctor of Naturopathy, and Philosopher of Chiropractic. Surely this is solving the race question, and we again congratulate Dr. Evans, and most cheerfully recommend her services to all seeking physical help.

GIVE THEM A CHANCE

(Crusader Service)

Pittsburg, June 30th—The following quotations from an editorial in the Pittsburg Courier under above caption apropos of the necessity of maintaining a sympathetic and helpful attitude to our brothers from the South who just now are rushing North to escape the hell of peonage and mob law of that lawless section should arrest the attention of all thinking people:

"On every hand we hear some remark about the migrating Negro from the South. He is the general topic of almost every section of the country. In the South, he is advised that he will encounter strange people and a cold reception in the North. He is warned against leaving the place of his birth.

"When we see Negroes coming into our various railroad stations, we must remember that they have given up the South only after ignoring every argument imaginable. They have left all, and come North to cast [illegible] with folk who here preceded them, and with strangers whose hospitality bears not too good a reputation.

"Too often, the Northern Negro is impudent with the stranger from the South. Too frequently the Northern Negro offers open opposition to the brother from the South, in one form or another. If the opposition does not take the form of criticism, it breaks out in, "It is argued we get the bad element, the undesirables. This is true only relatively. We get some good and we get some bad. The good we get need a chance, and opportunity, if they are to remain good. The bad must have a chance, an opportunity, some instructions, some help, if they are to become good.

"Before we hasten to discourage the brother whose flight from the South is just a little later than our own, let us give him a chance, a man's chance. Strangers are suspicious of other strangers, and naturally so. It is our duty to offer the welcome, and they will accept it in the spirit given. We have little reason to point to their faults, their awkwardness, their crude customs, their awkardness and their lack of decorum, until we are sure they have been taught by us in all the nicer things known to our community life.

"Give them a chance."

FRENCH SUFFER LOSS IN MOROCCO

(Crusader Service)

PARIS, July 4—French troops have "suffered appreciable losses" in their present campaign to subjugate the Moorish warrior tribes in the Atlas Mountains, according to a confession by M. Maginot, the War Minister made in the course of Communist heckling in the French Senate today.

The Communists, who are opposed to the policy of "European domination and capitalist exploitation of backward peoples," charged that the French Army of 15,000 in the Atlas Mountains had been severely thrashed by the Riffs and demanded a cessation to this "ruinous imperialist policy."

The Powers are the fourth European Imperialist people to be affected by the revolt spreading throughout African against European control. Spanish forces have been severely defeated in Morocco within the last two months. Two weeks ago the Italians in Tripoli had to beat a "strategic retreat" before the rebel tribesmen. In Egypt, Great Britain has the hands full and has been forced to put the Egyptian native dynasty as a puppet of Conservative British domination and control of the rich Nile Valley.

SUPREME COURT FREES NEGROES

White Daily Endorses The N. A. A. C. P.

The six Negro peons who have been awaiting retrial for, more than two years, accused of participation in the race rioting in Elaine County, Ark., in October, 1919 were freed today by the Arkansas State Supreme Court, the news being sent by telegram to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 70 Fifth Avenue, New York, which organization has led in the fight to save the lives of these men.

The rioting arose over the organization by colored share-croppers of a legal aid society through which they planned to take action through the courts to end vicious economic exploitation. In order to prevent such court action the rumor was spread that these Negroes had organized to massacre white people and seize their land. Mobs poured into Arkansas and killed in three days more than two hundred and fifty Negroes. Seventy-nine others were arrested, tried and twelve of them sentenced to death while the sixty-seven others were sentenced to long prison terms, all the convictions occurring within three days while the court room was thronged with a mob that threatened death to any juror who voted for an acquittal. The Advancement Association employed lawyers, appealed for funds and has fought the cases for nearly four years, at a cost of more than $14,000.

In February the United States Supreme Court reversed the Arkansas Federal Court in six of these cases and the decision of today frees the other six men. The cases in the Federal Supreme Court were argued by Moorfield Storey of Boston, former president of the American Bar Association and now President of the N. A. A. C. P. James Weldon Johnson, Secretary of the Advancement Association in commenting on the decision today said:

"The decision freeing these men marks the beginning of the end of the greatest case of its kind in the history of America. Back of lynching and all the more obvious forms of race prejudice lies the fundamental cause of much of race antagonism in this country and that is the desire to exploit Negroes in the South. One of the primary causes of the monumental migration going on today from the Southern states is the ardent wish of Negroes to escape such exploitation under the share-cropping and peonage systems of the South from which white and colored farmers alike suffer. The successful conclusion of the Arkansas Cases is a powerful blow at these iniquitous systems and marks a milestone in the fight for justice in America without regard to color or race.

"Great credit belongs to Mr. Storey and to Mr. Scipio A. Jones, a colored attorney of Little Rock, who has conducted the defense of these men from the inception of these cases."

On Tuesday, June 26th, our attention was called to a condition existing in the public schools of this community, which needed to be probed by the Colored population. Upon this hint, in conjunction with Mrs. Walter Gordon, representing the Alumni Association, and Rev. Eva Carter Buckner of the N. A. A. C. P., we went forth to make investigation.

Our first stop was at Polytechnic High School. Here, we had been told that little Marjorie Bright, a June graduate, was making a single-handed fight to sustain her place in the rank and file of her graduating class.

Upon our arrival at Polytechnic, we met first, Miss Gertrude Thompson, teacher in charge of the class day program, who did not hesitate to state her position in the matter, that she had segregated the Colored students at the end of the line of march, feeling that they would make (as she expressed it) a "splendid background," and when we would remonstrate with Miss Thompson concerning this procedure, she abruptly turned away, without even attempting to explain further, or to offer remedy for what we considered a grievance.

However, this neither daunted our courage nor altered our determination. We went to Principal Dunn's office, where we were cordially received, but where we were given the surprise of a life-time.

This eminent gentleman, who occupies the high place of Principal at our first rate city high school, did not hesitate to tell us that in his opinion the Booker T. Washington system of education should be introduced in California, and that Negroes students in the public schools. And then, recidentlly in the face, Mr. Dunn asked if we thought that a white boy should be expected to fall in line beside, or sit next to, a Colored girl, if he objected.

We told Mr. Dunn that we could not see wherein this should be considered a part of the high school curriculum.

"What we are here for, at this time," said we, "is not to ask, but to demand that we, as American citizens, who pay taxes; serve in all wars as soldiers, Red Cross Nurses, Volunteer Workers, etc., etc., be granted EQUAL RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES guaranteed to us by the Constitution of the United States of America; and we can see no reason why one or two high school principals, who subsist on the taxes paid by us, should presume to say that we should have a separate and distinct system of education from other American citizens."

We further notified Principal Dunn that these Negroes who represented the school of thought of Booker T. Washington have shuffled off the stage of action, and a NEW NEGRO had made his entry on the scene. This Negro is neither helpless nor hopeless. He is not asking for favors from Mr. Dunn or any other white man of his ilk; but he has decided within himself that he has served time defending the honor and integrity of America, and now he is ready to die in defense of his own honor and his place in the sun, as a full-fledged American citizen.

Our next visit was to Manual Arts High School. Here we met Dr. Wilson, who majestically occupied the high place of Principal. Dr. Wilson was very kind in stating his position with regard to segregation. He said that he felt that a student's status in his class should govern his position in the line of march, but that he had received a note from the Colored students of the class asking that they be huddled together in the line. And it is here we pause to suggest to the Alumni, the N. A. A. C. P. and many of our other leading groups, that a Vigilance Committee be appointed from these various organizations, to wait upon some new-comers and remind them that they are no longer subjected to the environment of Texas, Georgia, etc., but are in a land of freedom, where equal rights are accorded all citizens, be they white or black, western or southern born.

We then went to Jefferson High School, where we encountered the unexpected. We found most of the Colored students in one corner of the tennis court where, we are told, they gather daily at recess time to indulge in behavior that possibly would not be tolerated in a cheap Main Street show house. We would like, however, to definitely state that there are students at Jefferson High who do not participate in these performances, for among them are some of the most splendid young men and women in our community.

It was our pleasure and privilege to attend the graduating exercises of Jefferson High, and to observe with gratification that sixteen of our young people among those receiving diplomas.

In conclusion, we would emphasize the expediency of observing the trend of events along educational lines more closely and critically than we have hitherto observed them; we should give less attention to the lighter side of things, and more to the sober and serious aspect of conditions, as they affect our race.

We urge that our citizens of Los Angeles communicate with the Board of Education and demand the removal of Principal Dunn, not only as a matter in the high office of Principal of Jefferson High School, by reason of his self-confessed views, but also because he is not in sympathy with the aspirations of the Negro people of this great

CHOKES OFFICER IN STATION—TAKES GUN

(Crusader Service)

New York, June 27.—A spectcular attempt by Walter Clark, 39 years old, of 140 West 135th Street, to escape from West 135th Street Police Station, was frustrated last night by Detective John Dutler. Hearing a scuffle in the room where Clark had been taken by Detective McFarland for finger-printing, Dutler entered in time to see Clark drawing McFarland's gun with one hand, while with the other gripped about the detective's neck, holding him powerless against the wall. Dutler blackjacked Clark and the struggle ended. Clark had been locked up on a charge of robbery made by a white man who said he had been lured into a 134th Street door-

Dr. Herbert M. Fairs, of 233 Ave. 38, was the host to an enjoyable dinner party given at his house, in honor of Miss Thelma Gibson of Oakland who is spending a few pleasant weeks in our city. Covers were laid for nine including the Misses Thelma Gibson, Marion Carter, Camille Wilson, Ochiana Conrad and Pauline Ray and Dr. H. M. Fairs, Messrs. The beautifully decorated table formed a fitting background for the stunningly gowned young ladies and the formal attire of the young men. The six courses of delicious food were enjoyed by all, after which a musical program was rendered, each guest being responsible for at least one number.

Miss Gibson is one of the leaders of the younger set of Oakland, and being both beautiful and talented is admired by all who know her.

Dr. Fairs is one of the youngest and most progressive professional men of the city, conducting his chiropody offices in Glendale, where he has been located for more than a year.

WARD CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH
1262 E. 26th Street.
B. R. Guy, Pastor

Our Sunday School last Sunday had some new scholars who were highly appreciated. The deportment of the pupils was improved.

The 11 o'clock service was an old-fashioned, General Class and Sacrament Service, which was preceded by an altar service. The Holy Spirit was impressively felt by those present and the visitors well pleased.

At 3:30 p. m. Rev. J. A. Gregg, President of Wilberforce University, preached from the text—And Isaac digged again the wells of water, which they had digged in the days of Abrahame his father. The sermon was profound, and spiritual. The League devoted much of its time preparing for the big League meeting for July 3rd. At night Rev. Redden preached a very impressive sermon which was attentively listened to by the mixed audience present. Next Sunday will be trustee day, and every member and friend is asked to give 50c each, or more, for the trustee department.

WALL ST. CHRISTIAN CHURCH
East 8th and Wall Sts.

Last Lord's Day services were excellent. Rev. Cothran preached at both services. He brought us an inspiring message at each service. One accession by confession, at the morning service. Will baptize next Lord's Day at the evening service. Rev. Cothran spoke from the text: Mark 16:16 Subject—The Great and General Commission. He showed that this Commission was not limited as the first Commission given to the disciples before his death. They were to preach to Israel—one nation only, but the great and general Commission given after the death, burial and resurrection of Christ was a world-wide Commission to all Nations. The audience was appreciative and seemed to be greatly edified. We invite the public to come and worship with us.

WALL ST. CHRISTIAN CHURCH—
33rd and Hooper Street.

Rev. M. Frederick Mitchell, Pastor.

The pastor filled the pulpit last Sunday morning, using as subject text, "Whom do men say I am." Sunday evening's service were converted into a prayer meeting, which was inspiring. The Pastor and his choir held service at Burbank Christian Church (white) last Thursday. The church was filled to its capacity by eight o'clock. After a brief address by Rev. Mitchell, the choir under the leadership of Mrs. Bertha Spurill rendered a most excellent program. Quite a nice sum of money was contributed to our church. Special services at our church next Sunday. During the summer months we will have short services; morning commencing at 11:15 closing at 12:15. Evening 8:15 to 8:45. All are welcome to these services.

WESLEY CHAPEL
8th and San Julian
Rev. A. P. Shaw, Pastor

The financial drive that has been pending for some time netted about $1,000 to the elation of the church and officers. The paster is soon to go away on his vacation but suitable provisions are being made for the occupation of the pulpit and interesting services. Each Sunday evening the Choir has been doing the almost impossible, drawing the people at night to hear the offerings by Mrs. Markham and the Choir. This is a weekly musical treat. The Young People's League which meets at 6:30 each Sunday evening continues encouragingly successful. Last Sunday solos by Misses Earles, Smith and Armstrong were part of the interesting program. Talks by Miss Wood and Rev. Shaw completed the service. The Literary had a most entertaining program rendered by the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity. These young men are hard to surpass. The Literary has come to stay and will continue each First and Third Tuesday nights. Mrs. Warner, our returned Missionary, who has been in Africa for years is to be entertained next Monday evening. Come out en masse.

CHRIST TEMPLE CHURCH—

Elder C. P. Jones, Pastor.
Corner Thirty-Seventh & Naomi Sts.

God's people at this place were blessed with the presence to the Holy Spirit during the entire day, Sunday.

Sunday School began at the usual hour, 9:45 a. m. The lesson was a beautiful one, and every one seemed moved as never before with the thought emphasized that the least one in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than John the Baptist, and he was the greatest of all the prophets.

At 11:30 a. m. Pastor Jones delivered a spirit-filled message from Matt. 21:18—And presently the fig tree withered away. He depicted the sure destruction that awaits those who bring not forth good fruit. He declared that his soul trembled for even the Christians, and especially the young people of the church.

At 7:00 o'clock p. m. the young people met in the Young People's Union. After a Bible lesson, officers for the ensuing year were elected. Officers will be installed next Sunday evening.

The pastor delivered his evening sermon from the text, To the word of his testimony, that speaketh better

M., headed by a brass band, with Sunday School children, Pastor, Officers and Members in line. Four lovely girls to the Church will carry a large flag to catch donations from the friends as the procession passes, we hope everyone will throw something in the flag as we have a large amount to raise. At 1:30 the Pastor will preach from Daniel 5th chapter—The Hand Writing on the Wall; at 2:30, Exercises by the Sunday School.

We are asking all the ministers and congregation to come over and help us build up a great temple to the glory of God.

EAGLE PRINTS EXQUISITE INVITATIONS

Parents of Dr. J. A. Somerville To Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary.

The "Eagle Printe" has lately had the valued privilege of printing the invitations to the Golden Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Somerville, of Jamaica, British West Indies. These invitations, one of the most beautiful job ever turned out of Ye Eagle Shoppe, were engraved in old gold on Royal Velvet Wedding Stock, and we venture to say, in all modesty, they merited the expressions of admiration they elicited from all who saw them.

The invitations have already been sent to Jamaica. The fiftieth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Sommerville will be celebrated in September at their beautiful home, "Little Rest," Salmon Town. Some time in August Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Somerville, popular in local professional and social circles, will leave for the West Indies to be present on this noteworthy occasion.

This will be Mrs. Somerville's first visit to her husband's home, and she is looking forward to the trip with the most pleasurable anticipations.

Dr. Somerville has promised the Eagle a weekly letter, and our readers may expect interesting news, entertainingly presented, from th tropical land of beauty, known variously as the "Gem of the West Indies," and the "Brightest Jewel in England's Crown."

THANK ALL WHO ASSISTED

Mrs. W. C. Gordon and her committee of ladies wish to thank the public for the hugh success of the Garden Party given for Benefit of Howard and Meharry Medical Schools' Endowment Fund.

Many who came expecting to buy dinners and other refreshments were unable to do so because the supply was exhausted.

We take this means of thanking each and every one who assisted the committee and especially thanking each and every one who participated upon the program. Each number of which was so well rendered that to mention one is to mention all.

Aside from the money donated after all expenses were deducted this effort realized a net profit of more than a hundred dollars. For which we thank you again and again.

KAPPA ALPHA FRATERNITY SCORES

The Kappa Alpha Fraternity led by Mr. Wendell Gladden, Polemarch, triumphed in a program at the Wesley Chapel Literary Tuesday evening. The program was characterised by its thought, subject matter and ablle handling by these young men. There has never appeared a cleaner, brighter, more capable group of youngsters before any organization of the church than these young men proved to be. It was an inspiration to sit and listen to the following program: Reading Brother Brown; Original poems, Brother O. Graham; Vocal Solo, Brother Rux; Reading Wendell Gladden; Address, Leon Whitaker, subject, "The Economic Status of the Negro in Southern California." We hail these young men as a refreshing sign in this benighted age.

COLORED MAJOR LEAGUERS CLEAN BORDER NINE 8-6 SUNDAY

The battling St. Louis All Star Club took the chesty San Diego outfit into camp last Sabbath on the latter's own door step, before a multitude of soldiers, blue jackets, plain South coast citizens and natives, totals were 8-6.

DIE HARD

Before being submerged in disgrace the southerners made a mass of trouble for Lorenzo N. Cobb's cherished pets during the first duet of the rounds, when they unseated Brother Frederick Bell by smacking him for a stack of blows and a half dozen bell taps.

K. O. Pitcher Courtney

Field Manager Riggins coaxed his henchmen to run beaver Courtney to the shower in the sixth period, and the loyalists obeyed their master's voice, and he was wheeled away with a quartet of markers checked against his honor.

Neal Cuts Up

Good looking Neal Pullen, the popular back stop of New York, and local fame, became the main attraction at the huge concrete coliseum by parking a pair of round trippers in in the general direction of the Tijuana race track 18 miles away, and also a one bager to prove that homers were not his only diet.

BURNETT HITS 363

This hustling boy, Burnett, who, up to last week was soaking the apple at the rate of 321 grabbed a tripple and a pair of ode stations running his average up to 363, leading his team and passing Stearnes, who dropped back from 324 to 309.

MR. EDGAR G. BROWN, THE NATIONAL CHAMPION, HERE FOR A SHORT VISIT—HURRY AND MEET HIM

by: Wm. Mells Watson

The most pleasant and unexpected news has just reached us that Edgar Brown, of Chicago, who last August in the National Championship Tournament in the windy city, won the coveted man's singles event and retained the crown he won in 1923 at Philadelphia, is here on a short visit. It is earnestly hoped that his stay will be long enough to have our tennis group entertain this tennis celebrity; the first champ ever to reach opur city and also, if a few singles and doublematches can be arranged we may have a chance to see the champ perform.

FED OFFICERS RE-ELECTED

Something happened last Wednesday at the Fed's election meeting that never occured before; every elective office holder has so well pleased its members that they were unanimously re-elected, and President Carlisle, in turn appointed most of the former committeemen to continue service.

SPORT SQUIBS

HOW THEY'RE HITTING

Our linotype professor cut a fizzle last week, a common typographical error of dropping a whole line. This line happened to be catcher Otto Ray's standing in the averages displayed last week of the St. Louis All Stars' work since their arrival on the coast.

Ray, who left for his home in Kansas City two weeks ago, because of illness in his family, is credited as follows: games 8, at bat 28, runs 2, hits 6, three base hits 1, put outs 72, assists 5, errors 1, his batting average is .214.

BURNETT LEADS

Burnett leads the roll of honor this week with a credit of .363; Neal Pullen jumped from .250 to .333; Stearnes dropped back 15 points to .309; Bob Fagen climed the ladder of .300 hitters' fame from .272 to .307; Heinie Blackman stepped backwards 11 points .297 to.286; Field manager Riggins made a noticeable raise from .236 to .279;Crush Holloway also took an eight poinnt back set .270 to 262; old man McClure played even steven .250 to .250; Freddie Bell skidded fearfully with little to slide from .166 to .143; second cushion man Day dropped out of the one hundred class from .105 to .095.

AT THE DUNBAR

Billy de Tuck is still putting them over at th eAvenue Play House in handsome style. This wek's bill of fare was particularly amusing and interesting. His A-1 vaudeville acts are being loudly applauded as well as the feature picture for the week and "Merry-go-Round."

DANNY EDWARDS ROBBED OF DECISION

At Holyoke, Mass., last Friday night, our popular bantam weight battler, Danny Edwards, who for two years has been up East doing big things,at the end of a sizzelinng 10 session go with a white boy, Tony Thomas, was simply high wayed out of a popular decision. Thomas scaled in at 123 and Edwards at 120 1-2, and raving onlookers nearly created a riot when Thomas was declared the winner.

Danny, gentleman that he is, accepted the raw verdict without a murmur, although the news was out before the clash that the home boy would be handed the grapes if he was still able to stand on his own feet at the final bell.

PASADENA DEFEATS 9th STREET HI Y IN HARD GAME

Los Angeles, aCIf., Nov. 25, 1923—In a fast, furious and thrilling game between Pasadena Hi Y and 9th St. Hi Y, two ancient rivals,the Pasadena eleven triumphed 13 to 12. The close half the Pasadena gang opened up with a strong aerial attack that our score indicates a hard game.

George Johnson playing a sterling game at full, made both touchdowns for his team, both being end runs for 30 and 20 yards respectfully.

In the last two minutes of the first half Pasadena Hi opened up an aerial offense which might have proven fatal for the 9th Street boys if the whistle had not blown. In the second boys were unable to stop, which resulted in two touchdowns for the Pasadena fellows.

The 9th Stret boys fought hard and Jack Prayer's line plunging failed to score because the team was completely baffled at the accuracy and deadly passing of Pasadena. The feature of the game was a 60-yard punt by Allen.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

By William Narcisse

Old dame fortune once more smiled upon the Pasadena Hi Y football team Thanksgiving, when they defeated the L. A. Hi Y 13 to 12. The score, which was won by the narrow margin of one point, shows there was little to choose between the two teams. The local lads should have tied the score, if not won it, had the local Hi Y kicker converted.Geo. Johnson, diminutive halfback for the losers, made both touchdowns and starred throughout the game. Other players who deserve honorable mention, are: Captain Bisco, Smith, Towns and Rosser. This year's outfit was coached by Bryce Taylor, star halfback of the U.S.C. freshman football team.

Now that football is a matter of history, the various high schools are engaged in basket ball and track practice. Many race lads are expected to try out for these teams.

SOMETHING

(By Wendell P. Gladden, Jr.)

Something came into my life today—
Bringing with it the bright and blooming May,
Giving back the joy of living too—
My poor soul with sunshine seeping through,
Thrills with joy and hope and love that's true,
And I know that something, dear, is you.

EASTSIDE MOTHERS' CLUB ACTIVE AS USUAL

Mrs. Reese conducted the enjoyable Vesper Services at the East Side Mothers' Club on November 25th. Rev. Young, of New Orleans, also addressed the meeting.

The girls at the East Side Mothers' Home had a most sumptuous feast on Thanksgiving Day at the home, and enjoyed themselves greatly.

EXPRESSION OF APPRECIATION

I take this occasion to thank all friends in Los Angeles and Dallas, Texas, who supported me so loyally in the Big Eagle subscription campaign just closed.

HATTIE E. HOSTROOP

My Friend Recommended You to Me.

Nine persons out of every ten who come into my office write or call me by phone for appointment, greet me with the six following words: My Friend Recommended You to Me, and I appreciate those words beyond expression, they mean more to me than all the gold in the world; for those words show the confidence that reputable citizens have in me and in my business methods. They more than repay me for the effort and hard work that I put forth to save my clients money and worry. I have striven to make a friend out of everyone whom I have had any business dealings with, and those words assure me that I have succeeded. There is not enough money in the whole world to tempt me, or cause me to betray the confidence reposed in me by my clients and I believe that everyone of my clients has sent his or her friend to me. To those seeking homes, or other property, may I serve you? A few of my special prices and terms:

BIRCH STREET CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Cor. 14th and Birch Streets.
Rev. A. W. Jacobs, Pastor

The swift gale which came with the greatly lowered temperature last Lord's Day was not so affective on our attendance, and had no effect whatever on the interest and comfort. The Bible School showed a slight increase in number. At 11 a.m. the minister preached from Josh. 1:6: "Courage in the work of the Lord". Y. P.S.C.E. at 7:00 p.m. was very good.

Evening services as usual at 8:00 p.m. Subject: "How God loves us"—I. John 4:16. No one needs to be absent for fear of keeping perfectly comfortable. Our new steam heating plant has had the test and is now giving satisfaction. You are welcome at every service here. Every member makes himself a committee on greeting. Come! Bible School 9:45. Preaching 11 a.m. Y.P.S.C.E. 7:00. Preaching 11 a.m. Sundays; Wednesdays 8:00 p. m. Prayer meeting and Bible Study. 7:30 p.m. Good music at all services. Miss Eveline Tatum, Organist.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

33rd and Hooper Ave.
Rev. F. M. Mitchell, Pastor

with two well-prepared sermons. Subjects, "The Two Builders", (morning) and "A Determined Man" (evening).

The pastor, as usual, swayed his audience to a high degree of thinking. The church in every was is prolific. The greatest task to which it has set itself, the gathering in of children of the community, is progressing splendidly. A renewal of membership is on in the S. S. department. Regular visitations are being made to homes in this community by the pastor and his co-workers.

Regular services Sunday: Preaching 11 a.m. and 8 p.m., Sunday School 9:49 a.m., Y.P.S.C. at 6:45 p.m. ALL WELCOME.

ALL DAY RALLY—DEC. 23, 1923

The women of the New Tabernacle Institutional Baptist Church are rallying for the church fund on the 4th Sunday. The men of the church, the third. Of course the women expect to raise more money because all the women of the city are coming out to one of the three services. They will also serve a chicken dinner after morning service and it will not be necessary for anyone to go home to dinner. All of the leading women preachers, singers orators and musicians with the exception of Mme. Murdock, who will be in Frisco, will take part on the program. We are not whining, altho everything has been taken from the membership, we are going to fight to build up a place where God can be worshipped in spirit and in truth. All we ask is the sympathy and aid of the Christians of our city and county. We are herewith extending an invitation to every missionary society and woman's organization to come out and enjoy our wonderful program and bring a dollar. Rev. Mary Palmer, the peerless preacher, and Rev. Ida Ford, Sister Maude Morrison, Mrs. A. M. Ward, Mrs. Charlotta S. Bass, will comprise the speakers. Mme. L. Burrell of Washington, D. C., Miss Mayme Lowe, Mesdames Emnia Smith and Gussie Bacon, Soloist—Mrs. Bessie Dones, violinist, Miss Velma Wood, Pianist. Program printed in full next week. Don't forget the date, December 23rd, 4th Sunday. Mrs. L. B. Brown, Chairman, Mrs. J. M. Edwards, Mrs. Mattie Marshall, Mrs. Sadie C. Cole, Committee.

PASADENA DEFEATS L. A. "Y" TEAM

The Los Angeles "Y" Football team was defeated in Pasadena on Thanksgiving morning by the local lads, Score 12-12. The visitors outweighed Pasadena 20 pounds to the man but Pasadena, undaunted by this disadvantage sailed in and by sheer pluck and football knowledge, outclassed their rivals. "Kirk" Turner, Eckles, Captain "Hap" Kelly, "Slick" Stocks, Brownlee, Fouche, and Poynter starred for the home team. The work of the line in holding the attack of the visitors was commendable. A large rooting section helped to cheer our boys on to victory.

MEMORIES TO OUR DEPARTED ONES.

In the garden of life we grow flowers of every variety, beauty, color, sizes and formation. Many are annuals and blossom once, then blush to be seen no more, others are perennials and blossom forth year after year to the great delight of their friends and families.

But despite of our watchfulness and care the Destroyer Death insists upon picking our flowers, and does not hesitate when fancy suits, to pluck, even our rarest and most choice specimens. This memoir is due to the fact that Death has plucked some of our most choice specimens and we pause here to do them homage.

As we review the lives and characters of our departed ones, we behold in them a constellation of virtues which cannot but arrest our highest admiration and most profound respect.

The Divine image stamped in their hearts shone forth ni all their lives. Having imbibed the spirit, they carefully followed the examples of Him who is holy, harmless, pious, undefiled and separated from sinners.

Those who knew them best esteemed them most. They were kind, loving and faithful and true to their friends and the church. How humble and self denied; how gentle and unassuming; yet how dignified; how cautious of giving offenses; how willing to take counsel; how benevolent to the church; how affectionate to all; how compassionate to the distressed. One cannot measure the heights of their power, or the breath of their influences in the home, in the church and in the community any more than the antenna of an ant can measure the altitude of a mountain; for their lives were hidden in the Infinite. The memories of their lives and inspiration of their faithful service in our midst will ever be endearing and everlasting. Their death is an irretrievable loss to our church, our homes, our community and denomination. But they died as they lived—loved by all, respected by all, honored by all.

We shall miss their benign faces, their dignified presence, their wise counsel, and their kind acts. But we bless God that they lived, for we have remaining the riches of their lives.

To their "Families," to our "Church," to their "Community" and all of whom are bereaved. I would say, —Remember while death needs all the consolation of religion, Christianity has solved the problem of death. Faith is the secret of composure which breaks the bonds of sorrow. "They are not dead, but sleepeth." We shall see them in the Mornins.

—W. A. HARROD.

The members and friends of the Metropolitan Baptist Church enjoyed a very inspiring sermon by the pastor, Rev. W. L. Strauther, Sunday morning, his subject being, "The privilege of a Christian." The pastor preached in the evening also. His subject was, "A Divided Kingdom". One member was added to the church, and every one went away feeling well fed with God's Gospel.

Rev. A. T. Hines, Pastor

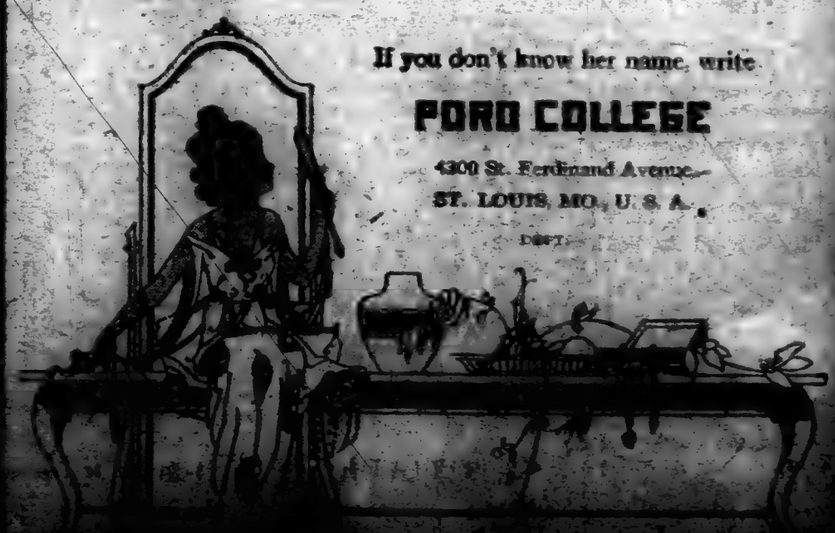
On last Sunday Sunday we were spiritually blessed throughout the day—We had a splendid Sunday School. We were sorry, however, that our eleven so'clock services had to be brief as Rev. Dr. Carter worshipped with us, but it was due to the fact our pastor was booked to preach at Santa Ana and in spite of the high winds about 24 members motored along with him and there we enjoyed a most wonderful sermon. Subject of Text, "Have you made up your mind." After which echoes came from all parts of the house declaring they had grown many feet higher.

We found a most wonderful spirit existing there as the congregation consists of both white and colored—there seemed to be perfect harmony.

BISHOP CANTWELL TO BLESS NEW HALL

On Sunday, December 23rd, at 3:30 P.M., sharp, the Rt. Rev. Bishop Cantwell of Los Angeles will enter St. Victor's Hall at 16th and Essex Sts., one block west of 16th and Central. He comes to solemnly bless that hall, and he will also deliver an inspiring address, outlining the program of activities to be carried on in the Social Center. Elaborate arrangements have been made for his reception: an excellent musical program, both vocal and instrumental, will be given. Several numbers will be rendered by a Choral Society of thirty voices to the accompaniment of an orchestra of eight pieces. Besides there will be vocal and instrumental solos by distinguished artists. The Hon Joseph Scott, noted Los Angeles Attorney, will deliver an address. There is no admission charge and everyone who wishes to attend is invited herewith. Please remember that the ceremony and program starts at 2:30 P.M. sharp.

Our opening in October was a big success. All who came enjoyed themselves and learned the motive and purpose of our efforts at this center and were pleased.



All are invited to be present on Sunday, December 23rd, at 3:30 P.M. sharp, and they will go home from the meeting in an enthusiastic frame of mind, having enjoyed a pleasant and profitable afternoon and knowing that a great [illegible]

ATTEMPT TO CRUCIFY PRESIDING ELDER

The same old spirit is being exemplified in the persecution of Presiding Elder Jas. Washington, who is now being tried before an Ecclesiastical Council of the A. M. E. Church, for no other reason than the fact of his winning a place to the General Conference, and that he has made an enviable record as a crack presiding elder. Jim Washington is a man of God and stands for the people. Upright, square, a Christian gentleman. He is being hounded by Churchmen, some of whom should be on trial for records they have established, which are as black as the hinges of midnight.

However, in the pending trial, Presiding Elder Wilson, and a committee of clean cut Christian gentlemen, we are satisfied will see to it that justice prevails, for a vigilant laity is looking on at the attempted rape, assault and assisination of this man who has the support and confidence of the people.

BUSINESS AND PRODUCCTION IS THE WATCHWORD

The time has arrived and the opportunity as well, to get in line on business and production. And when we call business meetings, it is certainly no time for long winded speeches. And the order of the day on such occasions is how to corner more business and to to bring about more production.

As revealed in our last issue, on seven articles alone, the Negro people of this city spend the apalling amount of more than sixteen Million Dollars. Now the question and problem is: how to be declared in on at least a fair proportion of this business.

What we want, is for the man who is in business to get more business, and for more of our people to get into business, and finally for us to get the old production slogan to function. We cannot get anywhere with orations, we must have business men who have succeeded to talk to us on the ins and outs of business. We must have men and women who have made a success along the line of production to wise us up along the line of production.

The Commercial Council is on the right track, and all who stand for real progress should join in with its program, and we will not only get our portion of business, but we will bring forth producers as well.

MORE ABOUT THE PRESIDENT

Speaking of President Coolige and the reference he made as to the Negro, we are unable to discern any great ray of light, or proposition looking toward the betterment of the condition of 12,000,000 people. To our mind the President only followed the beaten path of his predecessors, in which they made favorable mention without backing it up with action. We will remember the same line of thought by the departed President Harding, and we also remember the incidents which followed, prineipally among which was the Colored Veteran Hospital at Tuskegee, and whether he would have made his promise good in that instance, if he had lived, will never be known. But we do know that President Coolige, who avered that he would follow the policies of the departed President, has not made one move to put the Hospital at Tuskegee under the personnel of colored officials as pro nised by Mr. Harding.

The penning of these lines is in no way to be considered as a declaration for or against Mr. Coolige, but is to state the bare facts as they exist, and that those who read can appreciate the status of our group in high places.

We refuse in things political to be edified by mere words, we would prefer action, the sort of action which the peerless Roosevelt was wont to give, and in the meantime, let us just keep a weather eye on politice; talk less and vote more, and if we must think and do things, let's get busier than ever along the lines of economice and Production.

ME, MY WIFE AND MY DOG

Every State, every city, county and rural Negro population of Negroes has been burdened with the ambitious selfish of its time-serving Negro politician. Sometimes there is more than one of the breed to torment the patience of the tolerant. But the career of the time-serving political Negro is nearing its end. It is good for the race.

The time-serving Negro politician was never anything but a "buffer", a hired servant, a cat's paw, a coward, an empty shell and emptier head. He has lways been about the biggest liar and sham in the form of man pretending to be a citizen. He has alwaye represented the worst and meanest obstruction to the substantial progress of Negroes in every American community.

A time-serving Negro politician was arrogant enough to openly confess that his only interest in life was self-interest, first; next, interest in his wife; and finally, interest in his dog. He boldly boasted that he had no other interest, thus attaching proof by his own words to the convictions of many that he is more brute than human.

Any Negro who stands rigidly by the creed, "Each for Himself" in matters concerning the public good is a menace to the welfare of the race. He cannot be trusted in any matter involving public, personal or professional honor. He is degenerate in breed and birth and will live always in the ancient period when the creed "Each for Himself" first strayed from science into the market place.

Election time is approaching when party candidates will be bidding for votes of Negroes. It will be well for every voter, man and woman of the race to begin now to watch out for [illegible] of negro politician whose motto is "[illegible]

SANTA BARBARA NEWS

The Sunday School was largely attended last Sunday. Mr. Wm. Birch, Superintendent at the Second Baptist Church and Mrs. H. B. Thomas, Chorister, are busy preparing an elaborate program for the Christmas service for the young people.

All day the service was well attended and the pastor, Rev. H. B. Thomas, being ill, the evening service consisted of a testimonial meeting, and the spirit was felt throughout the service at the close of which our pastor gave an uplifting talk that made each one present feel better for being there.

The Christian Endeavor of the St. Paul A.M.E. Church is doing splendid work under the new president, Mrs. Leon Sims.

Mr. W. H. Lewis, who has been confined with a cold, is able to be out again.

Mr. William Vankerton, of Montecito St., has purchased a car.

Miss Blanche Brooks, formerly of Kansas, City, Kansas, and late of Los Angeles and Santa Barbara, the charming daughter of Mrs. Chas. Brooks, was happily united in marriage Oct. 27, 1923, at her parents' residence, Kansas City, Kansas, t Mr. Harry Oswald King of Burlington, Iowa. The nuptial knot was tied by the Rev. W. A. Bowen, the bride's former pastor.

The happy couple left immediately for Burlington, Ia., their future home. While here Miss Brooks, as she was known, made a number of friends who join in heartiest congratulation and wish the couple many years of happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fagan, of 24 E. Montecito St., spent their vacation taking an extended trip touring the northern states. On leaving Santa Barbara they went to Oakland, Cal., spending three days with Mrs. Sarah Johnson; then to Portland, Ore.; then to Seattle, Washington, where another few days were spent; then to Salt Lake City, Utah; Ogden, Utah; San Francisco, and return home. On their return they reported a trip full of pleasure, and full of the beauties and wonders of nature. Mr. and Mrs. Fagan, for a number of years, have been in the employ of the Southern Pacific station and have many friends.

The pastor of Second Baptist Church, Rev. H. B. Thomas, has been confined to his bed for a few days with a severe cold, but is convalescing at present.

Others who have been ill, but who are improving include: Mrs. W. Phillips, Mr. Wm. Thomas, Mrs. C. Chapman, and Mrs. G. Lawson.

Mrs. Mollie Brown left last Friday for a week's visit in San Diego. While there she will be the house guest of Mrs. Elsia Perry.

Mrs. Jean Shans had a delightful Thanksgiving dinner. Covers were laid for twelve.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Walls were among the many who spent Thanksgiving in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Essie Grimes, 716 Canal, entertained a large card party at her home Thanksgiving night. Delicions refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Liddell entertained at Thanksgiving dinner. Covers were laid for seven.

Mrs. Edward Fowler left for Monrovia to spend the holidays.

L. A. Jones, Agt.

MONROVIA—

Mrs. Lucy Cherry of 521 E. Cypress St. is very ill. Mrs. Cherry is a very ardent church and club worker. Her associates miss her very much and hope for her speedy recovery.

Mr. Sylvester Richardson has again taken charge of his restaurant and refreshment stand, Cor. Cypress and Shamrock Ave. Mr. Richardson is a very pleasing man, therefore we prophesy for him an excellent business.

Master Arnold Reed the youngest son of Rev. and Mrs. Reed is stricken with what the doctors believe to be infantile paralysis. The parsonage in which they live is quarantined. Rev. Reed is allowed out by staying at another place as he is the support of the family. Mrs. Reed reports that the child is improving and is now able to use his little limbs and somewhat able to sit up alone. All the rest of the children that are affected by the quarantine are getting along nicely. Rev. Reed, the father and the church see that every want is supplied.

Mr. George Hollins one of our local singers of promise, is planning to leave after the sixteenth of this month for Fisk University to take a course in vocal music. The local Zion Methodist church is assisting him.

The First Fall Fair and Art Exposition given under the auspices of the Shiloh A. M. E. Zion Church, was a brilliant affair. It was a success socially, financially and in attendance. More than two hundred white people took in the Fair. The beautifully decorated booths were well worth seeing. The splendid program put on each night drew out large crowds. Outside of the local talent, Miss Roena Muckelroy and Miss Leondas Simmons appeared in several solos. It goes without saying that they were well received and vigorously applauded, each of them would will receive large support here in song recital, by both white and colored. Rev. Dr. Read is receiving congratulations on every hand because of the worthy effort. The Art exhibit was wonderful. The needle work and paintings wre praised to the highest, as also was the fire arms exhibited by Mr. Geo. M. Jones, the guns and pistols were the handiwork of his father; the stocks of the guns were inset with gold. The proceeds from the Fair ran into the hundreds of dollars. The members alone with the pastor took much interest in making the Exposition a success.

REETURN OF LOST BOY BRINGS JOY TO OLD MAN'S HEART

(By Wendell P. Gladden, Jr.)

It was December in Beverly Hills. Great mists of gray gathered slowly over the purple rolling hills until the snow-clad peak of Mt. Baldy, some fifty miles distant, was scarcely discernible.

Over in the West the sunset glow sent flickering, golden shadows to mingle with the hazy sky.

Against this huge background of tinted sky was the towering peak of old Baldy in all his white grandeur softened only by crimson shadows of the West.

A hiking party of five men, three women and two boys halted at the base of one of the hills for a few minutes of rest. All were fatigued from long marches thru hills and ravines. The women seemed exhaustedr and immediately began eating some articles of food that they found in their knapsacks.

But hardly had the party seated itself, when an old man,, a giant in stature, rugged and very powerful-looking, rushed up from one of the tiny villages and dropped breathlessly to the ground.

For an instant no one moved, but sat dumbfounded while the crumpled mass of manhood lay in a bed of crisp, brown leaves.

The next instant found the party kneling beside the man. "Hey! Stranger, what's the matter?" "Old man, dead, oh. . . . . ." shouted and sobbed the men and women.

"My boy, my nephew—little Joe—againnst lost!" The old man weakened again. "Yer seen him, eh? Four long hours have I searched in vain."

Having gained a little strength and encouragement the old man joined the hikers in a last effort to find the lost child. The weary trampers forgot themselves. They thought only of the missing boy. But that spirit of helpfulness is always characteristic of a group of human beings, and it is no wonder that they forgot their feelings in their desire to serve.

The biting wind began blowing furiously, save for a few minutes, and hundreds of dead leaves from sycamore trees filled the air and played ddna'r pe"tm tdthhea wMea shrd mm along the great sheet of brown. It was really a bleak December day. All plant life seemed dead or decayed and the wind moaned through the almost bare trees.

Overhead the ever changing blue of the sky was fading into and blending with a thousand softening tints. And yet, the white-capped Baldy could still be faintly seen but the sun had drooped below the Western hills.

After an hour's search the party assembled and at the aged man's request took a short cut to his cabin where they were to spend the night.

As they strode on they came upon a great patch of shrubbery and there, beside it lay the boy—little Joe. Three little squirrels were nestling close to the child's side.

"Thank God" exclaimed the man. The frightened squirrels sped into the thickets.

"I knew you would come, uncle", was all the little fellow said, as he was awakened and taken into the arms of his uncle.

The misty shroud had gathered low and shielded everything, even old Baldy—and then came the night.

The end.

REGINALD SIKI, THE WRESTLER

Few of the locals are aware that we have in our ranks a young, 21 year old 215 pound wrestler, bearing the title of Reginald Siki, a Senegalese.

Yes, indeedie, last Monday night, December 3rd, at the Coliseum, in Chicago, this muscular boy was sent to what old timers thought to be his death on a neat battlee with the former world's heavy weight champino Stanislaus Zbyszko, who has flopped the best grapplers in the game and knows every trick like a book.

CLEAN UP VICE DENS

Att'y Tyler Backs Up California Eagle Fight on Dunn

TABOO THE HIGHBINDERS

SWAT THE PARASITES OF THE CITY

The Colored citizens of this city stand for law and order, they are against the Chinese Lottery sharks, and all sorts of vice dens. In fact their stand for law and order is well known and needs no questioning for one moment.

This makes them allright, Mayor Cryer is allright, Chief Oaks is all right and the only thing not right is the fact that periodically some of the understrappers suffer some discredited crook, claiming to represent somebody, to come forward with propaganda which to say the least has a demoralizing effect upon the body politic and tends to bring this group of our citizenship into disrepute.

Small Time Stuff

Imagine if you please, the spectacle of a self-appointed leader aspiring to be put in a position where he can dictate what policeman can serve in certain districts; this is a shame and disgrace.

Imagine giving credence to anything such characters would bring forth with their double crossing and assassination methods.

As a matter of fact such characters are the weights which hold us down for they are the arch criminals themselves.

Clean Up Campaign

The Soaring Eagle suggests a clean up campaign, and by all means let these birds be picked up in the cleaning.

At any rate the Soaring Eagle will keep its ears to the grass roots and keep our readers wise to every move of the outlaw type which are so anxious to purify the town. The trouble however, is not one of purification, but one whereby somebody wants purification just for their own personal ends and not for the people.

The Soaring Eagle differs with this gentry for we want law and order for the people.

CAPTURE WIFE MURDERER

NABBED AS HE WAS ATTEMPTING TO BOARD FAST FREIGHT

W. P. Wooley who wilfully almost severed the head of his wife, Edna Wooley from her body and caused her instant death in the Bryson Building on last Monday, was captured by the officers of the law on Wednesday night near 39th and Compton Ave.

It is reported that since he made his escape after committing the murder on last Monday, he had been hiding with friends, awaiting a favorable opportunity to clear the town. But Fate willed against him, and he is now in the County Jail awaiting trial for murder.

Wooley and his wife were estranged from each other and it is reported that he had been pleading over her refusal to return to him. This is the reason that prompted the killing.

SO. CAL. ALUMNI HAS PROGRAM AT WESLEY

By W. P. GLADDEN, JR.

Educational activities of the year reached a climax when more than one hundred students representing the largest group of high school and college graduates thus far were honored at the fifteenth annual reception of th Southern California Alumni Association at Wesley M. E. Church on Friday evening, July 6.

A large audience packed the chapel to its capacity to witness the ceremony which marked the passing of young people from the portals of school and college into the world of men and affairs. Parents and friends from many Southern California cities came to honor and encourage them.

Beautiful decorations and flowers added to the solemnity and dignity of the occasion. Slowly the graduates marched to the processional and were greeted with applause. An excellent program had been arranged by Miss Naida McCullough, chairman of the committee and the crowd remained attentive throughout the evening.

Mrs. C. A. Spear-Bass, editor of the California Eagle, was the principal speaker. Her address was forceful, instructive, and inspiring. She declared that "the aim of educational training should be thorough preparedness—physical, moral, and mental, to meet and overcome the difficulties, to solve the problems of life.

"No student should be satisfied with 'getting by,'" she said. "Less than any other, the superior organization," "can the Colored school boy or girl afford to be content with 'getting by.' Cold in the mind of the Caucasian, stands for all that is inferior. The Colored

ELOPES WITH OTHER MAN.

On the morning of June 2nd, Mrs. Ruby Buck of 1507 W. 35th St., departed her matrimonial career as the wife of Charlie Buck, and after depriving him of even his personal effects, with her new love eloped to South Bend, Indiana where Mr. Buck believes she and Mr. Samuel Jackson are spending their illegal honeymoon with Mrs. Buck's mother, Mrs. W. A. Finley of 125 So. Birdell St.

Mr. Buck, in an interview with an Eagle reporter, declared that he had done all within his power to make life worth while for his wife. That he was thirty-second degree Mason and a member of the Independent Church of Christ; that he is regularly employed by the Vermont Millard Parlor, located at 4715 Vermont Ave.

Mr Buck also states that Mr. Jackson is under bail two wives to his credit, but hopes that since he has seen fit to add his wife and his personal effects to his list of possessions, that he will find room in his heart for his Ruby Buck's wife, and space in his wardrobe for his clothes which is [illegible]

CHURCH RAISES $78,000 IN RALLY

By T. L. Griffith.

It was a great day in the old mother church last Sunday. It was the closing time of a campaign to see our way clear to begin and finish the erection of our greatly needed building. At about half past ten o'clock at night there was such a scene as I never witnessed in my life before. Men and women, young and old, [illegible] clapped their hands in ecstacy. The goal had been reached and passed.

The immediate result of the drive was the securing of sacred pledges made in faith under the influence of Christian stewardship teaching, to the amount of seventy-eight thousand three hundred twenty dollars, payable in three years. These pledges together with property and money on hand, make the Second Baptist Church able at this writing to plan for an equipment of over a hundred thousand dollars.

One great outstanding feature of the campaign is the spiritual setting which has been given to the material side of a Christian's life. Never again can the church be what it has been. I greatly mistake the spirit of things if I do not discern a deepening of the spirit of work and service in our church.

Dr. F. H. Divine was secured for us by the Los Angeles City Mission Society. Without their aid we possibly would never have had the privilege of his services. Dr. Divine has conducted similar campaigns in Baltimore and Detroit in churches of which Dr. L. K. Williams, Dr. S. E. J. Watson and Dr. Bradby are pastors. Those who saw the work of this great specialist and who co-operated with him agree with the great church workers all over the continent that he is thoroughly conversant with ways and means for raising money for the work of the Lord.

I am almost daily asked, When is the Second church going to build? I may say that we might have begun building several months ago but our plans have been to carry the work on to completion, and if possible to avoid the structure before entering it. Plans for the new building have not yet been drawn, but the church has voted to have such an edifice as shall be open every day in the week serving such needs of the people as it may be possible for us to minister to. Christianity touches every phase of life, and rightly applied relates to the entire man. Worship is sacred; so is service. We are preparing to serve, and the meaning daily is dawning in reality a use of them in getting ready for the large program we have in mind.

Our pledges have made pledges. They did not make them thoughtlessly. They had plenty of time to think it over. Some were very reluctant to promise. Those pledges are sacred. I

DR. E. C. NELSON BECOMES OIL MAGNATE

BUYS ROYALTY IN WELL WHICH COMES IN 11000 BARRELS STRONG

MELCZER GETS 8000 BBL. WELL AT SPRINGS

The Melczer Oil Company succeeded in bringing in its first well at Santa Fe Springs at 2 o'clock this morning, when its No. 2 came in with a production said to exceed 8000 barrels, with the flow steadily increasing.

This well had been drilled below the 4600-foot level.

The above clipping tells the story and at the same time how and why our hustling and successful physician and surgeon, Dr. E. C. Nelson has become an oil magnate.

We all remember the handsome and imposing Pierce Arrow Auto automobile which Dr. Nelson drove some months back. This make of car of course represented quite a deal in raise, so much so that when the Doctor wanted to dispose of it, he could not get any offer near its value. He had almost given up in despair when he received an offer of a royalty in the above well for the car; the doctor took the offer up and turned over the car without receiving one cent, excepting a piece of paper which was to say the least a gamble. He was game and waited patiently for his chances to come. Therefore when the announcement to appear in the above clipping was made it was music to the doctor's ears.

The value of the hold to Dr. Nelson alone is considerably more than $40,000 [illegible] the present flow which is [illegible]

The prosperity is [illegible] in the Santa Fe Springs District and the supply is inexhaustible.

Then we take on those Western Shorts have the honored distinction as well as privilege to point with pride to one of our young and aggressive professional men who has hesitated not to dare along the lines of [illegible] effort and has brought to [illegible] things worth while for the advancement of his race, which puts him in a position to make larger and better openings in the future than has ever been dreamed of before.

This is in line with our well-known precedent of production, and especially does it demonstrate the fact that if you get anywhere you must produce something.

We congratulate Dr. Nelson upon his success. We appreciate his worth to the community for the reason that he sensed big things and had the nerve and backbone to take a chance on the real and legitimate opportunity which stood before him. Give us Oh Lord, give us more and more of our professional men with a vision the

We read with interest, but without the least bit of surprise, the demand for the resignation of principal Dunn which was published over and in an editorial appearing on the front page of the July 6th issue of the California Eagle. Mr. Dunn is the Principal of Polytechnic High School.

The salient facts in the article may be stated briefly:

Miss Gertrude Thompson, teacher in charge of the Class Day program at Polytechnic High (this past June) put all of the Colored students on the end of the line of march because to her notion they made a "splendid background."

Mr. Dunn, the principal of the high school, said in effect, "Industrial education should be introduced in California schools for Colored students." He asked a race committee "If they thought that a white boy should be made to march beside or [illegible] Colored [illegible]"

At the Manual Arts High School, Dr. Wilson, Principal, said to the Race Committee, that the Colored students had written him a note asking that they be segregated in the line of march at graduation time; that he personally would have put them in line according to their grade standing.

At the Jefferson High School, the Committee found most of the Colored students in one corner of the tennis court indulging in behavior "that possibly would not be tolerated in a cheap Main Street Show-House."

EDUCATION THE INDISPENSABLE NEED OF THE DAY

Education is an indispensable requirement of present day civilization. All of the forces of civilization,—everything we meet with in modern life, calls in a loud voice to the young people in warning to them that without education they will meet with a limited and proscribed opportunity. We can hear the more successful men and women of our group say, "That if they had been educated in their youth they would have multiplied their business and financial success many-fold."

INCREASE OF GRADUATES HOPEFUL BUT NOT SATISFACTORY.

The number of our young people who finished high school courses in Southern California this year was about 100. Of this number 25 finished at the high schools in Columbus and Topeka other than Los Angeles. At U. C., there were 5 graduates and at U. S. C., there were 2. The number of high school graduates from Los Angeles City High Schools was 80.

While this is the largest number of high school graduates we have yet had in a single year, yet it is far short of the number we must have if we have the slightest idea of holding our own.

If the high school graduates from this city numbered 80 it is fair to multiply this number by 4 and arrive at 320 as the total enrollment in our City High Schools. It is fair also to multiply the total number of high school graduates, to wit,—100 by 4 and arrive at 400 as the total enrollment of all of California South of the Tehachapis. We have therefore in a population of 5,000 Colored people, roughly speaking, one high school graduate this year out of every 500 persons and in Los Angeles we had one high school graduate out of every 400 persons of our group living in the City. By comparison, this number is far too small. In Kansas City, Kansas, where the population does not exceed 18,000, the enrollment in the high school of our group alone was 385.

THE EXTENT OF THE GRIEVANCE

Since we are maintaining, theoretically, and absolutely equal opportunity at education for all of the children of the citizens of this City we owe it to them and to ourselves to "nail to the mast" any policy or practice which in fact denies the constitutional democracy of this opportunity. Two observations at once arise:

In the first place every parent and all persons upon whom devolves the duty and responsibility of educating children must open every student of examination and of finance, even of exhaustion if necessary, to multiply our group enrollment in the high school by at least 10 in the next two years. Those parents in those places where the opportunity for public education is to be practically duplicated, or increased by the [illegible]

EAGLE EDITOR VISITS HEADQUARTERS OF DE NEALS' MODERN METHOD BEAUTY CULTURE

On a recent trip to Seattle among other places visited we might well make special mention of our visit to the home office of the far-famed De-Nealo Modern Preparations for the hair and face. We found the founder of this remarkable preperation at her branch office, 1030 Jackson Street. She has by hard work and a wonderful organization made an enviable reputation for the De Nealo Products and they are now in general use thruout the United States. Students of the system have gone forth to all parts of the country. The Madame, has established branch offices in Kansas City, New York, Denver, Los Angeles etc. All of which report a thriving business. The Madame expressed herself as much pleased at the publicity gained for her products through the columns of the "Soaring Eagle." With a most efficient assistant in the person of Mrs. J. C. Phillips who is well known thruout the country as the representative of the De Mealo Products the firm is going forth to greater and grander heights than ever before.

OFFICIAL CALL

Bakersfield, Cal., July 11,1923.

The State Federation of Colored Women's Clubs will meet in San Diego, Calif., in Seventeenth Annual Session, July 31st to August 4th, 1923, in A. M. E. Church, 1647 Front Street, by invitation of San Diego Section.

As the aims and purposes of the Federation become more clear each year, and as the necessity for race women to study the vital issues of the day, we earnestly request all clubs to send full delegations, each entitled to representation in the State Federation by presidents, members of boards, and one delegate for every ten members, and one for every fraction thereof.

Bring your Club Banners. Boost your San Diego Convention.

TEA FOR NORTHWESTERN FEDERATION

On July 1st, the artistic home of Mrs. Williams, 1282 East 15th street was the scene of a beautifully appointed tea for the benefit fo the Northwestern Federation, which convenes in Los Angeles July 16-19 inclusive.

The color scheme was decidedly carried out. The table was adorned with a beautiful basket of pink roses and ferns. Mrs. Houston, president of the Ne Plus Ultra Club, assisted by Mrs. J. S. Wright, did the honors at the table. Mmes. Nailley, Rodgers, Ross, Hill King Bramlett, Tingle and Fowlkes received.

Mrs. L. Johnson rendered a well chosen musical program during the afternoon.

One hundred and twenty-five guests were present on this enjoyable occasion, and the affair was a brilliant success both financially and socially.

Mrs. Fowlkes extends many thanks to everyone who so liberally contributed.

and become a bread-winner and help pay for the home and have money for clothes and pleasure. The opportunity to quit school is tempting and alluring. Those who do make the four-year effort must meet the drawing-apart, and the aloofness that pervades our entire civil and social life in all of its phases. In order that they meet this unfair lack of comradeship with courage enough to finish the course, every single member of our group must be a staunch friend, advocate, and apostle of every race boy or girl seeking to acquire high school or a higher education.

A CALL TO ARMS

The conduct of a principal or teacher here or there of the kind pointed out in the article to which we at first referred must be corrected by an application to the fairness, good sense, and to the best American spirit of school boards, principals, and teachers. By all means our young people must not be led to feel that because of obstacles they should be permitted to quit high school or college and seek mediocre employment.

Dr. Kelly Miller has called a monster Race Conference to meet this fall and lay down a program for the solution of our problems and for the betterment of the race. Cannot all of the forces of our City and County which find expression in the various church, lodge, club, and other organization, send one delegate each to a meeting and lay down a program that will greatly increase the enrollment of our young people in high school and in college and that will tend to iron off the rough places and make smooth the contact between white pupil and colored pupil and between white teacher and colored pupil in the high schools of our City?

Rev. W. E. Shaw, Pastor
Res. 1217 Paloma

A full audience greeted Rev. W. J. J. Byers of San Francisco on last Sunday morning as he preached from the word of God, Isa. 43:5—"Fear not: for I am with thee," etc. It was one of those powerful soul-uplifting sermons. Two young men came forward and joined the church.

At 3 p. m. Mrs. W. J. J. Byers was the principal speaker at the Missonary Mass Meeting and helped to raise a neat little sum to be forwarded to our missionary workers on the foreign field.

At 8 p. m. another excellent message was delivered by Rev. Byers from 1st Epistle of John 5:4.

Being a former pastor here Rev. Byers greeted many old friends, yet his heart was made sad by the many vacancies made by the grim reaper—Death—and otherwise.

The fourth and last quarterly meeting will be held Sunday, July 15th. Quarterly Conference, Monday, July 16th.

This church is striving to do its part in building up true Christian characters. Will you help her? Visit class and prayer service Wednesday evenings.

Brother H. B. Quinn of the standard education society filled the pulpit at the evening service. His comment on the 10th chapter of John was a masterpiece of theology. NEW HOPE BAPTIST CHURCH—Services Sunday were very enthusiastic, there being a large attendance both morning and evening.

The trip around the world was a grand success. Eight automobiles crowded to capacity made the wonderful trip in one evening. All who went requested the committee to repeat the trip some time in the near future.

Great preparations are being made by the choir for their Negro Folk Concert to be held in the church auditorium on Monday evening, July 16. The choir membership has increased to forty, and the above mentioned effort is being made to secure prizes for all choir members. Every one is invited to come spend an evening with Negro Composers. Bruce Boyer, who has recently taken charge of the choir, there will be special numbers from each composer, as [illegible] Dunbar, Coleridge Taylor, [illegible] Burleigh.

The Lesson subject in our Sunday School was very helpfully discussed, and visitors received the usual hearty welcome. U. went over the top at the usual hour—the president was truly with us in the power of the spirit. At 4 o'clock we observed the Lord's Supper, and had a precious time in waiting on The Master. At this hour the sick were remembered by name in special prayer. Our beloved Brohter Green, Sisters Johnsons, and Jones, and others were earnestly prevailed at our church conference, and much was attended to in a short time. We urge all members to be present at all our services, and cordially invite friends—Come praying for a blessing.

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH—
14th and Burch Street.

The services for last Lord's Day were indeed a day of praise and well attended. The Bible School seemed to have taken on new life. We had several additions in the school and at 11:00 a. m, the minister, Rev. Bro. I. J. Williams, brought to our attention the Bible School Golden Text. St. Matt. 1:21. "Thou shalt call his name Jesus; for it is he that shall save his people from their sins."

In this the wonderful power of Jesus was sen and at hte Young People's Meting we had a fine Topic—What Does Christian Brotherhood Mean? First John, 3 chapter, 10 to 24 verse. A peace meeting and at which time our Elder R. R. Tarmage brought a chart lesson in the Endeavor and at the 8:00 o'clock hour the minister, brother Williams,

Rev. E. J. Lightner, Pastor.

The past Sunday was filled with good things for this congregation. A number of visitors were present among whom were: Mrs. Rurrell, of Washington, D. C. Mrs. Garner of Birmingham, Ala., Mrs. Snowden of Palneville, O., Dr. Murden of Los Angeles. All these were introduced and brought greetings to the church. In the afternoon Rev. S. M. Beane of the Hamilton M. E. Church and his excellent choir were in charge of the service. Rev. Beane brought an inspiring message on: "He that overcometh shall inherit all things." CHRIST TEMPLE BAPTIST CHURCH—
Thirty-Seventh and Naomi Streets.
Elder C. P. Jones, Pastor.

All services at this place were held at the usual hours Sunday. Sunday School began at 9:45 o'clock a. m. and was very well attended. Several visitors were present. We were much delightd to have the Rev. Brother Pitts with us. He remained through the morning services.

At the 11:00 a. m. service Pastor Jones delivered hsi morning's message in his eloquent and impressive style, his subject being The Temptation of the Devil, and the Glory That Follows Its Successful Resistance. Text: Then the devil leaveth Him; and behold angels came and ministered unto Him. Matt. 4:11. He spoke as the oracle of God, and the people of God felt the great blessing that comes to him who resists the devil.

At 7:00 o'clock, the young people held their meeting. After discussing the Bible lesson, the officers for the ensuing year were installed by the ex-president, Mr. Fred McAllister. The Pastor gave some most helpful admonitions to the young peole, and especially to the ex-president.

The pastor then preached an expository sermon from Zachariah 3. All returned home, determined to be more faithful, and to exhort others to greater faithfulness.

FOUNTAINE CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH—
Duarte, Calif.

Rev. William Pierce, Pastor.

After a splendid session of the Sunday School a large congregation gathered at 11:00 a. m, coming from Monrovia and Pasadena and a few from Los Angeles to hear Mrs. C. R. Bass, Editor of the Eagle, deliver the Educational address. After waiting for some time the pastor had to preach and fill the place of the distinguished friend, but it took lots of earnest prayer. After hearing that the husband of editor had taken sick in the North we assure the people that was the cause of the disappointment. At 3:00 p. m. Dr. Gregg, president of Wilberforce University, accompanied by our State President of the Allen C. E., Brother Payne Middleton, was with us. The services were under the auspices of the Allen C. E. Dr. Gregg delivered a great sermon taking "Neh rebuilding the walls" as his subject. The little church was filled. Our church was beautifully decorated with the state colors. Even the Robed Choir had on blue and white caps. After the services were open twenty little boys and girls wearing blue an dwhite uniforms surprised the congregation by marching up and down the aisle of the church singing "Let us move up the King's high way." This pleased the people until the little folks had to repeat their little yells and sang several times led by Mrs. J. C. Redd, with Mrs. Rev. Pallett directing the music. Our collection was $26.12 for education.

WILKINS' PIANO RECITAL

Prof. Wm. T. Wilkins, pianist, gave his annual piano recital by students of the Wilkins' Piano Academy at the First Christian Church last Tuesday evening. Holding this as a student's examination and exhibition of the interpretive side of music, the program ranged through classic and ultra-moderns and received well-earned appreciation. Both Thelma Lowery and Samuel Brown who were to appear for Teacher's Certificates showed broad command of both the technique and the music. They played in the larger mold with a nice sense of proportion made exhilarating by a scintillating style. The length of the program would make it almost impossible to satisfactorily comment upon the work of each participant, but a general criticism would sum the appearance of the students as a demonstration of masterly style, forceful and in many instances reaching a sweeping and gratifying climax. There was excellent expression and execution. Prof. Wilkins and his assistant Miss Banton supplemented the program with interpretations full of tone, color and atmosphere. Especially was the working of Prof. Wilkins gratifying as he played with his usual whirlwind facility that is clear in concept and execution.

Mr. Owen Troy proved an assisting artist of musical attainment and feeling. He played most alluringly "Souvenir" and "The Rosary." Profs. Pitts and Johnson sang with color and feeling. They have inexpressable beauty and much of the aesthetic that is lovely. The vast audience sent wave after wave of applause to the players and fairly deluged them with flowers. Miss Banton and Mr. L. Brown as directress and accompanist were very integral parts of the occasion. The Girls Glee Club must be mentioned for their numbers were vibrant and beautiful. This organization should remain intact for it would be a most useful asset to our community. Much credit is due Mr. Wilkins and his staff for this stupendous, yet highly successful effort for all went away pleased and amazed at the wonders accomplished from little Cornelius Walker up. It was a triumph for the school and its system.

Drill Team Receives Ovation

The local Drill Team in Exhibition Drill Monday evening gained new laurels for itself when Capt. Leo McCaulaberry and the rest of the men put their famous team through its paces. The same was a revelation and gained the hearty applause of all who saw them. It was indeed a wonderful session and the splendid showing made was indeed a high credit to this great order which has made such wonderful strides of progress in such a short time. Grand Chancellor Rivers and his official Board are to be commended for the part they have played to bring this era of progress to pass.

Statistics presented by the delegates show the Grand Lodge is a very progressive condition and their growth is without limit.

On last Sunday night the memorial sermon was preached at 9th and Towne church by Rev. Frank James, of Ocean View Lodge No. [illegible] Santa Monica.

Monday found the fraternal machinery in motion in both departments.

That night, Boyle Workman, representing the Mayor, welcomed the Grand Lodge to our city and other speakers included: F. M. Roberts, Assemblyman E. Burton Certui, and Attorney Edward R. Mahson of San Francisco.

Tuesday was spent in routine business and at night the Uniformed Knights of Omar, the pleasure branch held a public performance followed by an initiation.

Central Avenue from 8th to Washington was decorated with flags and banners in honor of the visitors and Monday's parade was a credit to the order.

The delegates expressed themselves as having been cared for in a most hospitable fashion.

San Diego will be the seat of the next Grand Lodge Session, July, 1924.

The officers of the Grand Lodge follows: J. C. Rivers, Grand Chancellor; George Ramsey, Grand Vice; J. W. Jones, Prelate; Dr. W. W. Furnell, Grand Representative; J. W. Jones, Grand Prelate; J. C. Where to Attend Church

TRINITY CHURCH
Y. M. C. A. Building, 3rd and Hemlock Sts.
Rev. D. A. Prowd, Pastor

The Lesson in our Sunday School was very helpfully discussed and at the close, most exclusively driven home by our beloved sister Solomon who for the first time, was present with us. Dr. Evans the Superintendent, and also the Pastor remarked favorably on the ability and aptness of Sister Solomon in her special work among our church.

At the 11 o'clock service D. Prowd discoursed on the parable of the rich fool. Special attention was called to the danger of avarice and selfishness which lead to forgetfulness of God, and our plain duty to our fellow men.

At night the B. Y. P. U. held its regular session and carried out a good program. The sermon by the Pastor was on Divine Leadership. Dr. Prowd urged our submitting ourselves to God—Subjectively, Absolutely and Co-operatively—in order to be of service and a blessing to mankind, and render ourselves dear to God. We received one for baptism. We invite all, and welcome the strangers within our gates—but come praying.

TRINITY BAPTIST CHURCH—
Rev. J. A. H. Eldridge, Pastor.
1356 W. 35th Street.

Come one and all to Trinity. The spirit of God and peace will meet you there. Our Sunday School with Bro. A. A. Lassiter as superintendent is doing a great work. It was up to the usual standard. The pastor spoke at both morning and evening service. At eleven o'clock his text was taken from Luke 13:5. Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." The sermon was very plain and practical and was brought home to all present. At eight o'clock his text was found in Gal. 6:7. "Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap. Both services were impressive and were highly complimented by all visitors.

B. Y. P. U. is getting along nicely. A splendid program was rendered by Miss Ollie Green's group. It was enjoyed by all. We had visitors and friends.

METROPOLITAN BAPTIST CHURCH—
37th and Paloma Streets.
M. C. Carter, Pastor.

Those who were present Sunday past, partook of the Gospel feast which fell from the lips of our Pastor in the morning session and Rev. I. N. Whitten at the evening session. Never before can we we heard two such sermons which were any stronger, more intellectual and more practical. The Pastor will fill the pulpit Sunday. Come and hear.

The rally held at our church Sunday was a decided success. The Metropolitan 1000 (Ladies Club) lead.

PLEASANT HILL BAPTIST CHURCH—
251 N. Bonnie Brae at Court.
Rev. W .H .Rozier, Pastor.

Our church is still on the upward march. Rev. Dempsey, assistant pastor, is truly a teacher. Like Elijah of old the mantle has really fallen on his shoulders and the Holy Spirit is teaching through him.

Pleasant Hill is still pressing onward and upward.

We cordially invite strangers and visitors to worship with us. A church with a hearty welcome.

At the conclusion of the sermon Miss Elles Stone, formerly of St. Paul San Antonio, Texas, came forward for membership.

At 7:45 P. M. the Choir of Church was heard in Sacred Co The solos on the program were rendered by Mrs. Malveaux, Mrs. Mathews, Miss Barnum and Mr. Hollins, were very heartily enjoyed. The Spirituals and the Male Chorus by the Choir was a very fitting climax.

We had enthusiastic services at the Christian Church last Sunday. Rev. W. P. Haywood was the expositor at the 11:00 o'clock service. His discourse is one that will be long remembered, subject, "The value they put on Christ, and how much do you value Him." In the evening, pastor Mitchell filled his post, and unfolded to his auditors what it is to blaspheme against the Holy Spirit. All the services were in keeping with the spirit of the Day. Announcement of several social features were made for the ensuing of the Church. The outstanding ones will be a dinner at the home of Mrs. Kinshaw, 1624 W. 36th St. Baby popularity contest, August 7th, and "King Tut" will appear on the 21st of August.

Regular services next Sunday at the usual hour.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH—
14th and [illegible] Street.

The service on last Lord's Day were a spiritual feast of wholesome things. At the 11:00 o'clock services we had in our midst the Rev. D. C. Allen of Oakland, Calif., of the Christian Church of that city to preach for us. And he used for his text the 22nd chapter of 2nd Tim. 15 verse. "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." This was indeed a most wonderful and helpful message and at 7:00 p. m. the young people's meeting was nicely attended and some fine points were drawn out. At 8:00 p. m. the Rev. Brother J. C. Owens brought to our attention the 8th chapte of St. John and the 32 verse. "And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. The brother J. C. THE VISUAL ACT
By Dr. Albert A. Prezant.

The eyes as we all know is an organ of sight which is the chief factor in the education and intellectual development of man, and by its aid, the form, color, size, distance, position and characteristic objects become known.

The sense of sight lies in the brain not in the eye, and may be divided into three classess of perception—light, form and color. Light sense is the faculty of distinguishing illumination and its graduations of intensity. Form sense is the faculty of recognizing shape or outline. Color sense is the highest development of vision and enables the eye to appreciate light waves of different frequencies. In general, all three divisions of visual perception are present but either of them may be lacking in a particular case.

The faculty of visual projection is inherent with respect to distance. It appears to be acquired. A baby obviously makes mistakes in the distance of an object it wishes to grasp, due to lack of sense or education. The exact process of mental interpretation is however unknown. We do not know the nature of the forces which conveys the sensation, nor can we assign their respective functions to the known center of vision.

TO THE GRADUATES

Commencement

Upon the threshold of achievement eagerly you stand,
A fervent prayer upon your lips, a promise in your eyes,
Tho' fears and worries looming large,
spoils all other hour,
Yet still your gaze is fixed beyond,
where larger things arise.

And in your heart a hope prevails, triumphant over fear,
A hope adventurous and bold which ever seems to burn
A hope to know, and do, and feel, a hope the veil to tear
Behind which happiness must lie a will to live and learn.

Be brave, within you lies the power,
away with fear and doubt,
Keep fixed your eyes upon the hills of truth and love and right
The path of service firmly tread, strew happiness about
And ere your journey's fair begun, you'll see your goal in sight!

SWEET GIRL GRADUATE

Miss Ernestine Jones, daughter of Mrs. Geneva Jones, of E satNinth street is one of this year's graduates from Jefferson High School.

This charming young miss has pursued her studies here, both in Grammar and high school, diligently and in the most creditable manner, and she now emerges fully prepared to play successfully any role she may be called upon to fill in the great Drama of Life.

Miss Jones is organist of the Bethel Baptist Church, and a worker in the Young People's organization. She lives with her parents including her Grand Mother, Mrs. Josie Saunders who is a staunch member of the Second Baptist Church.

To those who have watched this young girl's career for the past few years entertain fondest hopes for a brilliant future.

TENNIS CHATTER

Brand New Club Organized; Young-Bloods to Join Fed Soon.

(By William Mells Watson)
(1555 Court St. Drexel 3742)

With the corporation of the mothers of twenty three members of our younger set last Saturday, June 30, Mrs. James S. Harris, mother of our Pacific Coast champion of ladie's singles, doubles nad mixfied doubles, Juliaette Harris, was instrumental in organizing the RACQUETEERS TENNIS CLUB composed mostly of high school and college youngsters in their teens who are fulls vigor and vim and 'rarin to go' for all the Coast titles in September.

Officers and members are as follows: Robert Garrott, president; Juliaette Harris, vice-president; Mariah Robinson, secretary; Marion Forsythe, treasurer; Edna Johnson, James Harris, Ruth Wright, Naomi Wright, Chester Russell—Esther Griffin, Tommy Reed, Angebell Harrison, Eddie Myers, Helen Wheeler, Charles Lewrence, Marian Carter, Margurite Carter, Charles Sanders, Winona Winder, Rilph Bunch, Willialyn Stovall and Newell Easton.

Mothers Associate Members

Many of the mothers of the youngbloods will act as associate members which will add wonderfully to our tennis fraternity, as parents of our educated youths are known often to be more enthused over their offspring's undertakings than are the book-worms themselves, and these hopeful's are planning on joining the Western Federation of Tennis Clubs immediately and also will fall right in line with "club house" and tennis court movements now on foot, and as practically this entire new squad play the game at school or aftermined to "get somewhere," something working hours daily, and are deterls sure to germinate soon,—"watch 'em."

Fed Meets Wed. July 4th.

A wash-tub full of his is on the Federation's calendar for next Wednesday so everybody with an ax to grind had better be on hand.

The annual tournament to be held September 2nd and 3rd must be fully arranged for, a communication from the Delta Tennis Club of Oakland is with us, as ammendment to the constitution is to be offered, several officers are to be placed across the barrell for inactivity and given 'attention," in fact there are things that wont bear print coming to the surface at Parish Hall July 11 so don't miss.

Questionaire

Q—What of this talk of tossing the Westside county? Mis-s. M. E.

A—The truth does hurt sometimes, we lost the use of the lot belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Milbour Davis on W. 36th Place last Saturday, June 30, as they expect to begin building a bungalow court in a few days.

Q—You mentioned last week that champion Ballinger Kemp had retired, did you mean it, and if so what effect would that fact have on other players? J. T. C.

A—We will answer in this way, "unless the Alphs club shows some speed" and holds some meetings or is "re-instated" in the Federation, Ballinger need not necessarily retire, as no Alpha members will be eligible to play in the September championships. We are not so sure that Bal's sportsmanship declaration to give some one else a chance will have much effect, but last Monday, July 2, we did see for the first time this year former champion Alva Garrott armed to the teeth in tennis regalia trying desperately "though married" to get back in shape in company with Marion Forsythe. Bob Garrott, Charles Lawrence, Tom Reed, look 'em over, now what do you think J. T. C.?

Style Suggestions

Pastil shades hats of taffeta are very smart.

A tucked dress of gray chiffon was noted recently.

A buge chantilly lace collar is used as the only trimming on a brown satin frock.

Tuff stitch embroidery is used as trimming on sports clothes.

A stunning gown of peach blossom velours de Lyons was featured in one of the leading smart shaks.

A pearl gray blouse recently noted had collars and cuffs of white Swiss Organdy.

White is favorite for summer wear. Lace yokes are quite voguish.

A sofe corn voile dress was seen in a smart shop window.

A clever blouse of poinsettia crepe was embroidered in white with a black edge.

Straightline coats are sponsored for fall.

Shades of peach and rose from American beauty to the sweetheart rose shade are worn with fiere and there lovely combinations, usually in chiffon of bright green and turquois, yellow and green, pink and yellow, or orchid and blue.

A charming little frock of Nattur blue taffeta with bands of white organdie which cross in the front in such a way as to form a huge plaid apon, held over the shoulder with organdie bound taffeta suspenders which bow at the waistline.

The small cape varies the silhouette of a Coat Dress which sponsors elaborate braiding, and was worn by one of the French Racecourses.

Pleated dresses are favored by the Parisians.

A New Blue Chiffon Velvet is flounced in an aboundance of Silver Lace that carries out the dipped line of the bodice.

Very chic is the bouffant gown in French Blue Taffetta with Rhinestone studding on the bodice and silver lace on the shirt. Perfectly detailed roses further ornament the skirt.

In Paris pole mauve is the leading color of the season, while metallic effects are still popular, particularly for wear by matrons. All shades of pink, from polist skill to deep salmon, are also popular.

Beaded effects continue popular to a certain extent, but there is a decided tendency toward the plain draped gown made of fackric such as moire or brocade, which needs no decoration, other than a jewelled clasp on one hip.

Labor Day Tourney Next

The positive announcement by the Pacific Coast champion of men's singles, Ballinger Pressley Kemp, that he will not enter the championship tournament to be held here on Labor Day and the Sunday previous has stirred up the local crop of second, third and tenth raters to a boiling pitch.

The question is who is the second best cat gut paddle swinger on the Pacific Coast?

A flock of fair sweet young things will blushingly admit their hero, Messrs Reed, Lawrence, Forsythe, Miers, Garrott, Davis, Matthews and Mennar are absolutely the best beyond a reasonable doubt.

The pleasant, smiling and sweet mannered Mrs. Rose Clark will plant "one hundred and —?" pounds right on your pet bunion if you even hint that the officer is not the heaviest hitter on the team.

Pretty Mrs. Shannon Sherman Wylie will perform a similar act on behalf of her one eighth, only in a slightly less "weighty degree" than sister Clark.

Dainty sweet tempered Mrs. Nellie Edward Carlisle will drive her high-powered Maxwell right over your best ear drum for labeling her ham and eggs winner other than the 1923 champs, so who is the champ? "We give it up."

Ladies Not In.

Even the high tentioned Mrs. Rocco Conklin Joseph Marth Carmelita Brown "of Duarte" admits that "sweet Juliaette" is the all around coast queen, but if Juliaette should break a limb, suffer a stroke of paralysis or lock-jaw, then "little Joe" would still have every chance with athletic Miss Bertha Brown.

We'll see in September, weather.

Negro Students Will Be Admitted at Princeton Indicated by Pres.

Princeton, N. J.—From statements made in addresses during the past year by the president of Princeton University, it is believed that qualified Negro students will be accepted in that institution.

Indications are that a new spirit of unity is being developed in this city between white and colored citizens and the student body at Princeton. The general attitude is that deserving Negro students, prepared to pass the entrance examination at Princeton, will be admitted to the student body.

COLORED GIRL LOSES FIGHT TO ENTER ART SCHOOL

Paris, June 13.—According to a statement appearing in the morning papers, American tourists in Paris have brought sufficient influence to bear to prevent Miss Augusta Savage, the ambitious American Negro sculptress, from being admitted to the Fountainebleau art school. The statement of the principal of the school, "that the action of the committee refusing the American Negro woman was due entirely to respect for the feelings and wishes of the American students."

M. Mamrosch, who is one of the chief sponsors of Fountainebleau schools of art and music and architecture, said he felt reluctant to discuss the matter, because it relates to the art school instead of to music, which is his department. But it should be said that the French professors are not prejudiced against Negro students. "It also should be known that Fountainebleau school is based on the strictest examination of character and type of students. Certificates of character are required by each student enrolling in the so-called Bohemian school. There was nothing against Miss Savage's character, but the action was taken simply because the committee feared that the admission of Miss Savage would offend American students of the school, and following the vigorous protest they made supplemented by hundreds of distinguished Americans, now visiting in Paris."

TOPEKA, KANSAS WHITE NEWSPAPER ENDORSES N. A. A. C. P. PROTEST.

An editorial published in the Topeka Daily Capital of June 19, 1923, endorses a protest by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People against the showing in Kansas of "The Birth of a Nation" film. Commenting upon the Association's telegram to Governor Davis of Kansas, urging him to prevent the film being shown, the Topeka Daily Capital said:

"An Encourage of Race Hatred.

"Not only state and local but national action has been taken by the National Associat'ns thed ov anoon National Association for the Advancement of Colored People against the new attempt to show a vicious South-ern race film, 'The Birth of a Nation,' in Kansas. In Gov. Capper's and Gov. Allen's special permission to show this picture in the state was refused. When the Association heard of the special for an exhibition of the film to Gov. Davis it telegraphed the Governor urging that you continue the splendid example of former Governor of Kansas in forbidding exhibitions of this film, capitalizing and spreading as it does vicious recial prejudices which should have no part in American life."

"It is difficult to see any purpose to be served by the revived attempt to show this picture. There are no conditions in Kansas warranting it. The picture is based as history and sectional in its appeal. It can not claim art as its motive, for propaganda sticks out all over it. Evil can easily come of it in its power of stimulating passion, and this is a sufficient objection against any picture to which it applies. 'The Birth of a Nation' has been kept out of Kansas for reasons as strong today as at any time in the last five years."

The Topeka Daily Capital is published by Senator Arther Capper, who is a member of the Board of Directors of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

IN THE MUSIC WORLD

By: John A. Gray

It is said that we should live in the present, plan for the future, and dwell not upon the past. By following such a line of thought we shall be able to keep up with the world's progress and develop our racial capacities. We must not only send our children to school but we must also prepare a place for them when they come out of school. At the same time we must not neglect our own development. How can we help our young people if we are not able to appreciate the things for which they have fitted themselves?

In music we have performers who are equal to many of those of the other race but who are unable to get proper support from the race. This necessitates their entering the vaudeville and other fields and in many cases they are compelled to appear as members of some other race Does this help the race?

The concert field is so limited and unorganized for our performers that one hardly makes expenses, and the performer must book each engagement separately and with a different set of people each time. If we have performers who can render the best in music and w have many such, why not give them a chance to develop.

One of the simplest ways is to form a chain of promoters throughout the country, through some nationally known organization. We have several organizations with branches in nearly every city of any size throughout the country. The head office could assume the responsibility of selecting worthwhile talent and booking it through any of the branches that would swell the fund of the home office. Locals would make as much money as they could over and above artists' fees and expenses. Local communities would be benefitted by this contact with talen from the outside and our artists would gain experience and be compelled to raise their standard. This procedure would also be a fine way to get over propaganda as these artists would appear many times before mixed audiences.

t is surprising that our churches have not recognized this way of raising money. Any organized group like these with a central head can easily arrange a bureau for the presentation of talent. Orators, lecturers, singers, players, and others could be presented each year and everyone would be helped. Sinv th churches are the only group that give concerts regularly, why not make them up from the best talent obtainable. Better talent means larger crowds and largers crowds mean more money.

We shall never have artists of the first rank whose accomplishments will help the race until we support and learn to appreciate our own in the same manner that every other race does its own.

NEWS OF CALIFORNIA STATE

RIVERSIDE, CAL.

Rev. Cooper, pastor of hte Second Baptist Church has returned from his vacation in the East and South He brings reports of the great progress being made by our people in those parts. Indeed oppression has caused an awakening. Rev. Neyles of Visalia, Second Baptist Church worshipped with the Second Baptist of Riverside Sunday and with Park Ave at night.

The services at Allen Chapel were up to the standard in the inspiration of the messages and the attendance. The pastor preached at eleven on "And their eyes were open" emphasizing that the real faculty of vision becomes active mostly under the burden of the consequence of transgression or in conflict. Rev. C. C. Cook and Sister Townsend of the Saints Home Church, L. A., and Sister Thompson of Victorville were visitors.

Reception in honor of Miss Alice Johnson: Tuesday evening the many friends of Miss Johnson with the Sunday School and League of which she was a member, gathered in honor of her graduation from the High School. Mrs. C. H. Daugherty had charge of the decorations. The artistic manner of arrangement of designs about the table and parts of the church indicated the touch of devoted hands. The program was splendidly caried out, consisting of music, speeches nad yells. A feast of cream cake and punch was served. All expressed joy.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. A. Brunson, Santa Monica, passed through Monday on their way to the famous resort, Elsinore. They stopped over as the guest of Messrs Gordon and Allen.

REDLANDS

By Lorna Doone

Mrs. Nettie V. Jones left the city Sunday morning for a visit in the East. Miss Jones will be gone for perhaps three months.

Miss Buetta Daniels has been on the sick list for the past few days but is better at this writing.

On last Tuesday evening Mr. Robert Lee Jones gave a surprise party in honor of his wife, Mrs. Nettie V. Jones. The party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Reynolds, and great was the surprise of Mrs. Jones as she was ushered into the well filled parlor and found that a party was being given in her honor. It was quite a while before Mrs. Jones could recover from the shock, but before the evening was over, her voice could be heard in gay laughter, showing her appreciation of her husbands and friends efforts. Dainty refreshments were served and all had a merry, good time.

The chicken dinner given by the Deaconess Board last Saturday night, was a bounding success and the Pres. Mrs. M. Johnson, wishes to thank through the columns of the Eagle, all those who so willingly donated to this dinner. Especial thanks are extended to Mrs. O'Niel, who had charge of the tickets for the prize cakes. Mr. Calvin Wright won first prize cake and Mr. Roy Kinnard the second.

Mr. Raymond T. Dones and friend, Miss Theodosia Simpson of Los Angeles were visitors in the city Sunday. They attended services at the Second Baptist Church Sunday morning and afterwards visited Rev. and Mrs. Dones of Alta St. Miss Simpson also visited Miss Evelyn Black, an old school mate of years past. AMER. LEGION GIVES BIG DANCE

BENJ. BOWIE POST HAS BIGGEST EVENT OF SEASON AT PEARL'S NEW GARAGE—833 CENTRAL AVENUE

On last Tuesday evening, July 3rd, the Benj. Bowie Post, American Legion, of Los Angeles gave what proved to be the biggest dancing event of the season.

The arrangements for the Benefit were made only a week ago, but the boys worked fast and together, advertising everywhere, with the result that there was an overwhelming crowd on hand to "step" to the beautiful strains of the Black & Tan Band.

The dance was staged at the new Pearl's Garage located at 833 Central, and was the christening for the opening of the new garage, which is the biggest on the coast controlled by a man of color.

To say the least, the affair was quite a success, and the public is looking forward to the next event of the Benj. Bowie Post with eagerness.

BUY FROM OUR ADVERTISERS!

KLINE CLOTHING CO. MAKES STRONG BID FOR RACE PATRONAGE

We cannot too strongly urge our readers and subscribers to patronize those merchants who advertise in our columns.

It is not necessary to make particular mention here of those of our race advertisers who have long been loyal to us, and had that loyalty rewarded by profitable business as the result of using the EAGLE as a publicity medium.

Our race advertisers know our public; our public knows them!

We refer now to the downtown merchants whom we are urging to use a race journal as a means of securing the patronage of the Colored public. Most of them, when approached for the first time, are skeptical, difficult to win to our point of view. Once won, our public should justify their confidence by buying from them, when the merchandise they offer—in quality and price—merits our patronage; when, by giving us their advertising, they help to support a race journalistic enterprise, which, in turn, gives profitable employment to Colored men and women; when they go out of their way, as it were, to assure us courteous service and consideration in their places of business.

The Kline Clothing Company, 309 South Spring street, high class men's clothiers and haberdashers, offers sterling values to the public. The goods are of the very best. Their prices are most reasonable, placing their merchandise within the reach of the man of moderate means, who desires to wear new and modish clothes and make the good appearance so necessary to success in any line of endeavor. Courteous sales people are ever ready and willing to give prompt and satisfying service.

Men! Read the Kline Clothing Company advertisements appearing weekly in these columns. It will be (1) to your advantage, (2) to our advantage, as a race journal fast forging to the front as a general advertising and publicity medium, (3) to the advantage of the merchant who makes this special bid for our patronage!

Let us patronize our advertisers!

U. N. I. A. DIVISION HEADS PLAN CON.

(Crusader Service)

New York, June 30th—Resenting the action of Marcus Garvey in turning over the organization to his wife, following his conviction in a Federal Court on the charge of using the U. S. mails to defraud his race, the heads of U. N. I. A. Divisions throughout the country are reported taking steps to hold a conference among themselves in the very near future to consider the future of the organization. This conference will not be held in New York City. That is certain. The division heads consider Harlem a hotbed of fanaticism and will eschew it. The choice of place appears to lie between Detroit, Chicago and Indianapolis.

It is reported on the highest authority that one of the main questions to be considered by this conference of division heads will be the calling of the regular annual convention this year in accordance with the Constitution of the U. N. I. A. and against the instructions of Marcus Garvey who early in February, this year, made the announcement that there would be no convention until 1924, when it would sit in Liberia, West Africa.

GENERAL PRACTICE IN ALL BRANCHES OF LAW

THE QUESTION OF SUPREMACY

If the white man had the good sense to read the handwriting on the wall to wit: that the only supremacy that is going to stand the test is the supremacy of moral order and of helpful service and would bend his energies toward being forever supreme in that realm, he would doubtless go on leading the world in the most noble sort of progress. Nor would he fear that his leadership would be objectionable to other races. Certainly there would be no tenable objections. The men of all the races are going to learn to be good sports to the degree of giving nine rahs always for the fello wwho can do best whether he be of one race or another. In a recent editorial in the Dearborn Independent Henry Ford, aptly remarks, "The race that calls itself superior can prove its superiority only by superior ability to help others, and can attain its social destiny only as helpers of others.

Now instead of the white man seeking to be worthy of supremacy, he spends much of his time asserting white supremacy, oppressing weaker people, vaunting himself as necessarily supreme, creating disgust and hate in the hearts of other races by his arrogance, brutality, and hasty antics in general. In other words he purposes to intimidate his way up the centuries. To that end all things are to be subverted and commandeered. He will idolize this idiotic notion of white supremacy and make it determine his religion, his education, his social obligation, his government.

He will fail not because he is white, but because of a false standerd and false methods. He doesn't have to fail. Indeed no fair minded man wants him or any other group to fail. What the world wants and will have eventually is peace and brotherhood and fair play. If the white man can beat the world in those things, humanity of all races will crown him king. If he is inferior to these and kindred things he shall have to give place to a better man. The world wants the best under whatever skin it may be covered. Who cares? This nonsense about the superiority of races should cease. The divine right of color must go to the scrap heap with all the other "divine" junk. The future race will stand or fall on its ability, moral character and service to humanity and not on color.—Indianapolis Freeman.

SOUTH COMES TO ITS SENSES

By: CYRIL V. BRIGGS

The white South is coming to its senses.

What petitions to the authorities and fervent appeals to the conscience of the South (as if the white South was bothered with a conscience!) were unable to do, the withdrawal of the Negro's labor power from the South is accomplishing. It is now the white South's turn to "petition."

The South has disseminated to the four corners of the earth the lie that Afro-Americans are a race of "lazy vagabonds." Yet, lo, when these "lazy vagabonds" would shake the blood-stained dust of the South from their feet, the vicious Southern traducers of the Race "reckon that Southern agriculture and industry will be ruined," and forthwith exert every legal and illegal means to hamper the Exodus. They fine and imprison labor agents for "luring the Negro workers away from the South." They frantically call inter-racial meetings and buy up petty leaders with whose aid they try to soft-soap the workers of the Race into the belief that the terrestrial paradise is situated South of the Mason-Dixon Line. Long accustomed to putting out lies about the Negro they print false reports of an "alarmingly high death rate among Negroes in the North" and attempt by flaunting false dangers in terrorize the Afro-American into acquiescence to stay under the Southern Terror. In a word, they do everything short of actual justice to prevail upon the Negro to remain in the South. They beg, they squeal, they plead, they flatter; they prophesy dire results to the Negro away from his "friends" (God save the mark) as dimly they begin to realize the dire results to themselves involved in the Negro movement North.

It even begins to look as if some of the Southern States are going to do more than just indulge in rant and promises. Concessions are being offered the colored workers in Virginia and one or two other States of the Bourbon South. More and better schools, fairer share of educational funds, better treatment in the courts of "justice," abolition of the convict-lease, elimination of peonage, suppression of the Lynching Terror, promotion of life, limb and property—these, and other reforms, are being promised the "worthless Niggers" and "lazy vagabonds" in the effort to induce them to remain in the South: the South that aforetime pretended it would be glad of their riddance! But still the Migration continues in full force. The workers of the Race have been fed up with "white promises" in the past and now accept them at their face value. It will take something more substantial than promises to obtain a let-up on the economic pressure which the workers of the race are unconsciously exerting against the white employers of the South.

And in this application of economic pressure lies the great lesson for the Race. Economic pressure, spontaneously and unconsciously applied by the Negro workers, sans advice and aid from the old-type race leaders, blissfully ignorant of the economic factor, has ably demonstarted the truth of the contentions of the leaders of the African Blood Brotherhood that economic pressure was the greatest weapon possessed by the race in America—a greater weapon than either the ballot or prayer. How little this has been realized in the past is evidenced by the fact that of all the Negro organizations in this country only one, the African Blood Brotherhood, has featured the economic factor in its program for race advancement. Perhaps the time is coming when other leaders and organizations will give serious consideration to this important subject (the real root of the race question!) and to the suggestion of the African Blood Brotherhood that a General Strike of all Negro workers in this country would prove a most effective means of forcing recognition of the legitimate demands of the Race. The economic pressure so exerted would be irresistible, and as a sign of Solidarity such a General Strike would be impressive—to the four corners of the earth.

TEXAS WHITE MAN SHOT FOR COLORED

(Crusader Service)

WHITE MAN WALKING WITH WIFE, MISTAKEN FOR NEGRO, MORTALLY WOUNDS SHERIFF AND IS HIMSELF KILLED.

Lubbbock, Tex., June 30th—The unwritten law of Texas, that a colored man shall not be seen in public with a white woman, launched a strange tragedy here early today.

A white business man is dead, and a constable is believed fatally shot, and the woman in the case is temporally demented.

Peering across a church lawn at sunrise, the cracker constable saw Alvin Hopper walking along a dimly lighted sidewalk with Mrs. Hooper. Hooper, a prominent business man, is very dark-complexioned.

"What are you doing with a white woman at this hour?" demanded Mr. Cracker Constable.

Hooper quickly assumed that an attempt was being made to kidnap his wife and opened fire, wounding the constable. The constable fired back and Hooper dropped dead. His wife is now demented and it is feared she may never recover hr mind.

FORUM ELECTION

Sunday afternoon, June 24th was election of officers day for the Los Angeles Forum, and there were no steam rollers in evidence. The three candidates put up were: Slaughter, Moore, Norris and Pitts, all of whom are representative citizens and consistent Forum goers. Mr. Norris and Mr. Slaughter declined the nomination and while Mr. Moore was highly recommended Mr. Pitts proved to be the Forum's unanimous choice.

The other officers elected were: J. Thomas Norris, Cor. Secy.; C. E. McKinney, Chm. Program Com.; S. Oliver, Treas. and J. W. Coleman, Chaplain.

DEAD OF A BROKEN HEART

(Crusader Service)

Chicago, June 30th—Dr. Du Bois' bitter denunciation of the American color prejudice which constantly hampered, exasperated and kept Colonel Young in the rear, and stood in the way of promotion for the late brilliant soldier whose memory has been honored by his race from coast to coast, has found sympathetic echo in practically all of the colored newspapers. The following short editorial from "The Whip" of this city is typical of the Press comment of Dr. Du Bois' eulogy of the dead Colonel and denunciation of the system which broke his heart:

"Du Bois, scholar and thinker, in eulogizing Colonel Young, stated as he gazed upon his mortal remains, 'Here lies a man who died of a broken heart.' Du Bois was an intimate friend of the Colonel and he knew that the shafts of prejudice and the darts of discrimination had burst his mighty heart. There he laid in state, his bier draped in the red, the white and the blue. Many times his heart had quivered when his soldiers sang out "My County, 'tis of thee. Sweet land of liberty," and many times the insults of the country had stabbed him to his very soul. Du Bois was right; the Colonel died of a broken heart and thousands of others have done likewise, but there was no Du Bois at their funeral to tell it."

EDITORIALS

The life of man on this earth is all trials without intervals.

In adversity we long for prosperity, in prosperity we fear adversity.

Peace is ever with the humble man, but in the heart of the proud there is envy and continual wrath.

God alone is eternal and incomprehensible, filling all things, the solace of the soul, and the true joy of the heart.

If we could see one of our mean, nasty, selfish thoughts rooted out of our lives each year we would go on to perfection.

We shouldn't trust too much our own opinions, but listen sometimes to our neighbor's. They may solve your dreaded secrets.

DOING THEIR BIT

It is certainly hoped that every race respecting citizen residing within the borders of California will do his or her bit in behalf of the fund that is needed by Howard and Meharry Universities to keep them up to the high standing in rating of Class "A," which they now enjoy.

Be Godly and quiet and Christ will dwell with you. He cannot dwell amid the fascinated pleasures of the 20th Century hypocrite who says the church must come to the man. He took a stand against sin and said: "If any man be lifted up let him deny himself, pick up his cross and follow me daily." In every utterance He says, come. You cannot carry God to the sinner, the sinner must make the first step for salvation. God planted His church upon the rock Christ Jesus and you must go to that rock for life.

ONE STEP IN FAVOR OF JUSTICE

The people, be they white or black, who stand for justice, and fair play, are glad to know that justice has been meted out to the six Arkansas farmers, who have been held in prison for the past two years because of their identity with the Elaine Riot.

In this case the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has been on the job every minute, not one stone was left unturned, and today because of this decision rendered by the Supreme Court of Arkansas the whole United States takes one step upward in the eyes of the world.

CHANDLER OWEN IN CALIFORNIA

After a nearly two months stay in California Chandler Owen departed for his home in New York City Thursday. During his stay in California Mr. Owen has been Polite Society's prime favorite, and while he is well met and assimulates conditions with ease and grace, his eyes are always open to actual conditions as they exist within the race.

Upon every occasion when Chandler Owen appeared before the public with his message of Industrial Freedom for the Negro, he was well received, and everywhere surely but slowly his doctrine is gaining new converts and because of the fact that we have such men as Owen, and Randolph, co-editors of the Messenger Magazine, we opine that a New Day for the Negro is just ahead.

NOTHING IN HURRY OF MIND

Hurry of mind in this lower sense is the state in which many people always wish to live. They crave it as the opium smoker craves his drug. To be distracted all day long with excitement after excitement and to find always something to bridge over the time between darkness and sleep, is the apparent wish of many a man. There is no depth, either of meaning or enjoyment in such lives. You have seen them at some show, moving from point to point with staring eyes and open mouths, seking excitement. You have seen them railroading through Europe and giving three minutes to masterpieces that summed up a life and perhaps an age in art. The librarian knows them, though many of them never get beyond the brand of ten cent fiction in which the cigar stores deal. That real and lasting enjoyment can only be the fruit of deliberate attention followed by careful thought, is a truth they seem incapable of grasping.

And still they flock to the Jim-Crow theatres on Sunday nights and fill the buzzard roosts and attics like a flock of black birds, and think they are having a night of real fun and pleasure while the church of God stands empty and cold because of the new Jazz religion that's being introduced by a few men who have never tasted of the fruits of salvation and love. We have sold even our souls, and our manhood rights when we become so little as to accept anything that the white man doesn't want, and be satisfied with such humiliation as the white man thinks will make us look little and inferior. In spite of our place we crowd these Jim-Crow theatres on Sunday nights and close the ear against any effort to fight our way to the surface of equal rights and unquestionable citizenship. If the intelligent leaders frequent these places and let their wives climb these steep stairs and be huddled like cattle in the attics then we might as well quit the fight and let prejudice and segregation crawl over the earth and fasten their fangs in the Black manhood of America.

THE DIGNITY OF RELIABILITY

It is amazing to see for how small a consideration some people will jeopardize their honor; and sell, for a trifle, that which they should hold dear. To them, the ring of the dollar has a sweeter tune than the sound of an honored name. They walk and have their being, presenting, in appearance, the embodiment of nobility but their daily walks are a travesty upon the works of creation. No reverence for truth, honesty and reliability finds, in their hearts, an abiding place; and their deeds are the accumulations of unworthy practice. Nothing is so debasing to human nature as the abuse of manly principles which are so necessary to our progress in life. He who ruthlessly tramples upon those elements which constitute his well-being, and allows his colors to trail for what he conceives to be his advantage, not only undermines the foundation upon which his hopes are builded, but also razes the superstructure in which he needs to dwell. Life is of doubtful tenure and a struggle against adversities; therefore it behooves every actor to play well his part, if he would win in the unequal conflict.

LIFE'S BINDING FETTERS

No life is fetterless. No heart is free to worship at every shrine; no soul is free to roam, in glad liberty, the wilderness of creation; for life is bound by fetters—fetters that hold us in sweet bondage of peace and service.

To drift is to sink; but life is bound—bound by gilded chains that draw us up and away from danger. We are bound to God. We are His by right of creation. We are not our own. What is God's we cannot claim. Could we lay down life and take it up again, then, indeed, could we cut the binding fetters of our creation from its immortal anchorage. But because we owe our existence to Him, we owe to Him worshipful homage. The shrine of our adoration is fixed. It is at the foot of the throne of supremacy. There alone are we free to worship. Nothing can lure the heart of man from the shrine of its Creator King.

We are His by right of redemption. He has paid the price for every soul that claims existence. Can the soul of man look upon the darkness of still Gethsemane and the bleakness of dear Golgotha and still fail to recognize God's claim upon it? We are bought with tears, blood and agony. Redemption fetters our souls to God with an unbreakable chain. It fixes the realm of the immortal soul and holds it securely bound in the service of the Master.

We are bound to the world by our association. We are bound to ourselves by our own hope of salvation. Life is an investment of which we get much gain. It matters not how we are assailed and humiliated and ostracised but before the links in Life's chain are mended mankind will have to recognize us as their brother.

Yea, no life is fetterless; but the binding fetters need not be galling chains. A thousand calls, a thousand opportunities, a thousand duties, hold us in bondage. It matters not how we seek escape, we cannot be loosed. But there will come a time when we will be free. Fre from Amrican prjudice and hateful when we will be free. Free from American prejudice and hateful scorn. Free from Jim Crow Christianity and crushing ignorance.

PATHWAY OF LIFE LEADS THROUGH GRAVE ENTANGLEMENTS

Most men are, by nature, knaves; and left to their own devices, will exhibit the characters within them. Paths of crookedness are the most often trodden, because the task seems easier, and greater benefits to be derived from its acceptance. The acts may be the result of human frailties; but they often arise from a studied effort on the part of many to evade the obligations which should rectify conduct and control individual lives. Some of the greatest evils, by which society is afflicted, spring up from the source of base chicanery nursing its beginning in sordid hearts. In business as well as professional careers, it is the duty of every one to protect his reputation; but, in order to accomplish it, he must, necessarily, be particular as to the choice of individuals with whom he has to deal. Very often, confidence, implicity placed, is fearfully abused; and he, by whom it is given, suffers for his folly thru the injury he receives. At all times, in all places and in every walk of life, there are schemers of every ilk, whose inclinations prompt to the commission of unholy deeds; nor are they ashamed to face their neighbors and pose in the garb of honesty. Some of the draw-backs which hamper usefulness and warp efforts in attempts at progress, arise from perverted justice, which finds itself powerless of exertion where unrighteous force prevails. Hollow professionalism, void of the mantle of sincerity, greatly damages our material welfare, places the stamp of infamy upon all whom it touches and tramples upon the blessings which, otherwise utilized, would create a great reward. Life, character and reputation are often dependent upon the manner in which we improve our opportunities, whether it serves us well or ill. Pathways of life lead thru grave entanglements and are replete with errors; yet they sometimes prove beneficial to those who are caught therein, if they serve as orrectives to future aim. In search of necessities for sustenance, our wants multiply in a ratio greater than our needs; and covetousness steps in to take possession whenever chance presents. Even in the advanced stag of civilization, there lingers a tinge of savagery, which that man, unchecked by the hand of authority, would revert to his primitive justice, and trust his fortune to the survival of the fittest. Pretensions, wielding deceptive influences, mislead the unwary; and, sometimes, wisdom itself is misled by the glare. Falsehood is often mistaken for truth; and demons don the garb of angels when they study to deceive. These are channels through which many struggle for renown; but distinction, thus obtained, is a lasting curse. It is selfishness, but selfishness that prompts the activity of noble men in behalf of their fellows; for true greatness is accorded in the interest of humanity. Get while you can, is the motto of greed, no matter whom it destroys; judgment as well as common sense is questioned when the immoderate lust for gain is permitted to usurp the position of honest deal. These are lessons which should be considered by the Negro race particularly; because at the very outset of its career, short-comings of any description are more injurious to its prestige than to that of the opposite race whose advantages are greater. Let the Negro deal as he would be dealt with; apply to self the Golden Rule as he would do to others; and the steeps which now confront him will be easier to scall.

We sometimes think to please others by our intimacy and forthwith displease them the more by the faultiness of character which they perceive in us.

THE BY-STANDER

It is a wonderful compliment for us to have group organizations in Southern California, standing as they claim for intelligence and freedom, yet the young Americans of our race are huddled together at the end of the various graduating classes to form as one sorrel topped Mississippian expressed it, "a fine background for the class." To speak such sentiment boldly is to infer that the person who spoke considers an organization offering protest a joke and unimpressive. In some respects this allusion is not wholly false. It is not absolutely untrue because no teacher or instructor would dare breathe such venomous sentiment to any aggressive, fighting and fearless organization. But, where we have groups dependent upon the school system for a living, with no organization that they can dote on for help and assistance in a pinch, we expect them to keep still and trudge along to the tune of least resistance. One cannot altogether arreign them for supporting the pro-slavery policy of not speaking your sentiments when they are likely to show courage and manhood, but instead be calm, cease mumbling, drown your sorrow and grief and go aimlessly on praying that some unforeseen Power will some day gratify us with what we expect in life without courageous effort on our part. It is a pity that our youth in this progressive age must be instructed to deduct any idea, or suggestion of animosity, ro ill-will for the burdens and discriminations offered and heaped upon them, in any of their speeches or declamations. What Tommy rot and cringing fear this is! It culminates an Uncle Tom spirit and educates the youth in that submissiveness that has characterized and permeated our people from the days of ignorance and slavery. What is freedom of thought, of expression, worth to any people when they must scurry around in fitful fear, led by the intelligentia of their group. We do not fly a red flag and enroll under the banner of radicalism, but we do feel that it is time for our learned organizations and leaders launching an attack on discrimination in school and elsewhere, and to do it without fear or passion. "The valiant dies but once, a coward dies a thousand times." Some of us merit a thousand deaths and I pray that we get them. However, I must pause long enough to praise a committee composed of the fearless editor of this paper, Mrs. C. A. Bass, Mrs. Walter Gordon of the Alumni Association and Mrs. Eva Carter Buckner of the N. A. A. C. P., who brought blue streaks puffing in the veins of a certain white principal and his cohorts by denouncing their discriminating program and giving them to understand that we had a few, and a precious few, who could and would speak out without fear of losing prestige and a job. We ought to lionize this committee for doing what makes most Negroes shake with the palsy and grow pallid with fear if such a thing was even suggested.

We are paying taxes to go to school. It is not a charitable, elemosynary courtesy or privilege; we, therefore can independently enjoy a system erected and perpetuated with our earnings and money. It is not gratitude or generosity from anyone but E. Pluribus Unum. It is he that we can thank and it is he that we should become more closely allied with so that we may fight to a finish for the removal of all hybids who inform anybody that our people make good back ground for any class, association or organization in school or elsewhere; for such employees are not public servants but continuing nuisances feeding upon the money and means and assessments. Would that Patrick Henry had been Colored instead of animosity, or ill-will for the burne Liberty or Give me Death!"

Higher education for colored people is almost entirely absent in the Southern states except for privately supported and owned institutions. Some reports show high schools as follows:

Number of High Schools

	White	Colored
Louisiana	212	9
Tennessee	566	20
Georgia (Arg.)	12	0
South Carolina	184	14

Alabama: No Negroes in county high schools or state secondary agricultural schools.

Florida: No record in 1920 report of any senior, junior or intermediate high schools for Negroes.

In all of the Southern States, according to the report of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, small and insanitary school houses preponderate among those supplied to Negro children. Furthermore little or no provision is made for transportation of colored children to and from school. Also, school terms are almost universally shorter for colored children than for white.

Average Length fo School Term in Days

	White	Colored

Almost universally, colored schools are over-crowded and the number of pupils to a teacher is larger than in the white schools. As showing the discrepancy in treatment of white and colored citizens in the matter of education in the Southern states, the following are offered, showing the relative populations of white and colored, and the relative expenditures on white and colored schools:

HEALTH NOTES

By: DR. E. B. LEWIS, B. Sc., M. D.

VALUE OF FRUIT AS DIET ADJUNCT

No human creature can long maintain his equilibrium of efficiency and health if he resists the temptation of apples, berries, oranges and fruits in general. Independent of their nutritive values, many fruits give zest to the appetite because of their inherent flavors and oils. Bananas, breadfruit and alligator pears are among those which possess the two gastronomic virtues.

Another great value of the various fruits is that they supply minerals, phosphates, lime, potash and other fertilizers to the human economy. Some kinds of fruit, too, such as pineapples, contain enzymes analogous to the pepsin in the stomach. These are, as the motion picture theatres say, "an added feature," because they materially aid the digestive powers. Moreover, a great many fruits are superior to pills, powders, tablets, cascara, salts and other artificial purgatives, since they have an indisputable laxative effect.

Notably among these are figs, apples, prunes, peaches and the various berries. They are most effective when eaten between mals, at night and on rising in the morning.

A popular fallacy fostered by the widespread delusion of "uric acid" and "rheumatism" is to the effect that "the acids in fruits" cause disorders of the alimentary canal, hives, aches and various pains. There is little, if any, truth in this wide-spread mistake. If, by any chance, there are acid salts or traces of acids in fruits, they are harmless and without deleterious influences.

The itching rashes, hives or other skin eruptions that one person in a hundred or so may suffer when he or she eats certain fruits or other foods are a sort of protein poisoning related in nature to the "breaking out" caused by the germs of chicken pox, German measles, upset stomachs or, in some instances, quinine. That is to say, this comparatively rare effect of fruits partakes of the character of an "idiopsyncrasy"—peculiar sensitiveness of your tissues to the protein of the fruits. Acid have nothing to do with it.

Sugar and starch in fruits furnish man with heat, fuel and growth. It is the "pectin" gums in fruits that help them to become jelly. Starch changes into sugar in ripe fruits. There is little more than one per cent of protein in fresh fruits, while dried fruits may have a little more.

Dates, dried, contain about two-thirds sugar, whereas raisins sometimes have seventy-five per cent of sugar. This explains why raisins are so much in demand by children and others who crave sweets. Dried fruits are necessary table adjuncts when fresh fruits are not available. They are usually superior to canned fruits.

Canning fruits, whether done commercially or "as mother used to do," is most advantageous, because in this way some of the finest fruits are to be had at all seasons of the year. Individuals differ in their preference for, in their susceptibilities to, and in their capacity to digest bananas, pineapples, grapefruit and other fruits, children are at all times able to digest bananas when adults cannot. Strawberries are often hive-producers, that is to say, they are poison to some persons. While bananas, oranges, berries and apricots need little or no mastication, the teeth should be brought into play for apples, raisins, pears, and peaches. Among the least digestible fruits are cantaloupes, watermelon, dried citron and dried currants. The skins and seeds of most fruits should be entirely avoided.

Ques. I am extremely thin and have a pale, sallow complexion in spite of the fact that I eat six raw eggs and drink two quarts of milk daily. Please tell me what to do.—W. H. S.

Ans. The glands of some people make substances which burn up fat as fast as it is formed. It may be constitutionally impossible for you to become stouter. However, if foods containing sugars, starches and fats are eaten, together with butter, puddings, fatty rich gravies and soups, and a well mixed diet of nourishing food, the weight generally increases. Obtain ten hours' sleep in a well ventilated room, drink three quarts of water daily, be outdoors as much as possible, and keep the bowels active. Exercise but slightly.

Dr. Lewis will answer questions for readers of this paper on medical, hygienic and sanitation subjects that are of general interest to the public. He cannot always undertake to prescribe or offer advice for individual cases. Where the subject is not of general interest, letters will be answered personally, if a stamped and addressed envelope is enclosed. Address all inquiries to Dr. E. B. Lewis, 1618½ East 9th St., Phones: 820-389, and 822-417.

FOLLOWING

By George Cantright

Are you a mere follower depending on the other fellow to furnish the lead? Thousands are, but if you tell them so they will resent it. You have but to consider our social activities, religious views, or, our political connections which are but the following of some one else. Now and then some fellow with independent mind will break away from the rank of followers and set up what is called a new following, he is considered a deserter by those who do not care to accept his views, and a leader by those who believe him to be right.

These self instituted Judges are not Judges at all because they have not given their own minds fair play on the matter but have judged according as they have been impressed by the Independent. It would not be fair to charge that people as a whole will only take in consideration the man whom they judge, but the majority will do so, and others will find themselves so set in their views that they can not give any new thought a due consideration. Those who accept this new view as a rule are guilty of a still worse offense against conscience. They are usually disgruntled because of some practice that have not met their approval, disgruntled because of some practice that has not given them the chance to rise from the ranks and become a leader as they thought they could become, or some such discrimination as it is called by them. A little philosophy on the part of the disgruntled party would be good for the old following.

Necessity is the mother of invention. Now and then a gathering is called, and, by force of necessity will, by free and copious speech reach an end at least acceptable to all. The constitution of the United States is a good case. The framers of that important document reached fame by getting out the same through the medium of free speech. The great A. M. E. Church is an example of what necessity will make people do at times. The fact is all of our great institutions are but the hand work of necessity. Unfortunately this force has not been so active in other lines, for instance business, where necessity had an entirely different role to play. Mother Necessity has never been guilty of self prostration, so, one need never think that she will strangle her self by driving away the very thing that she wants, and, such was the case in this line. Notwithstanding, however, a certain amount of business was fleshed by the energetic Negro.

Getting back to the subject, man is so very different from the lower animals. Records of prehisteric days relate how he sought caves and other secluded spots where he might set up a monarchy of his own. Offspring as they matured sought in turn a secluded place to reign.

When too close an environment was brought about by circumstances war resulted. The victor forced coercion favorable to himself and thus as time went on, and as circumstances compelled these proximity under duress, man learned to follow. What at first was a stinging blow became at last a habit if not a pleasure.

GRAND K. P. E. & W. H. IN FIFTH ANNUAL SESSION.

The Knights of Pythias and A. C. Calanthe in fifth annual session at Sacramento Calif. July 22nd. - 25th. closes one of the most profitable and harmonious Grand Sessions ever held in this state. The Grand session was opened with memorial Service at the St. Andrews A. M. E. church Sunday evening the 22nd., with the Rev. Fred A. Hughes officiating. Long before the hour for service the church was crowded to the doors, with worshipers representing the poppulance of this Capital city.

Monday morning at 10 o'clock both the Grand Chancellor, and Grand Worthy Counsellor) sounded their gavels in separate Lodge rooms at Forresters Hall which was the signal that the Grand Session was truly on.

Monday night at 8:15 o'clock the reception in honor of the Grand Lodge and Court were held; this affair was easily the grandest ever witnessed among our group in Sacramento. The welcome address was delivered by Sir Fred Butler, P. C. Sacramento. The response was by Sir H. W. Markham of Los Angeles. Among the many acts of legislation during the Session the recomendation to the supreme Lodge for an increase of death benefits was considered the most profitable. The Grand Session closed Wednesday evening the 25th. with the Grand installation and promenade at the Tuesday Club House. Thus closing the greatest history making session ever held in this state. The 1924 Session will convene in the City of Pasadena Calif next July. The California Eagle was elected the Official Organ for the Order. Grand officers for 1923—24, P. G. C. J. Soreas. Echoes From France

REV. ROZIER ON BATTLEFIELDS OF FRANCE.

Writes To Mrs. Rozier

Paris France July 13 1923

Grand Hotel De Havre.

Dear Sweet:-

I have had another very profitable day in France. I spent yesterday sightseeing. I also viewed the battlefields and suburban towns, all was interesting. We left Paris on the train rode 94 miles, then got off, and took a buss and toured the battlefields, saw much of the damage that was done to many of the villages. We stopped at a hotel that is located in a city that was founded 260 years before Christ, there we had dinner and started out again and rode 12 miles down the Roman road that led from Rome to Holland, saw an old Roman gate that was built 360 years B. C. I went down into the trenches and the dugouts. Saw how the soldiers had to hide for a little sleep. Will tell you more when I return home.

I am in Paris today seeing the stores, and how they sell goods here. Just going up and down the street window shopping. I stepped into a barber shop to have my hair cut, got a hair cut, singe and shampoo for 3f cents. I am enjoying my stay in France abundantly. I see so many things of interest that I will impart when I come. I have no the time to write now. Tomorrow we are to visit city where armistice was signed.

W. H. ROZZIER.

COLORED CATHOLICS WILL ERECT COMMUNITY HALL

During the past twelve months large and representative meetings of colored Catholics of Los Angeles have been held in St. Vibian's Hall, Second and Main Streets, Los Angeles.

The unanimous voice of the people attending these meetings emphatically demanded the erection of a hall which would serve as a center for social activity under Catholic auspices.

The Rt. Rev. Bishop Cantwell was consulted and gladly endorsed the project. Bishop Cantwell is deeply interested, not only in the spiritual and temporal welfare of colored Catholics, but in every problem that confronts the colored race as a whole.

A double lot was procured at the corner of Sixteenth and Essex Streets, and on a portion of this property a magnificent hall has been erected—having a floor space of 70 x 50 feet, and a seating capacity of about six hundred. Many social activities are being planned in connection with the hall for the early fall and for the winter season. The hall will afford to colored Catholics an opportunity—long needed—of conducting social activities under Catholic auspices. Up to now they had to participate in social activities under non-Catholic auspices. This will no longer be necessary. While these activities will be conducted under Catholic auspices they will be non-sectarian in character—everyone will be given a hearty welcome, and to become affiliated have simply to forward their name and address to Rev. W. J. Mullane, Room 825, Higgins Bldg., Los Angeles.

Tuesday evening, August 7, at 8:30, in St. Vibana's Hall, Second and Main Streets, a general meeting will be held. Any person interested is welcome to the meeting. Entrance to the hall can be had through the passage way between the Catholic Book Store and St. Vibana's Cathedral. One of the most important items of business at this meeting will be to perfect arrangements for the formal opening of the hall early in September. The Rt. Rev. Bishop Cantwell will be the honored guest on that occasion and will formally declare the hall open. Be sure to be present at the meeting on Tuesday, August 7th, and thus lend your aid in helping a work that is destined to do much in forwarding the interest, not only of colored Catholics, but the race as a whole.

CAPTAIN TOWSON S. GRASTY, ATTORNEY AT LAW

Captain Grasty, prior to the World War, was located in San Francisco, Cal., but had the desire to be in Los Angeles, after seeing much of this city on business trips. He has been in our midst for a little more than a year, and has arisen from a very low state physically and otherwise to one of the outstanding figures in the Legal fraternity.

But to go back a few years and speak briefly of Captain Grasty will be necessary for us to go before our readers some slight estimate of this man.

Captain Grasty was asked by General Leggett to join the Fort Des Moines Training Camp, which he did. His brilliance as a lawyer was soon recognized and he assisted in the instruction of his fellow candidates in the subjects of Court Martial and International Law.

He was commissioned as First Lieutenant and assigned to the 350th Field Artillery, at Camp Dix, N. J. Immediately he was made Judge Advocate of his regiment and served as such for a period of seven months. During this time Captain Grasty handled some very important cases for the Government, and this coming to the attention of the Camp Commander, General Hugh L. Scott, he requested Captain Grasty to come on the staff, and Captain Grasty became the only Negro who ever served on a Major General's staff. This position he held until June 1, 1919, when he was discharged. The only services Captain Grasty saw over seas was special Court Martial work, but he served his race in a very material manner, in securing merited promotions for the Colored officers at

PRESIDENT HARDING DEAD

As we go to press the sad news reaches us of the death of President Harding, from a stroke of apoplexy.

At the time of the sudden stroke the doctors had pronounced him out of danger and on the road to recovery.

The nation is suddenly plunged into mourning at the sad ending of what was intended to be a memorable trip for the information and edification of his constituency.

The California Eagle bows in concrete sorrow and sympathy for the nation's loss.

ELDORADO GOLD STAR MINING COMPANY PREPARING FOR GREAT OUTPUT ON ITS VALUABLE PROPERTY.

The Properties of the Eldorado Gold Star Mining Company, are just as good to day as ever. In fact they are better, because more work has been done to prove their value or worth. Therefore, Investors in the stock of the Company are doubly sure of receiving good returns on their investments, if they buy more stock and in that way assist to put the operations on a paying basis. This can be done, and will be done, because a number of the large and small stockholders, are determined with their abiding faith in the great venture, to put the workings over the top.

The Company is doing business under a Permit granted by the Corporation Commissioner of the Blue Sky Law of the State of California and has the same legal protection before the law, as any other well authorized Company operating in this, or any other state. It is the only Corporation of the Race which can show from its Office files the sales of its production of gold and silver, and the receipts of the same from the Utah Smelters verified by the United States Government. It is the only Corporation of the Race that holds a membership in the great Chamber of Commerce of the City of Los Angeles, California.

Every dollar received at its Offices has been judiciously expended by the Company, and their books examined more than once by government experts and found by them to be correct (their office files show the verified results). How many Race Concerns can truthfully make such claims? A mill-house has been erected with machinery installed. Laboring accounts paid. Supplies furnished. And liquidations of its obligations otherwise adjusted. A large sum of money has been expended in opening up the properties to prove their values, and this has been done with much credit to the manager, S. J. Brown, who has labored against great odds, but nevertheless succeeded in shipping several cars of marketable ores to the Utah Smelters direct from the Company's Mines, and in addition, milled at a neighboring plant a number of tons of crude ores which he rendered into the real bullion of gold and silver bricks. By what has been accomplished it can be and controls proven property.

It has not been placed on a dividend paying basis as yet—but within a reasonably short time it can be done with the co-operation of those who have already invested in its stock.

A large tonnage of available, milling grade of ore is on the property, and can be profitably milled on the ground, with the installment of needed machinery—The best method for handling and treating this class of ores, is now being sought by the management, when this feature is fully completed, the great problem as concerns this Company will be solved—The production will then, not only bear its own expenses, but will soon create a handsome dividend fund to be distributed among all stockholders—Each stockholder should do his or her part by purchasing more stock and adding same to their present holdings. Stock $1 per share, as many may be bought as wanted.

Work was resumed on the property of this Company in March, last—and the progress made is very satisfactory, and encouraging indeed.

Last Sunday was a record breaker at this church. The Sunday School was conducted by Bro. E. A. Daniels the superintendent who was on time himself and requested the scholars to observe the time.

The morning service was well attended and the pastor addressed a very appreciative audience from the text: Create a new heart in me Oh God, and renew a right spirit within me. Quite a number of visitors expressed their appreciation of the sermon and promised to return. The junior Endeavor had ashort service in the evening. At night the pastor spoke to an excellent audience from the text My heart is fired, Oh God my heart is fixed. Rev. S. M. Beane Pastor

Two very large audiences were present at Hamilton on last Sunday At the morning hour the pastor preached a sermon to the King's Daughters and Sons from the text, "Here am I, send me," which was well received, if judged by the many favorable comments heard. At the evening hour Mrs. Pearl Ross, wife of the late Dr Ross, president of college of Liberia, delivered fine address on Liberia, which was much enjoyed by all those who heard it.

The splendidly developing choir continues to please and delight the audiences that assemble here from time to time. This choir bids fair to take its place as one of the really big choirs of the city.

The Sunday school still is a delight and a joy, and grows in interest and enthusiasm.

Epworth League is planning a program that will interest and delight. Sunday Aug. 5th. will mark the celebration of the Lord's Supper. You will always find a cordial welcome to this church. Come and see.

CHRIST TEMPL ECHURCH.

Elder C. P. Jones, Pastor

Services at this place Sunday were a great blessing to all who attended them. Sunday School began at the usual hour, 9:45 o'clock a. m.

Mornin gservices began at 11:45 o'clock. Pastor Jones' text was: Ttake heed what ye hear. With what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you; and to you that hear shall more be given. Mark 4: 24. The Spirit of God filled the house of God as the man of God spoke the oracle sof God; and al lwho had ears to hear were blessed.

The H. Y. P. U. held a meeting at 7 o'clock p. m.

After the young people's meeting, 25 minutes were given to testimonies during which time, many testified to the goodness and mercies of God.

The pastor then gave a farewell message fro mthe text: Know ye not that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness. Rom. 6:16. He impressed his people with the fact that many things would come to upset them; but that God would keep in perfect peace those whose minds were stayed upon Him, if they continued to trust in Him.

Pastor Jones left Los Angeles on a two months' evangelistic tour thru the South and East. August 19-26 he will attned the National Holiness Convention of which he is President. This meeting convenes in Little Rock, Ark on the above dates.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH
Y. M. C. A.—9th and Hemlock Sts.
Rev. H. D. Prowd, Pastor

The Lesson in our Sunday School was of great interest, and all enjoyed it. The subject was that of "Matthew The Publican." Character, duty, and religion, were deduced and held up for emulation as shown in the study. Our grown-ups miss quite a deal by not taking advantage of The Sunday School. At the 11 o'clock service Dr. Prowd discoursed on "The Endument of The Holy Spirit." The church, it doctrines and the governing factor—The Holy Spirit, were the points chiefly dealt with and driven home. The need of the church today is—Integrity in its membership and unity with liberality in its operations. In the evening Mrs. Bass opened the session of the B. Y. P. U., the president being absent. The "Ethical Religion" was taken up and profitably discussed. The sermon at night by the pastor was the danger and curse of poligamy as deduced from the home-life of Hannah and Peninna, in 1. Samuel, Chapter 1.

We continue our rally this coming Sunday and request every member to be on hand, and our friends to lend the helping hand.

BUSINESS SITUATION IN PHILADELPHIA

By Daniel W. Chase
(For the Associated Negro Press)

The exodus of Negroes from the South has stimulated business to a great extent among colored men in Philadelphia. This is evidenced by the fact that the banks here report a bigger business than for a given period in any part of the bank's history. This is noticeably true in the case of Brown & Stevens, bankers. It may be said to the credit of this firm that it affords lucrative employment to twenty-four young [illegible] and women.

The need of a central rug cleaning and damp wash establishment among members of the race was felt, and it remained for the Beresford Gale Corporation to take the initiative in this line. A large plant has been opened, and at the close of the first month all expectations have been more than gratified.

In the last analysis, the most effective preventive against violent fluctuations in business conditions is more widespread ability for sound thinking in economic [illegible]. PROMINENT COUPLE WEDS

MR. LEONARD STOWALL

On Wednesday night, August 8th, Historic Eighth and Towne Church was the scene of one of the season's most brilliant and note worthy social events, when Miss Yolande McCullough, beautiful and charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George McCullough, of 1646 West 37th street, became the bride of Mr. Leonard Stowall, prominent physician and surgeon of this city.

The great church was lavishly deorated, a color scheme of pale pink and green prevailing. An ingeniously constructed arch, representing two interlaced hearts, was erected at the entrance to the edifice. Heavy cordons of intertwined pink and green roped off the aisle. On the platform was an exquisite bower of pink and green, beneath which the bridal party stood during the consummation of the nuptial rites.

The bride, radiantly lovely in her wedding robes and veiled in tulle, and carrying a large bouquet of bridal roses entwined with sprays of lilies, was given away by her father, Mr. George A. McCullough. She was attended by her sister, Miss Naida McCullough, as maid of honor, who was attired in an exquisite frock of pale pink. The bride's maids, Misses Marian Carter, Helen Dumont and Corinne Stovall, with dainty gowns of pale blue and pink, with hats of the same hues.

Mr. William Stowall, brother of the groom, acted as best man, and the groomsmen were Dr. Green B. Taylor and Mr. Thomas Penn. The ushers, dressed in white, were Messrs. [illegible]

Tuesday evening, July 31st, Miss Lillian J. Of special mention was final groups from La Tosca in which part of the Recit of the Priest Volpe from Scarpia and Duffich Duet number was a story, she quoting herself from the lyric, her voice is of great, luminous range, sweetness and brilliancy.

This recital is indeed a compliment to Miss Harvey, as rarely is under graduate given such honor.

Miss Alice McCormick assisted with two beautiful piano numbers, and was accredited an unusual artist.

Miss Blanche Hudson, accurately acted as accompanist.

BUSINESS MEN ORGANIZE

One of the latest business enterprises to be launched here is the California Development Company, with offices at 1201½ Central avenue. The Company will buy, sell, trade and lease real estate, both city and coun-to the company and its clientele. One of the prime motives actuating the enterprise will be the eventual betterment of housing conditions in general for Race people, by locating them on farm lands, as well as in city homes.

The personnel of the California Development Company includes such widely and favorably known figures as the Hon. Chandler Owen, President; M. O. Stokes, Vice-President;

M. O. STOKES
Vice-President California Development Company

Dr. J. T. Smith, Treasurer; Hilah Cooper, Secretary; Thomas J. Pillow, R. C. Owens, Dr. F. A. Peart and Dr. E. C. Nelson.

Chandler Owen, nationally known Editor of the New York Messenger, needs no introduction after his recent prolonged stay here, during which he thoroughly investigated economic conditions in Southern California.

Dr. J. T. Smith went into business a few years ago on a shoestring basis, way 9th and Central. He soon became sole owner of the drug enterprise, and when Dr. J. Preston was forced out of business at 1201 Central avenue, Dr. Smith quit his successful executive and building ability, the courtesy and kind-heartedness that have always characterized his dealings with his fellowmen, and the untiring energy, have won for him the confidence of a host of friends, and success is sure to crown his efforts. The Eagle predicts for Dr. J. T. Smith the largest success in the business world.

Mr. Pillow had the honor of driving a Stephens in the annual endurance run to Camp Curry, Yosemite, this spring, winning a silver cup. Mr. Pillow's holdings in real estate are valued at between eighty and seventy thousand dollars.

Mr. Elihu Cooper came to Los Angeles about two years ago from Dallas, Texas, where he was highly respected and was long a prominent figure, as foreman of the large surveys conducted by Col. E. H. R. Green, and later for the Long Wharf Company. Mr. Cooper has become a handsome home owner, and has substantial realty holdings recently acquired. He is President of the Mutual Benefit Association, a Health and Accident Insurance Company, with offices at 1201½ Central avenue.

THE STORY

.....Three men are convicted, two white and one black. One white man was convicted on July 13, 1923, in Brooklyn, New York, for fraud to the extent of $610,000. He was found guilty on thirty-four counts, each count carrying a penalty of five years each and a fine of $5,000, making an aggregate sentence of 170 years and $170,000 in fines. After the jury returned the verdict of "guilty," this man was given bail in the amount of $15,000 to appear for sentence. When he was sentenced a few days after, he was given two years and fined $2,000 with bail on appeal. His crime was committing fraud on a bank in which thousands of people placed their savings.

The other white man, a minister of the Gospel, was convicted in Denver, Colorado, on July 25, 1923, on two counts, for forging permits to supply liquor to rich residents of his city. The penalty for the crime on each count is five years' imprisonment, and a fine of not more than $10,000.00. On the 28th of July he was sentenced to two years in Federal Prison for each count, to run concurrently, without any fine. He was released on bail bond of $5,000 pending appeal. This was an unnecessary and unusual crime as committed by the individual.

The black man, Marcus Garvey, was framed-up and tried in an atmosphere of prejudice, in New York, for the alleged use of the mails to defraud in the sale of stock to help his race start a steamship line for their industrial and commercial improvement. All the money collected was spent for the promotion of the company that bought three ships. The case lasted twenty-seven days. It could not be shown where Garvey got one penny of the money for stock for his personal use, but on the contrary he was the largest stockholder and greater loser in the unfortunate failure of the concern, caused through the wiles of his enemies. He was indicted on given counts. He was found guilty of one count on the 18th of June, in an atmosphere of prejudice. The maximum penalty on the one count was a fine of $1,000 or five years, or both. After conviction before sentence, he applied for bail pending sentence. His application was denied. When brought for sentence, three days after, he was given the maximum of five years and a fine of $1,000. Application for bail pending appeal was denied. He is still in jail. Three other applications for bail were made and all denied.

We have three cases, one a bank commercial fraud for personal gain; one an unnecessary and unusual violation of law; the other the effort to help a race by an experiment, in fact, that teaches self-help and self-reliance. The first two are given the fullest opportunity to prove their innocence; the latter, "unfortunately" a black man, in a white country is deprived of every opportunity of proving his innocence and especially that he tried his own case as counsel.

Maximum Penalty is Five Years, $5,000 Fine on Each Count; Headed Big Shipyard Firm.

JURY OUT OVER 3 HOURS; APPEAL IS ANNOUNCED

Sentence to be Imposed Next Thursday—Son of Convicted Man Faces Same Charges.

Robert Magruder, sixty-eight, former President of the Johnson Shipyards Corporation, was found guilty by a Federal jury in Brooklyn of aiding and abetting frauds of $610,000 against the Mariners' Harbor National Bank of Staten Island. He was convicted on thirty-four counts. The maximum penalty is five years' imprisonment and $5,000 fine on each count, a total of 170 years and $170,000 in fines.

Donald S. Magruder, indicted jointly with his father on the thirty-four counts on which he was tried, obtained a separate trial at the beginning of the proceedings.

The man convicted was President of the Johnson Shipyards Corporation. Previous thereto was its Treasurer and also cashier of the bank. Yesterday United entitled he had defrauded the bank of more than $600,000 as the three years he was cashier and had sealed checks for the Johnson Shipyards Corporation when that concern had no funds in bank. Magruder, on the witness stand, made a sweeping denial of guilt.

The jury, [illegible] these heavy counts and [illegible] returned to the courtroom only for further instructions. Justice Campbell remanded Magruder in $15,000 bail for sentence. Former Representative Warren I. Lee, counsel for Magruder, informed the court that he would appeal.

(On the 19th instant, McGruder was sentenced to two years and fined $2,000, with bail on appeal.)

Priest Convicted of Forging Permit to Get Rum For Rich Parishioners

DENVER, Col., July 25.—The Rev. Walter A. Grace, pastor of a Catholic church at Arvada, a suburb, tried in United States District Court on charges of forging a permit for an application to ship liquor into Colorado, was found guilty today. The jury deliberated only ten minutes.

"The judgments of God are not those of men," was Father Grace's only statement when the verdict was announced.

The defense filed motions for new trial and arrest of judgment. The court is to rule on these Saturday.

The penalty for forging liquor permits is one to five years' imprisonment and not more than $10,000 fine.

Get Liquor for Inmates of Home for Aged Men

The Rev. Walter A. Grace was accused of obtaining fifteen barrels of old bottled in bond Kirby Pines whisky, ostensibly for the Mullen Home for the Aged, but actually for his friends.

Father Grace was pastor of one of Denver's show places, the Shrine of St. Anne, and he was deeply indebted to a number of prominent citizens for aid in building it. Prohibition agents alleged he forged the name of the Mother Superior of the Mullen Home to a permit for withdrawal of whisky and later altered the permit so that instead of calling for nine barrels it called for fifteen.

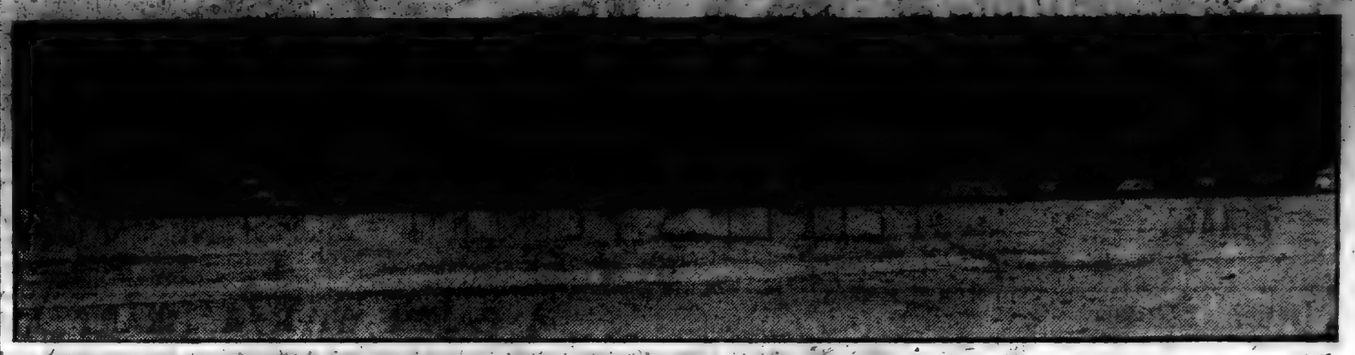
It was charged also that the priest obtained the money to finance the deal from one of his parishioners, Mrs. Katherine O'Connor, daughter of the millionaire for whom the hotel was named. It was asserted Father Grace got the money by telling Mrs. O'Connor how much occasional toddies would be relished by the old men at the home. But very little, if any, of the liquor got to the home, it is said.

Mrs. O'Connor also is accused of spiracy to violate the Volstead act, but is to have a separate trial.

Priest in Rum Case Gets 2 Years in Jail

DENVER, July 26.—Father Walter A. Grace, Arvada priest, was sentenced to two years in Federal prison on each of two counts for forgery of application for liquor permits this afternoon. The sentences are to run concurrently.

He was granted a sixty-day stay of execution pending appeal to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals and bond was fixed at $5,000. The priest spent last night in jail.



STILL ANOTHER CASE

But still there is another case recently disposed of that makes interesting reading. Dr. Edward A. Rumely, S. Walter Kaufman and Norman R. Lindheim, all white men, were convicted and sentenced in December of 1920, to one year and a day at Atlanta Federal prison for conspiracy to defraud the United States Government. They were immediately granted bail on appeal in the amount of $10,000 each. Their appeal was heard and decided on July 17, 1923. Their conviction was upheld but they will appeal to the Federal States Supreme Court. Thus again the fullest opportunity has been granted to the convicted persons to prove their innocence. But what of Garvey? Oh, he is a negro.

Bring this to the attention of your pastor and Congressman. Have this read before your church, lodge and society, and pass the news along to your neighbor.

THE SHADOWED WITNESS

—By—

DORA L. MITCHELL

"That's all for the present, Mr. Williams," said Lester Logan, quietly. The witness started to rise with pleased alacrity. Then Lester, who had been standing near the witness stand, wheeled on him dramatically.

"Oh, just one more question, if you please, Mr. Williams."

"Sure," said the witness, smiling.

Lester advanced until he stood within two feet of Walter Williams.

"Have you ever seen me before today?" he asked abruptly.

The witness was plainly taken aback by the unexpected question. He stared at his questioner uncertainly, then finally answered, "No!"

"Don't you remember," continued Lester, evenly, without taking his eyes from those of Williams', "meeting me at the corner of North Boulevard and Nineteenth street on the afternoon of September 24th?"

A startled look flashed across Williams' face.

"And don't you remember," continued Lester, "that you saw me pick up something?"

"Why, why,———yes," the witness gulped.

"Do you remember you came up to me and said you had lost something?"

"Why, yes," stammered Williams, "I—— I might have."

"Is this what you lost?"

As Lester hurled this question at the witness in a clarion voice, he flashed from his pocket a little lacquered box and thrust it almost in Williams' face.

At sight of the box, the body of the witness stiffened and his face underwent a startling and terrible transformation.

"Yes!" he shrieked, as he lunged for the box. That's mine!"

Avid, frenzied desire for the object Lester quickly drew beyond his reach twisted Williams' features in hideous mouthings.

"Not now, not now!" Lester uttered in a low hiss, then raised his voice. "First, tell the court which of the two men seated there at that table do you swear you saw kill John Peters?"

Again taken aback by the unexpected, Williams looked quickly and nervously at the two black men seated on either side of Lester's chair—one with his head bowed, the other busily writing.

"Why—— ah—— that fellow," declared Williams, pointing a shaking finger at the man with head bowed.

"Which one?" demanded Lester, sternly. "The man who is writing?"

Instantly the look of co-mingled suspicion and defiance settled on the twitching face of the witness. "NO! You can't fool me!" he cried, shrilly, "It's the other fellow—the one you told to leave you alone!"

"Are you positive?" thundered Lester. "Do you swear that is the man you saw kill John Peters?"

"Yes, I swear it," the witness almost shouted in his defiance.

"Donald Douglas, prisoner at the bar, arise," commanded Lester, quietly. Slowly the young man who had been writing rose to his feet. The Judge, recovering from his amazement at the swift turn of affairs, frowned sternly at the witness.

"Mr. Williams, what do you mean, sir———"

At the same time the youth whose head had been bowed stood up abruptly and gazed full into the eyes of the witness.

Nichols, just recovering from the state o ftemporary mental paralysis into which astonishment, anger and consternation had thrown him, sprang to his feet. Before he could speak, Lester addressed the court, his own voice trembling with emotion.

"Your Honor, this witness has not identified the defendant as the murderer of John Peters! Furthermore he has perjured himself and deliberately accused an innocent man of this crime! I ask at this time a warrant be issued for the arrest of Walter Williams for———"

With a strident cry the witness lurched from the chair and sank on his knees.

"I did it! I did it!" he screamed, face covered with perspiration, body twitching convulsively. "I killed Peters, because he double-crossed me in that opium deal! I confess——I confess! I'll get the others—I'll turn state's evidence."

He collapsed at the feet of Lester Logan, moaning, as he clasped the young attorney's knees. "The box! For God's sake, give it to me!"

As soon as the uproar had been quieted and Walter Williams had been carried from the room, the Judge turned to the jurors.

"Gentlemen, you are automatically discharged from this jury, and—" turning to Donald Douglas, "Prisoner before the bar, please stand! The Court hereby discharges you from further custody, and pronounces you not guilty of the murder of John Peters."

A few hours later, Lester Logan was seated in his private office. Opposite him sat Donald Douglas, Mary Louise perched on the arm of his chair, her arms about his neck, her cheek nestling against his hair. On the desk at the desk sat Helen Dallas, flushed with excitement as she eagerly pumped the recent counsel for the defense.

"Investigations I made in conection with another case had already disclosed the fact that John Peters was in some way connected with the opium ring in Ardmore," explained Lester quietly. 'In fact, I was about to have him subpoenaed as a witness in that case when he was murdered. His last word—"box"—prompted me to make the search that resulted in my finding that little lacquered tin—in which a chemist found traces of powdered opium.

"Williams' queer behavior at the scene of the murder made me suspect that he knew something about it—even before I discovered him to be the chief witness for the prosecution. I knew, the moment I sized him up, that he was a drug addict. I had him watched and my investigator connected him with the local opium ring."

"How was it he couldn't identify Mr. Douglas?" interrupted Helen.

"Naturally, he didn't get a good look at Don the night of the killing. At the preliminary he was, well, half-shot and I noticed he hardly looked at any of us. Lately he's been under such strict surveillance by the Prosecutor's office that he hasn't dared try to get the drug. Today his dope-starved nerves were wrecked. I had had another lid made for the opium box. When I flashed it on Williams, he thought it contained his drug. The sight of it—the desire to seize onto it—unnerved him. He couldn't have identified his own mother at that moment.

"I planned that little coup this morning when I saw Williams' eyes shift uncertainly from Don to Tommy when Nichols asked him to identify Don. I dropped those books to divert Nichols' attention. I didn't want him to press the point. And our clever Prosecutor," he added, laughing boyishly, "was so sure he'd established his case that he neglected that little detail."

"But how did you get him to confess, Lester?"

"Sheer bluff, Helen. I suspected Williams from the first, and meant to bluff him into a confession—if he was actually guilty. In fact, I never intended that this case should get as far as the jury. You may not have noticed that I paused a few seconds after I demanded that warrant for Williams' arrest. That was his cue—to confess to the murder."

"And if he had failed to take it?"

"I could have asked his arrest—for perjury," replied Lester Logan quietly.

LYCEUM STAGES BOUTS

Last Tuesday night, the young people's Lyceum staged a boxing and wrestling program. The affair was well attended by both members and other spectators. The first boxing bout was between "Jeff" Brown and "Sam" Butler, "Jeff" had the best of it during the entire bout, outclassing his rival, although the fracas was called a draw. The second bout of the evening was between "Bill Narcise and Woodson Wickliffe, at which time the former proceeded to wallop the latter from the beginning to the end of the melee.

The next bout was between "Ben" Colly and "Lee" Whitaker." The bout was Colly's from going to going. In the encourage of partisan, Colly gave three for one. The splendid footwork and the elusiveness of Ben was indeed a feature. The last number on the program was a wrestling match between "Luke" Rosser and James Brown. "Luke" won the match, two falls out of three. The first he secured after five minutes of constant struggling, and the second fall in about the same time.

HUNTING BIG GAME

pride, by which men are bound together with confidence in one another; the kind that enables and supports public spirited men and women to build hospitals, home for the aged, and keep abreast of the times by creating and establishing big business and commercial enterprises, has shown himself to a very small degree among our group here in our city. He's here alright, but in his present state of lethargy, of self-satisfaction and indifference, he has hood-winked us with the idea that the thousand and one industrial institutions so much needed can't be done because you and I can't put any confidence in each other. I must admit that such a condition does exist here. I have long since dealt with causes rather than effects. Most things presented to you have had no foundation on which to stand.

A group of men got together on a scheme to increase their supply of pork chops. They worked in harmony for a few days only, then of course their proposition blew up, leaving the promoters wtih a black eye and you with a grouch that makes you suspicious of all other Negro movements.

In view of the fact that a little nonsense now and then is relished by the best of men, I'll tell you a story just here. There appeared in a daily paper this Want Ad.: WANTED—Fifty strong, able-bodied Negroes, to appear at a certain corner at a certain time. Be on time and receive Five Dollars each. Upon their arrival at the place, the Negroes found a white man and a telegraph pole with a brand new rope attached. "Now," said the white man, "I want you fellows to take a good hold on that rope and when I give the signal you pull like blazes." It is needless to say that the pole was pulled out of the ground. When it was all over one of the Negroes remarked, "Mr. white man, what prompted you to pay us five dollars a piece to pull that pole out of the ground?" "Well," said the white man, "I never heard of fifty Negroes pulling together on anything, I simply wanted to see if such a thing was possible."

I am sure you get the same thing I do out of this story. Any and everything is easy of accomplishment if you know how to go about it. The idea of the pole and rope was original with the white man, but to prove the practibility or probability of its being successfully carried out, it was necessary to have the support and co-operation of the fifty Negroes. He accomplished his purpose because he had in his proposition the three elements whcih inspire men to give the best there is in them—namely: employment, personal gain, and co-operation. He used the most simple method in bringing these men together, who worked in harmony one with the other for the common good of them all. Each man of the fifty might have pulled against that pole until he was black in the face without any result, but when his strength was combined with forty-nine others, the rope tightened and the pole moved out of the ground.

Now I have arrived at my main point. The editor of the California Eagle ,who has spent so many sleepless nights, and day after day in weary toil and earnest effort to bring the Eagle up to its present high standard, has dreamed all along of the time when they could render you a greater service with a daily instead of a weekly paper. Always wide awake and on the alert for any person with an idea or suggestion which held the slightest possibility of materializing their dream, they have granted me the privilege of promoting a hunting party from their office. The activities of the party are to be directed through the Eagle office, or a supplement of it. Race pride is the game to be hunted.

To my mind the telegraph pole referred to in the story, represents the misunderstanding which keeps us separated. Out of forty thousand Negroes in Los Angeles at least half of that number are sharp shooters. I mean men and women who are trained and skilled in trades, business, and profession. We want every man and woman of you to take a firm hold on the idea of co-operation, the rope we have attached to the pole of misunderstanding.

You may or may not have seen somewhere along the beach a spring board where bathers spring off into the great ocean. Well, this get together movement is the initiative step toward the development of the ocean of possibilities that exists within us, as a group in Los Angeles.

Co-operation is the big word. It is only through co-operation in its true sense that we can ever hope to come into our own. By co-operation we will come to enjoy the fullest possible fruits of that which is produced through our own efforts in industry. It is by co-operation that we can protect ourselves from the ravages of the selfish. It is with a co-operation of effort that all things not possible of accomplishment by the individual are developed and brought about for the enjoyment of me. The basis for continuing co-operation is to be found in justice and fairness. We must get it imbedded in our minds that a structure of justice and confidence cannot be erected upon the ashes of selfishness and mistrust.

We have old Mohammed who went to the mountain when he learned that the mountain would not come to him, skinned several points. For we have gone contrary to the usual custom of raising the Macedonian cry, for you ot come over and help us carry out our plan. We have scaled the mountain of dislikes, prejudice and excuses and are bringing to you a well planned program, with appeals enough to reach you from several different angles.

This is a movement to open and lead through the door of opportunity, where possibilities abounding are awakened, seized and materialized. It's a get-together movement to create confidence and better understanding among us. To bring about a closer relationship between man and man. It is the right road to independence through application of the key which will perform the miracle of working the combination that will gain us the industrial, financial, and political foothold which we desire.

As it will take everyone of our group in Los Angeles to put this program over we have made provision for "YOU" to carry out your ideas and plans. Someone has wisely stated that the American Negro, regardless of his war record, will never fight at his best until he fights for himself. Here's where you can get in your best kicks. Your talent, ability, co-operation, is all the weapon you need.

A year's subscription to the California Eagle, goes to everyone joining this hunting party. Your membership will help dam the stream of your dollars, now flowing ito the coffers of men of other races, with business enterprises that will furnish employment for your boy, girl, father, or friend. But what's the use. My pen beats spark plug to a stand still, when I get to talking of the things that can be done. All that is required for you to do the same thing here that you do at a horse race, in a polker game or crap grame, use your judgment, if you think we can do it, favor us with your membership.

We have the dice all trained to roll out service in every way. We are shooting constructive thought at you all the time, from every angle. Our point is that if you will co-operate with us, Negroes of Los Angeles can put over any project they wish to.

Why lend your money to the banks at four per cent, and enable them to reap from five to eight per cent from it on loans and ivestments, when here is an opportunity to lend yourself two dollars for your membership in this great Get Together move, and to start everything coming your way. It will enable the editors of the California Eagle to render you a greater service by carrying your message or advertisement to the people six times a week instead of once. You get a year's subscription in the first Negro daily publication on the Coast.

The reason why the Japs, whites and members of other races are so successful in their undertakings all around us is because they all work together for the common good of their whole race. By pledging your support and co-operation to this movement with a two-dollar subscription, you will help build a foundation of confidence, good-will, and co-operation, so essential to our welfare and you can have a voice, a vote and a place is forming an organization to meet the political, industrial and financial needs of one and all.

We cannot hope to attain these blessing on individual effort if we wish to succeed, we must follow the example of those who are succeeding around us daily. Get together, blend our ideas, harness our talent and put our money to work for us as well as for the other fellow.

Time nor space will not permit us to tell all of the many different ways a membership in this hunting party will benefit you. But suffice it to say that this particular type of race pride hiding in our midst is as foxy as any fox. A crack shot is supplied with ammunition of fifty-seven varieties of reasons and excuses as to why a thing can't be done. As an artful dodger or a keen, sunning evader, he is in a class by himself. In the merry chase which he will lead, he furnishes fun galore, entertainment, instructions and education in organization and co-operation. So you see, to wage a successful campaign against a wily old beast, game as he is, and keep out of the range of his marksmanship, it is necessary and most essential that we be well organized and prepared to present a soldid front.

Did you ever stop to think when admiring a great structural sky-scraper representing the strength of iron, steel, brick and cement, also the combined thought, talent, and effort of architect, contractor, and builder, backed by millions of dollars, that the common laborer was the first thing necessary and most essential to the erecting of the great building?

Great organizations, institutions, or business are built upon that same principle. Christ demonstrated this simple plan of salvation through a life of service. So we offer you our service that you may utilize it in building a platform on which to stand.

When we say YOU, we mean you young men and women from eighteen to eighty, in whom lack of opportunity has all but killed ambition. You who have prepared to take your place with men and women of other races in the world of commerce, industry, and business. But when circumstance, necessity, or environment, have forced you into a life of menial labor such as waiters, pullman porters, and all other kind of porters, also bootblacks, who know so well the true value of service. This service is for everybody who wants to do something or see something done.

Remember a daily sheet, a joy ride, a hunting party, and all the good things of life are yours. All in this world that is required of you is to get in touch with the Eagle office and secure your membership in this hunting party.

Memberships are two dollars. Don't wait, do it now. Two dollars will help draw the thirty thousand of our group into a working unit, and start them all working, "FOR YOU, WITH YOU, BY YOU."

Membership to be had at the Eagle office. Come on, you don't have to wait a year or so, you can start something doing right now, today. Little David is at the steering wheel, it's an open season, and game is plentiful along Central avenue. Let's go.

OUT IN CALIFORNIA

By: WENDELL GLADDEN

Where the mountains lift their peaks
In the skies of blue,
Where little valleys lie, rich and green,
And streams glide along
In a trance of song,
With fertile farm lands in between;
Where sweet scented flowers bloom in exquisite hue;
There's wealth in every plain
Of ripe, golden grain
Out in California free—
There is always the heart of me!

Where restless waters whip the sandy shore,
Where angry rolling waves thunder and roar,
And lovers seek rest
Where none will molest—
Where nature gives her best and God gives more,
And your light heart seems ever to soar;
Where reign true love and peace
And never cease
Out in California free—
There is always the heart of me!

BIRDMEN

By: Wendell Gladden

Swinging high in heaven's blue,
Mounting up thru space;
Up among clouds they flew,
In their endless race
To heaven's door.

Soaring near the winding lanes
That great eagles found;
Spinning, dipping with their planes,
'Mid the buzzing sound
Of engines' roar.

SUNNY JIM SCORES K. O. OVER McKAY

Sunny Jim, middleweight sensation, triumphed in his bout with Gordon McKay, with technical knock out in the second round at Madison Square Arena, Wednesday night.

In the first Sunny Jim cut Gordon's left eye badly. However, both fought gamely with Sunny gaining slight margin. Near the end of the second Sunny forced McKay to the ropes and delivered volley after volley, but Leach Cross, of lightweight fame, who was refereeing, stopped him.

Both boys have been creating a sensation recently by their clever work. A few days ago Sunny Jim was awarded the decision in the main event in San Francisco, while Tuesday night at Vernon McKay put up a great battle against Jimmy O'Haggen, coast middleweight champion.

Results of other bouts Sam Langford vs. Scotty McGlicky—draw; Ortega vs. Brown—Ortega scored K. O.; Boy Wonder beat Wopp Flynn.

The arena will be closed next week.

Robinson's 'leaguers' were all pepped up and showed Dr. Gregg how they do it in the "Heart of California." Brother George Washington who passed away on Saturday morning, July the 23rd was buried from the Second Baptist Church, Wednesday afternoon July the 4th. The funeral services were beautiful and impressive. Bro. Washington was born at Mount Lebanon, Claiborn Parish, La., about 1847. He married in the wealthy Lake family to Miss Rhoda Lake. Arrangements for the funeral were in charge of B. K. Logon. Bro. Washington has been a member of the Baptist church since 1904 and remained a faithful servant of God until he died.

He leaves five sons and two daughters and eight grand-children and wife to mourn his loss.

REDLANDS

By Lorna Doone

We wonder how the people knew it was the anniversary of their pastor and wife and their pastor's birthday or, perhaps they didn't know, but on the evening of July the 11th, Rev. and Mrs. Charles B. Dones were surprised when friends called with a bounteous supply of good things to eat and the parson and wife feel sure that his good people intend that he shall not want for food.

Mrs. L. Daniels who has been visiting relatives in Texas for the past few weeks, has returned home, and reports having a lovely visit.

Rev. Bryant of Los Angeles was in the city Sunday and preached the morning sermon at St. Paul A. M. E. Church.

Mrs. Nellie Greenwood and two sons are spending the summer at Big Bear.

Mrs. O'Niel of 6th St, is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Sam Jackson of E. State St., is in the County Hospital where she has undergone a operation. Reports come that she is getting along nicely.

Services at both churches were up to the standard Sunday.

Union sirvices conducted at the 2nd Baptist Church Sunday evening were great. A wonderful sermon was preached by Brother S. E. Edwards.

RIVERSIDE, CAL.

Every week of the passing summer has witnessed Los Angeles' citizens in our beautiful city. The past Sabbath a party consisting of Mr. McDonnell and Mrs. A .L. Potts with members of the Northwestern States Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, spent the day with Rev. and Mrs. McCorkle and were worshippers at the services at the morning hour. Mrs. C. Jones and A. Pope are residents of Chicago.

Mr. Payne Middleton is in the city this week conducting a meeting under the auspices of the A. C. E. League. The first evening's work was a splendid index of what is possible with the youth of our people under the proper leadership.

Several parties of Riversiders spent the week-end in Los: Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Robinson, Marion and Victoria are visitors and delegates to the annual session of the Knights of Pythias and Court of Calanthe. Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald were on their bi-monthly visit. Mrs. Allen and Melba, her daughter visited relatives and friends.

Mrs. Chism returned from Los Angeles, Friday, from the bedside of her husband who is in the Santa Fe Hospital where he is taking treatment for an injured eye; she reports conditions unimproved.

Through the influence of the good citizen on the Censor Board of the Movies, the notorious 'Clansman' was canceled at the Rubidoux. It was to have been hsown Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Those of our group who are patrons of the Rubidoux can read the signs of the times and see what the management cares about us. These are the things to bestir us, but do they?

The Daily Vacation Bible School: It is gratifying at times and under conditions to measure individual progress by other's inactivity. It is not te highest type of gratification, but the primitive kind and the only kind that many know. Observe the enrollment; fourteen church schools are represented, 129 is the total enrollment, as follows: Grace Methodist 40, A. M. E., 12, United Brethren 33, First Christian 10, Bethel Mission 6, First Baptist 5, Nazarene, Calvary Presbyterian, Congregation 2, First M. E. 2, Colton M. E. 2, Second Baptist 2, Lutherian 1. Total from Methodist Bodies 53. (Free Methodist 2).

Comment: We note acording to announcement in the dailies that Mr. Jeffries, former pugilist has entered the arena of the combatants against sin, just what type of conversion that he has had is not determined, it sounds a bit like the Simon Magus type. He proposes to unify the white people religiously and send the Jews back to Palestine. We hope that he will have better fortune in his endeavor than he had in Australia some few years ago when he hung limply on the arm of a dusky son of Ham, in whom he proposed to pick out the yellow streak. There is no end to formalists, but it is as true today as it was the days when God incarnate walked the streets of Jerusalem and bade the sons of Abraham "To love one another, by this shall all men know that you are my disciples." Yes, how true also is this: "So many Gods, so many Creeds, So many paths that wind and wind, But all this poor world needs is just the art of being Kind."

NEEDLES

Rev. Shockley, Pastor

THE ST. JAMES BAPTIST CHURCH

Despite the continued hot weather, the church services were well patronized by church goers. We had the pleasure of having two visiting ministers with us. Also our Local Minister, Rev. C. S. Holt, with our regular pastor occupying the pulpit.

Rev. Shockley's message on Love was one of the grandest Bible orations ever listened to in this community which brought tears to almost every one within the sound of his voice, and we must say there are a very few God-sent men hsi equal. From a Biblical standpoint it is indeed a treat for anyone to hear this brilliant speaker. His many different portrayals of love simply held the entire congregation spell bound from start to finish.

There were many social functions in evidence last week. In the midst last week. In the midst of our intense heat and all of which were largely attended. The first in evidence was a brilliant brush in party which surprised two of our charming visitors, Miss Irma Thomas and Mrs. Eervilla Johnson of Clabourne, Texas, by the Destert Bunch composed of Mr. Leroy Washington, Mrs. Ethel Freeman, Mr. Rufus Evans and Oscar Greer with his mind on a vacation on the Hickman Home, Sand Lawn. The entire bunch just enjoyed some real classy "Blues" music by the Victrola route which ended at a late hour, including a beautiful quartette selection by the entire finale. Some body has certainly stolen our sheik.

Miss Willie Evans and Mrs. Ethel Freeman are contemplating spending a few days in Los Angeles shortly.

At this writing Mr. Oscar Greer, the popular shop foreman is still adding new faces to his many diferent departments and at the present time has the largest working force of any foreman in the shops.

Mrs. Katie Isom is busy prepareing for her Eastern trip as far as Boston. Dame Rumor is afloat.

The "bunch" received a card from Mr. Oscar Clark—The Frisco Sheik—that his mother is seriously ill in Kansas City and his stay there will be indefinite.

A charming house party was given at the home of Mrs. Katie Isom on the 19th in hoor of Miss Irma Thomas and Mrs. Servilla Johnson of Clabourne, Texas. The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lotfen; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Malone; Mr. and Mrs. William Isom; Miss Grace Davis; Mr. Neal; Mr. Steve Melton; Mr. Rufus Evans; Mr. Oscar Greer, the Sheik; Miss Ollie Davis; Mr. and Mrs. Lucia Davis; Miss Willie Evans; Mrs. Ethel Freeman; Mr. Corhelius Evans; Mrs. Katie Isom.

Miss Thomas is a song bird of rare note and her solo selections at the piano accompanied by Mrs. Johnson were a treat to behold in Los Angeles. Music lovers will do well to hear her render some difficult selections. There was a 6-course Buffet Luncheon served the guests and they departed at a late hour declaring the Sheik's Villa an ideal place to visit.

Mr. Oscar Greer will spend his 2 days in Los Angeles, looking for someone who wants a real full grown man to raise.

Needles was visited by a heavy rain storm on the 23rd which was welcome to this vicinity.

On the 24th there was a moonlight picnic given at Mountain Lake by Mr. Neal and Miss Grace Davis in honor of Miss Thomas and Mrs. Johnson. The party fished and had a weiner bake. All stayed until a late hour and in departing declared Miss Davis a splendid hostess.

FRESNO NEWS

The intense heat continues to force various ones to seek out different resorts. Mrs. Marion Toney left last Sunday for Pacific Grove where she will remain until early fall. Mrs. H. Carthon Bigby, Mrs. Percy A. Bost and Miss Dorothy Hinds form an interesting group who have taken a cottage at General Grant's Park for the heated term, but making frequent trips into town for social affairs. Ar thur Strickland is enjoying the cool breezes at the southern beaches.

Society was present "ensemble" on last Monday evening, when King Solomon Lodge No. 6 F. & A. M. entertained the Elite Pleasure Club at a brilliant reception. The card tables were arranged throughout the chambers of the lodge hall, and whist was enjoyed during the early hours of the evening with dancing as a secondary diversion. The impromptu program carried out by the various members of the lodge and the chapter was indeed an interesting feature. Dominant in all the radiance of the evening were the wonderful gowns worn by some of the ladies. Mrs. George W. Clay, wife of our former druggist wore one of the handsomest gowns in the ensemble ,being a striking original creation of alice blue taffeta with an overdress of heavy spanish lace. With it she wore three ropes of matchless pearls.

Mrs. Pearl Huddleson wore a gown of chocolate colored silk croton with a bodice of georgette crepe of the same hue. Long pendant earrings of rhinestones completed her costume. Mrs. H. T. Robertson of Redlands wore an imported creation of heavy tange beaded embroidered crepe, and had as an ornament a diamond sunburst. Mrs. Louis A. Pearson presented a striking figure in a lovely gown of brown satin creton crepe, heavily embellished with jet, while Mrs. Jas. L. Clark chose to wear a beautiful imported creation of black French charmeuse with an over skirt and bodice of lovely Spanish lace. The sleeves, also of Spanish lace were extremely wide and slit up to her shoulders. The girls of the younger set were visions of loveliness in their smart evening frocks. Miss Thelma Wolfe more dark blue taffeta with wide panels, huge green earings and a rope of emerald beads greatly enhanced this elegant frock. The oriental beauty of Miss Ann Dixon was shown to advantage in an original gown of dark blue canton chepe with a bodice affair.

embroidered in gold and green braid. The wide, spliced sleeves were faced with pea gree nsilk. Her only ornament was a large ring of green agate circled with diamonds. Miss Mayme Pickerton of Bowles, was indeed lovely in a smart frock of black Spanish lace over black crepe de chine. The bodice was made long with unusually wide sleeve staced with green silk. Her sister Miss Mattie Pilkerton, was charming in brown Spanish lace over brown crepe de chine, with a bodice of the same shade and trimmed in old rose silk. King Solomon Lodge, F. & A. M. is to be complimented upon their brilliant

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Clark were congenial hosts on last Sunday afternoon when they entertained at an informal picnic at their hospitable suburban dwelling in Kearney Blvd. About eighteen of their friends motored out for the affair, some of the guests coming in from Farmersville.

Another private picnic was enjoyed on the same day by a seelct group of the younger set, who motored to Riverview. In the party were Misses Ann and Billie Dixon, Thelma Wolfe, Messrs. Sam Hannible, Will D. Williams of Chicago and William A. Bigby, Jr.

SANTA BARBARA

Sunday was a beautiful day and both churches were indeed well attended and services uplifting all day. The Sunday School of Second Baptist was well attended and many points brought out in the lesson by the Superintendent and the teachers. The mid-week prayer service is growing with interest also the B. Y. P. U. meeting every Sunday at 6:30 p. m. All are welcome.

The "Country School" was presenter at St. Paul A. M. E. Church and furnished amusement for all present, each doing hi sor her part with much credit.

Mrs. Jetty Mason of El Paso, Texas, is visiting her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Mason of Santa Barbara Street and were the occasion for a prettily arranged tea Sunday afternoon. It was largely attended between the hours of 4:00 and 6:00 and the Social affair of the season. Mrs. Mason is high in her praises of Santa Barbara. She is leaving Monday night for San Francisco, after which she will tour the Southern cities including San Diego before returning home.

Mrs. Janey Jones of Garden Street and little daughter, Edna Mae, are now located at Rose Ranch, Oxnard, Calif., and on the 4th of July Mr. and Mrs. William Green of 425 E. Haley Street, motored down and had dinner aht te ranch house returning late in the afternoon. They report a wonderful time.

Mrs. Carrie Booth of 423 N. Mt. View Avenue, Los Angeles, Calif., was week-end guest of Mrs. Janey Jones and her little daughter, Edna Mae, at Rose Ranch last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Burke left Sunday for Los Angeles for a week or ten days stay to visit Mr. Burke's mother, who is a visitor herself in that city from Phoenix, Arizona.

Santa Barbara has a number of visitors in her midst some being Mr. and Mrs. Vance McLemore of Pasadena, Mrs. Narcisse Collins of Denver, Colo., Miss Green of Pittsburg, and Mr. and Mrs. P. Johnson, of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Sims have as their guests Mr. Sims's mohter and sister, Miss Patricia of Topeka, Kans., and Miss Brockman of St. Louis, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Reeves of Los Angeles were guests at Mrs. Charles D. Marshall's over the week-end while Mr. Reeves was doing some painting in Mission Canyon.

Chinese "Noodles" seem to be in great demand among the younger set now-a-days. Better watch out for the Chef from Hotel de Wall. Quien Sabe?

Sunday morning services were well attended. The pastor of Second Baptist Church preached an interesting sermon from Isaiah 27:13 and one united with the church.

The Union Picnic was well attended and the drum corps from St. Paul A. M. E. Sunday School furnished music for the occasion. The writer was surprised to see so many drummers, among them being the Rev. C. A. Harris, Pastor of St. Paul, Mr. James Smith, Mr. Patterson, our barber, Joe Smith and several others with Mr. Pangleton as the man with the fife.

Santa Barbara is still loud in her praises of the very unusual and interesting lectures delivered at St. Paul A. M. E. Church by Dr. Gregg. We would all enjoy hearing him again any time.

This week is a week of Special prayer services at Second Baptist Church to which all are invited.

News comes from Arizona that Mary Lee French was accidentally shot and killed. We join her many friends in their sorrow and deeply sympathize with them.

Mrs. B. L. Williams and children are home from their vacation in Pasadena and Los Angeles.

Word comes from Mr. R. Chapman that the first lap of his journey home to Georgia has been covered without mishap. He will be gone about a month.

Maria Baldwin Chapter of American War Mothers Honored

The Maria Baldwin Chapter of American War Mothers was recently honored at the fourth annual State Convention of the California War Mothers (white) held in Santa Cruz, California. It was honored by having its delegate and War Mother, Mrs. Theodora L. Purnell of Oakland elected to serve as State Auditor for the coming year.

The year book of the California War Mothers contains a memorial chapter to Maria Baldwin for whom the first colored chapter organized in the United States was so fittingly named. This chapter was written by Mrs. Purnell in her report of the chapter's year's work . It might be well to state that Mrs. Purnell was the leading spirit in the organizing of this chapter.

The American War Mothers is an organization composed of Mothers and Sons and Daughters who served in the late World's War. Their object is to aid and sustain to commemorate deeds; to uphold the principles of justice—national and inter-national—and work in perfect harmony with the American Legions and its auxiliaries.

The Colored War Mothers were not gathered together in a separate chapter because they were not welcome to become membrs in th several other chapters in the State, but because it is hoped that the Maria Baldwin Chapter and the work for which it stands will be an incentive for other colored chapters to organise throughout the United States. They will thus become a fitting memorila to the Colored Sons, Veterans of the late World's War.

As as illustration of how well this colored chapter was received by the War Mothers Convention, Mrs. Purnell's paper, before the convention, was enthusiastically received. Mrs. M. F. Murry, State War Mother, requested that this paper in "Spirit of the American War Mother" be printed and a copy sent to every chapter in the State, and to the War Mothers of New ealand and England.

Sorority Tea Served

The Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority served an elaborate tea recently in their chapter house in Oakland. The tea was given in honor of the high school graduates members of the race of the Bay Cities. Mrs. W. B. Esterely, Dean of Women of the University of California, summer session, spoke to the guest in higher education and Miss Eva Bowles of the National Board of the Y. W. C. A. of New York spoke on race pride. Miss Lula Chapman who graduated with honors from the Fremont High School of Oakland delivered part of her commencement address. Miss Marie Griffin of the Technical High of Oakland rendered a violin solo and Miss Ethel Craig of Berkeley High a vical solo. More than fifty mothers and friends were present.

This Sorority is composed of colored girl graduates and under-graduates of the University of California in Berkeley. They are centering their efforts in encouraging the desire for higher education among the colored people of the Bay region.

MONROVIA NEWS

The Marcus Garvey workers of this city and vicinity were busy during the past week, circulating a petition addressed to President Harding, asking him to use his influence with the trial court, in which he was tried and convicted on a charge of using the mails to defraud, to allow him his liberty on bail during the pending of the case on appeal. It seems to have been freely signed.

The Sunday School picnic of the Shiloh A. M. E. Zion Church, was successfully carried out last Friday. Practically every scholar of the school went on the picnic. All seem to have enjoyed themselves.

Mrs. Cleves and Mrs. Johnson, recently of Los Angeles, but now of the Gem City are the new arrivals in our city . These two families add materially to the fast growing colored population of our city.

Huntington Drive between Ivy, St. and Canyon Boulevard, as we understand will soon be placed by ordinance in the business district, of the city of Monrovia. The West side of this block is owned almost entirely by our race group. The property on this popular thoroughfare is very valuable, our people should think well before disposing of it.

Mrs. Alice Streeter and her son Eddie of Riverside were visitors in our city Sunday. The Mayo brothers were also in our midst during last week, they too, are from Riverside.

A number of our of town friends from Pomona and Los Angeles, took in the Zion Methodist Sunday School picnic last Friday.

Both the Methodist and Baptist Churches enjoyed fine services last Sunday morning. Rev. Mrs. Rose of the Methodist Church who has been down for some time with an injured foot, was able to fill his pulpit, at each of the services Sunday. He preached two excellent sermons. Mrs. Steve Lockett, was the soloist at the morning worship of the A. M. E. Zion church Sunday morning. She sang with the spirit, to the delight of all.

THE LOS ANGELES "FORUM"

A large and enthusiastic crowd packed the Odd-Fellows Hall at 8th and Wall Street Sunday, July 15th, to witness the installation of the various officers. The Hon. Fred M. Roberts, Assemblyman for the 74th District was master of ceremonies. Before installing theofficers, he asked if there is anyone who would like to give their opinion on the out-going or the incoming officers. Among those who has commended on the subject was the Hon. Thomas Norris, Atty. Broyles, and "Brother Luke" who brings the key-notes in three words (their works shall be proven) which was very much applauded by the people, and was opened to be commended by the chairman. Officers who were installed were as follows: Hon. John E. Pitts, president; J. C. Slaughter, vice-president; J. W. Coleman, chaplain; C. E. McKinney, chairman of the program committee; S. W. Green, current topic-reader; and H. A. Howard, reporter.

After having installed the officers, the master of ceremonies, told to his hearers that one of the greatest achievements of the "Forum" in the last one and a half decade was on the line of education. It is one of the most vital proposition of a race, nation, or people to be accomplished. It will be the only solution, that will make better men and women in the communities in which they live. Therefore, I do truly hope that in the future, this organization may achieve much good for the betterment of our people both Industrially, Socially, and Educationally. The new president made a very forceful and impressive speech, which was cheered with echo and enthusiasm by the people. After which the meeting adjourned until next Sunday at 4:30 p. m.

H. A. Howard, Reporter.

REV. HOLDER OF MT. ZION BAPTIST CHURCH ACCOMPLISHES GREAT WORK IN BRIEF PERIOD

All hats off to the Zion Hill Baptist Church, who with its youthful pastor, has just closed a very successful 3 weeks campaign. Successful in many ways. First, this organization has grown from a membership of 3 persons in the short space of one month to a church of 80 odd members.

Second, starting with a treasury of $7.00 it has just raised $1000.00 and now is perfecting a plan to raise $50,000 and increase the membership to 1000. Third they have experienced the greatest spiritual awakening in the history of Los Angeles. Every one who visits this new and thriving people go away filled to rejoicing.

On the third Sunday five candidates were baptized with water and the Holy Ghost came and tabernacled with this people thru the covenant and communion sirvice and the attendance ranged all day betwen 200 and 250.

NEW HOUSEEHOLD OF RUTH ESTABLISHED—MRS. WARNER HONORED

Household of Ruth, No. 5093 was instituted in El Centro, California, on last Monday evening, with twenty-one ladies and four brothers present. The organization of this Household adds another important link to the chain of this great Order.

Beautiful indeed was the work performed by P. D. G. M. N. G., Mrs. Eliza Warner. The hall was splendidly decorated, and the ladies, all attired in white, made an inspiring picture. The officers were installed in the wee small hours of the morning, and the new Household retired to the banquet room where a spread fit for tor the gods was set forth.

All expressed themselves as highly pleased with the work of Mrs. Warner, who, while in the city, was the appreciated house-guest of Mrs. Hallie A. Gray. Mrs. Gray entertained with a reception for Mrs. Warner, at her beautiful home.

Mrs. McCallum of Calexico also complimented Mrs. Warner with an elaborately appointed dinner.

Household of Ruth, No. 6093, of El Centro and Calexico, gave a dinner and motor ride to Mexicali and other points of interest, in honor of the distinguished visitor.

MEMORIES OF MOTHER

Girls—Boys! You can't realize to the full the meaning of the word "Mother" till she has passed to the great beyond! But let me remind you that the best of all is Jesus, who can go all the way. I oftimes feel sad and lonely. Then I think of the great prophet, David, who said: "I once was young, and now am old! I have never seen the righteous forsaken, nor their seed begging bread." Mother's loving hand and arm are always protectingly about me, through my elder brother, Jesus Christ.

And she shall never be forgotten. I hope that all you who are still blessed with a mother will stop and think—she is the dearest of all on earth!

MRS. R. PATILLO-PORTER,
Daughter.

LAWRENCE GREENE—A REAL PAINT MAN.

Lawrence Greene, who is Salesman for the Roberts' Mutual Paint Co., is doing remarkable work, not only selling but make a study of manufacturing.

He is well pleased with the patronage accorded him. It is Lawrence's intention to unite the painters and builders; and to that end calls attention not only to the builders but the public at large, that he has a large list of Colored painters who are competent and able to do as efficient work as the white man.

Any young man who wants to learn the painting trade see Lawrence who can place him; when the layman is competent he will get contracts.

So let us all when we thing of paint think of "Our Lawrence."

DEAN OF HOWARD UNIVERSITY EXPRESSES APPRECIATION

Dr. W. C. Gordon of 1021 E. Washington street, is in receipt of the following letter:

Howard University,
Washington, D. C.
July 5th, 1923.

Dr. W. C. Gordon.
1021 East Washington St.,
Los Angeles, California.

Dear Dr. Gordon:

Accept my hearty thanks for the splendid contributions of the professional people and citizens of Los Angeles to the Endowment Fund. It is certainly most gratifying to feel that, although so far away from Howard the Alumni takes such a keen interest in her welfare.

You may be interested to know that the amount needed has been passed, but you will readily understand that we will need a surplus to cover the pledges which will not be paid because of death or the inability to meet the obligation.

I appreciate the fact that the Los Angeles Alumni must have done a great deal of work to obtain this amount and it certainly gives me a great inspiration to do more in the future.

Gratefully yours,
(Signed) E. A. BALLOCH,
Dean School of Medicine.

Dr. William H. Foster, of 979 S. Mariposa Avenue, has a note of acknowledgment from Dr. Balloch, of a similar tenor.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday evening, July 31st. The program will be of the highest order; one hour of classical, intelligent entertainment. The Wilkins Academy Glee Club of Girls will render two numbers which are more than worth hearing; one by Burleigh, "Deep River." A classic subject: "Does the Church Rule a Man's Conduct?" by Miss [illegible] Parker, will be a most timely and thoughtful dissertation. A vocal solo by Miss Dorothy Armstrong, an unusually sweet singer, will further enhance the program.

EDITORIALS

Who killed the goose that layed the golden egg? Cock Robin did of course.

Most of the traduces of life do not reach the newspapers they are bound up in human hearts.

Those who complain of the Negro criminality, the most obstreperous villain is more bearable than the Negro who seeks the enforcement of the constitution.

We are watchfully waiting as we notice the various moves in the vice situation. We will cooperate at all times for the betterment of conditions and stand firm against outside interference in the affairs of the police department.

The government founded on opinion and imagination reighs for some time, and this government is pleasant and voluntary; that founded on might lasts forever. Thus opinion is the queen of the world, but might is its tyrant.

Jesus Christ is the central figure in the Scriptures. Around Him gathers all that they contain. He moves in the events of the older ages and is the great dictator of the world's events. He is the golden clasp of the two Testaments, and to the end of the last vision on Patmos He is most conspicuous.

"What God hath joined together let not man put asunder," and yet history teems with millions of instances of this broken vow and millions more dread the coming of the judgment that must follow in the wake of this dreadful undermining of this sacred pledge.

We are born with a disposition to love in our hearts which is developed in proportion as the mind is perfected and impels us to love what appears to us beautiful without ever having been told what this is. Who can doubt after this whether we are in the world for anything else than to love. In fact we conceal in vain what we always love. Man does not like to dwell with himself; nevertheless he loves. It is necessary then that he seek elsewhere for something to love. He can find it only in beauty, but as he is, himself, the most beautiful creature that God has ever formed, he must find in himself the model of this beauty which he seeks without—the beauty of character, manners and respect for those needing his exemplified life to lift the clouds of despondency that gather thick around their lives.

CONSTRUCTIVE AND PROGRESSIVE.

The Knights of Pythias have been with us this week, and indeed they have appeared to better advantage than ever before. The constructive program for which this body stands is one of real progress. Los Angeles should and always will welcome in her midst such a progressive institution as this.

OUR NEW DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

Of course the "Soaring Eagle" has expressed its sentiment relative to the position of our new District Attorney, when he dodged the issue and refused consideration of the appointment of attorney Clinton Ross to one of the vacancies in his office because, he "Ross" was not a white man. This action right off of the reel to our mind is a most unfortunate one for all of the people of this community. Ross qualified; ordnary procedure could not have evaded his appointment, but our new District Attorney went way outside of the ordinary or any other procedure and by extraordinary execution he dodged the law, violated and prostituted the civil service in order to deny forty five thousand people of his constituency representtion in the department of justice for this county. Our new District Attorney had to stretch some but was equal to the occassion and did not strike Ross so hard as he did forty five thousand of his loyal constituents. Some day—Oh some day, our new District Attorney may need this same constituency which he has so ruthlessly denied.

SUPERVISORS FAIL TO GIVE RECOGNITION.

Some people had the temerity to hope and and abiding faith that our Board of Supervisors would name as one of the new justice of the Peace or police judges one of the three colored applicants, any one of which would have filled the office with honor and distinction. Then in the coming election it would have been up to the people to approve or disapprove the selection made. To our mind this would be the fair and just thing to do. However the appointments came forth and the "NOTHING DOING" sign was posted and we now have another guess a coming if we would be so brave as to think for one moment that our Board of Supervisors was going to give way to equity and representation as against color. Great things were expected of Supervisor Bean, we might however just as well be fair and realize that he had only one vote out of five. On the other hand there was five appointments and five Supervisors. Did each one of them control one appointment? At any rate not one of the colored applicants got away from the starting post.

GIVE US A CHANGE

We progressive people of this wonderful metropolis have a fad that is costly and unproductive. Time and again we have paid our hard-earned and precious dollars for one or two hours of terrific speech and picture-painting, only to find ourselves a few hours afterward in the same rut and category that we were in previous to the verbal effervesence. They say that talk is cheap, but this talk that we have heard was rather expensive and fruitless.

To a casual observer who desires to take a retrospective view of the situation, this would seem to be a logical conclusion, "Much has been said and nothing done." It has all amounted to so little as far as tangible results are concerned until it is shameful for us to be made conscious of the fact that we are so soft and easy.

Preachers and pastors are berated and criticized for the clever way in which they lose their into our pockets with impromptu speeches and some unrecognized greetings of the Heavenly Father, yet, we can give them credit in spite of their shortcomings for contributing to the race the finest monuments existing, church buildings. On the other hand we send across the continent to get some highly paid soothsayer to come west and tell us what we ought to do, and he knows in the telling that he would not attempt it himself and before he reaches the Atlantic seaboard we are in "statu quo," holding the speaker's words only as pleasant reminisences. Just suppose all of the money we have lovingly given for speech had been expended for investment, how much acreage could have been bought and store space on Central Ave. purchased. We speak of the progress of the Japanese but it was never made by sending anywhere to get a bunch of speakers, or a group of orators, but to the contrary they clubbed together, bought land and made their dollars talk. Everyone as a result knows his history for it is written in the soil. The Negroes' history is written in the air in words and phrases. On the coast we have young people as brilliant, as well trained, and as thoughful as anything you can get in Chicago or New York; they can do as much talking as any individual with a little time, so if we must send away to get some celebrity let's get someone who will come out here and show us not in word but in deed how to do some of these hypothetical propositions, he or she so intelligently proposes. We have had enough talk, let the next man be an organizer and a doer. This is a business age and we need doers, men who will guide us in conquering intelligent America and frugal California.

"BLIND SPOT" MAY CAUSE ACCIDENTS

By E. B. Lewis, B. Sc. M. D.—1618 1-2 East 9th Street.

Everybody is blind in both eyes at definite spots. These blind spots are places in the seeing part—the retina—of the eyeball wall proper, where the optic nerve enters. The eyeball is like a cup and ball. That is to say, it is a ball at the end of a thick rope. The rope is the bundle of cable called the optic nerve, which spreads out fanshaped inside the back wall of the eye as a covering of rods and tops called the retina.

The retina is the delicate covering of the interior of the eyeball which holds the impression and the picture of what the eye sees. The retina may be compared to a stationary film of a moving camera, the eyeball differing in its operation from a motion picture camera in that the eyeball moves around instead of the film, and that it constantly and instantaneously develops its own pictures and forever renews itself.

The eye perceives most things, when you pay attention to the realities around, but despite your best attention the most resourceful person with perfect eyes is blind to the things which fall upon the spot in the retina where the optic nerve enters it.

Apparitions, ghosts, spirits and other alleged figments of the "imagination" are often illusions caused by a mix-up of the blind spot of one eye and the visual part of the retina of the other. Indeed, the blind spot is so large in focus that the head of a man or even the head of an eagle or a cat at a distance of six feet or so will fall upon it and be absolutely unseen.

Indeed, you will honestly swear as a witness in court that there was no such thing present. Yet it is as large as the moon seems. Dr. Edna B. Dayton, an investigator of distinction, carried out successful experiments with subjects in rapidly moving automobiles, which prove that areas as large almost as 25 square feet; spaces six feet high and four and two-thirds feet wide in the broadest part; to a person riding in an automobile, aeroplane or other rapidly moving vehicle will appear to be absolutely empty and void to the driver's eye on that side.

In fine, many accidents are thus accounted for by Dr. Dayton. The chauffeur, driving at the speed of 25 to 35 miles an hour in a straightaway stretch of road, meeting anybody or anything, even the wheel or part of another automobile, whose driver's blind spot might simultaneously encounter the other's, could have a collision for which each would be guiltless.

The discovery of Dr. Dayton is not at all startling. It is rather curious that physiologists had not previously thought to make such experiments to bring to light the fact htat rays of light from anything which might fall upon the eye's blind spot will produce no perception of that object's existence. Not only most laymen, but many doctors are unaware or have wholly forgotten that they may be ever so resourceful, ever so truthful, ever so honest in their purpose to tell what is round about and yet say exactly what is not so because of the blind spot.

Commonly, when a thing is not observed, you are told either that you have been inattentive or unobservant. I have heard a teacher upbraid a little boy "for never seeing what is on the blackboard nearest to his side." It is more than probable that this bright child's location was such as to project an area on the board upon his blind spots.

The way to make up for normal blindness in everybody's eyes is to keep your eyes more in motion than the automobile driver usually does. A chauffeur should not keep a fixed stare ahead on the road. Moreover, each auto owner and each chauffeur should visit an experimental laboratory of psychology in some university, and become familiar precisely with his own blind area.

Then, by a small movement of the eyes the possible unseen areas which might fall upon the blind spots are almost certain to fall upon the seeing parts of the eye.

Question: W. N. S. My little boy who is twelve years of age has what my neighbors called the shingles for one week now. He does not appear to be very sick from it. My neighbors also advised me to see my doctor right away, for if the shingles meet around the body, my boy will surely die. He is now under the doctor's treatment and apparently is doing well. But I am nervous over it and think that I would consult you about it. Oblige.

Answer: Your neighbors have certainly carried you from the sublime to the ridiculous. And they are correct when they say that if the shingles meet your boy would die, for shingles never meet.

The medical name for this condition is Herpes Zooster. It follows the course of the intercostal nerves. These nerves do not meet around the body, hence the impossibility of the disease meeting around. Your doctor will surely take care of the condition.

Dr. Lewis will answer questions for readers of this paper on medical, hygienic and sanitation subjects that are of general interest to the public. He cannot always undertake to prescribe or offer advice for individual cases. Where the subject is not of general interest, letters will be answered personally, if a stamped and addressed envelope is enclosed. Address all inquiries to Dr. E. B. Lewis, 1618 1-2 E. 9th Street. Phones 820-389 and 822-417.

COMMENTS

By: W. J. WHEATON

The fight for a purely Negro personnel to man the hospital at Tuskegee shows no abatement. The government built it in order that the Negro soldiers who were disabled in the "war for democracy" might be treated for their disabilities, and in so doing would not come in contact with white soldiers and cause a race friction. In other words, the government wanted to pursue the Jim Crow tactics that it has pursued—where the Negro is concerned—the past half century. It has stated that the internes and nurses could be Negroes, but that the Negro was lacking in the skill of surgery and in the ability to manage such an institution.

It is the same old cry: seeking to prove the lack of ability without giving a trial.

The Negro medical profession has called its annual meeting to be held in the city of St. Louis, beginning the 28th day of August. At that meeting there will gather Negro men who have no peers in the realms of surgery and physics. There are surgeons who have held clinics abroad and have received the highest encomiums for their skill. Science knows no color line, but unfortunately politics rules where ability should prevail.

If there is no ability among hte personnel of surgeons and physicians who will gather in the city of St. Louis, then, our boasted progress of the race is a joke. But we know that among the men who will gather there, men can be found who will have the professional and executive ability to manage the hospital successfully.

The President has determined to "beard the lion in his den." He has practically issued a challenge to the redoubtable Hiram Johnson on the World Court issue. This administration has been so busy with international policies that our domestic necessities have gone to the "demnition bow wows." It reminds one of the woman who complained of her neighbors lack of cleanliness, but could not see her own slaterness. We accuse the Turk of cruelty and practice what the "Unspeakable" would shrink from doing. We seek to impose our civilization on the Orient and practice things which make the Oriental shiver.

It is a splendid policy. It diverts attention from our short-comings. Our "Holier than Thou" attitude is only a veneer to cover the deformities of racial hates; and the savagery which accompanies it. And the worst of it is, we are lacking in heads of government who have the courage to act for the eradication of those evils. We are woefully lacking in the selection of heads of government who will speak and act for the entire personnel of the nation. We are lacking in the selection of men who head the government who can divorce themselves from racial prejudice and demand that all men be given an equal opportunity and see that they have it. We are greatly in need of an executive who will not countenance segregation in the work of the goverament which he has been selected to control, but will demand and see that race and color shall be no bar to promotion but that ability under a black skin shall be recognized as well as under a white one. Lord give us such an executive, and give us the courage to keep trying until we find him!

DR. G. J. STARNES, EMINENT TEXAS PHYSICIAN, TO LOCATE HERE TEMPORARILY

The latest addition to the local medical fraternity, is Dr. G. J. Starnes, formerly of San Antonio, Texas.

Dr. Starnes is a graduate of Meharry Medical College, and studied further at the New York Post Graduate Medical School and Hospital, where he took special training along the line of female diseases and major surgery. In 1900 he took a special course in eye, ear, nose and throat diseases at the Northwestern, in Chicago, with special access to the female clinics. Dr. Starnes mastered a special course in bacteriology at the University of Southern California, in 1904.

Dr. Starnes was for many years associated with Dr. J. G. Selby, at 431 1-2 E. Commerce St., San Antonio, Texas, and is again with his former partner, at 2403 Central Avenue, Los Angeles. Phone South 5727.

IN THE MUSIC WORLD

By: John A. Gray

The following excerpt from the Etude concerning Cæsar Franck, the Franco-Belgian composer, gives a faint idea of the manner in which great musicians work. Many persons believe that the lives of famous people are continuous rounds of fun and pleasure, when just the other thing is true. The article says:

"The world has been celebrating the centenary of Franck, the Belgian composer who so greatly influenced the trend of modern French music. It is well, but there is a tragic irony in the fact that he was so badly neglected in his lifetime that the compositions of his which we esteem so highly were but fugitive works composed in hours literally stolen from the drudgery of a long day of teaching. His most distinguished pupil, Vincent D'Indy, has written a loving biography of the master in which the following passage occurs. Budding geniuses who "haven't time" to write masterpieces should study it carefully.

"The moral quality which struck us most in Franck was his great capacity for work. Winter and summer he was up at half-past five. The first two morning hours were devoted to composition—'working for himself,' he called it. About half-past seven, after a frugal breakfast, he started to give lessons all over the capital, for to the end of his days this great man was obliged to devote most of his time to teaching amateurs, and even to take the music classes in various colleges and boarding schools. All day long he went about on foot or by omnibus, from Auteuil to L'Isle Saint-Louis, from Vaugirard to the Fauborg Poissoniere and returned to his quiet abode on the Boulevard Saint-Michel in time for an evening meal. Although tired out with the day's work he still managed to find a few minutes to orchestrate or copy his scores, except when he devoted his evenings to the pupils who studied organ and composition with him, on which occasions he would generously pour upon them his most precious advice.

"In these two early hours of the morning—which were often curtailed—and in the few he snatched during the vacation at the Conservatoire, Franck's finest works were conceived, planned and written.

"Go listen to Franck's Symphony in D Minor and congratulate yourself that the composer was an early riser."

We may add that the Symphony in question might have been founded upon modern ragtime motives, so syncopated is it first movement. This number has been given several times by local orchestras and should be heard by all who are interested in fine music.

THE MUSIC LOVERS' SONG FEST MADAM BRANDON SCORES

On last Monday evening at the New Hope Baptist Church, under the able direction of Mme. Viola Harris-Brandon, from 8:30 to 10:30 the New Hope Baptist Church Choir of forty members, rendered choice selections of Negro Folk Songs. Every Negro composer of spirituals was creditably represented, both by the choir and by individuals. A reading, "The Negro Woman," by Miss L. V. Williams was creditably rendered. "A" and "B" spiritual numbers by Miss E. B. Washington had a very charming effect, for her lyric soprano voive as example of a high tone placement was also characteristic of technic and harmony.

"Deep River" in its latest variation arrangement was artistically played by Miss Catherine Swanson, for silence reigned while she played, and burst of applause when she ended, in a way that showed she had her audience in a grip of appreciation. Mrs. Anna Range showed a gifted talent in handling her Dunbar selections of Negro Dialect. The baritone solo by Mr. Lively was meritorious of the much applause of appreciation shown him by the audience; he was encored time and time again. At the close of the program Rev. M. F. Mitchell of the Christian Church, and Rev. Webb of the University Christian Church (white) graced the occasion with brief talks. These gentlemen were loud in their praise of Madam Brandon, for having given to the overflowing crowd such an evening of great delight. The directress was held out as a musician and choir leader second to none upon the Pacific Coast. Even though this young woman has been within our gates a short time, her worth in her musical activities is so pronounced and her power to impart the musical art to her pupils, that already Los Angeles' musical lovers are looking to this little women of rare attainment for leadership.

CENTRAL AVENUE BUSINESS TO BE DEPICTED IN MOVIES

Mr. Joe De La Cruz, famous motion picture director actor and producer, will within the next fortaight finish his 2 reel picture of Central Avenue business firms and at a later date at a place to be designated will show these pictures to the public. This is a unique advertising plan which strikes a popular chord into the people when they realize that they can see the activities of their local business concerns in pictures. The picture will be a comedy drama written by one of the most famous story scenario writers and directed by Mr. De La Cruz, who will put all of his skill of 14 years of movie experience and training into same. Among those who will be in the reel are the Pearl Garage, Prof. Wilkins School of Music, Johnston Automobile Dealer and salesmen; Hiawatha Academy, California Eagle, several drug stores, restaurants, Tailor shops, etc. One thing certain the neighborhood will be advertised as never before, the night of the showing will be gala events, with street parades, music and dancing.

Mr. De La Cruz was to start this film some time before, but being under contract with the Neva Gerber Co., it was impossible for him to start his Queen of Central Avenue, as he had two months more to go on his contract for the finishing of the famous historical serial. "The Santa Fe Trail" in which he took the third lead as the heavy of the serial which soon will be released and having finished with his contract he expects to start on the Queen of eCntral Ave. as soon as he gets at least 10 or more of the leading merchants to co-operate with him in his ad campaign as he wants to make it a success.

So much for the merchants of our race of this neighborhood as for his campaign as he is charging less than the cost of the film and expense.

Being his first picture of this nature he wants to give the benefit of the first to this neighborhood on which he is a property owner. He has at our disposal the best motion picture equipment that money could buy with the most experienced still and motion picture camera men. Aside from the other equipment for perfect photography the film will be shown mostly in the colored neighborhoods here as well as in theatres around Los Angeles and already have tentative offers of one of our leading dance halls to install a motion picture machine there to show it where at least a thousand people of our race will see it in a night.

Every one of our merchants who is going to advertise in the picture he is going to advertise in the picture, he is play his own part. With the proper motion picture make-up and proper directing he thinks he can make them act like professionals.

For information call Joe De La Cruz.

The beautiful home and lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Robinson was beautifully decorated and brilliantly illuminated last Friday evening for the reception of the host of guests who attended the very brilliant social affair for the "teen" age set. Mr. Robinson was assisted in the service by Mrs. McCorkle, Mrs. F. Johnston and Mrs. M. Harris. Several people from out of town were present, namely: Mr. and Mrs. M. Harris, Mr. R. The Order of the Eastern Star presents Atty. W. A. Gordon, Thursday evening quite a larger gathering of Riverside people gathered to listen to an address by Mr. W. A. Gordon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gordon, Sr. His subject was "The various methods proposed by the different organizations for the solution of the Negro Problem and a brief comment." He presented the facts as they are stated by the different bodies, analyzed them in a highly commendable manner and commented upon each with such clearness that "he who runs may read." A chorus directed by Mrs. Allen furnished the music.

NEEDLES

It seems that the hot weather has been broken up by the continued showers and the last few days have been real fall weather. We can only hope for the good change to continue.

It seems that society is on a rest up period now, having been so active during the past two weeks with so many charms out of the city.

The bunch received mail from Miss Irma Thomas and Miss Sewilla Johnson, the golden-voiced song birds in Los Angeles to the effect that they are having a splendid stay in the beautiful southern metropolis—Los Angeles. Just have to stay up late. Miss Thomas is simply a dream—Be careful, boys, don't get excited, she will return again.

Mrs. John Allen, Mrs. Gus Anderson and Miss Margaret Walker left for the scene of the Baptist Associatic nlast week to remain until the "Big Show" is over.

Charming Miss Grace Davis left for Los Angeles, Sunday evening to be in attendance at the Association and a representative from this district.

There are quite a number of strangers in our midst and more coming.

At this writing Mrs. McMillian was reported very low and not expected to live. She is a member of St. James Baptist Church and very active in church work. We are praying that she pulls through all right.

Mrs. Katie Isom, our President of Women's Home, Foreign Club, left for the East Monday evening to visit Boston, New York, Buffalo, Kansas City, St. Louis, Mo., Washington, D. C.

Oscar Greer, the popular Shop foreman, continues to add new faces to his department. Greer is busy getting ready to visit his people in Colorado and other Eastern cities about the last of August. I wonder if he will be alone? Somewhere in Los Angeles he will have a certain debt to pay to some two certain parties—wages are bad when made in haste. And still he expects to visit Los Angeles on his regular two days' rest period about the last of August.

St. Paul's Church witnessed a glorious day Sunday. Great hallelujah was demonstrated by her members, when they were apprised of the fact that the church is clear of indebtedness. All the auxiliaries of the church have taken on new inspirations for the future.

Mr. Jas. Mendenhall is the guest of his mother. His many friends are glad to greet him.

Others came later and at 9:30 all were called to order for Sunday School by the Supt., Mr. Wm. Taylor and after assigning the grown ups to Mr. R. B. Burton, as teacher and the children to Mrs. Minnie Johnson, they began to delve into the lesson and some wonderful truths were brought out in the course of study and the children taught by Mrs. Johnson made the woods ring in song. After perhaps 40 minutes study of the lesson and collections had been taken the two classes met for review and the spiritual application, Mr. J. H. Scotland did justice to the lesson at hand and made all feel that they were glad they were there. After the Sunday School was closed with prayer by the pastor then some went for a walke, while the ladies spread the table for dinner. At 12 o'clock the gong was sounded and diner was served and it was a great feast. Everyone ate their fill and some went hiking up the mountains while others took naps and chatted among themselves. Later on in the afternoon watermelons were cut and served and still later on, after all the hikers had returned ice cream was served to all. As evening drew near the President of the B. Y. P. U., Mr. R. B. Burton called all together and a short B. Y. P. U. was enjoyed by all present. Finally we noticed everyone beginning to gather up bag and baggage, and we knew our picnic was about over, but everyone left declaring they had spent a most glorious day in God's out of doors.

A large, appreciative audience was present on last Sunday morning and listened to a strong, wholesome sermon by the pastor, Rev. Shaw. The text was found in Matt. 7:14—"Strait is the gate and narrow is the way that leadeth unto life."

The communion service was very impressive.

Every Sunday brings new additions to the church.

Rev. Shaw preached at 3:00 P. M. to the "Brotherhood" of the M. E. church at Pasadena. The services were a marked success spiritually and financially.

A very interesting lesson was conducted by Prof. J. C. Banks at the observer hour. Bible class par excellent.

The evening sermon was delivered by Rev. J. H. Miller. The text was found St. John 18:38—"And Pilate saith unto them, 'What is Truth?'"

This was a most excellent sermon and struck home to all hearts.

Our church cordially welcomes friends and strangers alike.

Sunday was a fine day at Wesley. The pastor had returned from his vacation and was greeted by an unusually large audience. His sermons morning and evening were quite helpful. This was Dollar Day for repairs and the loyal people put on the table 7.00. Besides this they contributed nearly $100 in the regular offering. This Sunday is the annual Thank offering of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. Mrs. Nancy Foster, recently returned Missionary from Africa, will deliver the missionary address.

Memorial Services in honor of President Harding will be held in the evening. Hear the Pastor's Memorial address on President Harding as a statesman.

Dr. R. W. Underwood, Pastor

Sunday, August 5th was a high day at Phillips Chapel C. M. E. Church. The pastor preached a powerful sermon from the 40th Chapter of Isaiah the 30th verse. The door of the church was opened and several persons came forward and joined.

Prof. Mitchell and the Choir rendered some beautiful anthems during the day.

The public is invited to hear Dr. Underwood, whose sermons are always impressive and powerful. Sunday at three o'clock p. m. Dr. S. M. Crothers and his choir will be with us. Dr. Beane will preach. The public is cordially invited to these services. Dr. [illegible] Johnson was with us Sunday evening last and preached a great sermon.

The fourth Sunday of this month is general Rally Day, and the officers and members are looking forward to same.

RD CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH
[illegible] East 25th St.
Rev. B. R. Gay, Pastor

Last Sunday was quarterly meeting day at this church. The Sunday School conducted by Mrs. Ellie White, Asst. Supt. The morning services were attended with spiritual power. Many visitors testified to the power of the Lord to save and keep. Rev. Jones and Rev. Redden assisted the Pastor in administering the Holy Communion.

The Junior Endeavor met. Bro. T. A. [illegible], Pres., led a good meeting. The Senior League was well attended. As it goes to show, when the Juniors do their efforts, much good is done. The lesson on the Good Shepherd was taught by Miss Georgia Buckner, Vice-President, assisted by Mrs. Guy. Miss Elizabeth Peterson at the piano rendered good music for the occasion. Visitors from West Side and Mizpah from 9th and Towne were welcome visitors at night. P. H. Washington preached a splendid gospel sermon to an excellent mixed audience that gave current attention. Our Quarterly Conference on Monday night was also best this year. Bishop [illegible] spoke 10 a. pastoral hours on Friday night. Texas: Lay not up treasures upon earth.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH

Y. M. C. A.-Six and Hemlock

Rev. H. D. Prowd, Pastor

Our Lesson in Sunday School was admirably instructive, and all enjoyed it.

At the 11 o'clock service Dr. Prowd preached from Nahum 1:7—"The Lord is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and He knoweth them that trust in Him." Truly the Lord was on hand to bless all who heard the message. It was a real season of refreshing. Every christian present could subscribe to the truthfulness of the word of God.

In the evening the B. Y. P. U. held its session and the subject was helpfully discussed. Mrs. Bass of the California Eagle will address the meeting this coming Sunday at 7 P. M. and the President will render a solo.

At night Dr. Prowd discoursed on the conversion and baptism of Cornelious the Centurian.

We continued our Rally and took up $70 toward our prospective house of worship, outside of the regular church offering.

We have a special message for this Sunday at 11 a. m., and at night we will observe The Lord's Supper. We extend hearty welcome to all—especially the strangers within our gates—but come praying for a blessing.

TRINITY BAPTIST CHURCH

36th St. and Normandie Ave.
Rev. J. A. H. Eldridge, Pastor

The lesson in our Sunday School was of great interest and all enjoyed it. We had a glorious covenant meeting Sunday morning. The spirit was very high. Much benefits received. Rev. Holder, pastor of Zion Hill and congregation were with us at three o'clock. The sermon was eloquently delivered and proved to be a veritable spiritual feast. B. Y. P. U. is progressing nicely. At 8 o'clock the pastor filled the pulpit taking his text from 2 Tim. 2:3; afterwards the Lord's Supper was observed.

Sunday morning, August 12th, Mrs. Whitfield of Washington, D. C., will be with us. At 8 o'clock the closing exercises of the Vacation Bible School will be held here.

TABERNACLE BAPTIST CHURCH

12th and Hemlock Sts.

Right will prevail. Tabernacle has been redeemed. Rev. J. D. Gordon, a distinguished man of God was present Sunday and we all were overjoyed. A host of members, visitors and friends were there to greet him. Text was taken from Mark 1:15—"And saying, the time is fulfilled, and the Kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the Gospel."

Sunday School was excellent. Mr. James Lewis, Jr., sang a beautiful solo, also Miss Ollie Green and Mr. Gordon Hawkins gave a reading. At 3 o'clock Sunday the Baptist S. S. U. will convene at St. Paul Church. B. Y. P. U. was very fine. Sister Annie Mitchell rendered a solo and Sister Writer a paper.

Evening services were grand. Rev. J. D. Gordon delivered a wonderful message. Subject: Christ the Object of Prophecy. Then Sis. Cecil Thomas, one of America's greatest elocutionists preached a sermonnett which was excellent in rendition. Sister Anna Noal and Bro. A. A. Sutton favored with solos. We all love Rev. F. H. Davis, who has so wonderfully poured out the spirit of truth, and held God's people together. And we shall always count him one of us. Sis. Angie Lewis has worked up a great Choir and we deem everyone finds it a pleasure to hear them sing. Every Wednesday at 3 o'clock the Mite Missionary meets. All are invited to come out. Sister Crosby, Pres.

MRS. R. PATTILLO-PORTER,

M. with Mrs. West, 1212 E. 16th St., all are invited to attend. Prayer meeting Wednesday, 7:30 P. M.; Literary Society, Thurs., 8:00 P. M.; Choir Rehearsal, Friday 8:00 P. M.

WALL ST. CHRISTIAN CHURCH

9th and Wall Streets

Our services last Lord's Day were excellent. The Bible School was well attended. Bro. Cothran spoke at the morning service, subject: The Power of God's Word; text Heb 2:3. He showed that Christ was the Word and the only power by which the sinless can attain to salvation. His evening subject was the Great Salvation; text: Heb. 6:11. He showed how dangerous it is to neglect so great a plan. If you are not making your escape and are blind, come and hear Bro. Cothran preach the old Jerusalem Gospel. He is truly a plain gospel preacher and unlike the Scribes plain and simple, that those who are seeking after the real truth may not err. We invite all who would like to come and worship with us. Next Lord's Day's services will take place just after our meetings close.

Rev. E. E. Lightner, Pastor

"The Profit of Godliness" and "Watchfulness" were the themes of the messages brought by the Pastor at the morning and evening services on last Sunday. Splendid audiens were in attendance at both services and partook of the Lord's Supper that was administered at the close of each service. Two persons united with the church, one of whom was a young man on confession of faith. Substantial additions were made to the rally fund by several of the Circles.

as unassuming and modest as he is clever, and "every day, in every way" is becoming the man of the hour in medical circles.

Mr. R. C. Owens, Los Angeles' wealthiest colored citizen, is a typical Californian, and well known to all classes of people in our city—for despite his riches and social position, no man is more democratic than "R. C.," who hobnobs with bootblacks as readily as with millionaires; he is easy of approach, and a prince of good fellows, and does not feel that he is one whit better than the man who does manual labor for his living.

The above is a likeness of M. G. Stokes, who is one of the most prominent figures in the business life of Los Angeles.

While unassuming in his manner, Mr. Stokes has nevertheless been identified with some of the biggest financial projects that have been promoted by members o fthe race in this section, and he enjoys the felicity of Los Angeles' very best citizenry as clients in the real estate world. Mr. Stokes is a property owner and his identification with and interest in the California Development Company, is in itself the greatest possible guarantee to the public of its present soundness and future promise. There is no doubt that, under the executive leadership of Mr. Stokes, with the co-operation of the brilliant minds associated with him, the California Development Company will at once take its place as the most efficient and successful undertakings of its kind West of the Rockies.

The Company has already purchased a $12,000 property, with an income of over $2,000 per year, an din a short time will not only be in a position to bring about radical betterment of local conditions but provide for the locating of the thousands of strangers who throng into Los Angeles each week.

ODD FELLOWS HOLD NOTABLE SESSION AT HANFORD

ORVILLE ANDERSON ELECTED DISTRICT GRAND MASTER; S. P. JOHNSON RETIRES AS DISTRICT GRAND SECRETARY AFTER 20 YEARS OF SERVICE.

By: THOMAS LEWIS
Delegate From Golden Rule Lodge, No. 5959

The delegates have returned to their several homes after holding a notable session of the order at Hanford on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of last week. It was a session fraught with a continuation of real constructive work for a real and last progress.

Jones Retires as Grand Master

The biggest moment of the session was on the last day when the Grand Master, J. W. Baughman announced that he would not stand for re-election, his decision came like a bombshell, for up to that moment it was conceded that the Grand Master would as a matter of course stand for re-election and serve his sixth term. Mr. Bass briefly addressed the body giving a short resume of the great strides which the District had made under his guidance and declined to run again, solely on the ground that his business affairs would not permit him to devote the necessary time to the position and entreaties for the reconsideration of this decision were in vain.

Mr. Bass retires from the head of the Order with a record which will stand as the most progressive administration by far in the history of the Order on the Pacific Coast. From less than one thousand members in the Lodges and Households five years ago the Order can now boast of quite three thousand members in both branches and with less than thirty Lodges and Households at the same period, it now has 45. This is in deed and in fact a demonstration of the capacity of the retiring Grand Master to bring things to pass.

Such was the confidence in his ability and his strong hold on the membership of the District despite the fact that he had held the position for five years requiring Lodges instructed their delegates to support him for the sixth term.

Mr. Bass is without question the most known public man on the Pacific Coast and in closer contact with the people than any other man and this fact with his strong personality made the Odd Fellows grow like the proverbial green bay tree.

San Francisco Man Elected

Mr. Orville Anderson who had the support of the retiring Grand Master was elected to the office of Grand Master.

Mr. Anderson is a newspaper man as well as an employee of the Santa Fe R. R. Co. and bids fair to make a notable success as the head of the Order, he has all the qualifications and will no doubt make good in this important position. Other officers elected were:- Harry Lewis of Los Angeles, Deputy Grand Master; Jacob Sorgen, Sacramento, Grand Secretary; Rev. W. A. Magett, San Jose, Grand Treasurer; E. Owens, Watts, District Grand Director.

S. P. Johnson Closes Long Period of Service

S. P. Johnson's retirement marks the close of twenty years of service as a District Grand Lodge Officer, the latter part of which time he held the office of District Grand Secretary; previous to holding this office he held that of District Grand Master. For his service he was voted a signal honor of merit and esteem and a beautiful watch was presented to him on the occasion.

Past Grand Masters Receive Emblems

All the Past District Grand Officers were voted emblems which will be suitably made and presented to them; they include: E. A. Johnson, Los Angeles; Isaac Brown, Sacramento; John Clayton, San Francisco; C. E. French, Redding; J. B. Bass, Los Angeles, and others.

Endowment Sound

All reports from the Endowment Department put this institution to the forefront and on a solid basis.

Odd Fellows Home

The proposition of an Odd Fellows Home was put several notches higher as the delegates and Lodges rallied to its support and raised more than $500.00 for the fund at this session.

Hanford outdid herself in entertaining the session and was the recipient of a vote of thanks. The daily press at Hanford was generous in its publicity and carried front page articles from two to three columns each issue of the session.

The District Grand Household met simultaneously with the Grand Lodge and report a wonderful session. Mrs. E. Bishop of San Jose was elected as the Grand Most Noble Governess to head the Household for the ensuing year.

The session closed with installation of officers, J. B. Bass, acting as the installing officer. A grand promenade and ball was held at night and all San Joaquin Valley was present to the big affair. The grand outing which had been planned for Friday was canceled on account of the funeral of President Harding.

CHALLENGE HINES TO KEEP HARDING'S PROMISE

MATTER OF TUSKEGEE HOSPITAL STAFF REPRESENTED BY N. A. A. C. P.

Upon receipt of the report that Director General Hines of the Veterans' Bureau had "compromised" with a white committee from Alabama, offering to appoint a white doctor as head of Tuskegee Hospital for Colored Veterans, and two white Assistants, the remainder of the staff to be colored, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People at once wrote a sharp letter of protest. The letter, which is signed by James Weldon Johnson, Secretary of the N. A. A. C. P., inquires whether it is the intention of the Veterans' Bureau to fulfil President Harding's promise that the hospital would be manned entirely by a Colored staff. The letter reads as follows:

"August 7, 1923.

"Hon. Frank T. Hines,
Veterans' Bureau,
Washington, D. C.

"My dear General Hines:

"In today's New York Tribune appears a dispatch from Montgomery, Ala., dated August 7th purporting to be an account of a meeting held by the citizens of Tuskegee. At this meeting, after hearing the report of State Senator R. H. Powell, Dr. L. W. Johnson, and W. W. Mitchell, members of the Committee which conferred with you in Washington last Friday and Saturday, it is stated that the citizens of Tuskegee accepted a compromise plan for the personnel of the government Negro hospital suggested to this Committee by the head of the Veterans' Bureau. The report goes on to state that by the compromise, the chief physician and two others of the hospital staff will be white and the remainder of the medical staff is to be composed of Negroes.

"On behalf of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People I am writing to ascertain if this report is correct. We are especially anxious to secure this information, in view of the fact that the late President Harding stated through his secretary in a letter to this Association dated April 20th:

> "It is the plan of the Director of the Veterans' Bureau, with the approval of the President, to man this institution completely with a Colored personnel.

"We would like to know what is to be the action of the Veterans' Bureau in view of the definite promise made by Mr. Harding. Until we may receive those forwarding in this question whether or not the promise of the late President Harding is to be carried out."

TO HAVE BENEFIT FOR LOWER CALIFORNIA SANITARIUM

WILL STAGE MOST ELABORATE BALL OF SEASON AT EXPOSITION PARK, AUGUST 24.

What promises to be the season's classiest affair is a ball to be given at Exposition Park Friday evening August, 24th, at which time all Los Angeles will come out, hear and know what can be done, to the strains of music such as that furnished by the greater Black and Tan and Ory's celebrated orchestras, given to create a greater interest in a Sanatorium at Lower California for the Colored and Mexican peoples.

J. N. SELLERS IS VICTIM OF ATTACK

ROUGHNECK MOTORCYCLE OFFICERS SHOULD HAVE THEIR HANDS CALLED.

On Friday evening, August 3rd, Motorcycle Officer No. 4, whose name is said to be "Burnett" simply because a peaceful driver complained to him that his light blinded him so that he could not see, threatened to beat up and lock up Mr. J. N. Sellers and party who were en route to their home from Los Angeles, to Sawtelle. Mr. Sellers was abused, told that his color was not supposed to talk to this particular officer, and then jumped on the running board of Seller's machine and made dire threats as to what he would do.

Sellers kept his head and reported the incident to Sheriff Traeger and naturally wants a ruling as to the reprehensible conduct of Motorcycle Officer No. 4.

MORE THAN DELIGHTED WITH RESULTS

The Managing Editor of The California Eagle:

This is to request you to continue my announcement in the columns of your paper. Four weeks ago my first announcement appeared in your paper, our business has so increased that today we are forced to secure larger quarters—Many come saying "I saw your ad. in The Eagle."

I have traveled more or less throughout these United States, from Ocean to Ocean and from Lakes to Gulf and across the Lakes, recently through the States of Louisiana, Mississippi, Texas, Alabama, to Tuskegee Institute and The Veterans' Hospital No. 91 at Tuskegee, I have found your paper in many homes, I have been a subscriber for many race papers—namely, The New York Age, Southwestern Christian Advocate, Cleveland Advocate, Detroit Plain Dealer, Atlanta Independent, Nashville Globe and many others—yes, the Chicago Defender, now I am frank to confess that as a business getter, I have found but few to equal and none to excel The California Eagle.

I would advise people coming to the California Southern Metropolis to do business, to see The California Eagle. Continue my advertisement in the Eagle.

MR. AND MRS. MALONE GUESTS OF MRS. N. COOPER

MR. A. E. MALONE

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Malone, heads of the great "Poro" Company of St. Louis, Missouri and who are without doubt the greatest forces for the economic advancement of our people in this country, are the city's guests.

Mrs. Malone is the founder of the "Poro" system which has grown to such gigantic proportions and has brought the Malones fame as well as fortune and it seems that they have dedicated their lives to do the things worthwhile for the advancement of the race in this country. Both Mr. and Mrs. Malone have endeared themselves to the people of this country for their sincerity of purpose and assertion devotion to their people.

They have neither been satisfied nor content to stack their arms while the race needs counsel and aid, and their contribution to the advancement is accomplished in their great deeds which they are doing day by day, which we may all point to with pride.

While here Mr. and Mrs. Malone, accompanied by Mrs. Iva B. Wood, head of the Complaint Department of Poro College, and Chief Office Assistant, are stopping at the lovely home of Mrs. N. Cooper, 1134 E. 23rd St., who is a sister of Mrs. Malone.

In our next issue we will give to Eagle readers the interview with Mr. Malone on matter of vital, genuine

IN THE MUSIC WORLD

With the coming of the new season there will be a greater activity in music than ever before. The nation is gradually awakening to the value of music as an aid in producing better citizenship. The people are learning to love music for its own sake and are giving it better support. A large part of the work rests naturally upon the teachers and performers.

The teachers must have high ideals and try to instill these principles into the pupils. They must forever hold up the standard of all that is good and best in the art. They must train the young mind, not only to grasp the intricacies of musical art, but to appreciate also the spiritual and intellectual side. Their task is the producing of future musicians, the developing of musical appreciation in the community around them. And greatest of all the teacher must be a living example of the best, noblest and sincere in the art. A teacher who has no ideals cannot implant any in the pupil. Who knows but that the little boy or girl of today may become the greatest musician and master of the race tomorrow?

History shows that very few of the teachers of the old master were known outside of their little community. Therefore the humble little teacher hidden away somewhere, may be the very one who will kindle the fire of genius and who will keep finding it until it blazes into a conflagration that will attract the attention of the entire civilized world. How serious then is the task of the teacher.

No less important, however, is the work of the performer. His task is to deliver a message to his hearers. The kind of message rests with him entirely. If the performer renders only the light trivial part of music then his message is a light, trivial one. But if he combines the trifles with some of the noble utterances of the masters he will be helping to spread the gospel of better music and will be assisting in the development of the same. One of the great drawbacks that confront the teacher is the fact that the pupil hears some famous performer give a program composed for the most part of trifles. At once the argument is "The great so and so plays this, why should not I?" Against this sort of argument the poor teacher has little chance. A performer can in one concert tear down all that the teacher has tried to do for several years.

Team work between the teacher and performer is a necessary thing. Both should be idealists whose love for true art should be above everything else. Such a condition must exist before we can hope for a musical nation.

We trust that the coming season will give tangible evidence of this phase of idealism.

RELIGION

Mr. Lloyd George declares his conviction that only religion can be a saving factor in the affairs of man.

Of course! But it must be an entirely new religion. The kind of religion that has been grasping the battle-ax of Mars to enforce obedience to its edicts is the kind of religion that precipitates hell on earth, turns the hearts of men against the church and makes its offices and pretensions alike odious.

There is scarcely a spot on the earth's surface that is not pregnant with force, whether it be the force of some so-called moral reform set afoot and backed by the most despicable of all movements, a church militant; or whether it be the force of an allied coterie of statesmen seeking to impose their will on weaker people, or yet the force of bomb and bullet, always it is the same, offered under the sanctum of religion.

The most amazing phenomenon in the affairs of man today is this use of force and duress in the practice of a religion whose great preceptor never ceased to counsel against such a thing. If one would know why religion has so little appeal, why the church is decadent, (as the church itself admits), one need seek no further than the facts we present.

The religion capable of healing a torn and troubled world, bringing surcease to the hearts of man and transforming the human nature into a thing of vast beauty, is a religion which offers sanctuary to those who have grappled with the world and failed to find happiness. A religion which has formed a co-partnership with the world and materialistic affairs, walks hand in hand with politicians and shares its holy office with the ungodly in reforming mankind by political means, never fails to become both oppressor and reppressor and odious in the hearts and minds of men.

The true religion never takes but one side of a controversy, God's side. And it has to offer to mankind nothing at all but the redeeming love and power of the Almighty. It never judges, lest it be judged. It is never controversial. Such a religion alone has the power to reform the hearts of men and thus become a saving factor in the affairs of men. A political religion can never accomplish it.

Rev. Robert House, Pastor

Sunday School, 9:30 A. M.; Preaching, 11 A. M., Subj.: The Affliction of the Body and Soul—a Permanent Cure; Allen C. E. League, 7 to 8 p. m.; Preaching 8 p. m.

Attention last Sunday marked the day of our Educational Anniversary. Prof. Chas. L. Eason spoke at the 11 o'clock service on the Vital Importance of a good all-round Education for the Boys and Girls of today who will be the men and women of tomorrow to conduct the Affairs of Humanity's Material, Social and Spiritual Prosperity on Earth. Mr. Harold Wilson at 8 p. m. gave a splendid account of our own Western University at Quindaro, Kansas.

The services and collection for the entire day which was a splendid contribution was given sacredly for the great cause of Christian Education.

Come, you are welcome to worship with us.

WARD CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH
1252 East 25th St.
B. R. Guy, Pastor

Splendid services were held at this church last Sunday. Bro. E. A. Daniels conducted the Sunday School and spoke of the Union Picnic at Lincoln Park, Tuesday, August 14th.

Rev. Jones preached to an attentive mixed congregation at the morning services, from the text: "Give me the portion of Goods that Belongs to me." The offering was above the average. Both Leagues had good services in the evening, the Junior League had a good attendance. At night the Pastor spoke from Second Peter, Second Chapter. A number of visitors were present, expressed appreciation of the services and promised to return. The pastor is collecting Dollar Money and Conference Claims, and has asked the members and friends to help collect money to paint the church. Our Willing Workers Club has voted $25.00 from its Treasury for that purpose.

WESLEY M. E. CHURCH N
8th and San Julian Sts.
Rev. A. P. Shaw, Pastor

This Sunday is Girls' Day at Wesley. A great program is promised. The pastor will preach the Annual Girls' Day sermon on the subject: "Better Than Riches." At the evening hour the girls will render a great program. Hear the Girls Chorus of Forty voices at the evening service.

Last Sunday's services were up to the usual high standard. The Missionary address of Mrs. Nancy Warner was full of sympathy and pathos mingled with a burning message of fidelity to the cause of foreign missions.

The memorial addresses at the evening service by Atty. L. K. Beeks, Hon. F. M. Roberts and Prof. W. A. Clark were of a high order.

The offerings for the day were excellent

You will miss a great day if you do not hear the sermon to the girls next Sunday morning and the program by the girls in the evening.

Come and hear and see.

FOUNTAIN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH.
Duarete, California.
Wm. Prince, Pastor

The church is engaged in a wonderful Revival just now. The Rev. Mrs. I. H. Ford of Pasadena is conducting the meetings assisted by that wonder Missionary worker, Sis. McDonald and her associates. Sinners are being converted, backsliders being reclaimed and the Saints being made stronger. Five members were added to the church Sunday. There were many visitors coming from the neighboring towns. Rev. Washington from the West Side Mission was with us morning and evening.

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH
8th and Towne Ave.
Rev. A. Milton Ward, Minister

The Rev. A. M. Ward will occupy his pulpit Sunday morning and night. Special music led by the choirs will be a feature of both services.

Presiding Elder James Washington preached morning and night last Sunday, the occasion being the 4th and last Quarterly Meeting Day for this Conference year. There were seven accessions to the membership of the Church. The singing by both choirs was good.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.
34th Street and Central Ave.
Rev. E. E. Lightner, Pastor

Rev. J. H. Middleton was the speaker at the morning service on last Sunday and Bro. F. W. Stewart occupied the pulpit at the evening hour. Both brought splendid messages. This Sunday, August 19th will have good things in store for the worshippers at this Church. The Rev. Dr. E. A. Johnson will preach at the morning service and Deacon H. L. Garrett will bring the message at the evening hour. You are cordially invited to these services.

WALL ST. CHRISTIAN CHURCH
East 9th and Wall Streets.

We had splendid services last Lord's Day. Our Bible School was well attended. Our morning and evening services were par excellent, they were well attended and all seemed to be greatly edified and encouraged. Just after the morning service a marriage took place. One of our Elders, C. W. Hollins, was joined in matrimony to Mrs. Emma Ward; Mr. John W. Coleman and wife were best man and bridesmaid. He was selected to give her away because he said wife had known her for some years, she having lived at their home.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH
33rd and Hooper Ave.
M. Frederick Mitchell, Pastor

The pastor filled the pulpit both morning and evening. Subjects: "True Greatness;" "What we Owe and How to Pay it." All services were interesting and inspiring. Next Sunday Rev. Dr. J. N. Ervin, Pres. of the Jarvis Christian College, will speak for us. At 5 p. m. he will speak at the Los Angeles Forum. For the citizens of Los Angeles, he will appear at the A. M. E. Zion Church under the auspices of the N. A. A. C. P. While here in the city Dr. Ervin is the guest of the Christian Church, 33rd and Hooper, with headquarter at the home of Rev. and Mrs. M. F. Mitchell, 1506 E. 22nd St.

METROPOLITAN BAPTIST CHURCH
37th and Paloma Sts.
M. C. Carter, Pastor

Those who were in attendance at the regular services Sunday past had their spiritual strength renewed when our Pastor preached from the subject: Greatness and Honor Found Thru Works. His text was found in James 2:18—Yea a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: Shew me thy faith without thy Works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works. The services were grand by the presence of some twenty or more of the Bullock boys and families who attended in a body. The Choir, under the direction of Mme. M. T. Outley, rendered special music.

At the evening session Rev. Z. Deane preached a strong and forcible sermon to an appreciative audience. Text, St. Matt. 16:13. The pastor will fill the pulpit Sunday, his subject will be "Who do men say that I, the Son of Man am?"

The B. Y. P. U. had as a lecturer Sunday, Mr. Johnson of the Independent Church; all present enjoyed his very timely remarks.

The Metropolitan Literary Society meets every Thursday evening at 8:00 p. m., a cordial invitation is extended to all.

HAMILTON M. E. CHURCH
Cor. E. 18th St. and Naomi Sts.
Rev. S. M. Beane, Pastor

The pastor occupied the pulpit at the morning service, and preached a very profitable sermon from the subject, "The Way of Holiness." This sermon was very much enjoyed by all who heard it.

In the afternoon the pastor, choir, and congregation visited the C. M. E. Church at which time the Rev. Beane preached a great sermon.

In the evening the Knights and Daughters of Tabor rendered a program in honor of the 51st year of its existence. It was a fine program and was much enjoyed by the large concourse of people who were present.

The choir under the very efficient leadership of Mrs. Helen Wortham is delivering a very fine grade of music at each service. You will enjoy it.

The pastor begins a series of sermons on the 26th of August from the general subject of "Religious Fundamentals." The first sermon will be entitled "The Bible—How we Got it and What It Means." You ought not miss any of them. These sermons will be delivered in the evening of each Sunday at 7:30.

You will always find a cordial welcome here. Come and see.

TRINITY BAPTIST CHURCH.
West 36th and Normandie Ave.
Rev. J. A. H. Eldridge, Pastor

Our Sunday School is doing nicely; Rev. J. H. Young filled the pulpit at 11 a. m. taking his text from John 14:6. His subject was well handled and enjoyed by all. Mrs. E. E. Whitfield, a representative of Minnie Burroughs School, was present and gave a very helpful talk. The B. Y. P. U. was well attended and the lesson imparted in an interesting and forceful manner.

At 8 p. m. the church was full, to hear the closing exercises of the vocational Bible School, which were excellent. Mr. Robinson, President of the District Missionary Work, and Mrs. Neal, of Imperial Valley, were our distinguished guests, and were loud in their praises for the work of the school. Testaments and certificates were awarded to the children.

Visitors always welcome.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH
Y. M. C. A.—8th and Hemlock Sts.
Rev. H. D. Prowd, Pastor

Our Sunday School was of usual interest. The new scholars were received joyfully and given a hearty welcome. At the 11 o'clock service the Rev. Dr. Johnson a visiting brother preached a very acceptable sermon followed by a heart-stirring prayer by our beloved brother Jones.

The President of our B. Y. P. U. was in good form as he sang his announced Solo, accompanied by Miss Ernestine Jones. Mrs. Bass will address the meeting this Sunday at 7 P. M.

At night we observed the Lord's Supper and had the presence of The Master with us. At the close of the morning service this Sunday there will be baptizing. We cordially invite all—Come praying.

NAT'L. BAPT. CONV. CALL

Selma, Ala., July 24, 1923.

To the Baptist Brotehrhood Throughout the United States and other Countries Affiliated with the National Baptist Convention:

GREETINGS:

In compliance with the action taken by the National Baptist Convention at its annual session held in St. Louis, Mo., December, 1922, it gives us pleasure to announce that the 43rd Aniversary of the National Baptist Convention of the United States of America will convene in the city of Los Angeles, California, September 5th to 10th, 1923.

The signs are that we shall have a large, patriotic group of messengers at Los Angeles, notwithstanding the distance. Momentous questions will be considered in this meeting and the presence of our brethren is demanded. We want you.

There we shall consider the completion of our Publishing Plant and the National Baptist Theological Seminary. Our Home and Foreign Mission work must be extended and strengthened. The needs of our Sunday School, Benefit and B. Y. P. U. Boards must be considered and satisfied.

In this session or by December 1, 1923, we hope also to raise a sufficient amount of money to pay all debts of the Convention and be able to make substantial contributions to the needy causes of the Convention. So we urge your presence at Los Angeles. Come prepared to qualify as messengers in compliance with the Constitution.

Every Baptist Church is urged to represent at this meeting, either by messenger or by letter. Those who are to represent by letter should send not later than August 31, 1923, having the mail addressed to R. B. Hudson, Secretary, National Baptist Convention, Los Angeles, California. The Representation Fee is $5.00 for a Church and $10.00 for a District or State Convention, although the Special Finance Committee is requesting that the larger churches send much more to meet the demands of the situation.

The 1923 Annual Report will give full account of all fees sent in and all churches, whether large or small, are requested to co-operate by sending in at least the minimum fee of $5.00.

By order of the Executive Board.
L. K. WILLIAMS, President.
R. B. HUDSON, Secretary.

FROM UNDER THE SHADOW OF SAN QUINTEN

CALIFORNIA EAGLE FURNISHES CLUE FOR JOURNEE WHITE'S FREE

On last Tuesday when Judge Rose Avery in the Superior Court said defendant is "dismissed" it was the sweetest music which had ever fell upon the ears of Lieut. Journee White, who for the past 20 days has been waging a fight proving the innocence of the charge of violating his parole, for which he was to have to be sent to San Quinten.

It was truly a remarkable case which would out-do fiction in its strangeness. Mr. White, while on parole, executed some papers for the transfer of property. It afterwards disclosed the fact that the deal was a fraudulent one. Arrest was made. White was picked up and his parole declared broken. He was ordered sent to the penitentiary to serve from one to ten years. White protested his innocence and through his attorney Paul C. Hill procured a stay for ninety days. He wanted to find one E. C. Ross for whom he executed the papers.

Soaring Eagle Assists

He called upon the Editor of this paper to assist him in hunting E. C. Ross. We were at San Diego and commissioned Attorney W. H. Crawford, of that city, to go over into Tia Juana, Mexico, and look up this said E. C. Ross, also the records as to property held by him. This act put White's attorney on the track of Ross who proved be E. C. Roberts and Roberts was arrested. He exonerated White of all blame and is himself in durance vile for fraudulently conveying lands which he did not possess.

Thus ends one of those hair-raising episodes which tangled up justice had a narrow escape from becoming injustice.

LINING UP FOR NAT'L. BAPT. CONV.

(By J. B. Bass)

Everything is moving up at this stage of the proceedings for the entertainment of the National Baptist Convention which meets in this city Sept. 5th. to 10th. inclusive. The site chosen is at 21st. and Compton Ave. and a mammoth tent with chairs for 5000 persons will be pitched at this location, every sanitary arrangement is being cared for and every comfort possible for the convenience of those who will attend the meetings of the big convention.

Delegates On The Way

From all sections of the country word comes that the people are on the way; on last Tuesday 30 automobiles all loaded to the fullest capacity left Dallas Texas en route to this city, also a special train will leave Fort Worth Texas on Sept. 1st., likewise from New Orleans and other southern points. In fact from all sections of the country reports are, that caravans are moving on to Los Angeles.

High Churchmen on the Scene

Prof. Austin of St. Louis, Mo. who is the conductor of music for all of the big Baptist meets is on the ground looking after the musical end rapidly shaping up the great chorus for this great occasion. Dr. Stokes of Birmingham Ala. Treasurer of the big organization is also in evidence and helping to finish up all details for the success of the big meeting.

Prof. Hines, National Exhibitor is on the scene and directing affairs.

Rev. R. N. Holt, Chairman of the General Committee is working overtime in his zeal to make the Convention a success.

Rev. L. B. Brown is an outstanding figure in the effort incident to holding this convention in this city. Over many obstacles and fighting down petty jealousies he made the last stand for the Convention to come this way. He would not stand back when foes of the movement underhanded sought to thwart the will of the people and in St. Louis stood up and in a glorious speech won the Convention for Los Angeles. Therefore Dr. Brown's reinforcement of Dr. Holt accomplishe dmore than any other two persons for the success of the effort.

We are aware of the fact that there are those who will withhold due credit and as we are in a position to know we hesitate not to give Rev. L. B. Brown due credit for his great service, others may push him back but in this instance the Soaring Eagle will tell it unselfishly that the people will know who's who.

UMPIRE DONALDSON HEARD FROM.

St. Louis, Mo., July 26th.

Editor California Eagle: —

The reason you have received no news from me recently, is that I was seriously injured in an accident on May 4th, and was compelled to remain idle during May and June and a portion of July, but I am back again in harness, taking my regular turn at umpiring. At present the League is one big success, and all cities are drawing wonderfully well.

The teams are playing great games; the players are in splendid shape. For the first time in the history of the League, Colored Umpires are in evidence, and winning the unqualified respect of fans, players and managers. The season is almost over, and all teams are fighting to gain first place. The race is between Detroit American Giants, Indianapolis, and the dangerous Kanss City Monrchs. Deary Johnson is the Babe Ruth of the League; he is hitting the apple far over fences daily. Hawkins, the California boy, is the best first baseman in the League; his fielding is sensational, and hitting well.

Here's news for the followers of the Grand Old Man, Jose Mendez. He is now the manager of the Kansas City Monarchs and the boys are doing their best to win for him. Rube Currie the boy wonder pitcher of the same club is the streak of the League.

I regret that my injury has caused an interruption of my communications and assure you that my regular weekly letter will be forthcoming from now on.

Sincerely
W. M. (BILLY) DONALDSON

LINER TO THE NEGRO STUDENT

By: Eva Carter Buckner

Oh youth, Oh, maid of sable hue
The world has much for you to do;
Step firmer when you feel alone,
With head erect, and stiff backbone.

Stay in the rank of rapid stride
And know He's ever at your side,
The slight, a scorn you may receive
Is not from noble hearts—believe.

The altruism in your heart
Is there for you to act your part;
Go on and up! and in your flight
Strive hard to reach the dizzy height!

But when you think the goal you've won,
Know you your school has just begun
But in the march where'er you be
You're not alone but seemingly.

PACIFIC COAST CHAMPIONSHIPS ON U. C. COURTS SEPT. 2-8; ALPHA AND ALPHA PARTHENIA IN LOVE FEST AUG. 23RD.

By: William Matia Watson
1555 Court St. Drexel 5742

Alright friends and knockers Prof. Elmer E. Beckman, Executive Secretary of the University of California (Southedn Branch) rolled the last stone from the path of success to the Second Pacific Coast Tennis Championship Tournament, 1923, when he kindly gave written permission to the Western Federation of Tennis Clubs to hold the eventful affair on four of their six splendid courts at 855 North Vermont Ave., Sunday and Labor Day September 3 and 3.

Entries Close Saturday, Sept. 1 9:00 P. M.

The next and most important thing is for all clubs and prospective contestants to get busy and ship their entry feed into members of the tournament committee as no entries will be accepted after 9:00 P. M. September 1st. The fee is one rock for singles and six bits each for doubles.

All clubs are assessed $3.25 or the fee for one entry or team to three of the five events.

Bertha Miller Trophy Off

Mr. Lucien Douglas Miller, former president of the West Side Club who last February promised the Federation a handsome bronze cup to be known as the Bertha Miller Trophy in memoriam of his late wife has had a change of heart and hung up the "Nothin' Doin'" sign and we are willing to believe for good and sufficient reasons, so the tournament committee will provide two prizes to fill the place of the one for Mixed Doubles.

Alpha-Alpha Parthenia Ring Fest

One of the most unique tennis affairs on local record is scheduled by the rejuvenated Alpha boys who with their wives and sweeties will hold a kissing match with their auxiliary, the Alpha Parthenia Tennis Club gurlies and their gun bearers at Parish Hall, Thursday Night, August 23rd.

Ladies unencumbered will be cared for by bachelors suffering similar handicaps.

SWEET FRIENDSHIP'S MEMORIES

As life goes on, our paths diverge,
New interests set our hearts athrill;
But somehow old time friendship's urge
Contrives to linger with us still.

New friends, new scenes, our lives surround,
And seek to drive the old away;
But in our moments most profound,
We find that they have come to stay.

Misunderstandings oft succeed
In severing the sweetest ties;
But who has been a friend indeed
Finds that real friendship never dies.

A hand divine unseen by us
Directs our feet in paths unknown;
But faithful friendship glorious
Follows to dungeon or to throne.

O yes, yes, there is flattery;
We've seen it fawn and felt its bite;
But there is also constancy
That changes neither day or night.

And often though it seems to change,
It does not so; deep in the heart
True friendship seeks to re-arrange
Things, and the hoped-for joy impart.

Friends we've so true have not the power
To do all for us that they would;
But let us have no reproaches dour,
Believing they've done what they could.

And then in Him we find a Friend
Whose friendship never, never fails.
He has no reason to pretend
Infinite power His plans avail.

The leanest years He can make rich,
With compensations sweet and vast;
There is a day to come in which
He shall make all things plain—at last.

Let us not then destroy the flowers
That volunteer along life's way;
But cherish happily the hours
When pleasant memories come to stay.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH—Riverside, California.

Our Sunday School is progressing nicely. Sunday was a high day here. The spirit started in S. S. and continued through the day. We had several visitors with us, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Solomon of Pasadena and Miss Anna Williams, from Kansas City.

In the morning Rev. Cooper preached a spiritual sermon. His subject was Love. As Sunday was Covenant day, talk from different ones increased the spirit. After service we had an inspiring talk by Sis. Solomon touching again on Love.

In the afternoon a Mass Meeting was conducted by members of Park Ave. and Second Baptist Churches. The speaker for the evening was Sis. Solomon.

The night service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. Cooper. Subject: Who Should Take the Lord?

SANTA BARBARA

$9,000 CASH REAL ESTATE PURCHASE MADE BY BAPTIST MINISTER OF SANTA BARBARA, CALIFORNIA

The Rev. H. B. Thomas has bought the two lots on the cornre of East Gutierreb and Annacapa St. extending East from 2nd Baptist Church to Annacapa St. The church has been looking forward to the time when it could own these two lots or at any rate the corner lot, since it has been built knowing that the ground would be sold some day.

Last Fall, Judge Rizor who owned the land and lived in the house by the church himself, passed away, and the church picked up new interest in getting the money together for the purchase of the two lots, but before the desired amount could be raised it was found out that a deal was in progress and would be closed the first of August to purchase the lots and build a garage on them. Knowing how the building of a garage along by the side of the church would hinder its usefulness, the pastor, who with his officers, had been on the alert in protection of the church, through his far-sightedness purchased the property himself and says that the church can buy the corner lot from him now without having to strain.

There are two reasons that makes this the most important land deal consumated by a group of our race—first the purchase for cash and second it was the salvation of the usefulness of the 2nd Baptist Church.

There is a nine-room house on the property that will be occupied by Mr. Wm. Burke and wife as soon as the present tenents (white) vacate.

NEEDLES

Needles and vicinity now enjoy cool weather, considering the time of year, and society has been in a whirl for the last two weeks.

One of the most classy affairs of the season was given at the beautiful Denver Heights home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Davis, in honor of Miss Irene House, the golden-voiced song-bird, and her sister, Miss Sevilla Johnson. The house was lavishly decorated with ferns and lilies of the valley, roes and evergreens. The reception room in particular, decorated to represent a golden sunset in the Southland, was a dream of loveliness.

Miss Thomas entranced the guest with a rendition of one of her famous solos, Moonlight. The sisters then sang a duet "We Hope you will Miss Us."

Some seventy guests were present. The assemblage was noteworthy for the many exquisite gowns worn by the ladies.

On Saturday, August 4th, the young ladies left for Los Angeles. Both were very popular in our set, and will be greatly missed.

Miss Rebecca Davis returned to Needles Friday, after a short visit with relatives in Chicago.

Miss Ethel Evans left on Thursday evening of last week to visit friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hunnicutt returned to their Pasadena home after a short visit.

Mr. Hasty Jones is spending a few days on the inside with friends.

It would seem as though quite a few weddings will take place in our midst in the near future. Wonder who'll be first!

CALIF. STATE FED.

"We will all agree," said Mrs. Winters, in part, "the more can be accomplished by co-operative effort than when individuals or groups are pulling in opposite directions; it may be that their aim is the same, but the efforts put forth are not concentrated ,hence are not productive of the best results.

"The aim and purpose of the California State Federation of Colored Women's Clubs is to better humanity —humanity as a whole and our group in particular. We desire to feel that we have made the world better for having lived in it; for having organized our forces in the most effective manner.

"In the wide field of co-operation, there are several avenues of useful endeavor upon which I would ask you to concentrate."

Mrs. Winters then pointed out the need of concentration along the lines of Education—not merly book learning, but in honesty, devotio nto duty, the spirit of Christianity. Another point indicated was Thrift, in the form of saving and the acquisition of property.

"The world," continued Mrs. Winters, "caters to success; it worships accomplishment; it extols achievement, and I feel that our Clubs should add to their noteworthy achievements year by year; so that no woman who realizes the seriousness of the status of our group, can afford to withold her co-operation and support from any movement which the Federation sponsors.

"I retire from the presidency with a year full of love, kindness and gratitude for all of you who have shown me such respect, consideration and loyalty, but I would feel that I had not performed my full duty unless I bespoke for my successor, whom you will elect, the same loyal support and consideration you have so generously shown to me.

"Because I relinquish the presidency to the one who you will designate as your choice, my interest in and devotion to this organization is not to be one bit diminished. I transfer the wheel that controls the rudder to this fine old ship of ours to the keeping of one, who like myself, may commit mistakes, but they will be of the head, and not of the heart, and I can see our little ship gliding along, now over a calm and unruffled stream, now over a rough and tempestuous sea; aye, there are even times when a cruel wave of gigantic strength and power strikes us amidship and causes her to tremble from stem to stern, but she is guided by a faithful and competent captain, with a pilot and mates and entire crew in complete co-operation, and there bring her into a glorious harbor of safety two years hence, triumphant and victorious."

The election was held Thursday, which resulted as follows:

President, Mrs. Irene Bell Ruggles; 1st Vice, Mrs. Hattie Freeman; 2nd Vice, Mrs. Corinne Hicks; 3rd Vice, Mrs. S. Person; Recording Secy., Mrs. Virginia Correy; Ass't. Secy., Mrs. Rutledge; Cor. Secy., Mrs. Ruth Williams; Fin. Secy., Mrs. Walker; Treas. Mrs. L. J. Williams; Chaplain, Mrs. A. M. Brown; Editor, Mrs. Lee; Parliamentarian, Mrs. Ella Cassels; Chm. Executive Board, Mrs. Edna Steward; Organizer, North—Mrs. Wilkins, Central—Mrs. L. V. Collins, South—Mrs. Lyons, San iDego—Mrs. Margaret Baker; Chm. Reciprocity, North—Mrs. Cecila Brown, Central—Mrs. Teague, South—Mrs. Ada Jackson, San Diego—Mrs. Grace Goodwin; Chm. Exchange, North—Mrs. Purnell, South—Mrs. Wm. Edwards, San Diego—Mrs. B. Rease; Supt. Juvenile Dept., Mrs. Minnie Davis Ways and Means, Mrs. Calvin Brown; Mothers Work, Mrs. Mahson; Domestic Science, Mrs. Mildred White; Forestry, Mrs. Houston; Education, Mrs. Davis; Suffrage, Mrs. Jackson.

Among the most important resolutions passed was the adoption of the Australian ballot and that the California Federation should become a member of the Northwestern Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, and the adopting of the recommendation as offered by the president that a State Club House be built as soon as consistent with judgment, which Club House will consist of modern auditorium, offices for business, store rooms and living apartments as will not only be a monument to the memory of the club women but will also serve as an incentive and center for business and special activities. It will be a step forward in the economic world.

The session closed Friday evening with the state program and installation at Lincoln school, to meet next year in the North, exact plac to be announced later.

BISHOP PARKS

Ogden.

Bishop H. B. Parks delivered a great sermon which stirred the great throng of many hundreds of auditors which crowded the capacity of Historic Eighth and Towne Avenue A. M. E. Church last Sunday morning. Bishop Parks preached with the old time fervor and earnestness on "Following Christ," stressing "I Will." There were two converts and fourteen men and women were added to the church membership. The two choirs and two soprano soloists inspired the audience with good music. Pastor Ward preached to a splendid audience at night and two more were added to the church, making a total of sixteen persons added to our membership last Sunday. It was indeed a gala day for Christians. There were many prominent visitors from various sections. Prof. Bartlett gave an organ rendition using the Vox Humana and Chimes as a special for the visitors.

Bishop Parks preached for Rev. G. L. Cooper at Pasadena to a large audience Sunday night that crowded the seating capacity. Bishop and Mrs. Parks and others of the party who motored to Pasadena were near midnight guests of Lawyer Willis O. Tyler, Sunday night at luncheon.

Bishop Parks was not heard to a better advantage during his stay in Los Angeles than he was on Tuesday night at Ward Chapel A. M. E. Church of which the Rev. B. B. Ruz is pastor. At 8 o'clock the church was crowded and the services started with good singing led by the choir. It was the Bishop's [illegible] coast since he made it possible with a fund of $1000.00 to change the church site from Channing street to the splendid location at 1256-1252 East 25th street. The Bishop was elated with the progress made by this church, as well as the wonderful improvements at Eighth and Towne Avenue Church.

Emanuel Hall sang "He is Mine."

shut in any circumscribed area they naturally aspire to assert the right to exploit the opportunities of that area. It boots no difference whether the circumscribing bounds be racial, political, religious or social. Self-government is better than good government. For self-government will ultimately lead to good government; but without self-government good government will not long endure while human nature retains its selfish character. It is one of Abraham Lincoln's truisms that no man is good enough for another man without his consent. We impose upon ourselves a protective tariff whereby we purposely agree to pay a higher rate for home products than for which we might secure the same foreign made goods. This is in order to build up and maintain home industries. The principle is sound. There is hardly a position in official ranks today that could not be better filled by appointive than by elective choice. But self-government requires the democratic mode which as often as not results in an unworthy or inflecient selection. The professors in a college on the average maintain a much higher level than the membership of state legislatures.

The Relation of Superior and Inferior Groups

Some races and nations are more experienced and adept in the art of government than others. America is a hundred years ahead of the Philippines in the science of self-control. But government is like the specific for smallpox. Its curative qualities become wholly inefficacious unless the patient responds to the treatment. Unless the vaccine takes the patient experiences no cure. The advanced peoples of the world can best serve their backward brethren by wise encouragement, advice and counsel, and not by forceful interference and direction. The Japanese have fully demonstrated the wisdom of this policy. As soon as they comprehend the elements of Europe's ways of doing things, they dismissed every European from immediate administration and control of their political, economic and educational system, and supplied their places with less seasoned and experienced sons of their own breed. They kept their eyes opened and maintained the closest helpful relation to the best men and movements in the western world. The result speaks for itself. Had they remained under European tutilage till their tutors judged that they were able to walk alone, they would still be leaning on the precarious support of the white man's crutch. Any people can govern themselves better than anybody else is likely to govern them. . . . This is true of Mexico, Hayti and Liberia. In a moment of philosophic calm, President Wilson said that the nations of Europe shed each others blood to their own delight while fighting their way to enlightened self-government, and asserted that Mexico should enjoy the same bloody privilege. England has been governing the Negroes of Jamaica for an hundred years, and yet they are not half as far along as the blacks of Hayti, who have struggled unassisted, under the heavy load of self-sovereignty. The meanest thing that America ever did was to snuff out the light of independence that the wavering hand of this black sister republic has held flickering amidst the encircling gloom for a hundred years. Surely the chivalrous American nation will stand as the big brother, and not the big bully of the weaker peoples of the world. The way to learn to swim is to swim. The way for a people to learn to govern is to govern. It merely weakens the spirit and enervates the powers to be shunted aside to watch others perform a task declared impossible for you. If the American Negro has ears to hear, let him hear.

Mr. Garvey's Predicament

I noticed in the last issue of the Negro World that Mr. Marcus Garvey declares that Kelly Miller takes delight in his imprisonment. The Potentate of Africa was never more mistaken in his life, although his best friends will admit that he has made some great mistakes. I never glory in any man's misfortune. If Mr. Garvey has justly incurred the penalty of the law, I regret it. It does the Negro race no good to gloat over the misfortune of anyone of its members, however mistaken or misguided he may be. Mr. Garvey was charged with a technical transgression of which the court of competent jurisdiction has declared him guilty. His case has not yet reached the stage of judicial finality. For some legal reason, inexplicable to my lay mind, he is denied the privilege of bail pending appeal. If Mr. Garvey is being tried and punished for his propaganda instead of his transgression, his case becomes, not a matter of joy, but a matter of protest on part of every right-minded Negro. The Negro is the habitual victim of ultra judicial psychology. Any Negro is but dancing on his own coffin who takes delight in an unjudicial penalty inflicted upon any member of the race. This is wholly independent of the attitude of the worth or unworthiness of Mr. Garvey and his movement.

The Education of the Negro in the North

In October, 1921, I contributed an article to the Educational Review in which I touched upon the mooted question of mixed and separate schools. The mere mention of the issue evoked widespread comment and criticism. Of course my motive was impugned. This is an understood requital of everyone who essays to handle public questions. I notice that the editor of the Crisis has attracted critical fire in his direction. The basic difficulty consists in the vain attempt in trying to apply the canons of logic to a situation of inherent illogicality, when the race demands a Negro staff for the federal hospital at Tuskegee, it accepts segregation, or at least yields to the [illegible] when it refuses to [illegible] segregated departments demanded by outcry against segregation. The Messenger is the only publication that has come to my notice that has the courage of consistency, which I think, is at the expense of practical wisdom. Consistency is a jewel which the practical statesman relegates to the impeccable moralizer. It is a condition and not a theory that confronts us. Let me lay down a platform upon which every Negro can stand, some in the middle and some it may be around the edge—"Whatever and whenever the Negro is relegated by public sentiment to separate areas the opportunities of the circumscribed zone should be commanded by Negro talent and ambition. The ship designed to carry only Negro passengers, should be commanded by a Negro captain and crew of capable seamanship."

A State College for Maryland

The Afro-American reasonably and justly demands an adequate state college for the Negroes of that state. West Virginia, within the past three years has appropriated one million dollars for a State College for the one hundred thousand Negroes in the mountain state. Maryland has two hundred and thirty thousand Negroes. Every man and woman of them has the free and unquestioned right of franchise. Unless they focus their suffrage upon such a simple, obvious and undisputed racial right and advantage, of what use is the franchise? Put this proposition squarely before the Negro voters of Maryland, Mr. Murphy.

THE DUAL PATHS OF DESTINY.

In the golden period of childhood, when we stood on the threshold of life, with all of its new and coming wonders, we were nearer to God then than ever after; with our minds pure and sweet, and respective to the spiritual love of Christ and His teachings. When the lessons taught by a gentle mother's love; or sown on virgin soil and never after entirely forgotten, When all life is beautiful, and the cynicism of after-life has not entered our soul, then we see the marvelous beauty of nature, of the seasons. Winter with its heavy frost, and mantle of snowy whiteness, and spring and summer with its marvelous sunsets, tinged with coloring of blended crimso nand gold of heavens, the stars and the evening rose filled with dew, whose fragrance breathed to our heart a message of God's love. Our sould drank deeply of God's love and beauty then, and was unsullied by the pall of black wretchedness around and about us, from which our eyes were turned, for evil had not as yet knocked at the door of our heart; we had the peace that cometh with a pure and clean heart. God was indeed near us then. Thus God paved the way of life to youth's estate. His summertime of life, with its wonderful dreams and visions, great and strong, where old age is forgotten and care a thing of the past. But confronting Him stands the dual paths of destiny—one straight and steep, but ever going upward, leading to eternal life; the other ever downward, spilling the lost and broken soul. Then comes manhood. The hour of consummation, with its rude awakenings of the stern lessons of life, of dreams built on quicksands of time, the tonsils of hope, the mockery of despair, our omissions and commissions, the final realization of the immutable truth from which no man can swerve, "as ye sow so shall ye reap." We stand aghast with aching hearts and wonder if God should turn away from us who would guide us in making our next step. Then old age, the graveyard of our hopes and ambition, comes with quickening sickness, and as we turn back in retrospective memory the leaves of life, hideous and ghastly forms confront us on the pathway downward taken. Along this path, young men and women, millions are missing out in the race. They have been running some ten, some twenty, some thirty, some forty, fifty and even one hundred years and today they are standing still afraid the next step will close their uneventful life unprepared to meet their God in peace. Therefore it is with the man with high attainments that will fold up his arms in peace at the close of life and lie down to pleasant dreams.

HOME AGAIN

The Baptists of California welcome Dr. J. D. Gordon back into its midst.

Dr. Gordon is without any question one of the greatest Gospel preachers California has ever had.

Last SundayMonrovia took one step forward in the mighty march of progress when its citizens, under the able leadership of Pastors Reed and Davis organized to compete with others in the economic world.

THE WHOLE WORLD MOURNS.

President Harding was making a triumphant march across the country when the grim reaper lifted its sheeth and divided him from all that was earthly.

He had passed the Golden Gate at San Francisco. Southern California had opened wide her arms to receive him, when the hand of a iction touched him—and the world cried out: "He is ill." But the optomist answered back: "He will soon be better." Did they know?

Yes, but they knew not what they said. Harding was better because as the Golden Gate closed behind him the Pearly Gates opened to receive him he entered into that vast unknown.

His political career has ended and when we say "Peace to his ashes," we say it hoping that he has done unto all men while on earth as he would have them do unto him. Amen.

A nation is just great as its music. Heven pity America if her standards of art and morals are to be judged by the weird syncopations of the "Coontown Blues," the sample of present popular taste. Jazz music in its various forms, covers up a multitude of sins, and is the greatest advertisement for haunts of vice and crime.

Culture, refinement and self-respect draw no color line.

When you are about to tell "what they say," ask yourself whether it will do any good to repeat it.

Life is an emergency, a crisis, a forced option. We must make up our minds quickly for good, or like together at random for evil.

Sincerity and truth form the basis of every virtue.
To reform the mind is to correct and enlarge the heart.

Unbelieb is criminal because it is a moral act—an act of the whole nature.

OUR STATION IN LIFE

After we recover from the shock of the sudden death of our President, we may sanely reason out some of the lessons we may learn from men and events. Mr. Warren G. Harding, President, Commander of the Army and Navy, the first citizen of the land, and conspicuous in the affairs of the world is dead. This man made great by reason of his position, if for none other, has passed to the great beyond and the world moves on unmolested and undisturbed.

Of course for a few brief moments we stop, bow our heads in humble respect for him who has reigned over our nation for three years past; but in the main, France will still seek reparation in Europe and greedy whites will be none the less zealous in making up the personnel at Tuskegee; in other words, "The world goes on just the same."

This is a wonderful lesson to youth, especially to those of us free from the inclines of information and learning. We feel elated and inflated at any event we are apt to feel our importance and position, but when we casually discover the fact that the highest of our hight, the best that our country can offer politically and socially, has been vacated and the hands of time move sturdily on as the sun passes through its routine, we are apt to conclude, if vanity will permit us, that in our obscure corner and nook we may not still Father Time in our absence from earth after all.

The Supreme Moment

We are cautioned that opportunity appears in every man's life consciously or unconsciously. His success depend upon the result of his maneuvering; his ability to see, foresee and to snatch, sometimes, from utter failure victory and the crown. This is the supreme moment.

What an example of uncertainties, of spontaneous aggrandizement is the ascension to the Presidency of Mr. Coolidge. Years of training and preparation at Harvard, his activities in politics and as Governor of the great State of Massachusetts will now be exposed in the fact that Mr. Coolidge will display the qualities of a "wonder man" as did Teddy Roosevelt, or he will fall into oblivion and disgust, leaning for the support of past reputation that was unearned. Such a supreme moment to untangle the mass of disputes, to dry the tear stained eyes of widows and to heal the wounds of nations is his. On the tablet of every heart, emblazoned with deeds of valor and of courage he may write "Calvin Coolidge the Savior." He can save Tuskegee, he can save us from inter-meddling, he can save the Republican party's faith with the Negro. As we write of Mr. Coolidge, we write of every life. In the narrow vale which leads between the barren peaks of two eternities, we will all have moments to arise to our heights, exert our personalities, originality and sagacity. It will be our supreme moment.

COMMENTS

By: W. J. WHEATON

The Federations, which comprise the clubs of Negro women active in the work of racial progress, are invaluable. The activities of those clubs cover the entire range of beneficence—Art; music; the religious life of the race with its ideals of morality as well as the industrial and economic phases which present themselves. These are all approached with that diplomatic and yet forceful manner which has caused them to become potent factors in the struggle for racial equity. They have been represented in the international conferences which have called together the brains of womanhood throughout the world. In those conferences they have dissipated the erroneous idea that they were lacking in any of the essentials which have marked the path of feminine advancement. They have, by their intelligent presentation of the proscriptions practiced against their race caused a sympathetic feeling among the nations abroad, and have caused the eyes of the world to focus on the barbarous attitude of the United States toward its Negro citizenship. At home, it has been the women's clubs who have insisted that the youth of the race be protected from evil environments, and that safeguards be thrown about homes. They have lessened the rate of mortality by seeing that sanitary conditions are improved, and in all things kept faith with their motto: "Deeds not Words."

Are we gaining a more intelligent ministry, or does the same ancient idea—being called to preach—still determine the calibre of our pulpiteers? This querry was brought to our minds overhearing an argument betwixt two exponents of the scriptural texts who, seemingly, had had a controversy as to the reading of a passage in the Bible. The argument was based on the name of the dog which licked the sores of Lasarus. Without doubt, one of them had insisted that the dog was named, because after a bit of heated argument he pulled a Bible from his pocket and turned to a marked page. He read:: "And moreover the dog licked the sores of Lazarus." Then turning with an air of triumph he said: "You can't dispute the scripture, there it is, plain as the nose on your face; that dog's name was More Over." Bulls are frequently made in the pulpit. Very often the preacher becomes carried away by the fervor of his oratory and is liable to make an error. Here is one which was made recently by a minister who is fairly well-informed on Biblical matters, but it is doubtful as to his historical information. He was illustrating the fall of Jericho, and he said: "Seven times the buglers of Joshua marched around the walls of the city and blew a blast; Seven times the soldiers of Joshua, with their muskets on their shoulders marched around"—And then every person wondered why those young people in the audience snickered out loud. We had sympathy with the youngsters, because we remember that when we went to see the Fall of The Alamo, some years ago, we were arrested for disturbing the peace when we laughed because Davy Crockett and his men were fighting with automatic rifle. It happened that the Judge had a sense of humor. It might pay for our preachers to pay a bit more to historical details.

With the continued influx of our people from the South the housing conditions, especially in the large cities, are acute. There is a tendency to segregate. Often it is done by the people themselves, who, not realising the change of environment, band themselves for mutual protection. Then again subtle influences, are brought to bear by city institutions, such as Improvement Clubs and the like, to force residence in certain sections. Whenever suc hconditions exist the portion of the city occupied by the race soon becomes the neglected part. The sewers are allowed to clog; the streets remain unswept; the garbage is allowed to accumulate, and property deteriorate. If a factory is to be built it is given a site in the Negro district. If a railroad wants to run its tracks through the section it is given the right, although the lives of children and the health of a community is endangered. When vice becomes rampant, when murder and robbery stalk their victims in the dark streets, the city forgets that it has caused those conditions by the negligence of its officials and sends the police in the stead of the Welfare worker. The city which segregates and does not provide for the amusements and sanitary welfare of that community, is guilty of breeding crime. Thrice more guilty than the criminal bred by its neglect.

There was quite a gathering of political race leaders in Atlantic City, N. J., they came from the states which are doubtful—using the political term—and plans were formulated to educate the race vote to wield the ballot so intelligently that it would be an asset to race progress. There are some explanations to be made by aspirants for oce which, to be effectual, will tax their diplomatic powers. As for instance: Senator Edge addressed the convention and was listened to with courteous attenion while he defended the Harding administration, but when Page, who holds the position of Magistrate and is one of the political powers of the State of New Jersey, asked why the Senator absented himsel ffrom the second roll call on the vote for the Dyer bill, he (the Senator) beat an unceremonious retreat. It's hard to tell what is under the cranium of the Negro voter, he is non-committal, and his ways are past finding out.

We over-heard a conversation on a street car which opened up a new avenue of thought. Two young men—one white, the other black in color—were commenting on the noticable addition of the colored population. But this is the part of the conversation which attracted my attention, the black man said: "Well, it's your own faults you allowed the germ of color prejudice to sink so deep under your skins that it innoculated you with color hatred which led to a savagery unprecedented in the annals of civilization. You have denied us the rights of citizenship; you have proscribed against us industrially—we have to accept subordinate positions no matter how qualified—we are charged abnormal rent, and even if we can buy are denied residence in desirable districts. In the South, while taxed full capacity for schools, we are curtailed. In all avenues of life you have set us apart, and now we are going ourselves. We are going to show you that we can do it, and we are going to show the world that you have been lying about us. Politics! Why it is not cutting any swath. That is from a partisan viewpoint. We are voting for measures; not men."

"Fine fellow that," said the young white man to his companion as the colored man left the car. So say we.

Warren G. Harding, the 29th President of the United States, after a brief illness died in the city of San Francisco, August 2nd, 1923. San Francisco was arrayed in gala attire and every preparation had been completed to pay loyal tribute to the head of the nation, but that grim reaper, who has no respect for King, Potentates, Presidents, or serf, the high nor the low, decreed it otherwise, and instead of cheering throngs, there stood bowed heads, an awed silence which spoke more eloquent than words of the respect in which Americans hold for those who represent its government. The stability of our governmental foundation has been edemplified in every instance where the executive head has been suddenly removed. "God reigns and the government at Washington still lives." Those memorable words spoken by James A. Garfield, when Lincoln was struck down by an assassin's hand are as applicable today as they were then. And tho we lament the passing of Warren G. Harding, who was the personification of patience and who believed that the best way to accomplishment was to avoid friction: the nation feels confident that God reigns and that the nation under Him will march on to progress.

WHY RED IS NOT AN EYE COLOR

Brown eyes have something so soft and alluring about them that even the most unemotional individuals succumb to them. Few persons can resist the endearing young charms of the dark eye. You read behind it such a clinging temperament that in your boundless yearning for someone to protect and to love, you feel certain you have found it.

Dark orbs usually mean deep, firm, unmovable devotion and reliance. They indicate a sweetness and seductiveness which blue eyes and gray eyes often lack. Jut as in tropical countries dark pigments and variegated colors pre all as evidence of the warmth, as well as nature's attempt to protect the sensitive living structures from the sharp rays of hot sunlight, so the dark iris of the eye is perhaps the outgrowth of an effort to hold back the springs of feeling in their possessor.

Blue eyes, on the other hand betoken usually the supremacy of the intellect and the subjugation of those glands which are intimately associated with profound emotions. The blue-eyed individual is seldom as sincere or as deep in her feelings as is the black or brown-eyed peron. Accompanied as blue eyes often are with effervescent, vivacious, superficial and transient states of exuberance, it is commonly to be noted that their owner are fickle and not tenacious in their likes and dislikes.

Lack of Pigment

Gray eyes, on the contrary, partake of neither the characteristics of blue eyes nor the depths of feeling which go with brown eyes. Those who have gray eyes are at times as teely and cold as the color indicates. Emotions are seldom present; hilarity and frequent change of fleeting vivaciousness are equally rare. It may be said with assurance that gray eye nearly always point to deliberation and cold calculation, with little, if any, such springs of action as impulsiveness or hyteria.

If all thee fact are correct, why is it that mankind is not, like rabbits and flies and some other creatures, occasionally endowed with red or pink eyes? As a matte rof truth, there are a few exceptional people so born. They are albinos, or persons deprived by heredity of the dark particles called pigment. Just as a white flower is wholly wanting in the color pigment, green, blue, purple, yellow and so on, so a human albino has no black or blue pigment.

When all the pigment of a human creature is wanting, the red blood corpuscles, which roll hither and thither in thick bunches through the veins, capillaries and arteries of the eye and elsewhere, show through the transparent, colorless flesh and the eyes are seen as red. This is equivalent almost to blindness.

Red Eyes Defenseless

Obviously, man cannot have red eyes because albinos and others with these red eyes are defenseless in sharp light. They have no pigmental curtain over the pupil as a pin-point to guard the eyes when bright illuminants strike them. In other words, the iris which dilates and contracts what we call the "pupil" I made up of dark or blue pigment in order to safeguard the delicate internal structures of the eyeball and thus protect vision.

Another equally essential explanation fits in with these facts. You cannot have red-colored eyes and see, because it is necessary that red, one of the chief colors in visible light, must reach the retina—the living lining inside the eyeball, which is linked with the optic nerve—in order to tell the rest of you the exact truth o fthe outside realities. If this red is injected and reflected back before it arrives in the retina—exactly what happens when anything is red—it means that one of the principal factors of information to your mind has been turned away at the door.

Therefore, no human being can acquire real knowledge and at the same time have red eyes.

THE STRANGER

Speak kindly to the stranger, that comes within your door.
He may not be a thief, that steals poorest of the poor.

He may not be a theief that steals around by night,
He may not be a scoundrel, nor a crook in broad day light.

It may be he's an Angel, and comes at God's command,
Then let him come and worship amidst your Holy Band.

Speak gently, kindly, shake his hand, hold fast
And let him feel the shaking is more than a form or task.

Let him read the words of welcome
Through the glance perchance he's seen

Upon your furrowed forehead, the look was kind yet keen.
Then he'll have a friendly feeling

And his heart with yours will blend,
And he'll feel within the temple
He has found a living friend.

Thy heart, thy home, thy vintage land,
Thy temple and thy all—when blest thou art
Deal gently with the stranger at your door.

CHURCH CALLS COUNCIL.

CHURCH RECENTLY PURCHASED AND LOCATED AT 27TH AND PALOMA "RECOGNIZED" AS THE TABERNACLE BAPTIST CHURCH.

(J. E. P.)

At a call meeting by the above named church on Monday evening, August 6th, it was unanimously voted by the Council, after weighing the facts presented, to "recognize" the said church as "A regularly organized Missionary Baptist Church, and the original Tabernacle Baptist Church."

There were fifteen churches of the city and vicinity represented, with twenty-one persons answering to the roll call; besides these were the Rev. R. H. Wade, Missionary for the Western Baptist Association, Rev. Banks, and the Rev. Mr. W. R. Carter, Superintendent of Negro Work in Southern California.

Rev. L. H. Brown, pastor of the church, stated in a few, brief words, the very stormy and tempestuous times through which he and his faithful flock have passed, and told the brethren present that the object of the calling of the Council was for them, after carefully looking into and weighing the situation, to sustain the church in its action, (or otherwise) and "recognize" them as the original and only Tabernacle Baptist Church.

There were many questions asked, and the matter discussed minutely. After debating the question for nearly one hour or more the Council arrived at the conclusion that the present Pastor, Deacons, Trustees and Members, now at 27th and Paloma Ave., were the "Original, Spiritual Tabernacle Baptist Church," and unanimously voted them the same.

WOMAN FOUND BRUTALLY SLAIN

MAN HELD AS MURDERER

At an early hou ron Friday morning, August 3rd, two small boys found the body of a woman on 61st Place, between Central and South Park avenues, which was shortly afterwards identified a sthat of Mrs. Dora Alexander of East 23rd street.

Examination disclosed that the deceased had been struck with a machinist's hammer until the handle of the weapon broke, and then dealt a death blow with a pick axe handle, which fractured her skull. As the outcome of the inquest, one McVay was held as her slaper.

The accused denies all complicity in the crime, but the circumstantial evidence against him was so strong that he is held for preliminary hearing in the near future.

The deceased was about forty-two years of age, and is survived by two daughters.

LURE OF THE OPEN ROAD

By: WENDELL P. GLADDEN, JR.
II.

The long mission style station blended perfectly with the deep red and white and black coloring of the shawls and blankets of the Indians wrapped about them.

Along the way from Albuquerque, and in many parts of New Mexico were Indian villages. These villages represented different tribes. The houses, made of adobe were situated for the most part near yellow and brown lakes or streams around which were no signs of grass. On the opposite side of us we could see other villages near beautiful streams. But these streams with their shining restless waters were as myriad glittering diamonds surrounded by banks of green grass.

Not far from this scene was another picturesque Indian village. It was very large. Squaws passed with pottery upon their heads. These women walked gracefully. An Indian boy was herding cattle. There were two large dogs fighting lazily before him.

A few older Indians were journeying to another town in wagons and on horseback. Beyond these we could see another village which covered more than five acres. There was a large adobe building standing alone. Its construction represented the last word in Indian architecture. This no doubt, was their temple or great meeting place.

This setting would have done honor to and served as a masterpiece for the world's greatest artist. Beneath and against a clear blue sky with only a dash or two of white, rose the rather level and flat hills. They possessed a very singular beauty. One would almost believe that they were made by the hand of man were it not for the more irregular purplish mountains whose builder is the Maker of all things.

LITTLE ACTS OF KINDNESS SMOOTH PATH OF LIFE

By: Wendell P. Gladden, Jr.

When Pan's Young Nephew, known as Jazz, starts the ball a-rollin' with his irresistible strains of music, you might as well wipe away your frown for it is time to be gay.

Jazz, himself is the very embodiment of syncopation and unexpected harmony. He goes wherever he chooses; and no one is ever sorry when he comes. Jazz lends his spirit to ragtime, makes all the jazz artists play and even the nimblest-footed darling step livelier.

The influence of his music is not limited to human beings. For even a man-eating shark will wiggle his tail in wonderful stop-time; the caged bear will exhibit his dance; and the lion becomes less fierce when the peppy strains start floatin' 'round. And ofttimes every hungry monkey stops nibbling its peanuts, jumps about and grins; and the laziest cow forgets to munch her grass and runs 'round like milady's precious little pup trying to catch his tail.

If Jazz begins tickling your ears and toes, don't try to be too dignified. It is useless. Just let yourself go. For, to hit the nail on the head, Jazz always makes his victims jolly, pleasant, and brimful of life and as supple as a rattlesnake. That is the real Jazz.

Style Suggestions

By: MLLE. DOROTHY ARMSTRONG

The off-the-shoulder neckline is popular.

Lopin Ard ringtail are two very noted furs.

A stunning jacquette of moire in embroidered and braided in self color.

One black velvet hat of great interest is faced in black and white ostrich covered, covered in maline, there is a black and white ornament on the side.

A distinctive skirt of covert has wide, plain, pomels in back and front.

On a suit of wood brown, roglan sleeves were featured.

Gauntlets with contrasting stitching are worn with chic street costumes.

Many skirts wrap around the figure with circular flounces.

Glass bracelets worn "en masse" are different colors or all matching, just as Madame desires.

The "robe de style" is more popular tha nthe straight silhouette in Paris.

Gloves that are very quaint come in a sort of blue-gray suede and have short scalloped cuffs, which make the general effect rather like a fringed gentian.

At Conners one sees much tricot in one-piece frocks under sport coats, tailored tweed or cheviot gowns with blouses of figured tricot, tricot skirts with graceful loosely pilted blouses, etc.

Very stunning and striking indeed are some of the black moire vanity bags that Madam may carry from her wrist. Odd shapes they are with wrist bands that scintilate with jewels.

Gingham this season is most smart when it is combined with another material, making the usual country or day frock attractive enough for afternoon wear.

Henna color will sofeten any eye and add charm to every complexion, so the fascinating Erte designs a gown in henna crepe which hangs in soft folds and its right sleeve trailing and winding itself around the waist in a girdle.

To add more charm Madam gave a little henna color to the hair. Ah! To make herself that one fascinating creation Madam holds a large henna ostrich fan. How chic!

WHAT YOU REALLY ARE

It is really what men do that show what they are, and not always what they say.

The building of the Veterans' Hospital at Tuskegee, the great industrial school for Negroes, furnished occasion for the white people of that county and state in Alabama to show their real attitude toward the progress and rights of our people and brings to light what they really are, and discounts much they have said for years. And had this never happened, perhaps we never would have known just what Major Moton realy is.

Mr. Moton's sudden flight shows that he really had no faith in his own words in exhorting his people in addresses on his famous tour through some of the Southern states, assuring them that times were growing better and right here is the place—stay here!

We must frankly confess that we have never looked on the Major as a real man since he publicly reprimanded his wife for riding in a Pullman car. The man who does not believe that his wife is deserving of the comforts of a Pullman when she pays for it, can never lead me nor instruct my children.

We sympathize with Mr. Moton and hope that his future will be pleasant and prosperous, but when we look for real men, we can never see even the shadow of him.

What a man really is will finally be disclosed. Great crisis will bring it out. There is a large class of "The Go-Between," that will soon be known as they are.—The Memphis Times.

SONNY JIM LOSES DECISION

COLIMA GETS DECISION OVER SUNNY JIM. BLACKIE RICE AND HERMAN JONES DRAW. Terry Brown Scores knock-out.

Madison Square Garden, on Wednesday night turned them away by the hundreds all eager to witness the bout between Sunny Jim and Bert Colima. The bout would have been called a draw with half the crowd in a pietral attitude.

Mr. Allen will remain several days, visiting friends, and will return to resume his activities at the mines at once.

Thursday evening of last week Mme. Black Mason of Chicago appeared for the first time in Los Angeles at the New Tabernacle Baptist Church at 27th and Paloma, which is being piloted by the Rev. L. B. Brown.

Mme. Black Mason is a very charming personality and her appearance in Los Angeles last Thursday was a classic treat in song. As a song artiat Mme. Black is a true representative of Eastern culture and training, and while she is void of any spectacular emotion her breathing, articulation and general stage manners were easy, clear, and graceful.

It is hoped that she will be heard again in Los Angeles.

HOUSTON SHANNON CROSSES DIVIDE

On last Wednesday at his home in Oakland, California, Houston Shannon, after an intermittent illness of several months passed out, the cause of his death being heart failure.

Mr. Shannon was well known in and around the Bay Cities as well as throughout the State. In the days past he was associated with such notable characters as Lew Purcell, Sam King, et al. In later years he aspired along ambitious lines and has rendered valuable service to this paper as well as to other enterprises. When we launched a greater California Eage, he was for a while interested, but later disposed of his interest to the present owner and later served as the Northern representative of this paper. In the Longshoreman's strike in San Francisco he rendered valiant service for the ship owners and in the street car strike several years ago had charge of the Commissary Department to the extent of furnishing the needed help for the dining department. In this he was successful and stood high with R. R. officials. By thrift, industry, energy, working in complete harmony with his very estimable helpmate, Mrs. Lizzie Shannon, they purchased a beautiful home in Oakland and only a few weeks ago, with pride, he showed this writer the canceled mortgage.

Two years ago he served the State Assembly as Assistant Sergeant at Arms, he was noted for his energy in whatever cause he espoused.

Born in Bowling Green, Kentucky, about 45 years ago. At an early age he enlisted in the U. S. Army and at the close of his enlistment located in San Francisco and only a year ago moved to Oakland.

Mr. Shannon was hale, hearty and well met and ye might truly say was a friend to man. He leaves to mourn his loss a wife, step son, sister and other relatives back at his old home in Kentucky.

EUGENE LUCAS IN TOILS OF LAW.

One Eugene Lucas is now languishing in jail at San Bernardino. His is just another case of misplaced confidence on the part of the management of this paper. Knowing that he had conducted a sheet at Bakersfield and applying to us for a honest chance to work in the realm of which he felt qualified, we gave him a chance and his first field of effort was San Bernardino. According to reports from the daily press and from our correspondent at that place, he was not satisfied with collections which he made there, but proceeded to pass worthless checks right and left. He landed in jail, and it is simply another case of misplaced confidence; we suffer and it makes it hard for the next one who passes along, regardless of how honest they might be.

We apologize to our San Bernardino readers for sending this sort of vulture upon them and hope they will appreciate the fact that we have been imposed upon and are the real sufferers in the premises. We want the law to take its course and put such parasites where they belong.

Those wishing cuts notify the advertising dept. of the Eagle and we will have them made in time to appear in this number. The pictorial section of the Eagle will be the best effort put forth to show the visitors what the Los Angeles people are doing in real estate and pretty homes. If you have no picture of your home, call us and we will send our photographer out to make one for you. Get your order in early. Let's make this a real feature.

EDITORIALS

Mayor Cryer went in on tidal wave of his popularity, there are those who perhaps scent danger in the offing and they are now trying to put him on the shelf. Politics is truly a great game.

God means each of us for something. Incarnating in us one of His own great thoughts and equipping us with needed material, He sets us forth for the race of life. How are you running that race?

All eyes of the lowly are upon President Coolidge, they look upon him as an unknown quantity and of course, all are anxious to know his attitude towards the lowly and oppressed.

Everywhere we are finding our women doing civic and national work with a spirit of toleration—a spirit that has come to our women only recently. The ability to give and take will go a long way towards establishing woman's place in the world.

Of course there are those who would rather not hear the new President so strongly assert that he would carry out to the letter President Harding's policies. And to be fair and square we are one of those who so think, because to our notion President Harding's policies on some questions were not what they should have been.

No man ever lost in the battle of life until he lost faith in himself. Every great man has had to fight his way to public recognition in the face of distraction, even against the opposition of the most progressive men.

Most of our prejudices with the white and colored are simply pretense. We need not cite evidences to prove this contention, the ice is too thin, but if you will look at the first dozen Negroes you meet you will see all the proof in the world that the white man is just "kidding" himself. The Negro is not half so prejudiced as he pretends, tho he has not gone half as far as his white brother; it surely has not been his fault.

Japan is spending all the money it can on its army and navy. There is not endugh left to round off the economic and social achievements of recent years. Everybody knows it and everybody complains. Everybody except a few would have matters otherwise, but nobody is powerful, or influential enough to dispute the central fact that the ultimate government of the country is in the hands of a certain few who are above parliament and the people. These few are convinced that the future of Japan depends on its military power and they are determined to use all the available resources for the upbuilding of such power.

PREFER TO STEAL RATHER THAN WORK.

In recent years we have tried to be of service to all persons whom we thought deserving of the same, therefore no man has been turned from our door without a chance. As a result of our goodness of heart we have been imposed upon. Our supporters have likewise been duped, until we have now reached the stage where we will vigorously prosecute to the fullest extent of the law all embezzlers and those who by fraudulent means and the use of the name of this paper procure money in any amount. We sent Yancy to the Rock Pile for his petty larceny deeds in connection with this paper, we are going to San Bernardino and assist in prosecuting Lucas who is an embezzler and forger and we have our eyes on one or two gay birds in and around Los Angeles whom we have been begging to be honest and keep out of jail. We must protect the public from the depredations of these smooth individuals who would prefer to steal than to work.

BOTH NEEDED IN THE WORLD.

The manual workman and the brain worker are equally entitled to consideration. Both are needed in the work of the world. Every large community has its examples of poor business men, poor preachers, poor lawyers, poor doctors, poor mechanics, poor clerks—who have mistaken their vocations in life. They are poor in their respective callings because they are inefficient. Lack of proper training may be the cause of their inefficiency, or there may be an absolute inaptitude for the particular business in which they are engaged.

How then shall the choice of a young man be guided? There is perhaps one guide, and that is personal preference, provided it be accompanied by a determination to work hard and perseveringly for success. The work we like to do is the work we are most likely to do well—always provided we are resolved to do it to the best of our ability and a little better than anyone else can. Therein lies the secret of success—doing things well! The young man who says: "If I must be a bootblack, I will be the best bootblack in town," is the young man who is going to succeed and who will be happy in his success.

OLD ORDER CHANGETH.

A critic declared that twentieth century civilization produces people who tell their affairs much more readily than used to be the custom. If marriage turned out unfortunately, the world learns it from the parties chiefly concerned, and what the old-fashioned woman would have called the secrets of her inner life, not to be confessed even with beteself, the new woman tells loudly in order to surround her personality with a halo of interest, for it shows certain. If you do not say you have troubles, nobody will believe them. The instinct of family loyalty is diminishing—that clannish sentiment which caused relatives to hide their internal dissentions from others as carefully as they would bodily infirmities; children criticise their parents and vice versa; brothers and sisters quarrel in the streets; the black sheep is openly discussed by his relations. No toleration is granted on the score of blood, and as all of us require as much toleration as we can get, it seems a pity so fruitful a means of supply is cut off. Yet, if a man has a brother a blackguard, why should he not say so, just as much as if he were a stranger? There seems no real reason, except that it does not sound nice, and public opinion long ago decided that a family disgrace must be shared by all the members. If we would learn to keep the family affairs to ourselves what a blessing it would be to all concerned, for when they are settled you will always be misunderstood by the public.

CIVILIZATION A CURRENT PHENOMENON.

The meaning of life has in all ages been the goal of human thought and the great extension of our knowledge of the past, by the researches of recent year, enables us to view now the course of human changes with more completeness than has been the case before. In place of looking on the fall of the Roman Empire as a monstrous and inexplicable fact, we now see that civilization is not only intermittent, but is a regularly recurrent phenomenon.

In Egypt we trace eight civilizations: Prehistoric; the early dynasties—the Pyramid Builders; the Middle Kingdom (XIIth dynasty); the Empire (XVIIIth dynisty); the Greek and Arab. The rise and fall of art in each of these periods can be well illustrated. Similar periods are found in Europe, the early, middle and late Cretau, the classical and the mediæval. These periods are contemporary with those of Egypt, so far as we can ascertain. Hence the Mediterranean civilization seems a distinct unit, rising and falling together as one body. The Messopotamian civilization is in a different phase to that of the Mediterranean, but its period is about the same.

The various activities of man are related in the same order in each successive period. This can be traced in the mediæval and classical periods, where the stages of sculpture, painting, literature, music, mechanics, science and wealth spread over some seven centuries. These stages were nearer together in early ages, but the order was always the same so far as can be traced. The starting point of each civilization—as of each generation—is a mixture of breed. Without a fusion of race no fresh start can be made. About six or eight centuries are needed for the rise to the sculpture stage. The growth of civilization largely consits in a lengthening out of the subsequent stages of activity, and diminution of the stagnant period before a new mixture is started. The period seems to belong to the people and not to the country, and is kept by the people when they go to a land of different phase.

Climatic periods have a precipitating effect in throwing one people on to another, yet the general regularity of interval of the stages of growth of civilization point to a racial determinant. This may be the time required to promote the maximum mixture of different strains in two races which are in contact.

KANSAS AND THE KU KLUX.

At the home of old John Brown of Osawotimie and who died at Harper's Ferry, in the Capitol City thereof, the Ku Klux Klan from all parts of the State gathered and staged a big parade on the main street of the State's Capitol. They did this over the objection and in defiance of the Attorney General of the State of Kansas. Anent this spirit now rampant in Kansas it is interesting to note the attitude of our Negro leaders. Take the militant Nick Chiles and his "Plaindealer," not a whimper do we hear and at one time Nick was known as a firebrand and gained even semi-National recogniztion on the strength of his fiery writings against everything that was inimicle to the well being of his people. We are at a loss at the change which has come over our good friend and former associate in the present situation in Kansas. That the Grand Old State of Free Soil, John Brown and Freedom has drifted from its moorings it is apparant, for Kansas is now a hot bed of segregation and Jim Crow stalks abroad, even in the Capitol City of Topeka, the public accommodations are not unlike those in any other Southern City, therefore despite the fumings and victrolic sallies from the trenchant pen of friend Nick, Jim Crow came, the Ku Klux has arrived and Nick and other leaders are as calm as clams and all of this is in vogue as our leaders in Kansas have stacked their arms and look on without concern.

When on a recent visit to Kansas, the City Officials who permitted the Klansman's parade on the principal thoroughfares of the Capitol City, were candidates, they were accused of being members of Ku Klux Klan and now it looks as though the accusation has been verified. NEGRO LEADERS were supporting these SAME OFFICIALS, they are now, and henceforth will, receive their reward.

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB OF LOS ANGELES.

It is refreshing indeed that an apparent interest has been awakened in the people of our group of this city who essay to make efforts along the various lines of business and professional effort. We are satisfied that a majority of the real element among this people are behind this movement. There are others who will not line up for this forward step because they will never line up with anything except they start the thing themselves and they have no capacity for starting. Therefore it is incumbent upon those who are in the vanguard of progress to move on their way and put the program of real accomplishment over. There is much to do for this group to make itself a faction in the business world and it is certainly on the right track, for only by a united and organized effort can we hope to succeed, and we verily believe that the Commercial Club is the agency destined to bring about this much desired result.

The fact that this organization with a membership at this time of more than 50, have decided to progress is in itself a harbinger of better days along the line of real constructive propositions along business lines. What we need are producers and that means not only production from the soil of the earth, but to think and to organize your forces is a part of the plan of production. When we organize and make a survey, we shall immediately cease to kid ourselves about filling any niche which has been carried out in the mercantile activities of this city and it will also be apparent that the reason for our short coming along the lines spoken of, is the fact that we have striven to do things on the old hit and miss proposition without any regard or thought of constructive organization.

Now that a real effort is to the forefront headed by energetic, reliable business and professional men, let all of us get behind the movement and put it over with a vengeance. Let us at least get in hailing distance of the Japanese. Forty-five thousand Japanese, so they say, twenty thousand Japs; compare the two groups and making the comparison it is high time that our business and professional men of this great city should get [illegible] and AWAKE, get in line with the finest proposition

HONEY A MEDICINE AS WELL AS FOOD

When the sick, the hungry and the aged are unable to eat other things, honey, syrup and sugars are still available. The ancients seem to have know ethis. Pythagoras and the Greeks evidently learned the value of honey as a ration and a remedy from the Egyptians and the Hebrews. Their theory was that the virtues of many medicinal herbs and flowers entered into the substance of the honey.

Perhaps with the poet they thought "where the bee sucks there suck I." Cane or granulated sugar is a good food, but the stomach juices must first change it into more simple sweets before it can be directly taken into the blood and lymph streams. Honey, on the other hand, has weight for weight and bulk for bulk—more nourishment, more fuel and more heat units than meat, fish or eggs.

One ounce of honey surpasses an egg by 75 units. Moreover, it is decidedly cheaper and twice as helpful to human energy. Honey is superior to molasses and syrup as a food, or as a throat lubricant, because of nutritive value as well as its soothing and healing powers.

If mixed with some mild antiseptic, such as boric acid, it may even serve as an emergency dressing for open sores and cuts.

Uses Of Honey

For hoarseness, cought and "speaker's sore throat, honey dissolved in water is a helpful lubricant. Of course honey is to be shunned in scarlet fevers, inflammation or if germs are present. Honey serves as a soil and hot-bed for the growth and cultivation of bacteria and similar microbes. It is, therefore, restricted to irritations that exhibit no infections.

An ounce of honey taken at bedtime has proved itself a good and harmless aid to inducing sleep. Incidentally it acts also as a mild laxative when thus administered. Whenever there is some reason to limit a person's diet to a very few articles, as is true of some fevers of intestinal origin, of kidney disease, sensility and ulcers of the stomach, honey serves as a superior means for feeding.

Like ants and other insects, bees make formic acid, which is a stepchild of formaldehyde, and an excellent disinfectant. The formic acid present in honey adds to its value. It makes this food an antiseptic in a mild way, and thus acts both as a preservative of the honey and as an aid as a healing salve.

Honey, plainly, cannot "turn," decay or ferment as easily as sugar, corn, syrup or molasses. Furthermore, the presence of formic acid in honey adds to it a laxative quality that may eliminate the intestinal poisons which cause griping, colic and fermentation and gas formation.

Valuable Mineral Necessities

The eminent Swiss chemist, Professor Carl Bunge of Basel, Switzerland, points out that there are no such mineral fertilizers as lime and iron in sugar. Honey, on the other hand, has nearly 7 per cent of lime and over one per cent of iron.

Happy, then, is the child who eats honey, for it is so vouchsafed by nature that a vast legion of the human diet is robbed by civilized cooks of those very mineral necessities. Refined wheat, overly polished white flours, many cereals and some canned goods are also deprived of these human fertilizers.

Over and above these antiseptic elements, honey contains besides three different kinds of sugar. Only 2 per cent is like granulated or cane sugar, while about 77 per cent is composed of grape and fruit sugars, which require no elementary effort to absorb.

Obviously, honey is one of the ideal foods. It safeguards the tissues against rickets, scurvy, pellagra, beriberi and other non-infectious maladies, and it is less prone to cause gastric and intestinal disturbances. Moreover, in contradistinction to candies and other sweets, honey is less likely to cause acne, pimples and other skin eruptions.

Finally, honey must be cultivated from bees that feed upon only the sweetest buds and blossoms. Bees that hit themselves to swamps, marshes, pine woods and bogs make a product that may really prove itself injurious. The real nectar of the gods and man's health-giving elixir of life comes from the insects fed upon wild flowers, clover, lindens and buckwheat. Needless to say, artificial honeys are inferior.

OFFICE BUILDING OPENS WITH CEREMONY

843 CENTRAL AVENUE NEW BUSINESS CENTER

A free public reception, with music refreshments and a program will mark the opening of the recently completed modern office building at 843 Central Avenue, beginning at 1:00 p. m., this Saturday, August 18th and ending at 7:00 p. m., Sunday, August 19th, with a special program at 3:00 p. m. Sunday, during all of which time, the new building will be open to public inspection. Special decorations and arrangements are being made to entertain the crowds.

Prize For Name

The management is offering a prize to the person who selects for the building, a name which the managers finally adopt. Each visitor will be given a card upon which to suggest a name for the building. From these suggestions, the building will be named, the prize being awarded to the one whose suggestion is nearest to the name finally adopted. The prize will be awarded at the conclusion of the 3:00 p. m. program, Sunday.

Business Center

Completed this May, the building has already become the business center for local Negro professional and business people, a number of them having already taken offices there.

The building is strictly modern, with hardwood floors throughout, and hot and cold water in each office, each room having plenty of light and outside ventilation.

Besides the modern, fully-equipped offices of Dr. William Nell Pillow, Dentist, and Dr. D. C. Marion, physician and surgeon, there are the real estate offices of George W. Bright, and of the Ed. Kelley Realty Company, T. Brotha has a suite of three rooms, which he has a beauty parlor, and an excellent display of hair goods manufactured by his own organization.

Honorable Frederick M. Roberts, State Assemblyman, has offices in the building.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. —"I marvel when I consider what memorials to progress and uplift for the race and humanity might be made by the musicians of the Negro race if they used their talent in the production of more lasting forms of music, rather than in courting monetary influences," declared the Rev. Dr. John B. Redmond, pastor of St. Marks M. E. Church, this city, in a speech, "The Redemptive Power of Sacred Music," before the delegates gathered at the convention of the National Association of Negro Musicians.

Dr. Redmond took his slap at the jazz artists with an apology, criticizing them more for what they do not do than for the music they produce. Applause broke out from all sections of the audience to greet his opinion. Many of the most noted Negro artists interested in the more substantial forms of music, were present. There were no makers of jazz present.

Anderson, S. C., Aug. 12.—Unless they are checked the Negro farmers in Anderson County will become suddenly rich. This fact leaked out last week when it was discovered that most of the large cotton shipments of the past few years were made by Negroes who have been gaining honor [illegible]

Religious Reflections

"No man lives to himself."

Everywhere that a great soul gives utterance to its thoughts there is a Golgotha.

Christ came to arrest the degeneration of man by his regeneration.

Charity gives itself rich; covetousness hoards itself poor.

If man is not made for God, why is he only happy in God? If man was made for God why is he so opposed to God?

Christ came into the world alone, not in the garden as Adam did, who bathed himself in grandeur and was lost to himself through disobedience; but in a stable where He saved himself through agony and tears.

Christianity is strange. It bids us to recognize ourselves as vile, even abominable, and even hids our desire to be like God. Without such a counterpoise, this dignity would make him terribly abject.

The right way to glory in your infirmities is not to be everlastingly talking about them, but show by a life of patience and cheerfulness that God's grace is sufficient for any trial.

The synagogue did not perish because it was a type. But because it was only a type, it fell into servitude. The type existed until the truth came in order that the church should be always visible, either in the sign which promised it, or in substance.

No wonder we are facing hard conditions; its because we have left God out of our lives.

Life is two-thirds bluff, law is three-fourths tyranny, piety is nine-tenths pretense. Be genuine if you want to die respected.

THE CHURCH BULGES

It will be neccessary to take down the walls of the east 36th St. Church 668 E. 36th. St. if the crowds continue to gather on Sunday evenings to hear the fervid messages of evangelist R. G. Rodgers of Washington D. C. The church has been packed on every occassion on which he has spoken.

Next Sunday evening his subject will be: What Christianity never changes". This subject will be of especial interest to men.

SIMON THE CYRENE

Who will play this part? We want the biggest Negro of the race who is dwelling in Los Angeles to represent us in the great pageant of "The Wayfarer" to be played at the Coliseum from the 6th to the 15th of September next. He must be a very tall man and a giant in proportion. He must be a pitiful man and one who now will feel it an honor to carry the cross of Christ—today—in the pageant at the Exposition of the play.

This incident is the most conspicuous in the whole drama to be staged, for Jesus the Christ will not be acted by anyone, but Simon the Cyrene will carry the cross and night after night tens of thousands of spectators will watch Simon lift his burden and do it for Jesus' sake. He who will volunteer at this time to act this part? He must be the biggest Negro we know of in Los Angeles. And he will be the biggest actor in the drama at the Coliseum play for the time being. Come quickly to our Editor's office and tell us you will do this thing for the sake of success; and to uplift Los Angeles as well as to uplift a cross.

Come to us at once and enlist, and do this thing for the sake of our race and we promise you fame and prominence.

In the 27th. Chapter of the Gospel of St. Matthew at the 32nd. verse it says "and as they came out they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name; and him they COMPELLED to bear the Cross". Now don't you be COMPELLED to do it. Today it is an honor as we have said above, so whoever you are please come at once, or telephone to our editor and give in your name and address and we will quickly unite you with the Dramatic Directors of the Pageant. Come at once we are expecting you.

We also want dozens of male and female chorus singers and a host of our people to be actors. Come now and offer yourselves.

MOVIE ACTRESS LAID TO REST

THE LATE MRS. LUCRETIA HARRIS RODGERS

The funeral services of Mrs. Lucretia Harris Rogers took place at 1:30 Monday afternoon, August 6th, at the First A. M. E. Zion Church. The services were conducted by the Rev. W. E. Shaw, pastor of the Zion Church, and Rev. A. P. Shaw, of Wesley M. E. Church, Rev. L. G. Robinson, Rev. J. E. McCorkle of Riverside and Father W. T. Cleghorn of St Phillip's Episcopal Church, were participants in the ceremonies. In addition, the rites of the Order of the Household of Ruth were performe dby No. 561 of which Mrs. Rogers was an active member.

The eulogies by Pastor W. E. Shaw, Father Cleghorn and the Rev. Mr. McCorkle were beautifully impressive, as was also the soft and appropriate music rendered by the Zion choir. Mrs. Bertha Miller Spruill sang sweetly "I Shall See Him Face to Face." A soprano and tenor duet, "Death is Only a Dream," was rendered with much expressive harmony as to have a consoling effect upon the sorrowful assemblage.

The pallbearers were selected from the fraternal orders of which the deceased was a member and fellow employees with her husband, Mrs. B. H. Rogers, of the Hall of Records. They were Mrssrs. Busbee, Traylor, Jacob James, Smith Greer, Dan Hodge and John Sellers.

As the funeral cortage moved from the Roberts Undertaking Parlor on Central avenue to the Zion Church, at Pico and Paloma, and finally on to the cemetery, there were visible evidences all around of the sorrow which was general among all classes of people in Los Angeles at the passing of this beloved and talented woman. In the motion picture world, Lucretia Harris" kept company with the celebrities, for she was truly one of them. Countless thousands of film patrons, in America and Europe have been thrilled from time to time by her ingenious acting as reflected on the screen. No other person of the Colored race had ever reached such fame in "Screenland" as she was able to force from a grudging world. But the memory of Lucretia Harris Rogers will live in the hearts of the people of Los Angeles for an entirely different reason. Those who were so fortunate as to have the "close up" of her life as it was actually lived here, will still feel for a long time the warmth and inspiration of her gentle and loving spirit. They will remember the outpouring of her sympathies and charities whenever there was an opportunity to help along the luckiest of God's creatures. They will remember her as friend, as mother to the motherless. They will remember her as the center from which emanated the comforts and joys of a domestic life that was especially notable. They will remember also her deep and fervent Christianity, which found expression in her devotion to the Zion Church in which she so beautifully lived and died. The story of her life from Fort Deposit, Iabama, where she was born October 13, 1873, to the eminence and esteem she gained in Los Angeles, carries in a simple recital of fact many of the remarkable thrills of fiction.

Out at Rosedale, beneath embankments of California flowers which are the tributes of hundreds of relatives and friends who loved her, rest all that is mortal of Lucretia Harris Rogers, while her soul, triumphant, is now "on location" for the great drama of Eternity. Peace to her soul; peace to her ashes.

REV. ROZIER HOME FROM SWEDEN

Rev. W. H. Rozier, pastor of Pleasant Hill Baptist Church, returned home Monday morning, from Stockholm, Sweden, where he has been attending the World's Baptist Alliance.

While abroad, Rev. Rozier visited many historic places of Europe, including London, Hamburg, Amsterdam, Paris and Belgium.

He spent several days touring the battlefields and trenches, and viewing the ruins of Rheims.

Rev. Rozier brings many interesting souvenirs and a world of first hand information regarding our neighbors "over there," and we hope to hear from him in the near future.

He will fill his pulpit at the morning and evening services Sunday at the new Pleasant Hill edifice at Court and Bonnie Brae.

THE WESTERN BAPT. ASSO. SESSION.

An interesting, encouraging and inspiring session was held at the Metropolitan Baptist Church in Pasadena, Calif., August 13th to 19th with an overwhelming success.

With the forty Baptist Churches, Sunday Schools, B. Y. P. U's. and the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies in session, working under a uniform program, brought encouraging results, which could hardly be believed. Two hundred delegates were in attendance at this annual gathering.

First, let me be permitted to say, the spirit of Jesus Christ was manifested in our midst, harmony and peace prevailed throughout the session, and may further state that this was the greatest meeting held from a social, educational and religious point of view in the annals of the Western Baptist Association.

We speak in highest terms of the ability of the Moderator, Rev. R. N. Holt, D. D. and his coterie of assistants in really putting over the program. The addresses were helpful, inspiring, in that, every delegate assembled returned to their various fields of labor determined to accomplish the work which is set before them during the fiscal year.

The aim of the Western Baptist Association is to foster the work of Missions, at home and abroad, to educate our young people and prepare them for service which can be best rendered systematically.

The further aim is to aid and help to encourage our Mission stations in destitute fields and to save those who are unsaved, through the faithful preaching of the gospel. The results of this annual session have had a tendency to draw the Baptists on the Coast closer together and we believe that if these gatherings continue to be harmonious and enlightening we will take California for Christ.

The work of the General Missionary, Rev. R. H. Wade, throughout Southern California has been quite complimentary. Rev. R. H. Wade is one of our workers who put every ounce of his personality into whatever he attempts to perform and no little credit can be given this servant of God for the accomplishment and achievement obtained through his ministry. The Western Baptist Association points with pride to one who represents God to our denomination, one who can be trusted with the oracles of God and is safe in the doctrine of the church. We predict a great future awaits this servant of God.

Our Directress of Religious Education, Mrs. Eva Overr Solomon, has shown to the Western Baptist Association that she is the right person in the right place in the training of our young people for the future church. Space will not permit us to express the dominant qualities which are nestled in the bosom of this woman, but may her success among the young people continue to flow like a river and her usefulness abound like waves of the sea.

The Association has raised for Missions, Home and Foreign, the support of the Old Folk Home, Education and the sustaining of Missionary pastors in destitute fields over $5000.00—of which we are not ashamed, Brethren, we are climbing toward the highest rung in the ladder and are long the Baptists in Southern California will take their rightful place at the head of the line, where she belongs.

We speak in highest terms of all who assisted in going over the top in this program and may this glorious meeting just closed be an incentive to spur us on to greater usefulness in the service of the Master.

ELKS PURCHASE CLUB HOUSE SITE

By: Wendell P. Gladden, Jr.

Los Angeles will have a monumental institution when plans are completed for the new Elks' Club house, according to Mr. William Roberson, secretary of the local fraternal order, who announced that the organization had already purchased a lot and will begin work on the building next year.

The lot is located on South Central Avenue between East Jefferson and 37th streets and is 96 feet by 248 feet deep. It is not yet known how many stories the edifice will contain, but there will be a spacious club room, offices upstairs, store rooms, and a magnificent dance pavilion to accommodate 3000. The building is expected to be completed by the latter part of next year.

Much credit is due to the purchasing commission for its foresight and judgment in making the excellent selection. The commission is composed of the following: Atty. E. Burton Ceruti, Exalted Ruler; J. P. White, Chairman; Wm. Roberson, Secretary; E. Thompson; T. A. White; E. H. Jackson; Dr. J. H. Wade; Fred R. Fowler; C A. Slaughter

WARD CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH
1252 East 25th Street
B. R. Guy, Pastor

Our services last Sunday were creditably attended. The Sunday School conducted by our young Bro. Daniels was very interesting and his address was excellent; wish more parents and children had heard it.

At 11 o'clock services, the pastor spoke to the vast audience from the text—With God there is no respector of person.

The Junior Endeavo rwas conducted by the young President, Miss Georgia Buckner. It was well attended and the programme rendered in connection with the lesson was of an excellent character.

At night the pastor spoke to a mixed audience, from the text—Go sell that thou hast and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasures in heaven and come and follow me.

Next Sunday, August 26th, will be Trustee Day. All members and friends are asked to give one dollar each or more for the trustee work.

FOUNTAIN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH
Duarte, California
Wm. Prince, Pastor

We have just closed a very successful Revival which was conducted by Rev. Mrs. I. H. Ford. Great interest was taken in the meetings by by the people of the community and neighboring towns. The meeting closed Sunday, the Evangelist preaching at 11 a. m., Rev. G. L. Cooper at 3 p. m. and our P. E., Rev. James Washington at 8 p. m., after which communion was served to forty-six persons—five were taken in as full members. Collection $25.00.

SECOND A. M. E. CHURCH
1736 East 53rd St.
Rev. Robert House, Pastor

Sunday School, 9:30 a. m. Dr. Jas. Washington, Presiding Elder will preach morning and evening, this being our Fourth and last Quarterly meeting for the Conference year.

Last Sunday was a great day with us. Our morning congregation was above the ordinary. Quite a number of visitors in attendance. The spiritual tide ran up to a high mark. Many shouts went up to Almighty God. One young man accepted the full rites of the church.

We desire to say to all our local constituency, members and friends, we are looking forward to the 25th. of September with great anxiety, the opening of the California Annual Conference of the A. M. E. Church at the First A. M. E. Church. As we duly and truly consider our obligations let us look well to the East and take due notice and govern ourselves accordingly.

Come, you are welcome to worship with us.

PHILLIPS CHAPEU C. M. E. CHURCH
1406 Newton Street
Dr. R. W. Underwood, Pastor

Sunday at 11 a. m. Dr. Underwood chose for a subject: "Right and Righteousness." Many tears were seen falling from the eyes of the hearers. Dr. Underwood is an eloquent speaker. He usually drives a thought to the heart of his hearers.

Several members have joined the church during the months of July and August, some of whom were converted during the morning services.

Prof. R. M. Mitchell and the Choir are rendering real service to the church.

The Fourth Sunday of this month is "General Rally Day." The officers are asking the public to come out and help us in our effort.

BIRCH ST. CHRISTIAN CHURCH
Cor. 14th and Birch Streets

The promise of our Master, Christ Jesus, in the words, "Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there I am in the midst of them," is of special import to every sincere student of Christianity today. if we are to gain the fulfillment of Christian religion in our experience by the healing of the sick and the saving from sin, we must recognize the necessity of doing our work together, expressing that unity which is true spiritual co-operation. The Bible is full of instances showing the need of an understanding of the fact that if we are to gain the fulfil lment of the wonderful promises extended to us as sons of God and "joint heirs with Christ." We must seek our own welfare in another's good: that in thus helping to bear our brother's burden, we may "fulfill the law of Christ."

You will be interested in all these subjects if you attend our service.

Bible School, 9:45 a. m.; Preaching 11 a. m.; Y. P. S. C. E., 7:00 p. m.; Preaching, 8:00 p. m.; Prayer services and Bible Class, Thursday 8 p. m.

WALL ST. CHRISTIAN CHURCH
East 8th. and Wall Streets

Our services last Lord's day were fine—A good bible school and well attended. Rev. F. C. Cochran preached both morning and evening. He brought us two splendid messages, al of us were edified and made stronger in the faith. His morning subject; "Who should pay?" Text Prov. 25—9 He showed that the prayer of the righteous man availeth much, but the prayer of the unrighteous availeth nothing. The evening subject was New Tongues. Text, Mark 16:17. He showed that the extraordinary gifts of languages were peculiar to the age when the church was in its incipiency. All are welcome to come and worship with us.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH
33rd and Hooper
M. Frederick Mitchell, Minister

We had real good and uplifting service last Sunday our pastor filled the pulpit at both services, subjects: "The grain of mustard seed faith." in the evening, "The Exaltation of the Kingdom." Both services were ripe with inspiration. Many very helpful lessons were driven home to the hearts of the hearers. Our church together with many of Los Angeles' best citizens were disappointed in not having the opportunity to hear Rev. Dr. J. N. Ervin. The Dr. took suddenly ill, was unable to come to us just at this time, notifying Rev. Mitchell by telegram which reached him too late to appear in our papers. We will have regular services next Sunday. Mrs. Troutman of Chicago will be our soloist. Come early and enjoy a brief service.

TRINITY BAPTIST CHURCH
W. 36th St. and Normandie Ave.
Rev. J. A. H. Eldridge, Pastor

Sunday School was well attended and lesson taught with power. The young men's bible class taught by the pastor is still in the lead financially; one hundred men are wanted for that class. The pastor filled the pulpit at the morning and evening service. At eleven o'clock he spoke from 1 John 5:4—This is the victory that overcometh the world even our faith. At eight oclock his text was found in Acts 7:60—And he kneeled down and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge, and when he had said this, he fell asleep. If you will hear the gospel preached in its purity come to Trinity. B. Y. P. U. is still making wonderful strides under the leadership of Mrs. Frances Spikes. We want to do more, come out and help us.

TABERNACLE BAPTIST CHURCH
12th and Hemlock Sts.

Sunday was a glorious day. The spirit of God was present. Rev. J. D. Gordon filled the pulpit morning and evening brought home many good thoughts to all. Text 19 pslams 13 verse Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my Redeemer. Six were united with us. Bro. A. A. Sutton and Sis. A. Lewis rendered a beautiful duet.

At 6:45 p. m. the B. Y. P. U. was opened and well attended. Many visitors and friends worshipped with us. We were favored with a reading by our famous elocutionist, Sis. C. Thomas.

Rev. F. H. Davis preached a lovely sermon on Love at the 8 o'clock service.

The Bible study is going on, one hour each night—7 to 8—come and get your strength renewed in Christ.

Rev. J. D. Gordon from Brooklyn, N. Y., accepted the call of Tabernacle Baptist Church, for which we are all glad. We welcome all, come and worship with us.

MT. ZION BAPTIST CHURCH
3rd and Traction Ave.

Next Sunday morning Rev. R. D. Porter, pastor of one of the leading Baptist Churches of Little Rock, Ark., will preach.

At the evening service the pastor will preach.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH
Y. M. C. A.—9th and Hemlock Sts.
Rev. H. D. Prowd, Pastor

Our Sunday School was well attended and the Lesson profitably discussed.

At the 11 o'clock service Dr. Prowd preached on The Great Commission, and indeed the Master was present to bless us through His Word.

At 7 o'clock the B. Y. P. U. held its usual session and Mrs. Bass gave us an excellent address on the stability of the Christian Church. The sermon at night was on The Consistency of Christians in Church Fellowship.

After the morning service one was baptized—the second—into the fold.

We invite our friends to visit us and aid a good cause. Come praying for a blessing.

METROPOLITAN BAPTIST CHURCH
37th and Paloma Streets
M. C. Carter, Pastor

Splendid services were held at our church, Sunday past. The pastor filled the pulpit at both services and preached two very profitable sermons. At the evening services Prof. W. G. Hynes, the National representative of the Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. Boards was present and gave us an inspiring talk on what our National Board was doing for the Sunday School and B. Y. P. U.

The pastor will fill the pulpit Sunday, August 26th.

Notice

H. LEO JOHNSON PASSES THRU CITY

Rev. H. Leo Johnston of San Francisco, and Presiding Elder of the California Conference of the A. M. E. Zion Church, was in the City on a flying business trip last week. This being his first since the last Annual Conference. The reason for this he states, is his deep interest and strong determination to strengthen the strongholds of Zion Methodism on the Pacific Coast.

He predicts that the coming Annual Conference scheduled to be held in Sacramento will be one of the most successful to be held in years. Already the wheels of preparation are humming and the ministers all over the district are truly bringing things to pass.

Dr. Johnston is a Race man, and expressed deep regret because of the brevity of his stay in the city of sunshine where there is such a manifestation of Negro genius. He declared that the people of color with whom he comes in contact here, are the finest representative group he has met anywhere during his travels and expresses the hope of spending a longer time on his next visit which will be some time after the Annual Conference.

Emerson Subject of Intensive Discussion

The Belle Lettre club was the scene of vigorous discussion of the life and works of Ralph Waldo Emerson at the regular meeting last Friday. The essay Self-Reliance was the one work of Emerson's that was keenly and interestingly discussed by the members.

The "Uncovered" Wagon" Back From Stanford

Joe Birch and Tiny Graham in the former's "Uncovered Ford" ran on to the campus Tuesday, after attending the game at Stanford. Birch says that the trip was fine but the outcome of the game finer. The party enjoyed the hospitality of Ivan Johnson while in the north.

Party Enjoys Jaunt to Stanford

Mr. Pruitt of Dental College motored up to Stanford to see the game last Saturday. Accompanying Pruitt were Guest, Prater, and Feonce. The boys say that they had a wonderful time and especially enjoyed themselves ta a party given in their honor by Berkeley students on Saturday evening.

Students Cheer Football Team on Return From Seattle

Among a possible two thousand students of the university at the Southern Pacific station on Tuesday, October 23, was a group of colored students cheering and yelling too. These students were there to greet the team and especially to greet Johnny Riddle, who so ably represents the Race on the fighting Trojan machine. And among these colored students was one H. W. who fully beamed with joy as Johnny was being escorted from the train by cheering Trojans.

IN THE MUSIC WORLD

By John A. Gray

One of the great absurdities that retard the progress of our musicians more than any other thing, is the idea of being "finished".

In such a case where real talent is shown, such a thought is pitiful: It prevents the person from continuing to improve. It narrows his conception of the possibilities of an art. One may finish a certain cours at some school and receive a diploma or certificate. This does not mean, however, that one has finished learning all about that particular subject.Graduation exercises used to be called "Commencement", which is really true, because is just commencing to put into practice the theories learned in school. In other professions, diploma bolders; such as doctors, lawyers, dentists, etc. must pass the examination of a group of men whose business it is to find out how much one knows about the chosen profession.

In the musical life one hears the expression "I have finished from music" mainly from those who know very little about music. And the sad part is that these people really think that they know a lot. We remember an instance of a young lady who had "finished in music" at some school in the South and who posed as a "wonderful player". She had learned a few showy pieces which she banged through to the delight of her parents and to the disgust of other people. One evening at a gathering she was asked to accompany a singer who wished to sing "The Rosary". To the surprise of many present, she remarked that she would have to practice it before she could play it. Another young lady who was present was asked to play it which she did without a moment's hesitation. This young lady was just a student in the earlier grades. In nine cases out of ten the above example is illustrative of a class of people who have "finished in music".

Such persons never see the need of practice. They never hear any of the great artists. They won't even associate with those who know more than they. These persons are content to shine among those who know very little about music. And they really think that there is no more to learn.

None of the world's great men ever finished anything. Edison and Steinmetz have not claimed that they have finished developing the possibilities of electricity. Luther Burbank has not said that he knew all there was to learn about plants. Bach, Beethoven and Brahms did not finish developing music. In fact there is only one thing that man (and he was also also God) has finished. He was Christ who finished the plan of salvation. Nothing can be finished in a larger sense.

Art is Life and Life is eternal. Great men are always students. Only the shallow brook ripples on noisily toward the deep, silent river. The ocean waves roar only when the dash upon the rocks and sand, which declares that the water is shallow. To quote Longfellow:

"Art is long ,and time is fleeting,
And our hearts, though stout and brave
Still, like muffled drums, are beating
Funeral marches to the grave.

Let us, then, be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate;
Still achieving still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait.

EAGLE MOVES TO NEW HOME

In the Modern Quarters at 833 Central Ave. the plant of The California Eagle is now located. By degrees the heavy machinery has been moved and at our old location there only remains the business office; it will remain there until such time as the Telephone Company moves the telephone, and then our entire plant, office and all will operate in our new quarters. When this comes to pass we propose a big House Warming of which due and timely notice will be given.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

By William Narcisse

Last Thursday, on the Railsplitters' Gridiron, the Lincoln Lightweights trimmed the Poly Midgets 27–0. Hudnell played a steady game for the losers at tackle. Whiszar did his stuff for Lincoln that afternoon playing half back. He started off the fireworks by circling right end for thirty yards and a touchdown. Throughout the game he ripped off from five to twenty yards on each play.

While all the above excitement was going on, Dade and Levy, halfbacks on Jeff's light-weight team, were doing their stuff for their Alma Mater, at Manual. Levy's long end runs were the cause of Manual's 23–13 defeat. "Slick" Stocks is holding down a halfback position on Pasadena High's Light weight football team.

Jefferson High School's varsity football team has the record for losing games, as they have lost three in a row. Last Friday they were trounced by Manual 38–3. In spite of the team's defeat, Bisco, Prayer, and Williams played the game as if their lives depended upon it. Bisco and Prayer at guards, were impenetrable, the former fought with the ferocity of a maddened bull. "Sparky" Williams gave all he had in trying to put across a touchdown, but as fate would have it he failed in his attempt to score.

Theophilus Smith, sub L. A. High fullback, played a smashing game against Hollywood, last Friday. L. A. eventually won the game 6—0. Smith played a quarter of the contest.

Miss Benninal Pryor, member of the Alpha Scholarship Society at Lincoln, was presented with a gold pin, for having received 1's in her studies for five terms. Too much credit cannot be given Miss Pryor for her remarkable achievement.

APPEARANCE OF ST. LOUIS GIANTS POSTPONED

The St. Louis Giants, of St. Louis, Mo., who were to have arrived in Los Angeles to play at Anderson Park on next Sunday, have received permission from the Greater Southern California to remain in Oakland to play a game which will net them $500.

For this reason their first local appearance is now scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, November 10th and 11th. On these dates they will play at Anderson Park with Pirrone's All Coast and Major League. A band will furnish music on the occasion of the opening game.

My Friend Recommend You to Me.

Nine persons out of every ten who come into my office write or call me by phone for appointment, greet me with the six following words: My Friend Recommended You to Me, and I appreciate those words beyond expression, they mean more to me than all the gold in the world; for those words show the confidence that reputable citizens have in me and in my business methods. They more than repay me for the effort and hard work that I put forth to save my clients money and worry. I have striven to make a friend out of everyone whom I have had any business dealings with, and those words assure me that I have succeeded. There is not enough money in the whole world to tempt me, or cause me to betray the confidence reposed in me by my clients and I believe that everyone of my clients has sent his or her friend to me. To those seeking homes, or other property, may I serve you? A few of my special prices and terms:

Eagle Will Act As Depository And Arrange To Entertain Disabled Veterans

The following letter is self explanatory, and we verily believe that it is up to our group to do its full part in giving succor and relief along the lines indicated in the following communication.

October 27, 1923.

Noah D. Thompson,
Los Angeles, Calif.
My dear Mr. Thompson:

It has been brought to my attention that the colored boys, veterans of the late war have now a ward of their own in the main hospital at Sawtelle, their room now being known as "Ward No. 2". Mrs. Virginia Remington who for yeaps has been visiting the boys at the hospitals is taking a special interest in the boys of Ward No. 2 and their condition has especially aroused her sympathy. They have told her of their loneliness and of the long dreary hours they are spending with practically no amusement, except a few decks of cards. They have appealed to Mrs. Remington for a MahJongg set and an old victrola and some records. Other games and books would be most gratefully accepted. Perhaps some of your people could assist in providing those things, and perhaps you too, could organize a visiting committee that could visit these boys, bringing them cigarettes, candy or whatever little delicacies might tempt the appetites of sick persons. You have much talent among your people, and wouldn't it be fine if occasionally you could stage a little musical program for these unfortunate men, suffering from various diseases, from paralysis, shell-shock, etc.? Many of them are without compensation, I understand, and many without friends or relatives and depending almost entirely on strangers for any little sunshine that might come into their lives. They all served their country loyally and were a credit to our nation at a time when bravery and loyalty were sorely needed.

Any favor to them would be most deeply appreciated, and I thank you in anticipation for bringing the matter to the attention of your friends.

Sincerely,
ERLEEN HENNESSEY,
Society Editor, Express.

Hon. Noah D. Thompson has started the ball a rolling by sending in the first donation to a fund to lighten the days of these disabled war veterans at Sawtelle. The Eagle follows with a $5.00 donation. Who will follow? Send to this office and we will publish all donations and the disposition made of the fund. Would also be pleased for all musical and entertaining talent to communicate with us to the end that a good and wholesome entertainment at least once a week can be arranged for at Sawtelle.

FOSTER MEETING STOPPED IN NEWARK

A meeting in Newark, N. J., under the auspices of the Labor Defense Council, with William Z. Foster as principal speaker, was stopped on October 19th when the manager of the Iroquois Hall, where it was scheduled to take place, refused to open the doors at the last moment.

Pointing to the fact that the Foster meeting had been prominently announced for the Iroquois Hall for several weeks, the Labor Defense Council discounts the excuses made by the manager and charges that the hand of the police was behind the eleventh hour interference.

A hall offered to the defense body by a local union when the action of the hall keeper became known could not be used because, according to the police, it did not measure up to fire regulations.

Another meeting in Newark to test the right of speech and assemblage will be arranged, the American Civil Liberties Union announces, with a representative of that body participating.

SACRAMENTO

The Stranger is on the job again. Look out, or his goblins might get you.

Deaths: Miss Florence Mae Russell was found dead in bed early last Thursday morning. Death was the result of heart trouble. She was 45 years of age and a native daughter, having been born here September 21, 1878. A faithful member of Shiloh Baptist Church with a sweet and lovable disposition, was also a member of Court of Calanthe and Household of Ruth, which organizations had charge of her funeral. An uncle and several other relatives survive. A beautiful violin solo was played by Marion Forsythe of Los Angeles accompanied by his brother Harold. Rev. W. H. Hughes officiated. Burial in Odd Fellows Lawn Cemetery—Fenton in charge of funeral.

Rev. T .Allen Harvey pastor Kyle Temple Zion A. M. E. Church has again announced his candidacy for City Councilman and is as optomistic as any of the other wtenty-four candidacy. He says he is giving Sacramentans their education.

Miss Theresa-Bell Harper who is now a student at Berkeley spent the week-end with home folk.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Boyd of San Francisco were recent visitors and guests of Mrs. H. O. Johnson.

Mrs. M. J. Thompson of Los Angeles stopped over in the city for a day en route to Pocatello, Idaho.

William Overr of Fresno was a week-end visitor the guest of relatives.

Mrs. Lula Dabney and daughter, Miss Jewel of Los Angeles are visiting in the city the guest of Mrs. Herndon.

Mrs. Carrie Holston of Tuscon, Ariz. is a recent arrival.

Rev. W. H. Hughes, J. N. Crawford and Mrs. G. Williams have returned from the Baptist Association meeting just closed at Fresno.

Work has begun on the new Baptist Church building. Excavating for the foundation is being done at this time and Rev. W. H. Hughes and his tme on the way shortly. They hope officers hope to have the superstructo to have it finished by the first of the year.

At the Newton Booth School last week a test in arithmetic was given to forty-three children of the fifth grade: three of them made E plus, or 100 and of the three, two were Colored—namely: Benj. F. A. Harvey, son of Rev. T .Allen Harvey and Margaret Williams. The Stranger compliments these little folk.

St. Andrews Church is arranging for Houston Martyr's Day, Sunday, Nov. 11th when special service will be given over to members of the 24th U. S. Infantry now in Leavenworth Prison.

What do you know about the Sterling Towner bill seeking Federal aid for education? Read u pon it and tell the Stranger what you think about it.

SOWING AND REAPING

Ten years ago the rest of the world was forced to organize to protect itself from the military domination of the German race. Again the world is forced to organize; and this time it is to prevent the destruction, the annihilation of this same people.

That "Pride goeth before destruction and a haughty spirit before a fall" is as true in the twentieth century as in the centuries before the Christian era. Arrogance is a burning candle that consumes itself; and the brighter the flame the shorter the life.

Ten years ago, the German people were dominated by a military caste who boasted that they were a superior race. There was a German God and a God for the lesser breeds. They believed that, inside the German Empire, there were supermen whom destiny had selected to direct and control the progress of the human race. Their arrogant claims were backed up by a caste of big industrialists who found it profitable to exploit the same idea.

Where are those supermen now? How quickly the military glory of Germany has departed! One sees but a race of broken and disheartened men weeping over the ashes of empire.

Their leaders now appeal to the justice that they once scorned. The sword of might is broken in their hands. They are at the mercy of enemies whom they once despised and scorned.

It is an old, old story; as old as legend; older than recorded history. It teaches that, the instant any people become concious of a supposed superiority, the superiority itself departs.

God created all men in his own image. He did not make any of us superior to the rest of us. In every human being is the spark of divinity. No one possesses all the virtues nor all the vices. Talents are diversified. One may excell in painting, another in music; one in art and another in science. There are men born with constructive ability; others with especial physical prowess. But there is no race of supermen.

We speak of the dominance of the white race. It is because the white race made better use of its latent abilitiy than the others. But the developments of the last four or five years point clearly to the conclusion that the earth is not intended for a single dominating race or color.

In proportion as the white man grows more arrogant his superiority fades. Not alone in the Holy Writ in the stars is it written that the meek shall inherit the earth. Meekness is not cowardice; no more than arrogance is a proof of superior ability.

A single generation in Germany wasted through arrogance what ten generations through industry had builded.

But arrogance is not present in the German militarists, alone. It is a vice common to all races and nationalities . It creates nothing permanent, and covers the earth with misery.

Arrogance appears, in the home; and ends in the divorce court or the cemetery. It enters a business; and prepares the way for a fall. It elbows into politics; and the people suffer. For arogance is the assumption of a superiority that nature does not permit to exist.

Arrogance demands its place in the sun, a dominating place; and it is never willing to grant to others what it demands for itself.

In every people are the noble qualities that make life worth while. They may exist in the individual who falls the victim to arrogance and ambition. We of America are not free from the taint. It creeps into our industrial life; and we have the arrogance of the labor union bosses who assume they are superior to the law, that they have rights that are barred to others. It also appears in selfish corporations that would limit and restrain trade for their personal advantage. We suffered for ten years in California from arrogance in State politics.

Perhaps Germany's example may serve as a warning to other peoples; to those who still hold to the idea of superior and inferior nationalities. The Germans are reaping the crop their arrogance sowed. It is a harvest that no people can escape who sow the tares of arrogance midst the wheat of epual opportunity.—Los Angeles Times.

The above Editorial from the Los Angeles Times of last Sunday is one of vast import, and in line with the preachment of this journal; and no doubt the "Eagle" readers will recall our articles along this line. It is therefore with considerable pride that we reproduce this Editorial from an entirely different angle on the Subject "Sowing and Reaping." This brings home the thought that the white man is alive to the issue, and frankly admits that superiority in mankind is a myth, with no foundation in spirit or in fact. And if the thought is allowed to dwell in the heart of any man or set of men, it means their destruction.

COMMENTS

By: W. J. WHEATON

Mussolini, the Facisti Premier of Italy, was watching the maneuvers of the Arditi bomb-throwers at Turin. There was a premature explosion of bombs and several were seriously injured. Among the seriously injured was a Lieutenant Albergo (Negro) whose right hand was so mutilated that it had to be amputated on the spot. Although he was suffering excrutiating pain, Lieutenant Albergo waved his bloody stump in the air with Viva! Premier Mussolini! Viva! That was in Italy, and the Lieutenant is an Italian National without prejudice.

When the Colonies were making history in the formation of the United States Republic there were men of Lieutenant Albergo's race who saw the picture of "Freedom's Dawn" and fell in the ranks of the men who fought to overthrow the despotism of English rule. Peter Salem, and Ned "The Fifer," Crispus Attucks and numbers of others whose names are recorded on the roster of Revolutionary war regiments, helped to keep alive the spirit which "carried on" from Bunker Hill to Valley Forge, through to Yorktown.

When the Republic, which Peter Salem and his comrades had helped form, was threatened by foes from within, there responded to the call for aid over two hundred thousand men who bore the same lineage of the Italian Lieutenant. They watched the reddening sun as it dipped in the West and poised their bayonets for the dash to the enemy's stronghold. Some of those men bore the scars of shackles just removed. Imprints of the chain; scars from the lash; yet, with indomitable loyalty, they sacrificed their lives on the altar for the perpetuity of the Union of States.

December 12th, 1886, in the city of New York, Henry Grady, of Georgia, delivered an address before the New England Society. Speaking of the Negro he said: "We remember with what fidelity for four years he guarded our defenseless women and children, whose husbands and fathers were fighting against his freedom. To his eternal credit be it said that whenever he struck a blow for his own freedom he fought in open battle, and when at last he raised his black and humble hands that the shackles might be struck off, those hands were innocent of wrong against his helpless charges, and worthy to be taken in loving grasp by every man who honors loyalty and devotion."

The city of Henry Grady is the headquarters of a society which says, that its members must be 100 per cent American. This society places a ban upon two racial groups. Jews and Negroes; it bars the religious denomination of Roman Catholics. Now, if you are not 100 per cent an American, you are not an American at all. The black man has proven himself 100 per cent loyal, no matter what may be his nationality, and that society has proven its un-Americanism by its propaganda against the religious toleration assured to all by the Constitution of the Republic and its repudiation of the assertion that, "All men are born equal and are entitled to the rights of life, liberty and happiness."

A committee from the U. S. Senate is investigating charges of misappropriations and fraudulent contracts when Charles Forbes was director of the Veterans Bureau. Millions of dollars, it is alleged, have been squandered or misappropriated. The searching inquiry has revealed one of the most scandalous grafts in the annals of the government. The men who were disabled in the battles to "make the world safe for democracy" have been swindled that unscrupulous men might roll in luxury. Knowing some things concerning the poor management of the hospitals and the grafting disposition of those in authority, was one of the reasons why a purely Negro personnel was asked for the hospital at Tuskegee, Alabama.

Negro doctors did not wish to be exploited at the hands of men who had no other interest but that of gain. Men of the Race who were fully qualified to maintain the hospital at the highest degree of efficiency did not wish to become entangled in any mesh of graft whereby they would be made the "Goat." Immediate prosecution is demanded by the committee of which Senator Reed of Pennsylvania is chairman. He, the Senator, said: "The Committee looks to the Department of Justice to do its duty. That duty is obvious." Forbes is a power in politics. We shall see.

In the meantime the fight for a Negro personnel at the hospital at Tuskegee will not be abated, and that in spite of the tendency of Major Russo Moton to side with the opposition. The tendency to loyalty which has characterized the acts of the Negro at all times when their duty to the nation is uppermost, is revealed in their reluctance to accept any but the full responsibility by the medical fraternity of the Race. A purely racial corps of nurses ,physicians and attendants, is what the wards of the Government in that particular hospital need, and that is what they want.

One of the outstanding lessons for efficiency is the selection of Mr. Roland B. Hayes the Tenor as soloist with the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Hayes has devoted his years to the perfecting of his singing, and his position with the Boston Symphony is the reward for his endeavor. Many an artist has sought similar recognition, which is only given to merit, and we can feel pride in the selection of the renowned singer.

WHAT YOU SHOULD DO TO KEEP YOUR TEETH WELL

By B. Lewis, B. Sc., M. D.
1618 1-2 East 9th Street

If you never had a tooth extracted you do not know what an uncomfortable experience it is. But bad as it is, it is a vastly better operation than it used to be. Local anesthetics and cleanlines have robbed the procedure of most of its pain and many of the uncomfortable after affects.

The man who pulled my first tooth has been dead so many years that I can speak freely of the unpleasant event. As I recall it, the dentist had hold of his forceps with both hands and had his foot against my chest to keep me in the chair. Of course terror and the undeadening pain may have magnified some of the features of the operation, but I have related it exactly as I recall the experience.

But even though this may strike you as a terrible affair, it isn't the lack lack of surgical technique of which I complain. What makes me mad is to think of having a tooth extracted merely because it had a trifling cavity with a little sensitive and aching tissue. Today a dentist would be dismissed from his dental society if he made a practice of removing such teeth.

DENTISTS SAVE TEETH

The modern dentist saves teeth. Extraction is the last resort. There must be some disturbance in the general health, or decay past hope of repair. It is natural for a person who has had a night of torture with toothache to beg for relief. Immediate removal of the pain is demanded. The modern dentist refuses to be moved, and, by his skill, he relieves the pain and repairs the break.

There is a vast difference between an inflamed and aching tooth and an abscessed tooth or infected gums. Septic infection is dangerous to health your dentist will be likely to give some treatment to clear up the pus as much as may be, before extracting the bad teeth. In this way, he avoids the deeper infection which may occur if the tissues are opened and bathed in pus.

Nothing is more important than good teeth. The early use of the toothbrush, and daily cleansing, will prevent conditions which lead to loss of these valuable organs. Thorough mastication is the first step in good digestion. To accomplish this crushing and grinding of the food all teeth are essential. But if by any chance you have developed a pus infection in your mouth, get rid of it, even though you must sacrifice a few teeth.

But before you make this sacrifice, make sure that it is an imperative one. To this end you should have the advice of a competent dentist, founded on a careful examination of your mouth.

and life. If you have an abscess somewhere you know it should be drained. Pus must be gotten rid of or serious effects follow. It is just as important to get rid of a dental absess or of pus infection in the mouth.

Lots of persons past middle life go about with bodies poisoned by pus, from snags, roots, decayed teeth, and pus gums. If the doctor suggests dental work, the patient objects, because removal of the teeth, bad as they are will make it impossible to chew the food.

In such a case the lesser of two evils must be determined. It is far better to trust to "store teeth" for mastication of the food, than it is to take a septic material.

CHEW FOOD THOROUGHLY

A question frequently asked by mothers relates to the proper time of removing the first teeth. This is a thing which takes care of itself, usually, but if you are in doubt, have your dentist look at the child's mouth and advise you.

If the gums are greatly infected,

Jesus the World's Hope of Peace

A Sermon by Chas. P. Jones, Pastor Christ Temple Church, 37th and Naomi Streets

"MY PEACE I GIVE UNTO YOU"
John 14:27

David Lloyd George is here trying to get America to take hold in Europe and give her peace. He is reported as saying, "I am not here on any mission, but let me say to you one thing—that until this great land casts its influence into the scale of peace, I despair of the future."

Now, that reminds me of the Savior's words in Luke 21:25, 26—"And there shall be signs in the sun and in the moon and in the stars, and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves warring, and men's hearts failing them for fear and from looking after those things which are coming on the earth; for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. And then shall they see the son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh."

How fitting are these words to the hour in which we are living. They are all literally, openly, alarmingly fulfilled in this very year of grace, except that we have not yet seen the Son of Man come in the cloud. There is no particular occultism about it; no need of spiritualization of interpetation. The thing is literally come to pass. In the Bible, eclipses are looked upon as signs "in the sun, moon and stars." And who can say they are not? To the scientist they may be merely visual, unavoidable conjunctions of certain heavenly bodies, but who can say what more they may mean in the mind of God, in the divine calculations and purposes? Who knows what He has planned for the ages and what part these things, all foreknown to him, play in the consummation of His plans?

The time is here. Men of affairs are compelled to admit without pretending to want to preach.

But what wondrously sweet encouragement to the believer, do the Savior's words carry! Look up! Your redemption draweth nigh! But this redemption is not a carnal thing; not a thing of race pride and race folly; not a thing of tit for tat, this for that, hundred per cent the other is God's hundred per cent the othe, is God's hope for mankind, redemption thru Christ Jesus.

Not merely getting souls to heaven, but redeeming the earth as well. All redemption carries judgment with it. "Associate yourselves," saith the Spirit of God in Isaiah 8, "and ye shall be broken in pieces." He repeats the statement to let us know it shall be so without change of purpose or defeat of effort. It shall be so. Amen! God's word cannot be broken. The sons of faith therefore will look up and not fear, for our hope is in God.

But Mr. Lloyd George is looking to the wrong source; he would lean on the wrong staff. Like Egypt of old, America is a broken reed. What peace has America to give Europe or anyone else? Is not her Ku Klux Klan planning and already inaugurating an unbearable interal strife? Are not her governor's and other civil officers losing the sceptre of authority? Is she not full of lawlessness and crime of every description? Are not her statesmen hopelessly divided both as to domestic and foreign policy? Is she not full of hatred and greed and prejudice and injustice?

What peace has she to give anyone? Is not the blood of the Indian on her hands—and must she not pay? Has she not violated her own constitution and crushed the weak and defenseless whom she has helped just enough to make them feel keenly the rod of her pride and the sting of her injustice? And the crushing weight of her inhuman prejudice? Does not God avenge blood? Did Belgium escape the fate of the Congo?

What peace has America to give anyone—a nation riding to the certain doom of the proud and unjust—Malachi 4. Her own religion is her condemnation. Has she not made the cross of Jesus a symbol of masked oppression?

Mad after wealth, drunk with pleasure, dizzy with speed, intoxicated with power, blinded with self-importance, puffed up with success, conceited with knowledge, swelled to bursting with the pride of achievement. Sodom and Gommorrah were never less prepared for the angel visit than America.

Peace! Where will she get it, when she swaggers and staggers and whoops and vomits her drunken way to inevitable Judgment befoe a Holy God of Truth and Equity. Ah, my friends! The peace of the world, the future of the nations, is not in the hands of America, who hates her own, but in the hands of God.

"HE IS OUR PEACE," said Paul of Jesus Christ, Eph. 2. "Peace I leave with you. My peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."

This is the advantage of being a real Christian. You need not be afraid. The future holds for you no dread or trembling. Your citizenship is in heaven. Phil. 2—Your life is hid with Christ in God. Col. 3—My peace I give unto you .

Jesus has peace to give us, because He has—not money and ships and armies—but righteousness. Said the Holy Spirit in Isaiah, "The work of righteousness shall be peace and the effect of righteousness, quietness and assurance forever." He is our peace, because He is our righteouness. Therefore, through the world we have tribulation, in Him we have peace. The wicked, however, are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt. "There is no peace," saith my God unto the wicked, Isa. 48:22; Isa. 57:20-21.

America has no peace to give Europe ,neither has socialism, nor Bolshevism, nor anything, no ranyone, but Jesus. God has given the world peace in Christ. When it takes Him, it will have peace.

REFLECTIONS

WARM UP MEN! WARM UP!

Many a man has frozen to death and never knew that anything was wrong with him. For a little while a chilly sensation came over him and he realized that the wind was piercing cold. This feeling soon passed away and he began to be more comfortable. A strange sense of peace and security crept over him; he stopped threshing his arms and settled down to the awful death of the frost.

The time to wake up is when the first feeling of cold steals over one. You know what you do then. You urge the horses on faster; you stand urg ethe horse on faster; you stand up at last and pound your arms about you, hurrying the life-blood which has been growing more and more sluggish to a quicker flow. In short, when you feel that you are in danger of freezing, you do something! But men somehow fail to do that when the frost of indifference towards matters of the soul begins to creep therein. Hear them: "I'm alright! Don't worry about me! I can take care of myself! Don't be worried about me!"

Let this sense of "all-rightness" have its way in the heart and soon there will be a death in your class—a man frozen to death because he would not obey the first great call of life and do something to keep out the cold. Are you sensible that you are losing a little of your interest in the members of the class? When the teacher earnestly urges you to a better life, and a truer, stronger, braver living, Do you think, "Well, he did give it to the fellows, today! Glad I'm not Bill! He must feel like ten cents."

Man alive, it is you who are freezing to death! Get out and do something before it is too late! Thresh 'round! Do a little something today that counts! Get closer to the Bible! Begin to ask blessing at the table. Tell your wife she's the dearest little woman in the world! Lay a little bit of a bouquet by the side of her plate tonight when you go home! Meet her with a smile and a loving embrace! Stop complaining and finding fault with her—praise her more! Try this. Warm up to her heart—her affections—her life, if you expect a happy and contented household.

The only way to get warm after the chill of the devil's frost get's hold of you, and to keep warm afterwards is to work and work for your dear life. If there is anything we should be afraid of it is this num, dead, cold feeling at the heart. It is the sign that the fire of God's love is dying down on the hearth, and unless you awaken and fan the flickering spark quickly, there will be a vacant place in the kingdom, a place that "was" prepared for you! Don't let it be so! Warm up, men! While there is yet life. Warm up!

YOU'LL NEVER MISS THE WATER TILL THE WELL RUNS DRY

when these Negro workers appear in large numbers on the industrial field, they constitute a menace to organized labor and a blessing to organized capital. The capitalists' fear of organized labor demigishes in direct ratio to the number of unorganized skilled workers who appear on the field. The more Negroes become skilled workers, seeing the menace to their security by the invasion will hasten to make friends with this dangerous foe. even the sacred idea of white superiority is dsicarded when the stomach begins to embrace the spine. Hence a great cry to unionize the Negro arises, and the doors of labor organizations hitherto barred by Negrophobia and Economic Self-interest will fly open magically. Incidents to prove this contention are numerous in the labor movement here and abroad.

Hence, the salvation of the Negro lies in economic emancipation from the role of domestic worker and laborer ,to economically essential skilled workers—the key men of modern machine civilization. The opportunities are all about. A few dollars and a few hours a week are all that are required. Schools are begging for pupils. Some give tuition free. It behooves our young men and women to take advantage of these opportunities for their own benefit and for the benefit of the Negro race. The way to power lies through polytechnics, the way to poverty through pool.

WELCOME! YE BAPTIST HOST

The long locked for Baptist Convention is knocking at your door. It is here. The big tent at Compton and 21st. St. with a capacity for 7000 persons, is up, the seats are being arranged and on Wednesday at 10:00 A. M. or there abouts the President of the National Convention Dr. L. K. Williams will call the big gathering to order.

Speaking of the president of the Convention, he is truly a remarkable man and one who has made history, not only for his race, but for the country as well. He stands way out in front as an outstanding figure in the religous world. He is the pastor of the great Mt. Olivet church of Chicago, said to have the largest membership of any church in the world. The communicants number ten thousand persons.

Aside from the distinguished head of this great body, other great giants loom up in the offing. They will all be here, the Soaring Eagle will give to its readers day by day the great men of the body and their activities, as well as the proceedings of the same.

The various Committees are now, busy as bees getting everything in order, and doubtless will render excellent account for the reputation of Los Angeles.

Dr. Jordan is also on the ground from his New York office and rendering great service in assisting the various Committees in their work of preparation.

Prof. Hynes is leaving nothing undone in order to have thing in ship shape and his coming has been a God-send to the success of getting things in order.

Tent is All Right

When it was decided to pitch the big tent for the Convention there were many murmurs of disapproval. But according to the prediction of this paper some weeks ago, the tent is absolutely all right. As a matter of fact the tent right now proves to be the very best place in which this mammoth meeting could be housed. It is large in proportion and can seat five thousand and eight hundred and with standing room will accommodate 2,000 more. There will be no ventilation problem and all sanitary precautions in line with the proportions of the great crowd which is expected to be on hand.

Pre-Convention

Tuesday night will be the Pre-Convention night: this is the only night ed and this is only permissible for ed and this in only permissible for the benefit of the local Committee.

Open Homes

The citizenry in general is responding most nobly to the call of the Committee, in opening up their homes, more places, however, are needed and the Committee will be glad to have you place a few of the delegates, Rev. W. R. Hutchinson is the Chairman of this Committee, or leave your name with any Baptist minister or at this office.

All Pull Together

Of course in a gathering of this kind we always have those who are clamoring more for spot light honors than anything else and they strive hard to get up in front and at the same time in their hearts they are not for the thing at all. However, we are not going to quarrel with this element at this period, but by and by, when the thing is over, watch our smoke.

Everything Will Work Out

With Prof. Hynes, Dr. Jordan and others on the scene, things are sure to shape up. These men have had vast experience in holding big Conventions and their advice at this point is valuable indeed. An Oken for some reason the Committee failed to use the old war horse, Dr. H. D. Prowd, who has had the actual experience of entertaining this same Convention in Ohio. Versatile indeed, is the hustling and highly developed pastor of Bethel Baptist Church; and that he is not on some of the leading Committees is an enigma to us. But, however, with the coming of this great big Convention we are hopeful that the people will see things in a bigger way and forever eschew the small, narrow and little things which stand in the way of real progress.

Eagle Will Post Convention

Through arrangements and requests of Dr. L. K. Williams and Secretary Hudson of the National Baptist Convention The Soaring Eagle will be published daily during the time of the Convention.

Eagle Headquarters

The Eagle offices will be open at all times to the visitors who will be made welcome at our sanctum, we will be moved into our new quarters, 832 Central Ave., right across the street from our present quarters. The Eagle gives to the National Baptist Convention the very biggest welcome we know how. For this week to come we are in fact and in deed, truly yours.

FRENCH NEGROES DEFY SHOWING OF CLANSMAN

Paris Aug. 19,— The Birth of a Nation, " which opened for the first time in Paris Friday and showed to crowded houses Friday night and Saturday was closed today by the police.

D. W. Griffith's masterpiece caused the fervid objections of the French Negroes, who number 60 per cent of the population of the French Empire, with representation in the central and governments. As the foreign Affairs ministry explains this measure like others taken in the last three months is meant to give the French Negroes full conciousness that they are equals of their fellow citizens of the white race in the eyes of the French government.

The order to close the film came from the Ministry of the Interior, presumably on the direction of Premier Poincare, although the Premier's name does not appear in the affair. The department of Interior declared the film is unfair and prejudicial to the black race and is likely to create grave discontent among the French Negroes.

BULLET-RIDDLED BODY NOT THAT OF WINDOW PEEPER

Jacksonville, Fla., Aug. 25. —Another Negro is dead at the hands of a Florida mob. His name was Ben Hart and officers, after finding his bullet-riddled body in a ditch, near here, declared today there is no doubt that he is innocent of the charge that the mob held against him—peeping through a window at a white girl.

Six Autos of Whites

Hart's body was found by neighbors on the King's road near here last night after they were awakened by a fusillade of shots. They say they saw six automobiles, loaded with white men drive away from the spot where the body was found, according to authorities.

The automobiles, with the mob, drove up to the quarters of Negro log cutters near the scene of the shooting, according to witnesses and ordered them all to "line up" and come out. After doing this one of the white men selected Hart. He was carried a short distance and his body riddled with bullets.

The sheriff today said Hart's employer, a white man, declared the fellow was innocent. He was at quarters shortly after the time when someone is alleged to have "peeped" through the girl's window. The girl lives several miles from the log cutter's camp.

THE CRIMINAL CONDITIONS

Neval H. Thomas has written The Washington Post the result of his studies in Raymond Fosdick's two-volume work on European and American police systems. The revelations are astounding in view of our declared purpose of entering other countries for the sake of maintaining law and order.

Mr. Thomas states, "One only needs to read this scholarly work to become alarmed at the state of the nation. In normal times our crime rate is from seven to ten times greater than that of any other civilized land, a city like Chicago having more homicides in one year than all Great Britain, New York with more burglaries than England and Wales combined and Los Angeles committing more murders than London with twenty times the population of our western city near Hollywood. And since the Great War why should an American city, far less afflicted with its horrors than France, exceed in increase of crime rate the beleaguered city of Paris in the very heart of that organized murder for over five years?

"Newness of country where individualism has not learned to subordinate itself to social obligations cannot explain it," he continues, "for newer countries have no such alarming criminal tendencies; nor can 'heterogeneity' of population as opposed to the greater 'homogeneity' of European peoples, which latter 'tends to develop traditions of order and standards of public conduct,' account for this blot upon our history, for the South, the birthland of Lynching, is more homogeneous than the North far less guilty of this crime against civilization itself.

"It is the mob spirit that we allow to go unchecked that is responsible. Knowing the weakness of the police power of the state and the prevailing prejudice behind it, mobs organize without fear. How little do we learn by experience! How hard, even impossible, it is for us to know that lawlessness knows no law; that the monster of mob violence which we create to destroy some despised victim will soon turn, like some hideous Frankenstein, to devour its creator. Lynching was instituted to punish one race, one sex, one crime; but, leaping beyond the control of its creators, it punishes fifty crimes, and no crime, both sexes in all sections, and nearly everyone of the many races that go to make up our composite population has furnished its victims. From self-interest, if we cannot rise to humane feeling and respect for law, every individual should war upon the destructive mob spirit, for in human relations no man is safe until every other man is safe."

DR. FAIRS IS VINDICATED AT TRIAL

On Tuesday of this week, the plot to injure the reputation of Dr. H. H. Fairs, prominent chiropodist and social leader, met a stinging defeat in the court room of Police Judge James H. Pope, when Dr. Fairs was vindicated in a trial participated in by a large number of people prominent in the apartment-house-life of Hollywood and in which trial he was defended by Attorney Willis O. Tyler.

The complaining witness was Milton Levy, a young mining engineer and he was supported in his part of the prosecution by Mr. and Mrs. Hasleton of 4601 Sunset Blvd. The complaint charged that Edith LaBie, E. R. Estes and Dr. Fairs had threatened Milton Levy with exposure unless he paid off to the tune of about $10,000.00 for committing rape on Edith.

After Attorney Tyler had succeeded in getting the cover off the carefully concocted story, which had caused the circulation of damaging rumors against Dr. Fairs, it was shown that Dr. Fairs had no participation in the matter whatever other than to advise all parties concerned to settle their differences without any unnecessary publicity or trouble.

The large crowd in the court room was inclined to applaud the decision of Judge Pope discharging and exonerating the defendants and Attorney Tyler said immediately after the trial that a red-hot damage suit against Milton Levy for the false accusations he made against Dr. Fairs will be filed as soon as the same can be prepared and same will be vigorously prosecuted.

SAN DIEGO PIONEER TO HAVE MONUMENT

WILL DEDICATE MONUMENT TO UNCLE NATE.

PALOMAR MOUNTAIN, Aug. 25. —Although removed hence by the grim reaper, after a residence of more than 50 years on its timbered slopes, the memory of Nathan Harrison, known as "uncle Nate," colored, but who frequently referred to himself as "the first white settler on the Palamor mountain" will be perpetuted by the erection of a monument in the shape of a public drinking fountain on the west grade of the mountain, near the cabin in which he spent half of his life, the dedication of the monument being one of the units of entertainment provided for the newspapermen and women of San Diego and Los Angeles to Polamar to-morrow.

Neatly inscribed on a copper plate set in a rough stone of the fountain, are these words:

Nathan Harrison's Spring
Brought Here a Slave About 1848
Died October 10, 1920. Aged 101 Years.
"A Man's A Man For A'That."

The funds for the monument were raised by popular subscription, donated in small amounts, the project dating from the holding of a monster bon fire on the mountain top three years ago at which time an organization known as Uncle Nate's Memorial association was formed. T. O. Bailey of Palamor, is president, and J. H. Heath secretary of the Ramona chamber of Commerce, is the secretary. Its location is by the side of the highway, near the Harrison cabin. It was built by Stanley Davis, a son of E. H. Davis of the Powan lodge, Mesa Grande.

ASKS RETURN OF CAT-O'-NINE TAILS

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 28. Representative Bennett of Dodge County, who introduced a bill in the Georgia Legislature, providing for the re-establishment of whipping in the State penitentiaries, appeared before the Committee in behalf of the measure.

The treatment of Negro convicts in the prisons and convict camps had become so notorious that former Governor Hardwick ordered whipping discontinued. Representative Bennett is anxious to have whipping made lawful. "The convicts," urged the Representative, "are becoming sullen, stubborn and uncontrollable since whipping was outlawed in this State. All Negroes must be kept in constant fear of the lash and those who are confined as criminals, especially."

Mrs. Nellie Anderson of New Orleans is visiting in the city, a guest of the Palace Hotel.

California Chauffeur Club, at Arion Hall, Sept. 7th.

DON'T FORGET BERT WILLIAMS

Bert Williams always said that he believed in individual education and selective vocational training. He recognized the fact that what is suitable to one person is entirely wrong for another. It distresse dhim to know that so many race people with real talent for music, singing, dancing and the theatre, or medicine, law or the pulpit received so little ENCOURAGEMENT when they expressed a desire to develop these talents.

On every hand people are willing to engage the race man or woman to do manual labor, but as Mr. Williams said "It's a shame to spoil a good cook by making a dancer out of him for he will not be a pretty ordinary dancer, but on the other hand it is not fair to take a girl with a voice like an angel and make her work at washing dishes or indeed at anything else, except singing."

He aimed to endow an institution which would assist the artists to study, but he died without making that provision. A group of his friends have started a foundation in his name to carry out his idea.

All the foundation has received thus far is the wonderful book of his life. It contains his saga, stories, home life, early struggles, final triumphs, the story of his joining a white masonic lodge, his being entertained by the King and Queen of England etc. It is a lesson to anyone who wishes to learn the trick of succeeding in SPITE of things, through his own personality. The book is two dollars which goes to the foundation. It will be mailed on receipt of that price and the foundation 12 West 69th. St. at New York City will pay the postage.

"PUSSYFOOT" ADDRESS AFRICAN NEGROES.

Cape Town, Aug. 28. William E. ("Pussyfoot") Johnson concluded his tour of the wine?farmin gdistrict with great meetings at Cape Town. He addressed a crowded colored audience one night and was received with bands, banners and choirs. He emphasized the boon that prohibition had been to the colored race of America, encouraging as it had, thrift and regular working habits.

A colored speaker named Baron was enthusiastically applauded when he said that if the colored people had their way, they would have prohibition in South Africa tomorrow. One day they would push the Europeans into prohibition. At the final meeting Cape Town, the chairman stated that South Africa was ready for prohibition. The immediate object, however, was to put the plan of local option into operation. With a little pressure on members of Parliament, he expected this would be done.

Mr. Johnson said that he had never had a more orderly meeting in his life, and he now knew what a South African welcome meant.

DR. THOS. J. JONES DEFENDS COLORED PEOPLE

(Williamsontown, Mass., Aug. 28.— At a round-table discussion of interracial relationships in the Institute of Politics, now in session at Williams College, Prof. William D. McDougall, Democrat with Southern inclinations, submitted a paper on "Races as a Factor in World Politics." The paper attacked the colored people viciously, and tended to show that they are inferior and "are spreading their inferiority among the white people."

These conclusions were ably refuted by Dr. Thomas Jesse Jones, noted sociologist, who paid tribute to the inherent ability of the Negro, and insisted that as a basis for the solution of the problem there must arise an increased respect among white peoples for the possibilities of the development of the Negro.

Taking issue with Dr. Jones, Professor McDougall attempted to show that the Negro, wherever entrusted with governmental or economic responsibility to any significant extent failed to succeed, citing particularly the Negro State of Liberia, "and the apparent inability of Negroes to compete economically with other races."

Dr. Jones, however, who has made a first hand study of the situation in Liberia, declared that no nation had ever succeeded without outside help; but said there had been no such helpful contacts to any extent to Liberia, asserting that it was inopportune to form judgments on the basis of inadequate facts. Dr. Jones entered it as his conviction, from his own study of the experiment in Liberia, that the project will succeed.

WHO MADE THE DEVIL?

SERMON DELIVERED BY REV. P. G. RODGERS

NOTED SEVENTH DAY ADVENTIST EVANGELIST HOLDS STIRRING MEETINGS AT BIG TENT— 23RD AND CENTRAL

"For more than six thousand years Satan has been molesting the the earth. In the first chapter of Job, verses six to eight we find that Satan went with the sons of God to present themselves before the Lord. Evidently Satan had the right to go to heaven and to come back to this earth. When asked where did he come from, he said, 'From walking to and fro in the earth.' I want you to see from this text in the book of Job that he had or assumed the right to go back to heaven.

"To Adam was given the designation 'Son of God,' because he was the first one created, but he sold out his right to the Devil, and throughout the Bible Satan is called the prince and God of this world. Just think, Satan represented this world, and Satan claims this world as his domain!

"I read," continued Elder Rogers, "in the book of Genesis the first chapter and the thirty-third verse that after the creation of this world God looked over it and said that it was very good; sin had not taken a foothold here, everything was beautiful and there was no sin.

"Rev. 22:16 says that Christ is the bright and morning star, the Son of God in glory was a morning star. Isa. 14:12, 13 says that Lucifer was the day star in the courts of light above, Satan was equal to the Son of God, in heaven the day star and the morning star sang together.

"Messiah stood by the Lord in the creation of this earth. In Eze. 28:14 we learn that Satan was the anointed cherub that covereth; so therefore he stood by the Father, he was equal with the son of God. God could not have done more for the Devil.

"Satan had charge of the great choir of glory, he was dressed in the beauty and glory of heaven, he sang when the worlds were made, his voice rang out as a mighty chorister and swelled the earth with music, he was not only the wisest and the most accomplished but the most beautiful.

The Devil's Horns

"This old story about the Devil going around with horns and tail is all "bunk," he was clothed in beauty as well as wealth.

"Satan got pride in his heart and pride in any man's heart means his downfall. Satan's head was turned and he wanted to sit on the throne and be God.

Inventor of Looking Glass—?

"Satan got to promenading up and down in front of the sea of glass, and I sometimes wonder if Satan didn't invent the looking glass because we often promenade up and down in front of the looking glass and thus get pride into our hearts.

"The great dragon was cast out into this earth from heaven and his angels were cast out with him—Rev. 12: 7-9. He has been going about in this world for about 6000 years. Don't you think that he needs a vacation after all that work? Well, he is going to have a vacation but he does not want one.

50,000,000 Angels of Devil on Earth.

"One-third of the angeles rebelled with the Devil. There are at least 101,000,000 angels according to the scriptures and with 50,000,000 angels of the Devil here on this earth is there any wonder that we have evil here?

"When Satan accomplished the death of the Son of God the angels rose up and said, 'Now is come salvation and strength and the kingdom of our God and the power of his Christ for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before God day and night. They overcame the Devil by the same method that we must overcome him.

"In the vision of John the Devil is seen to marshall his host around the city of God, but he can't get through. The Devil can't go through because he does not belong to any of the tribes of Israel, and while he stirs up hatred in the world, fire comes down out of heaven and devours him. Does that not bring joy to your hearts? It does to mine!

"Let us, therefore, be on the Lord's side and not on the side of the Devil."

IN THE MUSIC WORLD

By: JOHN GRAY

In a recent issue of the Etude, which magazine by the way should be read by all musicians and music-lovers, we have clipped the following article. The thought contained therein is worth the consideration of musical world and might be the means of starting some inventive brain to working. We are passing it on.

This article is by Marguerite Geibel and is headed "A plea for the Can't-Players:"

"A recent number of a college paper contained an article decrying the fact that there were no piano players to be had. This, in a college of 3000 students! It is a standing joke at this college, that the fraternities are endeavoring to pledge men who might prove useful at the piano, most of them not succeeding in obtaining one.

"A number of the more obvious reasons are suggested in connection with this dearth of musical men. 'Jazz instruments, player-pianos, victrolas, and a growing disinclination among the youth of the country to practice,' are given as the probable contributing causes of the shortage.

Right! The last named exists because of the first three. There are too many short cuts to make it appear worth while to spend yearh practicing on the piano, so that at the end of the time, a person may be able to play.

"Since most people really do enjoy playing the piano, or trying to, there must be something wrong with the present method of teaching, and reading music. Doesn't it seem only fair to blame something beside the individual, for a change? Especially when there are so many million for him? Or are the people all wrong, and the system all right?

Regardless of who (or which) is to blame, the difficulty is going to result in the extinction of the species known as "piano," if something isn't done about it soon. And with all the musical men we have, teachers, professionals, and technical men, it is ridiculous that something hasn't been worked out. Unfortunately the ones who could do it, are the ones who do not see the necessity.

"Since a great many very intelligent people fail to negotiate the intricate co-ordination requisite for an accurate rendering of the written sheet of music, some simplification of the method must be in order. The difficulty—impossibility in some cases—of memorizing music strengthens the cast for a new system.

"Can anyone give a sound reason why the notes on the page, the lines and spaces, should not bear some faint resemblance to the monotonous line of keys, like every other white key, and every black key doing the same by its fellow negroes? Why not have five lines on the keys, each key bearing its own note, properly situated? Or is there a Federal law against labeling a piano key so that one may recognize it without undue deliberation? For the few middle notes that are used in both treble and bass, it would be a simple matter to have both 'versions' appear, as the key is several times as deep as the staff.

"The first step in learning to play to discover the relation between the printed note and the piano key. By simplifying this, which is by all odds the most difficult to achieve, more time and attention could be given to tempo, expression, and other details. Undoubtedly, this suggestion can be enlarged and improved upon.

"More music, more players, more pianos, and more power to all three!!!"

LURE OF THE OPEN ROAD

I love the mountains. They are symbolic of trength. Their peaks and outlines rugged, jagged, their gentle slopes, and winding hot trails fascinate me. The solititude and loneliness acquaints me more intimately with myself. And I realize how small I am, and the silence seems strange.

Water trails, masses of rock and and granite caves, gorges, canyons, great deceiving distances and mountain vegetation are awe inspiring. When one views distant slopes of different shades of blue and purple, and then looks above at the hanging clouds, he marvels at the beauties of nature.

Here at the feet of the wayfarer, are paticles of rock fallen from the age-old sides and summits, there to the right and left are natural beauty, dried and parched weeds and clay, and straight ahead is the winding endless trail, and the lure of the open road far above the level of the restless sea.

One is closer to the Heavens and feels a sense of littleness when hiking and camping above the clouds; when he notes the peaks pointing to God. But the traveller must not tarry too long in these heights lost in his lofty thoughts. He must journey on—trudge on. It is between dawn and sunset and the road lies before him.

The sight of a stream after miles of hiking is most satisfying. Cool, mountain-water refreshens and invigorating and is strength giving.

Then at the journey's end, comes rest and peace and freedom. Over in the west, the sun lingers just above the fartherest peak just over the last valley and illumes the sky. There is a softness and harmony in the tints that no artist can paint in minute detail and exact shading, for who can duplicate the work of God? He is the supreme artist, working through and with men, His instruments.

Even the sun must not hang over the distant slopes too long. The night approaches, sending the shadows and mists, advance guards, before her, so the slipping sun fades slowly, reluctantly into the beyond.

YE MIRTH COLUMN

By William Narcisse

Of all the dumbest guys, is the guy who forgets his watch, and reaches in his pocket for his watch to see if he has time to go home for it.

We were seated in the Hammock,
One balmy night in June,

Neath the magic of the Moon,
I had asked one little question,
And my heart was filled with hope,
But the answer never reached me,
For the brother cut the rope.

THE BLUE SKY

By: WILLIAM RUX, JR.

The cause of the deep blue which is ever present in the sky in varying intensities, has often been the subject of great discussion. It is seldom that the true cause is discovered, not because of its elusiveness, but rather because of its simplicity. The reflected sunlight on dust particles is the true cause for this phenomenon.

Experimental proof of this statement (reads like a scientific romance) is one of the romances of the progress of science. Everyone has observed the dust particles in a beam of light, shining in a darknened room. It does not require any proof to state that dust is everywhere present, everyone will accede to that, but it has been proven that if this dust were not present, no light would appear, as in a beam of sunlight shining in a darkened room.

If this tube were arranged so that nary air of a room, is held so that the rays of light from an electric light or other source of light passed through it the light rays would be reflected by every dust particle in the tube, and the tube would appear brilliantly lighted. But if all the air were exhausted from the tube, the dust being removed at the same time, and the tube held up again to the light source there wild be seen no shaft of light in the tube. The tube would appear coldly black, because of the absence of all reflecting matter.

If this tube were arrange dso that air could be let in slowly and if a red hot platinum gauze of fine mesh were arranged over the inlet so as to burn all dust particles, the tube could be filled with dustless air, and still there would be no light rays reflected in the tube. Now if air were allowed to enter more rapidly, a few dust particles could escape being burned and those few being in the tube, there would appear a blueish color in the tube If more and more dust particles were allowed to enter, this blue color would appear to get paler until finally the blue would become bright, and we would have the original bright light, of the dust filled air.

This experiment gives us the conditions under which the blue of the sky, and also the gorgeous array of color of the sunrise and sunset, are obtained. The light rays from the sun are made up of a great many colors: These colors appear according as there are a large or small number of reflecting particles in the air. The fewer particles there are the bluer the reflected light, and then as the number of particles increase, the reflected light changes from deep blue to pale blue, and finally we have the gorgeous pinks and reds of the sunset.

Directly overhead we have the condition of very few dust particles, and the sky is blue, on the horizon, we have the condition of a great many, because we look through a great quantity of air, which is closer the earth and thus full of dust, and the reflected light is pale blue, nearly white. When the sun is below the horizon, the light rays pass through a still larger quantity of dust, and the gorgeous sunrises and sunsets obtain.

Out on the Pacific the sky appears wonderfully blue. Italy is noted for her blue skies. This is due to the fact that there is little land present, there is less dust in the air than in other places, and the reflected light from the sun is blue.

Several years ago a volcanic eruption in New Zealand caused large quantities of dust to be discharged into the air. For a long time all over the world the wonderful sunsets caused a great deal of interest. The air was filled with a greater quantity of dust than ordinarily and these sunsets of particular splendor were noted.

Just as the sky is made blue or otherwise by dust particles i nit so it is that the sea is blue because of the small bits of matter suspended in it. The deeper the ocean, the fewer the number of particles in a given quantity of water, and the bluer it is. So dust, the bane of the housewife, is the cause of one of nature's outstanding beauties.

BASEBALL

Those who are anxiousl yawaiting the return of race baseball into the popularity that it should enjoy will be gratified to learn that the Los Angeles White Sox are fast returning to form. Our old friend, Mr. Jasper promises to give the fans of Los Angeles an organization to represent the race, in the great national pastime, that will be second to none in the Semi-Pro field. And furthermore, to do it with local talen of which there is an abundance awaiting development.

Mr. Jasper says: "We have local boys who possess all the requisites of A-1 ball players and I am going to build up a ball club of which we can all be proud and I will not import a single Eastern player to do it either, and will guarantee to give any club in the winter league a very torrid time."

Last Sunday's game was much better than the seeming one'sided score would indicate. It was not that the Sox did not hit Russell as much as the fact that the Pasadena Eagles played a brand of air-tight ball that would have stopped any major league club and the breaks all went against the White Sox, but that is what makes baseball our national sport. When the boys get to going good I will have some red-hot baseball stories to tell you. Watch this paper for the accounts of the game.

An outstanding event of two weeks past was the piano recital given by pupils of Hazel Gottschalk, at the First A. M. E. Zion Church, assisted by vocal pupils of Edna Heard, and Mrs. W. E. Shaw dramatic reader.

Each pupil played with poise and musical understanding, which demonstrated to the large audience, the training being them given by their teacher. Miss Heard's pupils' work, too, was truly a credit to her. The song number featuring Marjorie Wood and Juanita Williams was enthusiastically received, as were the two delightful numbers given by Mrs. Shaw.

The following pupils rendered piano numbers Luana Martines, Ethel Anderson, Laura Smith, Lorraine Smith, Marguerite Randles, Laurreta Randles, Velma Harrell, Jessie Veil, Louise Westheimer, Rosetta Barton, Ruby Shaw, John Shaw, Norma Reed, Etta Phillips, Alice Wilson, Ernestine Wilson, Vroman Wilson, Anna Durham and Alice Pettus. Vocal pupils to appear were: James Wallace, Hazel Stewart, Mayme Lewis, Mrs. E. Boush and Gilbert McCarroll.

Too, a vocal number by Miss Heard, and a piano number by Miss Gottschalk was well rendered and well received.

Ushers who assisted were Cornelia Leggett, Manila Owens, Gertrude Worthington, Ethel Gray, Blanche Fields, Louise Gibson and Ruth Sykes

Miss Gottschalk is herself a genuine student of music and a splendid young woman, on the whole a credit to the community in which she lives.

MALE HELP WANTED: Colored

men wanted to qualify for sleeping car and train porters. Experience unnecessary. Transportation furnished. Write T. McCaffrey, Supt., St. Louis, Mo.

Mrs. Samuel Thompson and daughter, Anita of West 23rd St., left the city this week for an extended visit through the Eastern cities. They will stop at Kansas City, Chicago and New York City.

Mrs. George D. Fareira of 966 East Pico St. was hostess at a matinee party at Grauman's Million Dollar Theater, Wednesday afternoon, given in honor of her aunt, Mrs. J. A. Greene, of the Texas State College, Prairie View, Texas, a visitor in this city. Other guests of the party were: Mrs. H. B. Grimes, Houston, Texas and Miss E. Murphey, principal of the public school of Wilcon, Texas.

Prof. Charles Alexander, for some years an editor and resident of Boston and of recent years publisher of the Citizens Advocate this city, is reported ill at the Los Angeles General Hospital.

Mrs. Malcolm H. Patton of 1106 E. Pico St., informs her many Los Angeles friends of her safe arrival in Chicago. Mrs. Patton left Los Angeles Sunday, August 19th and reports a most enjoyable trip which included a stop over in Denver and many other points of interest.

Mrs. Patton is not at all a stranger in a strange place. Quite the contrary, she claims Chicago as her native "home" and was no doubt welcomed by warm friends of many years Standing. She has the distinction of having been the first manager of Provident Hospital, a nationally famous institution in whose service Mrs. Patton—then Alice Harvey—spent five years. She held the office of Secretary to the prominent Ida B. Wells Club for a period of four years and served as organist for the Grace Presbyterian Church of which she was one of the founders. Other achievements were accredited to Mrs. Patton in civic, social, and religious fields, that has stamped her upon the memory of old residents of Chicago. But one of the principal factors that will distinguish her is the fact that she is the granddaughter of Maria Harvey, first colored flat-owner in Chicago, possessing the Harvey flats for over 30 years.

Mrs. Patton contemplates a stay of about two months in Chicago during which time she will visit New York and other Eastern cities.

NEWS OF CALIFORNIA STATE

MONROVIA NEWS

A woman's community club was organized here last week, with Mrs. G. W. Reed as president and Mrs. J. B. Sullivan, vice-president, Mrs. L. M. Cherry, Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. T. S. Botts, Recording Secretary and Mrs. Mattie Jones, Treasurer. The club is composed of a fine set of women. They are noted for intelligence and energy to do things worth while.

Miss Anna Jones of this city was one of the participants on the educational day program of the First A. M. E. Church of Los Angeles last Sunday. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Mattie Jones.

The South west Rocky Mountain Conference of the A. M. E. Zion connection, will be held in the Shiloh A. M. E. Church of this city, of which the Rev. Dr. Reed is pastor on August 12th.

Mrs. L. M. Cherry and Mr. David Graham of Cypress St., are very ill. We hope for each of them a speedy recovery.

Mr. David Ross who spent his vacation at Elsinore has returned home. He reports a pleasant stay at the popular colored resort.

The Second Baptist Church held two splendid meetings, last Sunday the pastor preached both morning and evening. A report of the delegates from the Western Baptist Association was made. Mrs. Botts made the report for the delegation, it was indeed a very creditable one.

The Choir of the Zion Methodist Church which has been on a vacation for the last four week has resumed its activities. Mrs. J. B. Sullivan is now the organist. Mrs. Sullivan has the credit of being one of the best musicians in this section of the country. It is felt that with the assistance of Mrs. Sullivan this choir will excell itself this year.

The Zion Methodist Church is now running religious motion pictures each Sunday night. It begun last Sunday night with the picture "Creation" and Burton Holmes, travelogue, "Seeing London." A splendid audience was present to see the pictures. At the close of this most wonderful spectacle, the pastor preached a sermon on "God the Creator." Cain and Abel will be shown next Sunday night.

REDLANDS

Mr. Hillman of San Bernardino and Miss Donewa Harts of Pasadena, now living in San Bernardino for a while, motored over Sunday and attended services at the Second Baptist Church.

The sad news came to us of the death of Mr. J. W. Smith of Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Smith were former residents of Redlands, having lived at 504 E. Stuart Ave., for several years.

Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Dixon of San Bernardino were visitors in the city last Thursday evening.

Rev. Chas. B. Dones and Mrs. Jesse Taylor who were delegates to the Western Baptist Association last week came back with glowing reports of the work and declared it was the grandest session ever held of the Association.

Sunday services in Second Baptist Church were up to the standard, the pastor filling the pulpit at both services. The church is getting ready for a reorganization in all departments as it is the beginning of the new Associational year.

PASADENA

REV. W. H. TILMAN

W. H. Tilman may be easily grouped with the leading preachers of the Negro race. He is never excited in the pulpit; is scholarly, eloquent and logical. He burns much mid-night oil. He is generaly known as the Dean of the Pacific Coast Baptists.

He cares nothing for flourishes, honors or high-sounding titles. A preacher of fifty-five years' experience and still a young man—just sixty-three, being the son of Dr. W. H. Tilman of Georgia. He is now employed to write the history of the Baptists of Southern California, not being willing to accept of any office in the gift of the brethren. His motto is, "Let the others do the work." He is especially fond of young people and is beloved by all. As a Baptist he must be classed with the fundamentalists. He has no patience with cults.

THE FRIENDSHIP BAPTIST CHURCH EXTENDS HEARTY WELCOME TO NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION

We welcome you to the Pacific Coast to partake of our hospitalities. We recognize and accept you as brethren. We have associated with you in former days in other parts of the country, our interests have always been identical.

We are proud of your coming that we might prove to you that though separated by barren plains, lofty mountains and sluggish rivers we are one in aim and purpose. Again we welcome you that you might have this opportunity of surveying and inspecting our crude work in its embrayotic state.

We have not the palacial church edifices as you have in the East, but such as we have, to them we welcome you.

We have arranged for all modern edifices in our New Church Program. When you come again we will surprise you; or when we meet in Heaven where all good Baptists wil iconvene ultimately we will inform you of our accomplishments in California. The pastor of Friendship welcomes his pastor, Dr. P. J. Bryant of Atlanta, Georgia and extends to him the courtesies of his pulpit.

PERSONALS

Rev. F. W. Cooper of Riverside, filled the pulpit of Friendship Baptist Church, Sunday morning, August 19th preaching to an enthusiastic congregation. Rev. Cooper was here attending the Western Baptist Association, convening at Metropolitan Baptist Church to which a large delegation was present. He is a great gospel expositor, full of Biblical knowledge and a forceful speaker. His presence was greatly appreciated.

Rev. A. J. Stokes, Treasurer of the National Baptist Convention and the only remaining of the original organizer of that body, spoke Wednesday evening at Friendship to a capacity audience. Rev. Stokes has traveled considerably abroad, including in his itinerary the Holy Land, upon which subject he is fully capable to enlighten his hearers. He is here presaging the National Baptist Convention which meets in Los Angeles the first week in September to which many delegates are expected to attend.

Clarence Mills, editor of the Informer is expected home on the 5th of September having been away about three months in and around New York, Philadelphia, Atlantic City and other Eastern summer resorts. We especially welcome him that he may get in the harness again having had an extended vacation from the Informer responsibilities.

Mrs. Emma Gaines, Miss Mattie Bradshaw and Mrs. S. Higgins, all of Topeka, Kansas, were visitors at Friendship, Wednesday night to hear Dr. Stokes. They are members and enthusiastic workers of Shiloh Baptist Church and are among the early settlers of Topeka. Miss Bradshaw is a teacher in the public schools at Topeka. They are here to attend the National Baptist Convention.

MRS. EVA O. SOLOMON
Directress of Religious Education

The Western Baptist Association employed Mrs. Solomon last year at a salary of $800 per annum—She has proven an invaluable asset to our work. Our young people's work has become more interesting, and our churches have manifested increased interest in them.

The work in the churches in which she has labored has been thoroughly and systematically organized and thereby we have been able to inaugurate a splendid program in nearly every one of our churches. We are expecting great things to be accomplished this year.

She has caused new doors to be opened for the Baptists in Southern California, having visited the white churches and their summer camp-meetings for their young folk and is much in demand.

The Baptists feel proud of her and have employed her for the present year at an increased salary, paying her $1200 per year. She is beloved and respected by every preacher in the Association; thoroughly prepared for the work. She has taken years of intensive study under her pastor, W. H. Tilman.

She has the highest regard for the ministry and to that fact we attribute very largely to her success.

TABERNACLE BAPTIST CHURCH

12th And Hemlock Sts.

Rev. J. D. Gordon Pastor

Sunday school was well attended with sister Addie Regular presiding. This is a lovely Christian woman, we ask for your hearty co-operation. Mrs. Lee Fields was present one of the old members of Tabernacle S. S. from the east called and praised her old home church and made some pleasing remarks. Also Mrs. S. B. Strickland from Pasadena was present and expressed her kindly feeling for Tabernacle, how she had been blessed in this church. Morning service, Rev. F. H. Davis read the scripture. Rev. J. D. Gordon preached from Psalms 27—4; "One thing have I desired of the Lord, and that will I seek after that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life." This was a wonderful message. All who know God realize that this is a man of God called to preach and teach the Gospel. Bro. Ryan joined the church. B. Y. P. U. called at 6:45 p. m. with president sister B. M. Settles presiding. Lessons taught by teachers of each group. Several visitors were present. Sister A. Noles chairman of program committee presented the Union with three numbers; Reading, Mr. Gordon Hankins, solo Mrs. Leslie Robinson; Reading Sister Ryder, after which the president presented Prof. Hynes, who spoke very encouragingly to the Union. Responses were made by Rev. F. H. Davis. Miss F. Hayes and Mr. G. Hawkins represented the Tabernacle B. Y. P. U. at the Federated Union at Pleasant Hill church on Sunday. Rev. J. D. Gordon preached a sermon on "Hell". This divine made it plain to all that the word of God was true and there was no excuse. We invite every one to come out and hear this man of God. Bible study one hour each night, 7 to 8 p. m.

THE WAYFARER

Rivaling in magnificance of costume and scale of any spectacle ever offered in this country, "The Wayfarer," America's passion pageant, will be presented in Los Angeles at the Coliseum at Exposition Park from Sept. 8 to 15.

Seven thousand people will appear in the cast for the production and a huge stage ninety feet in height and 150 feet in width will be built for the pageant's presentation. It is a non-money making event, and should there be any profits they will go to the University of Southern California. No one will be paid; not even the leading actors.

There will be four thousand voices in the great chorus, while a band of 100 of the finest musicians will render the beautiful music. Already the great chorus is rehearsing the direction of Montgomery Lynch, who will stage the production. So wide is the appeal of "The Wayfarer" that a number of residents of this city are regularly attending rehearsals in Los Angeles.

Dr. J. E. Crowther of Philadelphia, author of the passion pageant, has arrived in Los A ngeles to lend his assistance to the production. "The Wayfarer," absolutely non-sectarian, opens with a prologue depicting "The Wayfarer' witnessing the World War and marveling at the slaughter. Wisdom, in the form of a beautiful woman, appears and leads "The Wayfarer through a series of five episodes, beginning with the Babylonian captivity and ending with Christ's ressurrection. The grand finale in the form of a march of nations with 700 performers indicates that moral victory is, after all, the real aftermath of seeming defeat.

"The Wayfarer has been presented in New York, Columbus, Ohio, and Seattle, but never on such a scale as this. Merle Armitage, well-known impressario, is business manager, and Edgar L. Webster, general manager.

THE AMERICAN WOODMEN HOLD ANNUAL NSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

Over three hundred members and friends of the American Woodmen participated in the annual installation of officers of the Los Angeles camp No. 1 held last Wednesday night at the Assembly hall, corner of Adams and Central avenue, the meeting place of the Los Angeles camps. The meeting was opened by the singing of America after which Prof. H. B. Graham, the State Supervisor of the order in California very interestingly told of the organization of the first camp in Los Angeles last September and gave unstinted praise to those who had assisted in building up a membership of nearly six hundred members in eleven months.

The vocal solo rendered by Mrs. Bertha M. Spruill was vigorously applauded and she was forced to respond to an encore.

Before the Installation, the Supervisor presented the guests who were visitors from other cities and states. Twenty two visitors were introduced among whom were included Misses Ruth and Matilda Graham ,teachers of Paris, Texas and sisters of the Supervisor.

The following officers were installed by Mr. Graham, assisted by Deputy H. K. Watkins: M. F. Mitchel, Commander; Mrs. Pearl R e, Vice-Com.; Dr. B. L. Boswell, Banker; J. E. Rector, Clerk; Mrs. C. V. Johnson, Recorder; Elijah Cooper, Auditor; Emory V. Crain, Escort; A. N. Ward, Watchman; James Hines, Sentry; J. Mitchell Smith, Prelate; Mrs. S. J. Aryed, W. G. and Mrs. C. J. Smith, Chm. Green Cross Nurse Corps.

Music for the Installation services was furnished by Mrs. Viola H. Brandon at the piano.

It's a long lane that has no turn; so they say, and for that reason the high brows continue to freeze out the low brows.

WELCOME BAPTISTS OF THE WORLD.

The California Eagle desires to extend to the Baptist hosts within our gates a most sincere and hearty welcome. We have worked the best we could to make a healthy sentiment and prepare the way for your coming and we are satisfied that the people are in unison with us when we speak in words of welcome to this large religious organization of our group in the world. We are aware of the fact that your meeting brings to our midst some of the greatest minds of the nation and that ours for the next few days is to be a feast of reason unexcelled, reinforced by master minds who have made vast contributions to the progress of our Race. For these and many other reasons we bid the Baptist National Convention, Inc., a most hearty, sincere an droyal welcome.

QUESTION IN ECONOMICS.

The jurors in regard to the boxing arena out at 32nd and Long Beach avenue, contrary to the casual thought, is far-reaching. It has its conception not from prejudice but it is the question of the almighty dollar. The dollar in this instance is or was about to get out of the circle and hustle for itself Hollywood promoters and other promoters got busy and if it ruins or kills somebody, that dollar has got to keep in a certain circle. Just so long as a boxing club run down there, and it just eked out an existence, everythin gwas fine and dandy, no rules were violated and the arena was all right, but the people; we mean the common, average every day persons are concerned, not as to who gives a boxing bout as they do as to whether or not, they are to get a run for their money. Under a new regime at Madison Square Garden, th epeople were actually getting a run for their coin and the place was sweeping everything before it, and this is where the fine Italian band of the promoters mentioned came onto the scene of action. The dollars must be kept in the circle. The display by the police the night Langford was to box four exhibition rounds wa sthe bunk, both insincere as well as disingenius. For be it know nprofessionals have appeared on the cards of these boxing bouts at will, and nothing has been said, but the Hollywood and other promoters, realizing the tension in police circles, had someone whisper professional, an dfor the first time in their lives Captain Adams and even his superiors discovered that a professional boxer was to box an exhibition bout and they actually bullied the situation in their mad rush to get the dollar back in the circle. So deep and insidious is this coterie of dollar chasers that in some unguarded moment we look for them to pull off most any proposition which will insure them to make an iron proof circle impervious to the rampages of the humble and common. Indeed, if the police (or we might say Captain Adams) had his way, it would be smooth sailing for the high brows, the aristocrats and the plutocrats as well.

For with the permit of Madison Square Garden's permit, this gentry would forever see to it that nobody ever would again get into the four round boxing game on a shoe string. They say it takes nerv eto ask the Commission to deny the common people a boxing club, but the economic pressure is a prolific business and it takes nerve to keep up the structure. We come forth with this dessertation because we want the people to know the inside of this unfair and unjust situation. It is the bunk pure and simple, and they are fooling nobody except themselves.

Even the Times comes up with a sad, sad story about a Negro arena, but its propaganda, the Times dances for Hollywood as all the others. Then they want to drag in Commissioner De Coo, who is one of the finest and squarest Commissioners who has ever served this payless and thankelss position; he gets about among the people; he knows what's going on; he stands for a square deal for all. And the reason that we have dwelt on this situation and the plan up in the City Council headed by Councilman Miles Gregory; the proposition is so plain that we want everybody to see and realize just how low our highest will stoop when it is a question of economics.

SPIRIT OF PROGRESS.

The advent of Chas. E. Pearl in the business activities of this section means much for the spirit of progress along the lines of business effort. His energetic promotion of a garage which is not only a credit but wort hwhile is an inspiration for those who are ambitious along an yline of business effort. For be it known that Mr. Pearl conducts certainly the largest garage operated by any member of our group in this country and is second to a very few conducted by any other group. It is not this fact alone that causes us to speak of him in this article, but it is his usefulness, devotion to help boost for al llines of business effort, to such an extent that he will roll up his sleeves and work just as hard to help the other fellow put over his business program as he would for himself. Therefore, truly he stands for progress along business lines. We would make special mehtion of his enterprise in promoting a real automobile show. Few of us appreciate what this means. Who ever heard of a member of this group promoting a nauto show before? We marvel at the enterprise and the vision of big things, and truly, with the coming of Mr. Pearl, with others, we have a real spirit of progress amongst us.

TRUST THE PEOPLE.

We have always subscribed to the quaint saying of Abraham Lincoln that "You can trust the people," and this is one of the bi greasons of our strong faith for the solution of all the problems confronting us. When we put over a program for real success, it is always the people who put it over. Take any community in which we live, we always have individuals who stand out as prosperous, and sometimes they ar ereally persons of more than ordinary means, but we are sorry to say that these same individuals are not the ones by any means who ever assist in accomplishing programs of progress affairs like this are always put over by the plain common, everqy day citizens, and the one who could if they would are not in on the programs of progress, except it be for their own individual selves. It is not often that we find men of the calibre of a leading physician of this city who unselfishly gives of his time and means to put over programs of real progress. It has ever been thus, and in the future as in the past, if we get real progress it must be gotten through co-operation of the people.

PROTEST FROM THE WESTERN BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.

And the Local Committee for the N. B. Convention.

Be it known to all persons by this article, that no one has been granted the right to put on any entertainment of any nature whatsoever in the city of Los AAngeles, or at any other place, for the National Baptist Convention. We have committees appointed to initiate and carry out our program, which has been carefully and prayerfully arranged.

All of our Conventional activities will be carried on under the "Big Tent," except the Women's Meeting, which will be held at the St. Paul Baptist church.

The dance, if it is a dance, or the promenade, whatever that term may imply, is not given by the Association, nor any of its subsidiary committees. We disavow having any interest in anything given by any person whatever, at the Exposition Park, or any other place in the city other than the "Big Tent," and the adjacent ground.

Individual members of Baptist churches may do unbecoming things on the side, but the Denomination is square. We never think of giving a dance and we never ask any person of any other denomination to do our work for us.

We take this method of notifying all the Baptists of California, and of the world, that we are not responsible for anything that takes place at the Exposition Park on Friday afternoon.

Some of the Baptists ministers are grafters and will do crooked things for money. Some are insubordinate and will encroach on other people's territory. Rev. Wade, our General Missionary, is at the head of our entertaining committee. He has given no one authority to use our name jn such a manner. We have to live here after the Convention adjourns.

W. H. TILMAN,
Chairman.

Thanking all for their hearty support, we give special mention to:—Prof. W. M. Reynolds who organized this group of singers; Prof. Bartlett who has spared no time together with his good choir in helping to make this what it should be.

Prof. Austin hails from the windy city of St. Louis, Mo. He has located studios throughout the U.S.A. He will probably return to his home town at the close of the National Baptist Convention. But will come here again.

MEAT A FOO DREADILY DIGESTED.

By. E. B. Lewis, B. Sc., M. D., 1618 1-2 East Ninth St.

Savants of various countries agree that meet is a food that can be most thoroughly digested. Beef, mutton, veal and pork are utilized to the extent of 98 per cent of its portein and fat. This means that this flesh food even at its highest cost as compared with other food is cheap, despite its price. No matter how it is prepared or how it is cooked, irrespective of its cut, meat is meat, and yields up all but about 2 per cent of itself to digestion.

The tenderness or the toughness of a piece of meat rests largely upon the nature of the tissue mixed in with the muscle and fat, and in a measure upon the character of the muscle fibres themselves. The walls of the muscle tissues are thin and delicate in healthy, young and properly nourished animals. As age creeps on apace, as work grows upon them, as the animal itself loses its health or digestive powers, the walls of the muscle fibres become thick and hard. This gives them the tough nature so easily recognized by human teeth and touch.

AIDS TO TENDERNESS.

The meat of young chickens, cattle, swine or sheep is soft and tender when chewed. On the other hand, all the cooking or boiling in the world will hardly serve to soften the flesh of older animals. Immediately after the creature is killed its flesh is soft, juicy and tender. A short time afterward it becomes stiff and somewhat tough.

If meat is not properly kept, decomposition soon sets in. In warm weather, in hot countries or any place where meat cannot be put under sanitary conditions of cold storage immediately, it must be soon eaten to avoid th eactivity of germs of decay. In cold climates the digestive juices present in all meat may be allowed to flavor and to soften it a little before it is eaten.

Under such conditions or those of cold storage, the acids and enzymes present in the flesh act upon the tissue between the muscle fibres and thus tend to make it juicy and tender. Pounding or cutting small pieces of meat breaks up these fibres to some extent and thus helps to make it much softer than it would be otherwise.

WHAT "GAMEY" MEANS.

Muttton and pork have less native flavor than poultry and game, because the tang and taste depends upon the uric acid-like salts which are present in every living creature, While the meat of young animals is more tender, it has less flavor, and is, therefore, digested but slightly if at all, better than that of other animals.

The meat of animals which feed largely upon herbs, fish or other animals with unpleasant odors is hygienically as well as by taste obnoxious to civilized people. Mr. Frank Farnan, an authority on game foods, holds that wild birds of the duck tribe should be allowed to hang and to "ripen" in order to develop the ad ded flavor which gives zest to digestion. Any "gamey" taste is probably due to haste in cooking unhung birds.

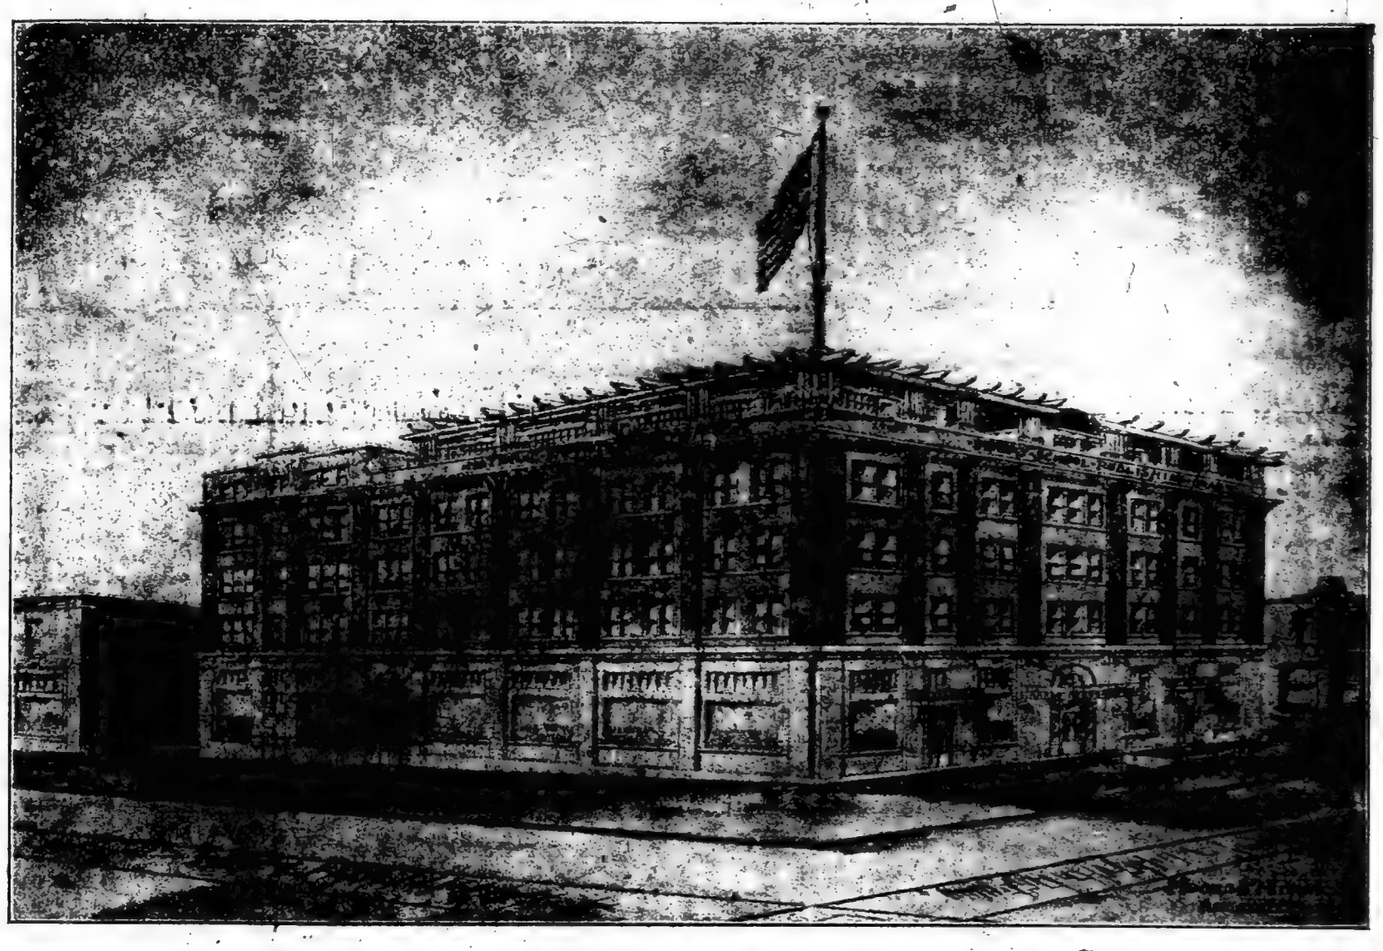
Finally, your health and happiness demand that your portion of meat shall have little or no scent to it. If there is the slightest small that reminds you of decay, do not cook or eat it. Meat must have a uniform color. It should be neither pale nor purplish, but should be elastic, yet firm to the touch.

If a dent is left in it on pressure, or if it crackles, avoid it as you would poison. Its surface should be almost, but not quite, dry—just damp enough to be perceptible.

Religious Reflections

The life of man on this earth is all trials without intervals.

Peace is ever with the humble man. but in the heart of the proud there is envy and continued wrath.



If we could get all the little mean, contemptible things rooted out of our lives, we would go on to perfection.

Sorrows will cruch you if you let them fall upon you wrongly, but if you bend they will slide to the earth.

Man paints himsef in his actions

Some of the drawbacks which hamper usefulness and warp efforts in attempts at progress, arise from perverted justice, which finds itself powerless of exertion where righteous force prevails. Hollo wprofessionalism, void of the mantle of sincerity, greatly damages our material welfare, upon all whom it touches, and tramples upon the blessings which, otherwise utilized, would create a great reward. life, character and reputation are often dependent upon the manner in which we improve our opportunities, whether it serves us well or ill. Pathways of life lead through grave entanglement and are replete with errors; yet they sometimes prove beneficial to those who are caught therein.

Individual character has copied from the rocks a record of prehistoric times. From facts and confused speculation, systems of philosophy have been distributed through the centuries. Men have come and gone; nations have arisen and fallen, but today the world is centered around some new hope—some individual character that must lead the human race to its place in the world.

OUR HOWDDY NUMBER.

Next week the Eagle will come forth with its Special Howdy Number. In this issue we will present many of our various enterprises and citizens who are making history on these Western Shores. The number will be replete with sketches of our business and professional men. A replete survey of the men who are the bone and sinew of our locating homes. These are the Real Estate dealers who are making records as builders and developing homes and making it possible for opportunities which had never been dreamed of before. Many thousands of this issue will be circulated throughout the land, and we are confident that they will be in great demand.

A good conscience is a flowing spring of assurance.

Service is the business of life. Christ serves, the angels serve, all good serves. The stagnant pool gathers all things unto itself and breeds death. The current speeds on its active way, bearing life and fruitfulness.

No amount of innocence can shield a man from the calumnies of the wicked.

To bless God for mercies is the way to increase them; to bless Him for miseries is the way to remove them.

No good lives so long as that which is thankfully improved; no evil dies so soon as that which is patiently endured.

All in the service were moved to tears at the recital of God's protective care, and the final victory of His people. Brother John Prowd, president was at his post at the B. Y. P. EDUCATIONAL MASS MEETING AT FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH A HUGE SUCCESS

Sunday was a big day at 8th and Towne Avenue Church. It was Educational Day and the time Pastor Ward had set to raise money for Christian Education for Wilberforce University and for our own Western University. These two of about thirty schools of higher learning owned and controlled by the A. M. E. Church connection are especially stressed in the California Conference because Wilberforce is our oldest Institution owned by not only our church but by the entire race of African descent; and Western University is in our Educational district. In the large audience were graduates and former students of several A. M. E. schools. There were 7 from Wilberforce and about 12 from W. U.

Western University graduates sang to the delight of all "Dear Old Western U and by special request sang it twice. Mrs. Inez L. Contrell, graduate of W. U. was the soloist and Mrs. Vassie Davis Reese read a paper. Mr. Dennis Mathews in a nutshell told of the start of W. U. and of the first graduating class of nine of which he is one. He told of one who died and of 8 of the nine making good.

Miss Anna H. Jones, who has given forty years as an instructor in schools of higher education spoke in glowing terms of Wilberforce University, where she served 8 years as a member of the faculty. She declared her pride in Wilberforce because it is the greatest and best of the Institutions owned by our people. She paid tribute to Bishop Daniel A. Payne, noted founder of Wilberforce.

President Aaron Eugene Malone of the Poro College, who is a Wilberforcian, noted educator and benefactor delivered the principal address, using as his subject: "S. O. S., or Salesmanship of Service." He urged his hearers to read the Bible, declaring that men live beneath their privileges. God gave them dominion and control over everything. He stressed the importance of "seeking first the kingdom of God and of giving." Concluding he urged his hearers to be fit physically and spiritually. The choir sang and on invitation of the pastor five men and women were added to the church including one young woman convert.

One Hundred Sixty Dollars were given for Christian Education. Pastor Ward will occupy his pulpit morning and evening next Sunday.

Holy Communion wil ble celebrated at the morning and evening services. All are ed to be present as it will be the l celebration for this Conference Year.

THEE Y. W. A. OF ST. PAUL BAPTIST CHURCH

We are glad to not an increased interest among the members of this Auxiliary, while we have a President who is every ready with plans and suggestions, and one who never stops until they are carried out. We realize that nothing can be accomplished without the co-operation of the members. Therefore it is with pleasure we note the renewal of old memberships and new members likewise, we have a membership drive on, we are in need of 100 Christian women. We earnestly appeal to the young women of our church and elsewhere to come and take a part with us, don't go away and say we are not needed, for there is much we can do.

We are looking into the future with great plans. Our great Creator being our guide we feel that we will come out, more than conqueror. During this month our meetings were well attended. The chairman on brought in some very interesting plans Ways and Means, Miss S. C. Holt, to be carried out immediately after the adjournment of the great National Baptist Convention. As we are now putting forth every effort to do our bit in caring for and entertaining the delegates of this Convention, who will be here from all parts of the country.

We meet each Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. All are welcome.

PLEASANT HILL BAPTIST CHURCH
Col. Bonnie Brae and Court St.
Rev. W. H. Rozier, Pastor

Sunday was a glorious day at Pleasant Hill. A large crowd gathered at the early morning prayer services and the Holy Spirit manifested itself in mighty power. The Sunday School was well attended by old as well as young. The Lesson was a very help ful one. The lesson was reviewed by the Primary Supt., Mrs. A. Hubbard.
The eleven o'clock services were well attended. Park Ave. Church of Riverside had a large representation to help greet our Pastor. Rev. Rozier spoke of the conditions of the different countries of Europe and how true Christianity was need over there. He came home with a greater desire to preach the whole Gospel. We are thankful to God that He spared him to return home safe and well. We pray that his trip may prove a help to us all.
Our B. Y. P. U. is crowded every Sunday much time is given to our program and every number is enjoyed.
On last Sunday the delegates from the W. B. A. which met at Pasadena gave a wonderful report of the session. A general discussion of the stand different ministers took for dancing, how and worldly things. Our young people of Pleasant Hill voted to take a firm stand against all worldly amusements. Rev. Rozier occupied the pulpit at night and we could truthfully say Sunday was a glorious day at Pleasant Hill.
Free dinners are served every Sunday come and bring a friend and enjoy our hospitality.

The sermon was very practically presented and highly complimented by visitors, pastor and members. Both Endeavor Leagues had good lessons, the Junior was well attended. At night, the pastor spoke from the text, Choose you this day whom you will serve. There was a splendid mixed audience, the visitors expressed appreciation and promised to return. The Pastor baptised one child and 4 persons knelt at the altar for prayer. Next Sunday will be General Class and Sacramento Day. All are invited and your presence appreciated.

PORO HEADS TO ENTERTAIN

MR. AND MRS. MALONE WILL ENTERTAIN WITH BEACH PARTY AT BRUCE'S BEACH ON NEXT THURSDAY, OCT 11TH.

To give a practical demonstration of their appreciation for the agents of the PORO COLLEGE and gratitude toward the patrons and to the many friends, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Malone, the heads of the great "Poro" industry of St. Louis, Missouri, will be hosts to a multitude at Bruce's Beach on next Thursday afternoon from 11 a. m. to 7 p. m.

The Soaring Eagle appreciates both Mr. and Mrs. Malone for their keen interest in behalf of mankind. As they have ascended in the realm of business they have never lost sight of any person, but have striven with all their might to accentuate the rise of others.

MRS. ANNIE POPE TURNBO MALONE
Founder of the "Poro College"

AARON E. MALONE
President of "Poro College"

The life and work of the founder of PORO COLLEGE, Mrs. Annie M. Pope Turbo Malone, is an inspiration and worthy of emulation to the highest degree. She was truly a woman with a vision and nearly a quarter of a century ago with an unerring eye, she founded what has risen to be perhaps the greatest business institution owned by members of our group, the wonderful PORO Establishment located at St. Louis, Mo. It tells the story. Its nearly 100,000 agents located in every country and section all enjoying to a marked degree the emoluments of the products testify to its stability and worth.

This far-sighted and remarkable woman, orphaned at a tender age, valiantly fought her way through the public schools and to the high school of Peoria, Illinois, which school she was forced to abandon on account of her ill health.

Early in life she manifested a fondness for hair dressing. As a child she delighted in dressing the hair of her sisters and associates.

On leaving school she very naturally turned to hair work, an art in which she had already won the appreciation of the community in which she lived. Later with a view of developing this art, she resumed the study of Chemistry, a subject in which she had become particularly interested while in high school. After a period of research Mrs. Malone evolved a preparation for the hair and scalp which she named "The Wonderful Hair Grower," which was used by many on their hair and scalp with amazing results.

She immediately began the manufacture of these preparations at Lovejoy, Illinois, in 1900. She canvassed from house to house to acquaint the public with her preparations by prevailing upon women to permit her to treat their hair and scalp. The result was that the people were amazed at the results attained.

The demand for the same grew by leaps and bounds and in 1902 Mrs. Malone moved her plant to St. Louis, Mo.. The demand became so great for the "Wonderful Hair Grower" that in 1904, unscrupulous dealers began to offer imitations to the public under the same name, and it became necessary for the protection of the public, as well as protection to her business, to place th preparations under a copyrighted trade name, so the name "Poro" was adopted in 1906.

During the winter of 1913-14 the responsibilities of the business weighed so heavily upon Mrs. Malone and her health became so impaired that she was compelled to cease business activities, and arrangements were made for a trip through the West that she might regain her health.

Just at this time Prof. Aaron Eugene Malone, principal of the Lincoln Public School of Quincy, Illinois and a former school mate whom she had not seen for fourteen years, stopped in St. Louis en route West. This chance meeting resulted in their union in marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Malone toured the West immediately following their wedding, and it was during this trip that they planned the new "Poro College." The present "Poro College" is their own conception, and in many respects is one of the most unique and most complete institutions in the World. This immense building when completed was inadequate and the "Poro Annex" was immediately erected.

Mr. and Mrs. Malone regard the present development of their interest as an opportunity for service—a beginning for bigger things they hope to achieve.

Aside from his position as president of the "Proo College," Mr. Malone takes an active interest in all affairs which mean the advancement for the race. He is prominent in church and civic affairs and delves into things political to the extent wherein he can be of assistance in procuring results worth while for our group. He was prominently mentioned for high positions of State under the administration of President Harding.

Mr. Malone has just returned from a two weeks' trip to Illinois, Missouri, Nebraska and Colorado, wher ehe attended five conferences of the A. M. E. Church. He is the chairman of the Layman's delegation to the General Conference of that denomination to be held at Louisville in 1924.

IMPORTANT NIGHT AT BIG TENT

With interest running high at the Big Tent at 23rd and Central Ave., Evangelist Rodgers begins his seventh Big Week by speaking on a subject that is being propounded by hundreds of the citizenry of Los Angeles. His subject is: "Which Day is the Sabbath?"

"The preacher with a message" is the descriptive phrase that many are giving to Evangelist Rodgers. His clear-cut, uncompromising preaching from the Word of God is attracting hundreds. No one with a desire for self-betterment can afford to miss hearing Evangelist Rodgers in his nightly discourses.

OUT OF TOWN VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards, and Miss Charline Edwards, of Kansas City, Missouri, are the house guests of that popular hostess, Mrs. Blackshear, and her sister, of 901 East 29th street. The visitors will be in the city about two weeks. Miss Charline is Mrs. Blackshear's niece.

Mr. A. Western of Kansas City, Mo., is also sojourning here.

Mrs. Roy Lucas and Miss Lillian Wayne, of Phoenix, Arizona, who have been here to attend the Conference, were the house guests of Mrs. Enola Chism.

A. M. E. CONFERENCE COMES TO A SUCCESSFUL CLOSE

CONFERENCE COMES TO A CLOSE WITH APPOINTMENTS AND DISAPPOINTMENTS

The Fifty Eighth Session of the California Conference of the A. M. E. Church came to a close on last Sunday evening at historic Eighth and Towne Avenue Church, after an arduous week of labor in which the delegates both Devines and Laymen made most excellent reports and the field of endeavor in which they worked reported an inspiring progress. The venerable Bishop Lee serving his last Conference ,imparted to the brethren throughout the session many words of wisdom from his intellectual mind accumulated by his many years of actual experience.

A great throng gathered on the last night of the Conference to hear the appointments. Of course other things went on but the magnet for the occasion was the appointments and when finally Bishop Lee wended his way down the isle all were keyed up for the climax of the Conference. Pasadena was the big surprise as that giant churchman, Rev. J. M. Brown was named for that post. Rev. Brown is big league timber and any place which he pastors all who see and hear will know a real man is on the job.

There were those who would rather not have heard the name of Rev. Jas. Washington read as the head of the Los Angeles district, as Presiding Elder. But Washington's name was read off because there was nothing else to do. His record spoke louder than words and by no stretch of the imagination could any Bishop move Washington unless to promote him. Among the disappointments for many was the return of Rev. A. M. Ward to the First Church and it was probably fate that decreed Rev. Ward to serve his fifth term at this station.

Rev. Fred A. Hughes was returned to the pastorate of the Capitol City where he is adored by the people of all denominations for his sterling worth and achievements.

Rev. J. H. Wilson was returned as Presiding Elder of the Northern District. He is the father of the Conference and the present attainment of the Conference is largely the result of his handiwork.

Rev. J. Edward McCorkle was shifted from Riverside to San Bernardino and Rev. J. E. Fletcher was sent to the Second Church in Los Angeles.

The following is a full roster of the appointments made:

LIVELY CONTEST FOR DELEGATES TO GENERAL CONFERENCE

In our last issue the Eagle predicted a lively contest for delegates to the General Conference and that Rev. J. H. Wilson and Rev. James Washington would be the winners. Our prophesy came true, as both of these divines won out on the first ballot. For alternate we missed on account of the "Double Cross" as contenders for delegates had declared in event of their defeat they would not run for alternate. They double crossed Rev. Price and others and fought like demons for the empty honor of being an alternate. However, all is well that ends well and a great session duly came to a close.

Mrs. Sarah Parks, relative of J. R. Bass and Mrs. Dora Gamble, who lives in Kansas City, Kansas, high ocial in fraternal circles, is the house guest of Mrs. nglin, 1241 Naomi St., for the past two weeks.

CONFERENCE ENDS NOTABLE SESSION

Southern California Conference closed last evening at the First Methodist Episcopal church. A splendid session was held and many interesting things done. A World Service campaign is to be inaugurated next month, and a financial campaign for the McClay School of Religion, U. S. C., to be launched next Spring, were among some of the movements decided upon.

Strong resolutions were passed denouncing the use of narcotics, lawlessness and endorsing the World Court, and the forward trend among the Sunday Schools and Epworth eLagues of the Church. Many changes were made in appointments.

Dr. Bryan H. Wilson leaving the Los Angeles District, as superintendent, and being appointed to Grace Church, Long Beach. Rev. Shaw returns to Wesley Chapel. Rev. Beane to Hamilton, and B. J. Jordan to Pasadena. Rev. D. P. Shaw goes back to Fowler.

This was one of the greatest Conferences in the history of this Conference. Pease and harmony prevailed throughout the Conference.

Every minister seemed to have been pleased with his accomplishment for the year.

Last Sunday marked the close of the most successful annual Conference that has convened this side of the Rocky Mountains. The Sunday School was an unusual success. The Bishop ably and forcefully filled the pulpit Sunday morning. His text was from Revelation, 22:16. "I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star."

Rev. Thompson of Phoenix, Aris., preached for the evening services. He preached a powerful sermon. His text was from St. John 13:34,35.

Subject, "The eternal badge of Christ."

The choir under the direction of Prof. Robert M. Mitchell, sang some unusual anthems. They sang to the delight and edification of the entire congregation.

By Rev. R. W. Underwood's proficiency and service, and the round report he made for the nine months he has been here, caused him to be re-appointed to the same charge, Phillips Chapel.

All are welcome here to worship with us. Come and meet friends and strangers.

ELDORADO GOLD STAR MINING CO. STOCKHOLDERS IN ANNUAL SESSION

ELDORADO GOLD STAR MINING COMPANY MAKING SPLENDID PROGRESS

Gratifying Report for Last Fiscal Year Arouses Enthusiasm

The Annual Stockholders Meeting of the Eldorado Gold Star Mining Co. convened in Odd Fellows Hall on 8th, and San Julian streets, Los Angeles, as previously announced, September 27th. The session opened in regular form.

The Secretary's report gave a detailed accounting of the entire transaction of the Company's affairs from July the first, 1922, to June 30, 1923—at which time the Fiscal year ends. The Auditing Committee then submitted its report which evidently showed that all the cash receipts received at the office by the Secretary had been carefully examined and reported to the monthly meetings of the Board of Directors and found correct.

The work which has been accomplished at the mines under the management of Hon. Samuel J. Brown, was then given by him, who said, "I am giving all of my physical powers and means in directing the operations of this Company. My reason for doing it is, because I know that the company has the making of a great mine, which from a financial view-point of a Mining industry, means more in dollars and cents, than any venture yet attempted by the race." He said further, I believe in fostering every deserving Enterprise which has merit to it, and is worthy. I believe in God and the building of Churches, but I do not believe in getting drunk in church building to the exclusion of industrial Lines of real production. To obtain a rating with other great nations, we must be producers of gold, silver and other precious metals like unto other people. This Company has done more in actuality, in the matter of doing things, than it is given credit for. If this Company continues the operations of its properties and can secure the co-operation of its many stockholders which it is succeeding in doing—before many months and years, not only can the stockholder who owns a liberal number of shares—set aside a sum of money for a rainy day, but can assist in building churches, giving employment to the boys and girls—and make his home a veritable paradise. The meeting was presided over by the President, Dr. G. W. Shields, and represented by a number of live stockholders and many proxies from stockholders abroad in the hands of the Secretary, Howard Folke. The face to face talk with the stockholders, who gave expression of their great determination that they could be depended on to assist to place the mines on a paying basis was indeed gratifying.

The President made a splendid talk. The Editor of the California Eagle, made an instructive and encouraging speech which was well received. All members of the Board of Directors were unanimously re-elected and highly commended for their faithful service. In writing the company on business matters, be sure to address as follows:

COLON—CANAL ZONE

REPUBLIC OF PANAMA

September 4th, 1923.

We arrived safely at Christobol today. The trip from Havana, Cuba was very pleasant. Rev. Mr. Volstead left us at Havana and his propitious departure brought cheer to the hearts of the thirsty travelers. The harbor at Cristobol is protected by giant forts with guns trained guarding the entrance to the Canal.

On landing you find hundreds of one-horse hacks ready to take you to the business section, these funny little buggies and a few automobiles are the only means of conveyance. No street cars. The town is divided into two parts, the American side, called Cristobol and the Panama side, called Colon. You can easily distinguish the American side by the new buildings and the presence of soldiers of Uncle Sam. The native side contains a few good buildings, among them the Grand Imperial Hotel where we stayed, but the rest of the town is dilapidated; native and West Indian families of 6 and 7 living, cooking, washing and sometimes keeping shop in one little dirty room. Work is scarce and the people who cannot get away barely exist. We motored to the Gatun Locks to see the ships go through. The Canal is really the marvel of the age. It is wonderful to see large ocean liners lifted as it were over the mountains by means of locks and carried from Ocean to Ocean. It was refreshing to see a Los Angeles ship, the J. M. Dansiger, going through. America has wrought miracles with this place, from the malarial swamps and death trap she has made it a sanitary, lovely place, half the commerce of the Western Hemisphere pass through. There are several miles of good roads and the docks are up-to-date and they have a first class railway system. The Panama Railroad Company, whatever good they brought with them, the natives have paid for it dearly. The damnable American prejudice is rife and seen at every corner and it is a more subtle prejudice than we have in the States—it carries with it the caste system. The man of mixed blood is encouraged to look down on the black man. He is not wholly accepted by the white man but he enjoys certain privileges. This keeps the people apart. Then the West Indian Negro keeps to himself and there is no unity among the people. Segregation is common everywhere. In the Post Office you find an entrance for Gold Customers and one for Silver Customers. In the hospital a department for Gold patients and one for Silver patients. Gold and Silver down here means White and Black. In the city of Colon the Republic of Panama only owns twenty-five building lots, and these house the public buildings, the other city lots are al bought up by Americans and leased to the natives for a period of twenty-five years without option of renewal, this means the American control of the entire city and there is a provision in the treaty with Panama that whenever it becomes necessary for the operation of the Canal Zone the American government can seize and operate any lands and buildings they desire. One can easily see what this will eventually lead to. All paying positions are held by white Americans and when a native does the same kind of work he gets half pay. A Negro woman is prohibited from driving a motor car in this city.

American soldiers are permitted to bastardize the women but if they marry native women they are deported. The whole situation is deplorable. The Panama Railroad is the great octopus and has a voice in the selection of Judges and all other American officials.

Some native men are doing well, store keepers, physicians and lawyers. On the whole Panama is a beautiful place—lovely palms, cocoanut and flowers, but the color phoebia is so infectious here that those who can are leaving and it will soon be an American Colony entirely with a few sub-normal laborers.

Lee was the central figure of the occasion, he having been the Wilberforce teacher of Mr. G. M. Warner and Mr. A. J. Roberts, one of the guests of the occasion. It was truly reminiscent of by-gone days. The other guests of the occasion were Mrs. M. Lee Newson, daughter of Bishop Lee, Rev. and Mrs. A. M. Ward Mrs. Rosa Andrews, Bishop Lee, Mrs. A. J. Roberts, Mrs. Eliza Warner, wife Roberts and Mrs. Eliza Warner, wife of young George, both of whom after a more than thirty years residence in Los Angeles are still members of the younger set, and at this polite affair Mrs. Eliza demonstrated that she is still Mistress of the Culinary Art.

After the sumptuous dinner had been thoroughly enjoyed by those present, Messrs. Warner and Roberts took their places at the foot of their former Wilberforce tutor, and a long review of School days filled the house, and seeped through the walls to the extent that passers-by heavy with the accumulated responsibilities common to this life caught the spirit of youth and cried out I am happy if you are old boys, because I can turn back the pages of time, and see and feel as I did years ago.

BISHOP LEE AND DAUGHTER GUESTS OF REV. AND MRS. WARD

Bishop Benj. F. Lee and his noted daughter, Mrs. Effie Lee Newsome, wife of the Rev. H. F. Newsome, D. D., were guests of the Rev. and Mrs. Armsted Milton Ward at 1466 Griffith Avenue during their ten days stay in Los Angeles. Bishop Lee is the senior Bishop of the African M. E. Church and has been an active bishop in his church for more than 35 years. He served as president of Wilberforce University very acceptably for eight years and was editor of The Christian Recorder (the oldest paper in America, published by people of color) eight years. He has served as a general officer in his church 43 of his 82 years of life. He has decided to retire of his own volition at the General Conference in Louisville, Ky. next May.

During their stay in Los Angeles, Bishop and Mrs. Lee Newsome were guests of honor with some old friends of long standing These included: Mr. and Mrs. Holt of Albany Ave., at dinner; Mr. and Mrs. George Warner of Figueroa St.; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Roberts; Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Roberts at breakfast; Mr. and Mrs. James Jones, Misses Anna H. and Emily and Dr. Fredrika Jones of Monrovia at dinner; at breakfast with Major and Mrs. G. W. Prioleau; at the Beach and dined with Presiding Elder and Mrs. J. H. Wilson of Homes Avenue. They were also guests of motor parties with Mr. Wallace Calrk, Lawyer W. O. Tyler, Major and Mrs. Prioleau and had tea with Mrs. Maria J. Clark who also hails from Ohio and is an octogenarian. Bishop and Mrs. Newsome regretted very much their inability to take the trip with Mr. W. O. Tyler to Catalina and to dine with Mr. and Mrs. Leon Wilson and others because they had to leave for Ohio. They breakfasted with Presiding Elder Washington before taking the train.

Mrs. Newsome is a writer and author of some note. They enjoyed their stay in Los nAgeles.

CHARMINGLY APPOINTED TEA

One of the most brilliant events of the opening autumn season was the tea presided over by Mrs. Enola Chism on the 16th of September. Imported autumn leaves and gorgeous yellow flowers made a beautiful and seasonably appropriate background for the exquisitely gowned women who thronged the rooms. Pale yellow candleshades imparted a soft autumnal glamour to the atmosphere, which proved most delightful.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Robinson, of Oregon, Mrs. Higgenbotham of Chicago, Mrs. Stout of Dallas, Texas, and Mrs. Pearl of New Orleans.

An elaborate and delicious collation was served. Some seventy-five guests enjoyed the gracious hospitality of Mrs. Chism on this delightful occasion.

In the receiving line with the hostess was Mrs. J. Coleman and members of the Ne Plus Ultra Club.

NEW HOPE BAPTIST CHURCH—

Atimely sermon on: "The King's business requires haste," was delivered by the pastor, Sunday morning. The effects of that sermon were wonderful, as he touched on every phase of church activities.

At the close of the service the new officers of the Junior Missionary Society were installed. The ceremony was very touching. Tokens were presented to each officer.

Miss Dedrick was the soloist. Many hearts were stirred as she sang "Love lifted me."

Several additions were made to the membership roll.

The evening services were also inspiring. Good music was furnished by the choir. All members taken in during September, received the right hand of fellowship.

The contest for the trip to Catalina is becoming very interesting. Each young lady contestant making a wonderful showing, so far, in selling tickets for the male chorus, Oct. 16, mention of which is made elsewhere in this issue.

New Hope is a home for strangers. They are always welcome there.

THE LOS ANGELES "FORUM"
By H. A. Howard

If you want to know your "home folks" visit the "Forum." If you want to see the men that govern the pubilc, and give justice to all men; then come and see the Hon. John E. Pitts, preside. Every Sunday afternoon, many people climbed up the steep steps; getting information in which, no other organization of this community can afford to give.

Last Sunday was program day at the "Forum." We had some of the most distinguished guests on the coast. Among us, were, Prof. T. E. Smith, of Oakland, Cal., very prominent among the business circles; Mrs. Ethel Trew Dunlap, special writer for the "Negro World" and the Sierra Leone Weekly; and Miss Bessie Simons, of Memphis, Tenn., who is on a visiting trip to the Coast. Prof. Smith, was the speaker of the evening. His subject, "Is the Negro a man?" He told his hearers that the Negro has shown himself as a man from the time of the Civil War up until the World War, and yet he is not a man at this present time. In conclusion, Prof. Smith said that the Negro will only be a man when he builds a government of his own and contribute isodynamic thing that other race, nation and people has done. But the time has come when no one can stop the progress of the Negro, from the goal of success.

PRENTICES HAVE ENVIABLE RECORD OF SUCCESSFUL ENDEAVOR

As exemplary citizens and as successful merchants, none stand higher in our community than Mr. and Mrs. James Prentice, of 1211 Central Ave. Twelve years ago they launched a dry goods enterprise in this city and by persistence, advanced methods and impeccable dealings with the public, they have not only survived, but have built up a business which is a great credit to the city and to the Race.

Not all their endeavor has been expended in commerce, however. The Prentices are the owners of a beautiful modern home at 1340 E. 22nd St., this city and have begun the erection of a seven-unit, Duplex Court in Alhambra, at the corner of Mission Road and Monterey streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Prentice are ever active in all movements for race progress and the advancement of humanity at large. Both are members of the recently organized Commercial Council, which is making such wonderful strides.

These merchants and humanitarians are verily among those who "do" things, and not merely "talk" things. Their success is an inspiring example to the young people of our community.

NATIONAL LEAGUERS LOSE TWO, WIN ONE, DRAW ONE WITH UNIVERSAL FILMERS

Manager Lorenzo S. N. Cobb's hand picked members of the Negro National Baseball League who have stretched their tents for the winter at the L. A. White Sox Park and are taking on all comers were handed a severe set back in at least two clashes of the sizzling four-game series with the Universal Film Corporation's big brush baseballers last Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday when they struck a snag in the opening argument and were manhandled roughly by the Picture shooters to the tune of 12 to 2.

Win Sunday, Lose Monday

While the famous Bell Brothers, Fred and Jay and with the help of Cooper were well cleaned in the week-end fracas, the Indianapolis hurler Cooper held the film aggregation well in hand for 8 rounds of the Sabbath meeting, allowing but two counts and seven well segregated bingles but became wobbly in the ninth spasm and field manager Arwell Riggins took no chances and gave friend Cooper the hook and sent McClure the Cleveland moundsman to stop hostilities and he obeyed orders by choking the picture boy's rally where it stood leaving Cooper victorious 4 to 3.

The Cleveland gunner McClure was way off form in his Monday set-to, while Whitaker of the Filmers was invincible for 8 sections and was all set for a shut-out when back stop Burnett of Indianapolis smacked a homer into the left vineyard, Miller singled as did Bob Fagen scoring Miller for their only two markers of the day.

Four All Tuesday

Frederick Bell had matters all his way Tuesday and looked like the goose egg king with the thing sewed up in his glove 4 to 0 up to the 9th session when the film pests lit on him for three blows that coupled with a fizzle by Fagen at the first station, a bad bound of the ball and Blackman's miscue at third netted the mess 4 and Darkness kept both gangs out of the tally column in the 10th round and Umpire Billy Donaldson called for supper.

Third Annual Pacific Coast Championship Tournament at San Diego JULY 4-5, 1924

By William Mells Watson
1555 Court St. Drexel 3742

The Western Federation of Tennis Clubs, at its last meeting, November 7th decided to hold the third Annual Pacific Coast Championship Tournament at San Diego, on Friday and Saturday, July 4th and 5th, 1924.

LARGEST HALL SECURED

The Fed was not asleep, either, when it armed secretary Charles Andrew Black and sent him to the border city two weeks ago to make arrangements. The results are that the members of the San Diego Tennis Club will secure the four cement municipal courts for the big event.

The largest dance hall in the city, the Orange Lantern Ball Room is twice as large as our Blanchard Hall, so the secretary put twenty-five iron wheels deposit on the hall in order that there will be no hitch when it comes to entertaining the hundreds of merrymakers that will be in on the big date. "San Diego, July 4-5, 1924".

MARCIE AUSTIN HITCHED

Marcie Austin, member of the West Side slipped one over on the gang last month, October 29th, when he promised pretty Miss Tama Oscar that he would love, cherish and obey her until the judge them do part. Atta boy, Marcie.

SWEET BESSIE IS BACK

Mrs. Lloyd Wilbour Bessie Davis has returned from a pleasant visit up around Victoria and Vancouver, B. C. Seattle, Portland and way points. Mrs. Davis, who is president of the West Side Ladies' Club, says the Alpha Tennis and Nitting Club of Seattle has a wonderful new club house, and three tennis courts. Well, watch our smoke.

SQUARED CIRCLE

Clarence A. Brooks

Clarence Ahart Brooks, Moving Picture Star of Colored Films of National fame, Scenario writer, former tennis champion and all around athlete, four-square real estate broker, secretary Pacific Coaht Amusement Co. and now unexcelled boxing promoter, met, but is trying to live that down, and is, we are happy to say, one of our closest, if not the closest, of personal friends.

Clarence, a clean cut, wide awake, big hearted, jolly, good natured, honest and upright product, and L. A. High grad, in his usual untiring effort to do some good for his Race, has taken over the management of the famous local Madison Square Garden (to be known as Madison Square Arena), 3200 Long Beach Avenue, and announces to the world that, beginning with his first weekly show a week ago Monday night, he promises the public, that, with its support, he will amuse local followers with the cleanest and best boxing cards possible to be had. And those who witnessed his first two shows will bear him out. His motto and password is "We show what we advertise". Something which has never been done before, and this alone insures our young boxing magnate of the public's confidence and support.

His next Monday night's line up is a pippin, and the arena, which seats eight thousand, should be jammed. Ladies with reserved seats escorts free.

SAM BAKER K.O.'s INDIAN JOE STANTON

30 seconds; Baby Gans Knocks Kelly Over in 4th

Madison Square Arena, last Monday night, under its new and very efficient manager, Clarence A. Brooks, and his high powered collection of assistants, put on a card that set the throng of ladies and gents wild with excitement and joy as the mit pushers stepped around and did their stuff.

BAKER A PHENOM

Those of us who care to admit seeing Jack Johnson working around in the old Hazard Pavillion 18 years ago when he was knocking 'em over one, two, three, can get a fair idea of our latest local 220 pound colored athletic wonder, 21 years old, had eight battles, and an equal number of sleep messages were delivered.

Can you picture that? Samuel Baker is this boy's moniker and he cares not who knows it. The strangest thing about this movie actor and boxer, is his tremendous punching power in both his right and left shoulder. We've never yet seen Sam hand out a full arm swing, that big right of his traveled not over eight inches Monday night when it landed on the Indian's jaw, and he keeled over for the count of nine. Sam walked around him for ten seconds and pushed him with an eight inch jolt to the chin and you could have sopped Joe up in a blotter. Unless we miss our guess, Sam has a future.

OPENER

George Rove (Mexican), vs Kid Lagrim (colored), 118 pounds. The Kid rocked him to sleep in the second unit.

SECOND SCANDLE

Jimmy Brown (Mexican) vs. Baby Pete (colored), 135. The heavy Mexican was woozy at the bell. Pete won.

THIRD GO

Dug Lewis vs Young Burton (both colored), 140. Doug is too big, tough and scienced. Burton lost, but stuck around.

FOURTH CLASH

Joe Kelly (white) vs Baby Gans, (colored), 135. The caucasian battler was forced to listen to the birdies in the fourth.

MAIN SHOW

Indian Joe Stanton vs Sam Baker (colored) 220. The Indian was hugging the canvas before the battle was 40 seconds old. Sam is a wonder.

My Friend Recommended You to Me.

Nine persons out of every ten who come into my office write or call me by phone for appointment, greet me with the six following words: My Friend Recommended You to Me, and I appreciate those words beyond expression, they mean more to me than all the gold in the world; for those words show the confidence that reputable citizens have in me and in my business methods. They more than repay me for the effort and hard work that I put forth to save my clients money and worry. I have striven to make a friend out of everyone whom I have had any business dealings with, and those words assure me that I have succeeded. There is not enough money in the whole world to tempt me, or cause me to betray the confidence reposed in me by my clients and I believe that everyone of my clients has sent his or her friend to me. To those seeking homes, or other property, may I serve you? A few of my special prices and terms:

Six (6) room Bungalow, close in, west of Central, Five Thousand Dollars, ($5000.00), Fifteen Hundred Dollars ($1500.00) Cash, Balance Forty Dollars ($40.00) per month.

Five-room House near Central Ave., Forty-six Hundred and Fifty Dollars, ($4650.00); One Thousand Cash, ($1,000.00) Balance Forty Dollars ($40.00) per month.

Six (6) Room Bungalow, East 49th street; Hardwood Floors, Fifty-one Hundred ($5100.-00); Eelven Hundred Cash, ($1100.00); Balance Forty Dollars ($40.00) per month.

HATS OFF TO DONALDSON

Those of us who used to enjoy ragging umpire Billy Donaldson while he was patiently storing up diamond intelligence around local sand lots, at the Alexander' Giants and the L. A. White Sox ball fields, are loudest in their praise of our own product since the great Rube Foster took him into the big show and pronounced him the equal of any af his Negro National League umpires. Think of it, Billy has officiated in seven games at the Sox park in the last two weeks, and the crowd hasn't railed him once for a questionable decision. Like Beans Reardon, who went up to the Coast League, Donaldson has won the fan's confidence, and they are willing to abide by his fair and impartial decisions. Yes, we say William W. Donaldson has made good.

PIRRONE'S TACKLE NATIONALS IN THREE GAMES

Next Saturday, Sunday and Monday will see Joe Pirrone and his gang of leaguers tied up in a desperate effort to wash off that stinging defeat of two weeks ago by Lorenzo Cobb's National pastimers who promise to duplicate if not make it three straight.

MONDAY LADIES' DAY

A great crowd is expected to celebrate Manager Cobb's "Ladies' Day" feature, beginning next Monday. Bring anybody's wife, sister or grandmother. The gate is free.

GEORGE MOORE IN PHILADELPHIA

George P. Moore, the man who made Danny Edwards famous, and former boxing promoter of Portland, Oregon, took Danny to New York, and both made money, and now George is dickering with the Philadelphia Boxing Commission on opening one of the largest and best fight sheds in the country. If George gets by that comish his success is assured.

RACE UMPS MAY STAY

Notwithstanding that it costs the Negro National League four thousand dollars more to use the colored umpires in the circuit this year than it ever cost to use the white arbitrators here-to-fore, their services were so much more appreciated by followers of the game that a hot fight for their return is scheduled to take place, December 5th., at the annual league convention in Chicago.

BATTLING SIKI LOSES TO KID NORFOLK

Louis Fall, the famous black Frenchman of St. Louis, Senegal, Africa, conqueror of Georges Carpentier, and former light heavy weight champion of the world, known as Battling Siki, failed in his first appearence in this country last Tuesday night, in a murderous 15 round battle with the Harlem Colored favorite, Kid Norfolk, at Madison Square Garden, New York, and took a heavy beating at the hands of the latter.

Siki displayed a total lack of knowledge of the American style of milling and showed little except great strength and his ability to take punishment. The Kid was too fast and crafty, and Siki was unable to land effectively throughout.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Send Delegates To Conference

At the last regular meetings of the junior and senior Hi Y Clubs, the following boys were elected to represent the 9th Street Hi Y Clubs at the Annual Older Boys' Conference at Pomona, November 30 to December 2: Edwin Jefferson, Wallace Markham, Thomas Southern, Carlie Williams, Robert Lee Jackson and Prince Greene. Benjamin Colly and Wendell Gladden, Boys' secretaries, will attend the conference with the boys.

The delegation will have a place on the program, singing glee club and quartette selections before the sessions.

Hi Y Program at "Y" and Forum Sunday

The Hi Y Clubs will give their annual programs at the YMCA at 3 p.m. Sunday, and at the Forum, 8th and Wall Streets at 4:30 p.m. Among the numbers will be selections from dramatic readings. Everybody is invited to be present at one or both of these occasions and help the boys to go to the greatest boys' conference of the year.

Annual Grid Classic At Pasadena Thanksgiving

Promptly at 10 o'clock Thanksgiving Day, the Pasadena and 9th Street Hi Y Clubs' teams will clash in their annual struggle. Last year Pasadena was victorious, but this year 9th St. is confident that it will triumph over the Crown City machine. Don't miss this classic.

Pioneers at Wesley Thanksgiving Day Services

One of the big attractions of the program will be an exhibition of the Opening Ritual Ceremony in which the boys will translate the meaning of the four-fold program for Pioneer Groups.

Y.W.C.A. NEWS

Rev. Shaw, pastor of Pico and Paloma Church, will be the speaker at Vespers, Sunday, Nov. 25th. He will speak on "Thanksgiving". Others appearing on the program are: Miss Mayme Lowe, vocal selo; Mr. Ellison Wright, reading; and the Terry Trio.

Vesper Service lasts one hour, beginning promptly at 4 o'clock. The public is invited to attend these services held every Sunday afternoon at the Y.W.C.A. building, 1108 E. 12th Street.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

By William Narcisse

Prep football among the city high schools will be drawn to a close today as L. A. and Polytechnic, ancient rivals, battle it out at the Coliseum. Theopolis Smith, playing fullback for the blue and white, will doubtless be seen in action today. Last Friday, against the Manual, Smith played a good game during the last half.

Tomorrow the Hi Y football team will make its debut against the Wilshire Olympic Club, at the "Y" field in Boyle Hights. Although the game promises to be a tough one, the Hi Y ites, will enter the game heavy favorites, but not over confident. Little is known of the W. O. C.'s true strength, but at any rate the local boys will be there fighting. Following are the names and positions of the Hi Y team: Bisco, captain and guard; Horton, guard; Ellis and Floy, centers; S. Towns and Rosser, tackles; Allen, S. Smith and Woods, ends; Williams, quarterback; W. Towns, G. Johnson, and Whiszar, halfbacks; Prayer, Stearnes, and T. Smith, fullbacks; and Southern, coach. With such an array of warriors, there is little chance of the Hi Y losing.

Watch this column next week for the results.

Never before has such a liberal offer been presented to the people of this vicinity. Never before has such an alluring and generous proposition been launched. And it is plainly evident, by the rapidly increasing interest shown, that the ambitious readers of The California Eagle are going to take advantage of this opportunity. Some idea of the keen enthusiasm with which some of The California Eagle readers are sending in their nomination blanks is shown in expressions made in statements to the campaign manager during the little preliminary chats which occupied most of his time during the past few days.

One is Incredulous

"Is The California Eagle actually going to give away all that long list of prizes—and the $1,795.00 Reo Phaeton—simply in exchange for getting Votes?" asked an incredulous young lady who called yesterday.

"That's all it takes," replied the campaign manager. "Votes—Votes alone will win. All you have to do is to get them. They are given free by vote coupons appearing in every issue of The California Eagle and with subscription payments."

Costs Nothing to Enter

"Does it cost anything to enter?" another woman inquired.

"Not a cent," he replied. "Why, you don't even have to be a subscriber to The California Eagle to share in this distribution of awards."

Prizes To All Guaranteed

"Does every active participant receive a gift?" a man inquired of the campaign manager.

"Yes, just as announced," the manager replied.

"Well, if that isn't a liberal proposition, I don't know what it is," another candidate remarked. "If I can get a $1,795.00 automobile or a guarantee of some good prize as easy as, that, believe me, I'm going to get my share of this grand prize distribution. I know lots of people who will save their free vote coupons for me and give me their subscriptions to the Eagle. Which is the best method of getting voted.

The campaign manager assured her that the most rapid way to pile up a big number of votes was by obtaining new and renewal subscriptions to The California Eagle carefully explaining the vote schedule a copy of which appears in the announcement of this paper.

"You're going to hear from me," the candidate replied as she arose to depart.

In fact, the campaign manager thoroughly enjoyed himself talking and becoming acquainted with candidates and he is always glad to talk to anyone who cares to have explained some point that may not be exactly clear—he is always ready to be of assistance.

Easy to Get Votes

It isn't hard to get subscriptions to The California Eagle for every one knows what an up-to-date newspaper it is. People know, too, that they will get their full money's worth when they subscribe. As a matter of fact, it is going to be great fun getting votes for those who try. And for those ambitious folks who are willing to make the little, easy effort required, there are prizes of wonderful value to be secured in spare moments without the expenditure of one cent.

The campaign will soon be going full blast. Now is the time to enter and get a "running start," so that no one will ever get ahead of you. Clip out the nomination blank on page 1—send or bring it to The California Eagle campaign headquarters at 822 Central at once. If you don't want to nominate yourself, you may nominate a friend. It doesn't cost anything either way and you will always be glad you did it. Upon receipt of the nomination blank, campaign headquarters will immediately forward you complete details, together with supplies and all necessary accessories. If you desire any information concerning nominating yourself or a friend call at The California Eagle, 822 Central Ave., or telephone 829-244, and have everything explained to you in detail.

List of Candidates Appears Today

The list of names of the candidates nominated up to Wednesday appears in this issue. The vote standing will appear in The California Eagle each week. Be sure that your name appears in the list, so that your friends will know you are in the campaign.

Only One Way

Remember, there's only one way to make nominations. Candidates must either nominate themselves or be the choice of some friend who will do it for them. The management will not place any names in the campaign and if you want to be sure your name is among those from which the winners of the $1,795.00 Reo Phaeton and other grand prizes are to be chosen you must get in your nomination at once.

A Small Fortune to the Winner

In a few short weeks some reader of this paper will be given a prize that represents a small fortune—a $1,795.00 gift, which is more than the average man makes in a year and more than the average family saves in an entire lifetime.

Ambition, energy, with plenty of "pep" are the only requisites for success. Those who start early will, of course, have the advantage. But the opportunities now are given for everyone. The first step toward winning this brand new $1,795.00 Reo Phaeton is to send in the nomination blank which appears on page 1 of this issue. Filling out and sending in the nomination blank, good for 5000 votes, starts you off. Then you can begin in the pleasurable task of gathering in the votes which are given for new and renewal subscriptions to The California Eagle and in free votes which appear in every number of the paper.

Now is the Time

Right now—TODAY—is the time to begin. If you want a $1,795.00 Reo automobile of your own, so that you can ride when you wish and take your friends or family for a spine on the boulevards these evenings, you should get busy NOW and nominate yourself without further delay. Think of having this car for your very own, to go where you like—a car that has a reputation for reliability, power and luxuriousness. That's just what you can have if you are willing to put forth a little hustle and a little effort during your spare time.

More Votes Given Now

Understand, too, that there will be more votes given for subscriptions now than at any other time. This is done in fairness to the one who get out and hustle at the start and it prevents anyone stepping in at the last minutes. You can't buy these prizes—but you can win them by your own honest and enthusiastic efforts. Bear in mind that votes cannot be bought—the votes are given for subscription payments and by means of the free vote coupons.

In the meantime be sure to send in the nomination blank today—or bring it with you when you call at campaign headquarters. Can you afford to neglect such a wonderful opportunity?

Read the Announcement on Page 9

Read the announcement on page 9 and start today. Once started, if you are the ambitious sort, you will become the possessor of the kind of enthusiasm that will lead you to greater things—enthusiasm that should make the big automobile or one of the other grand prizes yours.

Office Open Till 8 o'Clock

Campaign headquarters at The California Eagle, Campaign Headquarters, 822 Central Ave., will be open each evening and you are invited to call for any information you desire. If unable to call personally, telephone 829-244. Come in and have this generous proposition explained to you in detail and learn about the costly prizes that are awaiting those who are privileged to participate.

PORO CLUB TRIUMPHANT

Graduation Exercises by the Poro College Was a Notable Event

A historic event was the graduating exercises given by the "Poro College" on last Wednesday evening at the 8th and Towne Ave A. M. E. church. Inspiring and a realization of the heights to which even the most humble can aspire.

The story of the achievement of the founder of Pro College is one of hope and inspiration. Her life and activities are in keeping with the ideals to which we hope to gain and Wednesday night, when she handed to each of the dozen graduates a diploma granted by the "Poro College" as a marked proficiency gained in the art of rendering Poro service to the patrons of the products of this great concern.

PROGRAM

uite an elaborate program was rendered preceding the award of the diplomas. The Hon. Noah D. Thompson in his very own pleasing manner presided over the meeting and directed the exercises of the evening. After a song by the choir Prof. Malone, President of the College made an inspiring address giving quite a deal of information of the scope of the work for this great institution.

Miss Naida McCollough rendered a piano solo.

Remarks by Mrs. C. K. Randall.
Remarks by Mrs. V. M. Reedd.
Vocal Solo by Mrs. Sadie J. Aryed.
Paper—Mrs. Izz Washington.
Solo by Mrs. J. L. Freeman.
Presentation of Class—Mrs. Budis J. Hawkins.
Awarding Diplomas—Mrs. A. E. Malone.
Viking Song—The Choir.

Mrs. C. A. Bass made an interesting and enthusiastic address paying a high compliment to the great Poro Institution, and to the graduates and especially to the duties before them.

Mrs. Malone in presenting the diplomas gave an insight into her remarkable success and admonished the graduates that there was no limit to success.

Dr. Chas. Stewart was discovered in the audience and was called forward and in a short but eloquent speech paid high tribute to the Poro College. The closing remarks were made by pastor Ward and thus come to a close a most notable event.

SANTA BARBARA

With the holiday season at hand, Santa Barbara is looking her best. The window display contest has stimulated the decorative spirit, giving the city a delightfully festive appearance.

The weather has been ideal. Inspiring services were held as usual last Sunday at Second Baptist Church, Rev. H. B. Thomas; pastor. Many out-of-town visitors were present. The singing was excellent, the junior choir rendering music at the morning service, and the senior choir in the evening. Mrs. H. B. Thomas, chorister, has trained her vocalists in splendid fashion.

The B. Y. P. U., Mr. Alexander, President, was entertained by a quartet of local talent, Messrs Reed, Henderson, Sayres and Patterson. Their selections were greatly enjoyed. Incidently, the quartet has sung for the local Radio with great success.

We rejoice to see Mrs. J. D. Stewart out again after a severe and dangerous illness; also her husband, who attended her with such whole-hearted devotion. It is to be hoped that Mrs. Stewart will soon be her old self again.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillipes of New York City are new arrivals here, and will stay in Santa Barbara indefinitely.

On Sunday, November 11th, a strapping baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Crenshaw, of Yanonali Street.

The W. H. & F. M. Society rendered a splendid program last Sunday evening. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Nettie Jones, and a large and enthusiastic assembly was present.

Mrs. Reese, of 27 East Gutierrez Street, was hostess on Sunday, Nov. 11th, at a most enjoyable luncheon. Those who had the pleasure of being present on this occasion were: Rev. H. B. Thomas, Mr. John Collins of Texas, Mr. T. Moore, Mr. H. Alexander, Mr. George Jones, Mr. Smith of Los Angeles, Mr. Phillips of New York, and Mr. Wm. Burke. The repast was served by Miss Scott and Mrs. Reese. The delicious viands served consisted of Vegetable Soup, Salad, Fried Chicken, Roast Pork and Candied Sweet Potatoes, String Beans, Rice and Cream Gravy, Jelly and Relish, Hot Southern Biscuits, Apple Pie a la Mode, Tea and Coffee.

Address all news to The California Eagle to Mrs. A. L. Jones, 608½ Santa Barbara Street, not later than Monday of each week, or call 1510-W. Mrs. A. L. Jones, Agent.

JUST KU KLUXIN' AROUND

Chickens Coming Home to Roost

By: CHANDLER OWEN

A letter and an article in the Courier last week have caused us to write on the Ku Klux Klan this week. The letter quite correctly suggested that the Ku Klux Klan was trying to get Negroes into its fold. Certain conditions, too were laid down, namely, the Negroes must be Northern and protestants. All this is interesting. The Negroes will be divided geograpically into North and South groups; the Catholics too, will be set apart from the Protestants. Watch the subtlety of this lnie of division. The Southern cracker Ku Klux Klan, which has always inveighed against Northern (Yankee) "niggers"—is now extending the olive branch to this wing alone. We wonder if the reason is because the Southern Negroes have seen so much of the Klan's viciousness the Klan feels it would be futile to appeal to the Dixie brother. Or maybe the Imperial Wizard has selected the North because the blizzard of the black Klan—one Marcus Garvey—resides in this section!

It is a truism of philosophy that a lie often repeated gets to be believed. In many sections the Klan tells the lie that it is not opposed to Negroes. If Catholics are too strong, it is not opposed to Catholics there. When the Jews are very powerful, it is opposed only to Catholics, or Negroes.

But the Imperial Wizard, Evans, let the cat out of the bag at Dallas last week. The Negroes were classed by this biggest authority as impossible under all circumstances. The Jews were held on probation because, says Evans, their philosophy is "to get, to have and to hold." The true Klan spirit comes out here. It holds nothing against you if you will give up your "gettings and gottens," your "havings and your holdings." As we understand the Jewish character their race will be forever ineligible to the good graces of the Klan because they are no fools, and they get to hold. Moreover, they give frequently and freely but their donations are usually to education, humanity, enlightenment and culture—classifications any of which would exclude the Ku Klux morons.

The Imperial Wizard brings what appears on its face a queer charge against the Catholics. He says they (the Catholics) are especially strong where there is great ignorance. He does not charge the Catholics with responsibility for causing this condition—but very pointedly suggests that they at least seem to thrive on a condition of widespread ignorance. Before commenting further, let us remind the reader that these remarks emanate from the Imperial Wizard and that he is talking in Texas to 75,00 "grown-up white babies" who give Ten Dollars per to parade in a night-shirt and a hood, to join the organized and official lynching league where the professor of lynching gives lessons in tarring and feathering! Verily, it is the old case where competition creates hostility. The Ku Klux Klan thrives on ignorance. This motley crew is strongest in the South where the average expenditure for education is about $10.50 for a white child and $2.74 for a colored child. Like other germs of disease the Ku Klux Klan represents the human bacteria which vegetates and grows prolifically in the dark. It operates chiefly at midnight—not only physical but mental midnight! The Ku Klux ship of state sails along most smoothly on an intellectual Styx! It can make a Hindenburg drive during darkness. It fights like hell any law which requires its members to expose their faces to the light. It is lured by blackness. It revels in the dank and cavernous. Crouching, cringing and shrinking from both physical and intellectual light the Klan is a true anthropoid germ which shrivels and dies in the sun. It would open up the dykes and let in the dark waters of religious bigotry, race prejudice and national hate. All this requires ignorance—ignorance "palled in the dunnest smoke of hell." If the Catholic church thrives on such, it is truly a competitor of the Ku Klux Klan. It is taking the Klan's market. It is attracting the Klan's customers. It is robbing the Klan of patrons. It is selling a commodity to the Klan's consumers. The Katholic Church and the Klan are Kommon Kompetitors. The South, the Klan's chief field, is a land of undeveloped resources, rich in the raw materials of ignorance, ready for any exploiters of stupidity, illiteracy, gullibility and juvenile mentality. Any organization which thrives in such a condition unquestionably threatens the Ku Klux Klan.

COTTON MANUFACTURERS WILL NOT MOVE PLANTS SOUTH

Boston, Mass., Nov. 8—New England manufacturers of cotton goods, who contemplated moving their mills to Southern States, where they would be close to the source of their raw material and where they expected to find an abundance of cheap labor, have decided to remain in the North. The decision is due in large degree to the report of Tilton & Son, of Savannah, Ga., that it would be impossible to operate their mills with Colored help, after it is claimed, they had given this labor a fair, extended and impartial trial. Wages paid for this labor is said to be from 47 to 69 per cent cheaper in the South than in the North.

Anyone knowing the address or whereabouts of Joseph Clayborn, will confer a favor by communicating with Clarence Mills, 485 Oak Knoll Ave., Pasadena. Phone Colo 4985.

PAPEIN UNSATISFACTORY FOR MAKING TOUGH CUTS TENDER

Suggestions have frequently been made to nutrition workers in the United States Department of Agriculture to the effect that papaya leaves and also dried powder made from the fruit of the papaw could be used to make meats tender. Both the leaf and the fruit contain an enzyme which digests protein. A series of experiments conducted by the Bureau of Home Economics shows, however, that papein in either of these forms can not be considered desirable for rendering tough meat tender.

A solution of the powder was applied to cuts of meat from the shoulder and round, which were then separately cooked by boiling, frying and broiling. The enzymes acted rapidly on the connective tissues, especially when the meat was boiled, but the muscle fibres were made powdery and pasty at the surface. The meat was dry, lacking natural meat flavor, and had a bitter taste.

When the papaya leaves were crushed to extract the juice and wrapped around the meat for periods ranging from 6 to26 hours at both room and refrigerator temperatures, the wrapped meat was slightly more tender than the untreated sample, but tasted decidedly of the green and bitter juice of the leaves.

Additional leaves were obtained from Miami, Fla., through the Office of Foreign Seed and Plant Introduction. Results with these leaves were no more satisfactory than when papaya leaves grown in the Botanical Gardens at Washington, D. C., were used. In all cases the characteristic meat flavor tended to disappear and was replaced more or less by other flavors, particularly by a bitter flavor in some cases.

APPLE POMACE MAKES GOOD FEED

Thousands of tons of apple pomace are going to waste annually which profitably be turned into food for wintering cattle, says the United States Department of Agriculture. Studies to determine the food value and best methods of utilizing this by-product from commercial cider and vinegar mills have been made by the department. When the moist apple pomace can be used fresh or ensiled it yields a succulent cattle food comparable with corn silage. The quantity that can be used in this way is limited, however, because of the relatively high cost of transportation for material having such a high water content. Its most profitable utilization depends upon its preservation by dehydration and producing it as a commercial food. In feeding trials with dairy cows dried-apple pomace proved to be a palpable feed and appeared to be equal pound for pound of dry matter to good corn silage. The material was fed wet and replaced the corn silage in a ration including grain and hay.

ALL-RACE CONFERENCE TO MEET IN CHICAGO

All race Conference to meet in Chicago upon the state of the Race and to devise some common basis of action and plan of procedure. The plan has been approved by the various civic rights organizations who have united in the call for such a conference. The matter has been widely discussed and enthusiastically endorsed by the Negro press and organs of public opinion. The proposed plan of internal race organization and harmony is the most comprehensive and ambitious of any yet attempted. The details regarding the coming meting of the All-Race Conference are in the hands of a Committee of Arrangements of which Dean Miller is chairman, Mr. James L. Neill, Secretary, and Prof. John R. Hawkins, Treasurer.

LIBERALS DEFEND EVEN KLAN'S RIGHT OF FREE SPEECH

The constitutional right of the Ku Klux Klan to meet peacefully on private property is championed in a letter sent to Mayor James Haynes Holmes, Prof. Robert Morss Lovett and Dr. Harry F. Ward on behalf of the American Civil Liberties Union.

While there men and their organizations join in the Mayor's opposition to the Klan, they at the same time insist that the civil rights "of the enemies of civil liberty as of its friends" must be protected. Mayor Curley's action in barring all Klan meetings in Boston is characterized as an encroachment on the rights of free speech and assemblage.

"We are just as much opposed to the Ku Klux Klan as you are," the letter says in part. "We abhor its assumptions of private power against the law. We detest its secrecy, its bullying, its masked anarchy, just as you do. We do not think there is any proper place for such an organization in this country, and we are fighting it by such means as seem to us consistent with those principles. Suppression by force is not consistent with those principles.

HAS OUR NUMBER.

Congressman Dyer exhorts the members of our race to stack arms on strife, jealousy and petty wrangling, and get together in the essentials of life; and when we can do that thing as a race we can get somewhere.

Of course this sentiment has been our preachment for decades, but coming from the above source it demonstrates that the members of the dominant race have a true line on our failure to organize.

A DUTY TO PERFORM

Every member of our group in this section has a solemn duty to perform, and that duty is to continually be on the job, not only for the material things of life, but to assist in maintaining the highest standard of citizenship that it is possible to reach. In these days of false rumors of riots and near riots, there is a potent influence to discredit a race, despite the outward evidence of its amazing progress. To curtail this effort, we must demonstrate to the utmost that we are ambitious to take a place in the very front ranks for law, order and all of the elements which go to make us citizens worth while.

Here in Los Angeles we are confronted with conditions which we must meet. And that is to help instill in the newcomers, old timers and all that are on the streets, in public places, and on public conveyances, that a still tongue makes a wise head. We must get the message over that boistrous conduct on the street and in public places is a menace to the welfare of any people, and a stumbling block to race progress. We could cite instance after instance along this line, which puts the race in a bad light, and it is along these lines that all of us have a solemn duty to perform.

HERE THEY GO

Just as soon as Chief Vollmer announced the most progressive policy ever put forth by any police chief in this entire country for the benefit of all the people therein, we can hear the anvil chorus raise their hammers to knock, and of our group they are never left out when it comes to the hammer.

The chief reason which has been handed down by these hammer wielders is that they do not want a segregated police department.

As a matter of fact, with the present chief of police, we are farther away from segregation than ever before. Speaking in the presence of the writer, Chief Vollmer said, that he would create a district which would include a majority of colored people, and that this district would be served by a majority of colored officers, and that the captain of the district would be a colored man. That there would also be white officers in this district, in fact in all districts white and colored officers. Further, the Chief is reported as saying that he knows no color in policing this city, what he wants is efficient officers. His record in Berkeley bears out the same.

In the past we have had, not only segregation, but a misuse of civil service rules in so far as colored officers were concerned. And now comes a man who states that he is against such a system, and on the strength of this statement the hammers begin to fly.

It's high time that we show our appreciation for public officials who, not unlike the peerless Roosevelt, stand for "all men up and no man down". Be that as it may, the Chief says that he will do and be guided by what the law abiding citizens want done, and will always be found not agreeing to anything which the thimble riggers and crooks want done.

Upon every section of the city there is a great rally for better churches and homes, while the business end has been looked over. We can't get our people to see that unless we open some avenue of employment for the Negroes here, and those who are coming to the city, we will, in the near future, have a serious problem on our hands. Now and then one makes a faint effort in this direction, but soon becomes disgusted and we hear no more of them.

If the men with means would reach out it would be a stimulous to reach the less concerned. While the city is under an era of reorganization, let the Negroes unite for their own good, and the future of their own race's employment.

While we are accredited with being the politest people of the world, yet we imitate the other races too much when it comes to chivalry towards the female sex. Just because of the [illegible] of the South, and their worn out teaching of race [illegible], we have a sense of getting even, and with that in [illegible] will not offer a seat to any other lady than our own. [illegible] the Negro is the most perfect of all human beings, [illegible] inclined to hold in his heart animosity towards his [illegible]. If he were on the level with them there would be [illegible] in this country because of the insolence [illegible] is receiving at every step of the way.

[illegible] in a spark of refinement. Hats consist only nar[illegible] owing to a brute and when he felt that he is upon [illegible], even the very [illegible] black, [illegible] to be raised. [illegible] does not fit in by the great construction and develop[illegible] many highest ideals.

hearing distance: "Good bye Brother John, give my love to sister Mary and all the children."

Again, there are a few points that might as well be gotten clearly in the heads of Negroes and white people, namely, the 12 million American Negroes stand head and shoulders above all the Negroes in the world. The American Negroes have more wealth, more education, more culture, more economic and social freedom than Africans, West Indians, or any other Negroes anywhere. Qae. Why? In Africa we have about two million white people lost among one hundred fifty million Negroes. In the West Indies we have about twenty-five thousand white people lost among two million Negroes. In America, on the contrary, we have about ten million Negroes interspersed among one hundred million white people. The American Negroes, it is true, are here and there subjected to insult, proscription, caste, wanton narrowing of opportunities, and many indignities, (most of which these other Negroes are subjected to as well), still they have risen above it higher, more quickly and more securely than the others. The explanation for this seeming superiority of the American Negro is to be found only in his greater contact with civilized white people—a contact which has enabled the American Negro to imitate the achievements of the white man. Only a fool today can pooh pooh imitation. Imitation is the method whereby achievement is transmitted. It makes it possible for one generation to take up where its predecessor left off. Imitation makes it unnecessary for a man or a generation to produce all new inventions and discoveries. The school system is based upon the principle of imitation. It is founded on the principle: that acquiring knowledge is easier than originating it. This attempt to disparage imitation originated with masters. What would have happened if the slaves had imitated their masters? This. The slave saw the master owning property, enjoying leisure, educating his children, living in mansions, taking trips, accumulating wealth. If the slave had imitated this, then slavery would have been destroyed. So the master always urged the slave not to imitate him. The Negro slave was to have a world of his own—but it was to be a world of Negro slavery! The white man was to have a world of his own—a world of white mastery!

The Negroes could not leave this country in any large numbers if they wished to—even if the white people would let them go. The transportation facilities would be inadequate—even with the assistance of the Black Star Line. Moreover, the white people will not let the Negroes migrate from Georgia, Mississippi and Florida, to New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio. A labor agent in Alabama about a year ago was fined nearly $5,000 for bringing three Negroes away. Mind you, this was simply bringing the Negroes from one part of the country to the other (from which they might conceivably return), so you know they would not permit the Negroes to go to Africa (from which they could never return).

To recapitulate, there is no danger that these Negroes here will go to Africa; the only danger is that they will be robbed, fleeced and skinned by sable schemers under the pretext that they are going to carry Negroes back to Africa. The American Negroes are going to stay in this land, builded by the hands of their fathers, saturated with their blood and watered by their tears. If Marcus Garvey wants to go, even he will respond when the hat is passed, to send him either back to Jamaica or to Africa. The Negroes in America can well do without this imperial, cable Buzzard. Of course we recognize that it would be pretty hard on the West Indians and the Africans to be forced to tolerate him in their midst.

Has it ever occur to you that most of the popular music of the past ten years was written by Jewish or Negro writers, especially the song hits? That the most successful ragtime and jazz players are those of the Jewish and Negro races?

The fact that this race is so successful in writing and playing the style of music so peculiar to our own race, proves that there are some fundamental elements common to both.

The average person has perhaps been accustomed to think of the Hebrew as a man of trade, as a moneymaker. It is an accepted fact that the commercial life is one that excludes all form of sentiment or emotion. The successful business man among other races is generally one whom we might call cold blooded. One who is devoid of artistic impulses. A creature without nerves or emotions, and therefore he is a creature who has very little artistic instinct or creative ability, is also becoming the most musical race? The majority of the younger artists before the public today are of Jewish origin, no matter how they put themselves.

It is the combination of shrewd business ability on one hand, and the wealth of emotional, creative capacity on the other that is producing this condition. These two fundamentals will eventually place this race face to face in the ranks of men.

Now, if the Negro has a wealth of emotional and creative capacity, can he not develop the business ability of any other male around him?

History tells us that the two races are allied. To this, the exception for some of the similarities found among them. Thus, it seems that business ability might be acquired very easily on the part of our own people if we made a effort to study these people and their methods.

It is our opinion that the greatest drawback that one finds in our race is the refusal of our people to accept responsibility. Everything worth while carries responsibility with it. We desire to operate stores and factories but we do not wish to stay on the job and look after them. Every little picnic or party that happens must find us present. We wish to give inferior goods and receive superior money. We are sloppy or slovenly with our work and want the same pay that a careful, neat person receives. With few exceptions, one can look around and point out the work of a colored man without a moment's hesitation. The person who is not able to do so does not observe details very closely.

Another form of responsibility, and we believe that this is by far the most important, is the fact that we are laying the foundation for future generations to build upon. If we do not preserve our talents and cultivate them, what will be the future results. In plain English, we are responsible if genius in the form of artistic, sculptural or literary ability is born in our midst. If we do not encourage it, if we do not develop it, if we do not preserve it, we are responsible. Every race has had its geniuses, and the race will be ever more spirited than it has been up to the present time.

TIME FOR ACTION

Now is the time for action and hustle. Perseverance and the present Big Vote Offer can bring success and victory to any man or woman in the race.

Good intentions merely will not win—all the "wishing and hoping" in the world will do no good. The live ones who will come out on top are the ones who are now WORKING and WORKING hard. From the looks of things now, some of the candidates who have been the leaders in the past will be the ones most disappointed when the final count is made.

IN THE MUSIC WORLD

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 10.—Madam Anita Patti Brown, the well-known singer, is recovering from a recent illness. Mrs. Lonelle Lyles-Smith has begun her season of concert work on tour under the direction of Arthur Brown. Florence Cole Talbert is on the faculty of the National University of Music.

Roland Hayes, the eminent singer, will appear in concert in the loop under white direction, and will be given a city-wide ovation in Chicago.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 10.—It has been known for some time that the colored people of this state are not satisfied with the way the inspecting is done in the colored schools at present. Clyde E. Tuck, in a letter to a local paper, says, "Charles A. Lee, State Superintendent of Schools appointed for inspector of colored schools, is a man who is president of an Agricultural College for Negroes in Charlton County, Supervisor of Smith-Lover Agents, and who has many other activities. But no man can do everything, and the result is that the Negro schools in Missouri are suffering for want of adequate inspection, according to principals of these schools." Another of these white men will learn they cannot please the people by filling prominent places with the "Uncle Tom" type of Negro who considers it a mark of intelligence to parade about with a bunch of alfalfa under one arm of an ear of corn in his basket. —J. M. B. Staff Correspondent

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 10.—In October $4,207,882 were received for Missionary and Benevolent Work in the Methodist Episcopal Church, according to a statement issued today by Dr. M. W. Stone, Treasurer of the Committee on Conservation and Advance of the Methodist Episcopal Church. While the Centenary five year period does not close until May 31, 1924, the fiscal year of the Board of Foreign Missions, the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension closes on October 31st, and all appropriations for missionary work in 1924 are made according to money received up to October 31, 1923. Dr. Stone said that the receipts in the month of October this year exceeds that of October, 1922, by $130,284. This makes a record in the Methodist Episcopal Church and perhaps in any church for the month's receipts. Colored churches have kept up their quotas well.

Although the Centenary Church Campaign closed on October 31, which is the fiscal year, there have been an avalanche of telegrams, registered

It was evidently the same spirit that trusts in a Voodoo charm instead of the promises of God, that runs to mediums and fortune tellers, and enchanters, and hopes in the offcast and help of back-pieces. More than that it is the spirit of middlemanness, the spirit of investigation—gone astray. But above all, it is the spirit of blind disobedience that comes of the heart not being perfect toward God. A heart not perfect toward God is not only subject to natural temptations, but to the whims and fancies and false thoughts, and rebellious feelings, and stubborn ways. It was said of Amaziah, that "he did that which was right in the sight of God, but not with a perfect heart". There were influences that made him do the right thing, but he was not wholehearted about it. He was good by constraint.

But why Amaziah carried the gods of Edom back to the land of Israel and worshipped them, seems yet, with all our reasoning unaccountable. The excuse of Ahaz was that the gods of the Kings of Syria helpt them, that the God of Israel would not help him. Therefore he would sacrifice to them. This was plausible, but not true, but Ahaz had forsaken the God of Israel, who could not, therefre, help him.

1. The Pride of Success. Amaziah had succeeded against the Edomites. According to the instruction of the prophet he had sent back the one hundred allied troops he had hired of the king of Israel, and had gone against Edom with his own forces. He had signally won. Now instead of humbly giving God the glory, as David or Asa or Jehoshaphat would have done, he became exhalted in his own opinion. He was now a mighty warrior, a wonderful and successful man. His troops confided in him, even flattered him. We love to think we are great and tremendously important. It is a natural temptation, and, in the end, a fatal one. Millions of souls in hell are there because pride noted success once attended them.

[illegible] pride [illegible] of [illegible] sorest

II. Unheeding and Headstrong. "Hear, and your soul shall live", said the prophet. But a conceited man refuses to hear. Said James, the apostle, speaking in the spirit of the Christ, "Be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath."—James 1:19. But Amaziah would not hear.

1. Felt Strong. He deems Amaziah felt strong. And had God been with him he would have been strong. But past success is no guarantee of future glory. Salvation is of God and victory belongs to Him. He giveth it to whom He wills, and if He always on the side of the heaviest cannon as Napoleon thought nor yet on the side of the greatest numbers. He loves righteousness and judgment, and eventually they alone shall prevail who fear Him and work righteousness. Because of [illegible] thy heart lift. There is always a place for us to fall thee up because of past success. Ponder the path of thy feet. "Be sure God's with thee. Let thy goings be established before God.

2. Had Been Insulted. Amaziah hired a hundred thousand soldiers from Joash of the dynasty of Jehu, King of Israel. The prophet of Jehovah, by the word of the Lord, had him to send back these men. They got angry, and on their way back did a lot of damage in Amaziah's dominions. No doubt King Joash got angry also, ascribing what seemed a grand insult not to God, but to Amaziah. It is possible that strained conditions existed from that time between the two courts. Men do not understand God when you believe: and when you obey God; and when you do it halfheartedly, they believe in you some less, as trying to please God rather than yourself.

Amaziah, feeling strong, decided to avenge himself of the damage done him and settled the matter in battle. Many a sins has provoked the fight, then perished in the battle he provoked.

Joash did not want to fight. He

"Turn ye at My reproof. I will pour out My spirit unto you; I will make known My words unto you. Because I have called, and ye refused, I have stretched out my hand and no man regardeth; . . . also will laugh at your calamity; and mock when your fear cometh." Pro. 1:23[illegible], etc.

Let us boast of our wisdom, our wealth, our achievements, our might, and forget God, and what of it all? Let this nation do so, and what of it? Let any do so, and what of it? The nations before Him are as a drop in the bucket; they are less than the dust that rattles in the balances, they are "as the chaff that the wind driveth away".

Joash signally defeated him. His cause was wrong. He was the rebel. He was overthrown. He lost his opportunity to repent. He would not hear him among the Philistines where he and they sent and slew him at Lachish. He fled from his own people, had sought refuge. His end was miserable in spite of his success, because he became proud and self important, and presumptuous, and turned away from his God. Mark the perfect man and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace (Ps. 37:37), but the wicked shall be turned into hell with all the nations that forget God.

How different is King Amaziah from King Jesus who came and did the will of His Father. He did not fly from death, but bravely faced death, even for His enemies. Who reconciled us to God by His own death, and saves us by His life. The son of David and the son of God, King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

"Jesus shall reign where'e the sun Does his successive journeys run."

His own received Him not, but put Him to death, yet He fled not from death, but freely laid down His life for them and us. He that believeth on Him is not confounded; but hath everlasting life. Amen.

Valuable Prizes For All, an "Everybody Wins" Campaign

The California Eagle today makes an announcement that will be of intense interest to every reader of this paper and to every race man, or race woman, boy or girl in Los Angeles, and in every city where The California Eagle is read. Everyone knows the tremendous strides this paper is making in public favor. Its large number of readers prove that conclusively. The California Eagle has launched a $4,000 "Everybody Wins" Grand Prize distribution, the purpose of which, primarily, is to still further increase the influence of prestige, through its friends, each of whom is given the opportunity of becoming the owner of valuable prizes without the expenditure of one penny. Any man or woman, boy or girl, is eligible to enter the election. When you have been nominated, either by yourself or a friend, you are given a rare chance to make use of any spare time you may have to secure for yourself any of the $4,000 worth of splendid and costly prizes. Remember, not a cent of investment is necessary now or ever. It costs you nothing to enter the "Everybody Wins" campaign. All you need is to nominate yourself by using the nomination blank which appears at the bottom of page one. You then start earning votes right away. If you do not wish to nominate yourself, you have the privilege of being nominated by some friend, or you may nominate some acquaintance and thus help him or her to win this dandy automobile or one of the other prizes. (See the big announcement on Page 9 of this issue.)

A magnificient, new, latest model, touring car; a bag of gold containing $200.00 in that shining, precious metal; other cash prizes of $100, $75, and $50, besides a 20-per cent cash award in every active participant who does not win one of the big awards.

SPECIAL MERIT PRIZE

As a special offer to some "live," energetic candidate, we will award a $50.00 merit prize to the person who brings in the greatest number of NEW SUBSCRIBERS by 9 P M., November 17th. A new subscriber is one who has not been taking the California Eagle.

These are the wonderful prizes that will be distributed absolutely free by The California Eagle to those who desire them.

The plan adopted for these many and costly gifts is the fairest and most impartial imaginable. Friends and readers of this paper are to decide the big automobile. Free votes on the big automobile. These votes will be the means by which the prize winners will be determined. The California Eagle has thousands of friends and well-wishers who will be anxious to help in this liberal plan.

The California Eagle has provided that every participant who takes active part in the campaign shall be handsomely compensated for the time and effort expended.

Can Nominate Yourself

As you will discover by reading the announcement that you can devote just as much or little of your spare time as you wish to the pleasant pastime of collecting votes, with the assurance that you will be well paid by The California Eagle with a handsome prize or a sum of cash. You simply cannot lose—"Everybody Wins."

Our Slogan—"Everybody Wins"

The prizes are almost fabulously valuable, considering the extreme shortness of the time in which they will be distributed. Imagine securing a prize which would cost you over $1795.00 in cash to buy for a few days' pleasant effort in vote-getting. And that is all you have to do—simply gather in the votes. When you get started the votes pile up at an amazing rate.

But one of the biggest features of all in this Grand Prize Distribution is the fact that there will be no losers, as a cash commission of 20 per cent (one-fifth of every subscription you collect) will be paid to all ACTIVE non-prize winners, which in itself is an excellent proposition. The object of this campaign is to advertise jointly The California Eagle and the splendid qualities of the Reo touring car, to secure new and renewal subscriptions to The California Eagle, and last, but not least, to win a warm welcome for The California Eagle everywhere.

In short, The California Eagle will reward its friends very liberally indeed for their assistance in introducing this paper into more homes in the city and community, instead of employing outside solicitors at fancy salaries to accomplish the same result.

A Short Campaign

This campaign will not be a long-drawn-out affair of several months' duration, but it extends over a period of only a few weeks, closing Saturday night, December 8th. Think of being able to secure in about six short weeks prized and awards that would ordinarily require months, yes, even years, of self-denying and saving to acquire. These many awards will all be distributed for your spare time and interest in helping to enlarge our subscription list.

The prize election will be more interesting and more profitable to the participants than any ever undertaken in this section or by any race newspaper anywhere. The prizes are not only rich in dollars and cents value, but are in keeping with the broad and liberal policy along which the whole grand prize distribution has been drawn. Ambition and energy are the only requisites for success in it.

Cash Your Prize

Perhaps you already have a car—in which case you may cash your prize and expend the $1795.00 in travel, the nucleus for an education, or for a home on your lot: $1795.00 is pretty good money to add to your present income for your spare moments during the next few weeks—for your spare time that would otherwise go to waste.

Little Effort Required

There is so little required of you to win out in The California Eagle's "Everybody Wins" campaign. All that you have to do is to ask your friends to save their votes for you when they pay up a subscription to The California Eagle. The main thing necessary for you to win is to let your friends know that you are in to win and that you want their votes.

You Cannot Lose

You are paid for every minute of your spare time; every active non-prize winner is given an absolute guarantee that he or she will be paid for their time. One-fifth of every subscription is yours if you fail to land one of the big prizes. That is an excellent proposition in itself, for we all have some spare moments after work that we could turn into cash.

Information and Assistance

In order to give everyone who participates in this big campaign the greatest possible assistance and to properly handle the subscriptions so that each new subscriber will get his paper promptly without confusion, the publishers of The California Eagle have secured the services of a circulation manager who is thoroughly experienced in this line of work, and he will give his entire time and attention to those who desire to share in this Grand Prize Distribution.

If there is anything at all about the entire proposition that is not perfectly plain to you, come to The California Eagle office, 824 Central Ave., or write or telephone—829-244—and secure first-hand information how to go about winning the prize of your choice. Or, better still, clip out the nomination blank appearing on the first page in this issue and send or bring it in. We will gladly see that you are fully informed regarding the entire plan.

The names of the candidates will be published in The California Eagle next week. Be sure your name is in the list.

THE ELECTION IS NOW OPEN

The first vote coupon appears in this paper—cut it out and start your friends saving these voting coupons for you. Nominate yourself or some friend at once. You will have the jump on the rest if you start NOW!

Office Open Evenings

For the benefit of those who cannot call at Campaign Headquarters during the day, The California Eagle office will remain open each evening until 8 o'clock.

Miss J. J. Caldwel, recently of Kansas City, Mo., is now in Los Angeles and is associated with the Four Brown Candy Company here. Miss Caldwell is a former Angeleno, and a host of friends and admirers are glad to welcome her back in our midst.

Coolidge's Opportunity

We don't expect any big thing from Coolidge. There are no prospects that he will go down in history as any great and glorious statesman. He has no secure reputation for scholarship or original thinking. He has been thrust into the world's most powerful position by accident. Granting all of this, there is no reason why he should not take full advantage of his opportunity.

Shakespeare said in Julius Cæsar: "There is a tide in the affairs of men, Which taken at the flood, Leads on to fortune— Omitted—all their voyage is bound in shallows and in misery. Upon such a full sea are we now afloat And we must take the current when it serves Or lose our venture."

President Coolidge has an opportunity right now to do what Grant did in 1871. He should start a vigorous campaign of activities to crush this viper of the Ku Klux Klan. No time needs to be lost in endless investigations which might be properly termed methods for delaying action on crying needs. The New York World, Hearst's International, Governor Parker of Louisiana, Governor Walton of Oklahoma, and numerous responsible individuals and organizations have accumulated ample well authenicated information and evidence to satisfy any reasonable man that the Ku Klux Klan should be speedily extirpated from the American soil.

So far no decent and responsible man has protested Governor Walton's activities. By giving out the information he is holding in reserve many of the noisy protestants against his action would be quickly silenced. The quick response of volunteers to Walton's call suggests that there is a deep, bitter, smoldering but widespread discontent which is waiting for leadership to become articulate.

If President Coolidge would leave a career of honorable and courageous service to his children and the children of this nation—let him take the lead in driving out this subtle Ku Klux Klan serpent. He will then be remembered as the brave man who broke the Ku Klux strike against law and order. He will go "up" in history as the man who in the 20th century made America a fit place in which our children's children might dwell.

PIONEER DRUGGIST SUCCUMBS

DR. Q. S. A. CUMMINGS IS LAID TO REST

The funeral of Dr. Q. S. A. Cummings who passed away last Saturday was held at the Roberts Undertaking Parlors at 2 p. m. Wednesday of this week.

Dr. Cummings was well known in local business and professional circles, having been actively engaged in the drug business here for eighteen years. For many years he conducted pharmacy on east 9th. Street and a time at 12th. and Hooper Ave., only recently moving to Watts.

Dr. Cummings was a native of the Danish West Indies, and was forty nine years of age at the time of his death. He received his education at Boston Mass. and at a prematurely early age was noted as a most brilliant scholar.

The deceased w as a member of the Forresters, and of the masonic order.

School in Oklahoma

Thus far Governor J. C. Walton of Oklahoma has been quite successful with his school. He has taught the mob violence Ku Klux Klan a lesson in law and order. In teaching them that the militia would shoot if necessary—and shoot to kill—this gang of gunmen and yeggmen had to swallow a bitter pill. "They shall not pass," said the governor and history will record that they did not pass.

It seems to us, however, that the most amusing part of the whole episode is the crocodile tears which the tar and feather fraternity is shedding over alleged autocracy and usurped power on the part of Governor Walton. Think of this crowd of outlaws which has always murdered without justification, mutilated without pity and flogged without mercy—think of this unspeakable clan of cowards yelling about autocracy. It should be remembered, too, that the Governor of Oklahoma has acted strictly within his legal, constitutional and moral rights. He has performed a duty which cried to high heaven for a man. It is the business of a governor to enforce the law. The militia is at his service to be used when the ordinary course of the law ceases to function—or, as in Oklahoma, completely breaks down. Neither life nor property was safe in this state. The klan burned down forty-four square blocks of Negro homes in the Tulsa riot. It has murdered and butchered both colored and white persons without fear of punishment. The courts, police, prosecutor—all the machinery of law enforcement—was in the hands of the Kluxers. Governor Walton has taken the only proper course—one which all good citizens and decent individuals commend and endorse.

Let the school in law and order inaugurated by the governor continue without vacation. The pupils who will attend have just entered the kindergarten of law and order. They are so backward that no vacation or recess is needed. Make Oklahoma's grown up white babies attend this school in civil liberty and social decency twenty-four hours each day and 365 days per year.

CHURCH REJOICES OVER RETURN OF PASTOR

TABERNACLE BAPTIST CHURCH AND COMMUNITY AT LARGE WELCOME THE HOME-COMING OF REV. J. D. GORDON

After an absence of several years, Rev. Dr. J. D. Gordon has returned to Los Angeles and, yielding to the importunities of those who knew and loved and admired him in the old days, has resumed the spiritual leadership of Tabernacle Baptist Church.

For the last few Sundays the old spirit has indeed pervaded the holy atmosphere of that place of worship; not only the church, but the lay circles in which this militant Christian moves feel and welcome the stimulus of his presence.

Dr. Gordon has outlined and is already active in putting into execution a program that will speedily restore Tabernacle Baptist Church to its former glory and prestige. First, he expects all those whose purpose and desire it may be to rise to higher and nobler things, to attend at least one service on each Sabbath, and to send their children to the Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. sessions, that the seed of Christianity may be planted early in their youthful minds, and bear noble fruit in the form of lofty and wholesome ideals in later life, arming them spiritually to meet and conquer the temptations that will beset their path.

He also calls attention to the fact that moral support alone, unfortunately, does not suffice to maintain the church in this materialistic age. The Church is a social as well as spiritual center, or should be, if it is to fulfil its mission as an influence for good in the community, and therefore is entitled to and must have financial support for its upkeep, in proportion to the cost of other things. This burden, if distributed justly involves no hardship upon members, visitors or friends, but alone enables the Church to exist and play its beneficient and uplifting part in our community life.

With regard to the duty of members to the church, Dr. Gordon urges one and all to take an active, rather than a passive part, in the development of the church.

To all who left the Tabernacle fold, with or without cause, Dr. Gordon extends a cordial invitation to return, and pledges that personal bickerings and antagonisms shall be given no chance to destroy the harmony and Christian co-operation necessary if the church is to survive.

Says Rev. Gordon: "Everything will be done in the love of God, according to the highest rule of Christian ethics and civil justice."

The Eagle joins in extending a hearty welcome to Dr. Gordon on his return to our midst, and may his sojourn be a long and active and prosperous one!

EAST SIDE TRADING COMPANY

In connection with the volume of business which the East Side Trading Co. is destined to do, is the entry in a large way into the Poultry business. This business is one of the largest as well as the most staple in this section. Heretofore all other groups have had a monopoly of this trade, but with the entry of the East Side Trading Company, with a large vision and backed up with a poultry ranch already established it can be seen at a glance the possibilities of the same.

This Company will not only be able to sell at retail but will be in a position to serve the smaller dealers and give them the benefit of as low and possibly lower price than they could procure their poultry elsewhere, dealers can then be located in all parts of the city where our people reside.

If you stand for the promotion of an enterprise worth while get behind and give your support to this Company main branch on 23rd. St. near Hooper Avenue.

ATTORNEY M. H. BROYLES RETURNS AFTER BRIEF ABSENCE

Attorney M. H. Broyles, 630 Bryson Bldg., has just returned to Los Angeles from Houston, Texas, having been called to the latter city on professional business.

At the same time Atty. Broyles' return has been signalized by a notable legal victory in the local courts. He represented Milo Robert S. Lee, well known dancer and entertainer, in a divorce suit against his wife, Bettie Slee. Evidence in the form of photographs, and perfervid love letters written to "darling Jack" and "Darling Daddy" (who, it appeared was Jack Meeker, of Venice) proved conclusively that Mrs. Slee's affections were strongly centered on "another man" and a decree was granted Mr. Broyles' client.

Where to Attend Church

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH
Y. M. C. A. 9th and Hemlock Sts.
Rev. H. D. Prowd, Pastor

The Lesson in our Sunday School on God's promises to Abraham was most helpfully discussed. At the 11 o'clock service there was a remarkable demonstration of The Holy Spirit while the word was being unfolded. Dr. Prowd preached from "Nehemiah 9:21—Forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing, their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not." Truly the Lord was in His Sanctuary.

At 7 p. m. the B. Y. P. U. held a splendid session. The discussion of John 9th, was entered into by all Mr. Barstow Duncan furnished a musical number on the program in masterly style.

At night Dr. Prowd preached on the subject of Hope, and took for his text Psalm 40:1—"I waited patiently for the Lord." Again the Lord was on hand to bless us. At the close an excellent young man joined the church.

Mrs. Prowd made quite an encouraging address to the church, while the church in turn congratulated her on her return home.

This Sunday is with us "Go to Church Sunday" and we invite all. At night the Lord's Supper will be observed. Come praying for a blessing.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH
740 Maple Avenue
Rev. T. L. Griffith, Pastor

The pastor filled the pulpit Sunday A. M. Subject 4th Chapter Zechariah Verse 6 and 7—Not by might nor by power, but by my spirit saith the Lord. Many beautiful points were brought out as to what the Christian Church can do if the spirit of God is within. A wonderful sermon it was—we were delighted to hear our pastor after being silent for the past six weeks on account of the visiting ministers that were in the city.

At night the Rev. Mr. Broils of Kansas preached, taking for his subject, Luke 22:19,20—This do in remembrance of me. Three additions to the church. A cordial welcome awaits all who come within our gates.

WALL ST. CHRISTIAN CHURCH
E. 8th and Wall Sts.

Our services last Lord's day were up to the standard. We had a splendid Bible School at 9:45 a. m. Rev. F. C. Cothran spoke at 11 a. m. and brought us a most inspiring message. Again he spoke at 7:30 p. m. and brought us another inspirational message. Our success is assured if we believe, work and trust God. We don't believe in boasting and spluttering, but to quietly work and trust God and run the race with patience ever looking to Jesus the author and finisher of our faith. All are invited to come and worship with us. The order of services is Bible School, 9:45 a. m.; preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

WARD CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH
1252 East 25th St.
B. R. Guy, Pastor

Services here last Sunday were very encouraging. Good Sunday School conducted by Mrs. Effie White the assistant superintendent.

The morning services were a real lovely, general class and Sacrament service, at which three persons joined the church. Both Endeavors were interesting and instructive.

At night the pastor spoke from the text—Go Forward. One young man joined the church.

Next Sunday will be Trustee Day. All are cordially invited to attend.

REVIVAL STILL ON AT WESLEY M. E. CHURCH
8th and San Julian Sts.
Rev. A. P. Shaw, Pastor

One of the greatest revivals in the history of this city is now on at Wesley Chapel. Great crowds are attending each service and more than forty persons have joined the church, twelve of whom were converts. The National Evangelistic singer, W. M. Lewis is both a genius and a singer—he is truly soul-winner; hear him.

A unique service will be held Sunday. All day services will be held. One of the features of the day will be exhibits of their business on the part of the business people of the city who are cordially invited to bring their wares to show the people of the city what they are doing. Regular services will be held morning and evening, the pastor preaching and Mr. Lewis singing. In the afternoon the whole city is invited to be with us in an Old Time Old Folks Service. Car owners are urged to bring some aged or infirm person to the church in the afternoon. Hurry or you won't get standing room at any of the services.

TABERNACLE BAPTIST CHURCH
12th and Hemlock Sts.
Rev. J. D. Gordon, Pastor

Last Sunday being the first Sunday in the month, the morning service was enjoyed by our usual testimony meeting, where many of the members testified to the fact that notwithstanding the storm, they stood fast waiting on the salvation of the Lord and was able to rejoice over the victory achieved, through the blessings of the Lord.

At night Rev. F. H. Davis, our Assistant Pastor, delivered a brief but interesting message to us, it being our usual communion service. We were blessed with new additions to the church both morning and evening.

Our Choir under the leadership of Mrs. Annie T. Lewis is now preparing for a Musical Cantata to be given Christmas morning at 5 o'clock, our Choir is taking on new life by the adding of new members. Many souls Sunday morning testified to the fact that the spirit that once pervaded in Tabernacle was again present in much power last Sunday.

WEST SIDE MISSION—A. M. E.
1511 W. 36th St.
Major G. W. Prioleau, Pastor

A splendid congregation greeted the pastor last Sunday with a hearty welcome, and congratulations upon his return to the Mission. The pastor preached from 1 Peter 4:8—And above all things have fervent love among yourselves, for love will cover a multitude of sins.

The Sunday School was well attended, there was a slight falling off on account of the closing of last Sunday.

The A. C. E. League was largely attended and an enthusiastic meeting was had.

The Mission starts out with the determination to do for God and humanity greater things than formerly. Come and help.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
34th Street and Central Avenue
Rev. E. E. Lightner, Pastor

Good services were held at this church the past Sunday. Rev. R. H. Wade was the speaker at the morning hour and brought to us an excellent message on: "Covetousness." Many members and friends partook of the Lord's Supper which was administered at the close of the service. Mrs. Burwell of Washington, D. C. sang a solo which was much enjoyed by all present. One person was accepted into full membership of the church. The Pastor occupied the pulpit at the evening hour and gave the second in a series on: "New Testament Characters." The subject for Sunday night was: "Cornelius." This Sunday will have good things in store for us. The pastor will fill the pulpit at both hours. Special music will be rendered. You are cordially invited to worship with us at all times.

BIRCH STREET CHRISTIAN CHURCH—
Corner 14th and Birch Street
Elder A. W. Jacobs, Pastor

Last Lord's Day was a great day in true Christian services. Many happy faces were welcomed. Some were visiting for their first time, others in their regular places. All showed the spirit of interest and earnestness. Bible School was good. A new Bible Class for men only is to soon be begun and we shall be glad to enroll you now if you want to know more about His Word. At eleven the pastor Elder A. W. Jacobs discussed John 12:32—"The Magnitude of Christ." A good audience was there to give inspiration and to hear the message, at 7:00 P. M. the Y. P. S. C. E. was also good and regular evening services at 8:00 o'clock brought us a message from the 136th Psalm, 23rd verse. High and Low tide spiritually. We were made to feel happy as we listened to the lovely music by the Choir. It was fine. Also the audience was grateful for a wonderful solo by Mrs. Sterling Leo, "Only a Touch." When you are looking for a place where you can feel a breeze of welcome. Come to Birch Street Christian Church. Services 9:45 and 11 a. m. Sundays. Thursdays, 8:00 p. m.; Fridays 7:30 p. m.

PHILLIPS CHAPEL C. M. E. CHURCH—
436 Ramsaur Avenue, Watts, Calif.
L. S. White, Pastor

Sunday was a high day at our church. Sunday school session was splendid, under the able leadership of Mr. J. B. Harper, Supt., who has worked the membership up from three to twenty-seven.

All were glad to welcome our Pastor back for another year. He preached an eloquent and inspiring sermon, subj.: The Great Commission. Matt. 28:19.

Three new members entered the Christian fold, making a total of five since the conference. Rev. White is doing a great work in the Lord's vineyard, and is fast bringing our church to the front rank. A drive is soon to be launched for a $500 fund; the pastor says little but he is working unceasingly.

Come where the Gospel is preached and the Songs of zion sung.

Our Church debt is only $100.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH—
33rd and Hooper Sts.
M. Frederick Mitchell, Minister

Pastor Mitchell filled the pulpit Sunday morning, taking as his subject, "The Call of Abram." In the afternoon as had been announced, the ground breaking service took place. This service from every viewpoint broke all previous records in the history of the activities of the Christian Church in Los Angeles. Despite the pouring down rain, more than three hundred people—white and colored—took active part with us. Many more drove up in their cars on account of the rain refrained from getting out. The program consisted of prayers, music and speeches. Madam Brandon's Choir of the New Hope Baptist Church was in fine trim. The music was so inspiring that some of our white guests claimed they had never listened to such heart-felt music before. Our Choir under the direction of Mrs. Spruill rendered excellent service. Madam Hattie E. Norwood was the soloist for the day. Mrs. Norwood gripped her audience with her melodious voice. Notable among our guests were: Hon. Chas. C. Chapman; Mrs. C. A. Bass, Editor California Eagle; Atty. E. C. Jennings; Prof. J. C. Banks; Prof. B. H. Graham, State Supervisor of the American Woodmen; Rev. J. W. Moodins, one of our leading white ministers; Rev. W. C. Hutchinsin, Pres. Christian Ministerial Union of Southern California (White); Rev. Geo. Richa (white) and more than a dozen of his members; Dr. H. H. Towles, one of our prominent physicians, together with Mr. John Carter and Prof. L. S. Anderson used the pick and shovel, while Madam Norwood sang sweetly.

More than Two Hundred Dollars was collected. The contract for our temporary church home is let and the work commences this week.

Regular services next Sunday. We will worship in the parlors of our pastor, 15[illegible] E. 22nd St. All members and friends are invited to be present.

TRINITY BAPTIST CHURCH
W. 36th and Normandie Ave.
Rev. J. A. H. Eldridge, Pastor

Our church received a great spiritual blessing at eleven o'clock. Rev. H. C. Davis (a former pastor) spoke very plain and practical from 2nd Thes. and the first three verses. Our pastor filled the pulpit at 7:30 after which the Lord's Supper was administered. Our Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. continue to grow. Come out and help us make them what they should be. If you are living in this vicinity come and join with us and we will do thee good.

The Pastor's Aid Club reached its first mile post Oct. 10th and will give a reception Saturday evening at the church in honor of our pastor. All members are invited.

Our Anniversary service will be Sunday evening at 7:30, at which time a program will be rendered.

PHILLIPS CHAPEL C. M. E. CHURCH—1406 Newton Steet
Rev. R. W. Undewood, Pastor

Last Sunday was another spiritual day. For the past few Sundays it seemed that God is paying us special attention. The pastor preached his first sermon in the second ecclesiastical year. He preached to the heart of every one. Five were added to the church. The choir under the direction of Prof. Mitchell sang to the delight and edification of the congregation as usual.

Strangers and visitors are always welcome.

If you enjoy good service come and worship with us.

METROPOLITAN BAPTIST CHURCH—
37th and Paloma Streets
M. C. Carter, Pastor

The pastor filled the pulpit Sunday at the 11 o'clock service and preached a strong intellectual and spiritual sermon from the text "Bringing Sinners to Christ". Among the large crowd in attendance there was hardly a dry eye. The choir rendered fitting music. There was 1 accession including four baptisms in the past month Sunday evening the choir under the direction of Mme. Mozella Te Outley rendered a fifteen minute jubilee concert which was much enjoyed by all.

The pastor will fill the pulpit Sunday, Oct. 14th. His morning text will be "The Protection of God's People."

We are pleased to announce that our sick members are improved.

NEW HOPE BAPTIST CHURCH
1623 Paloma Avenue
Rev. A. Lively, Pastor

Seven additions were made to the membership roll, Sunday morning at the close of the best covenant meeting held this year. Many souls were made happy as the song of zion were sung and testimonials heard.

The pastor was at his best Sunday night. His sermon showed much thought and preparation.

Mrs. E. Washington sang "Does Jesus Care" with much feeling and Mr. Dewey Johnson sang "The Awakening four baptisms in the past month which he spoke before singing. Both numbers were greatly enjoyed by all.

On last Wednesday evening members and friends of the choir gathered at the home of Mrs. Viola Brandon, director and surprisingly showered her with present in honor of her birthday. About 40 guests took possession of the house for about 45 minutes, enjoying music and dainty refreshments.

The Senior Missionary Society will hold installation of newly-elected officers on the second Sunday.

The Misses Grant, Marcella Robinson and Russell are working hard with the assistance of friends, in the contest for the trip to Catalina. These young ladies are selling tickets for the Concert to be given Tuesday evening, Oct. 16th by the Male Chorus. The lady who turns in the largest sum above $20.00 will be given a trip to Catalina with all expenses paid.

A cordial invitation is extended all visitors, either residents of the city or strangers, to attend services at New Hope Baptist Church.

FIRST A. M. E. ZION CHURCH
Cor. Pico and Paloma
Rev. W. E. Shaw, Pastor

Sunday, October 14th the pastor will ocupy his pulpit morning and evening. A splendid sermon is always in store and those who miss hearing this earnest-hearted Christian man do not realize their great loss.

Last Sunday was Communion Day. The pastor spoke in the morning from the text, "Pray Without Ceasing," 1 Thess. 5:17.

There were three accessions to the church. The evening service was equally inspiring as the sermon was based on "Faith."

The Endeavor held a song service during their hour while the Bible Class pinunged into accomplishing big things. Join this class if you lack enthusiasm.

Everyone is cordially invited to midweek service on Wednesday evening. Reception of new members this Wednesday. Visit the Sunday School. A church with its gates ajar and a most cordial welcome to all.

ALL-STARS FALTER BEHIND MUNION

When the All-Stars in their half of the first inning overcame a two run lead set by the Kant Skores and in the suceeding innings piled up a two run lead, none of the cash customers dreamed that the All-Stars would finish on the short end of a 7 to 5 score.

It was unquestionably the absence of three players that caused the All-Stars to go down to defeat. Bruce Hill left fielder returned to Texas during the week and Paul Wilson was out with an injured foot. Killingsworth was not present but it is believed that his ability to get on base would have helped.

Adams who is lame played center field in thefirst inning and two balls got by him that Wilson would have caught. Jay Johnson, a pitcher, played right. The absence of Wilson cost the All-Stars two runs in the first inning and they lost by just that margin. Slowtime another hurler played short and although his fielding was good he didn't hit.

Only three of the seven runs scored off Munion could be classed as earned ones and if the two balls that got by Adams were not classed as hits the total number of earned runs off Munion would be a lone one.

However last Sunday's game is past history and next Sunday is another day. With the regulars in the lineup the All-Stars should do better although the club they are playing has a record of twenty-three straight victories.

My Experience As A Baseball Manager

By: BOB FAGIN

Editor's Note: Bob Fagen has been acting as manager of the All-Stars and was also Captain of the Carroll Giants. Fagen is one of the youngest managers in the country and has been very successful in winning ball games.

Says Bob Fagen: "The job is not what I thought it was and at this time I wish to give those old gray haired pilots who are managing ball clubs the credit that is due them. The cry of "get some fight out there" has a new meaning to me. I realize what fight means on a ball club.

I have learned that many different kinds of ball players make up a ball club. There is one kind, the indifferent player. Some times his indifference is due to carelessness. He doesn't take his profession seriously. Sometimes it is due to friction with the manager and again a grudge aginst the owner due to salary differences.

There are lots of professional and semi-pro players, too many of them, who are not doing their best work.

Such players are apt to excuse their conduct on the grounds that they do all that they are paid to do or that indifference is not detrimental. Some even consider their conduct smart not knowing they are holding their club back and cheating the public who is paying to see a player do his best.

Such players if they stopped to reflect would understand that a reputation is worth while to a ball player—a reputation for doing his best.

A manager is always ready to give special consideration to a player whom he knows is exerting himself to the utmost. The public likes to see a hard working player always in the game.

They will excuse him for errors, for they know he is trying.

This reputation is within the grasp of every ball player. It is strictly worth while."

Indianapolis, Indiana, Aug. 18.—To Malcolm Hannon of by which was run today with ten thousand speed mad spectators cheering the drivers who were circling the Indiana State Far mile track for the honor of winning the first Race derby.

Hannonn finished the 100 miles in the time of 1 hour, 45 minutes and 52 seconds, making an average speed of 63.5 miles per hour on the mile track. J. A. Simmons, who won second place, was running neck and neck with Hannon in the 98th lap, when Hannon gained less than 75 yards on him at the finish. Simmons drove ah R. & B. Special, finishing two seconds later than the winner, making the 100 miles in 1 hour, 45 minutes and 54 secvnds.

The third place was awarded to Hugo Barnes, who drove another R. & B. Special. He was flagged from the track.

The fifteen cars that started the race were: Vogue Special (Jefferies); Snotin Special (Buckner); Sneider Special (Carter); R. & B. Special (Ford); R. & B. Special (Simmons); R. & B. Special (Barnes); Porter Special (Valentine); Fronty Ford (Dawson); Huff Special (Tucker); Barber-Warnock Special (Hannon); Weednut Special (James); The Ghost (Woods); Dreamland Special (Stevens); J. and H. Special (Smith); Green Special (Green).

Hannon Was Jockey

Malcolm Hannon, the winner who won first place, was a jockey a few years ago in New Orleans, La. He is only 23 years of age. He is not married. He has ha deight years of experience with automobiles. He has been with auto race drivers and they used him to "limber up" the machines. He is now employed by the firm of Graham and Lee billiard rooms at Indianapolis as chauffeur.

It was Geo. J. Graham of the firm who backed Hannon in efforts to secure the Barber-Warnock Special to pilot. The machine is the same one that finished in the money in the 1923 500-mile race here.

Big Parade

A big parade preceded the races that marched through the downtown districts. In the line following the city officials that led the parade was a car built by the Headen Motor Car Company in which the racing officials together with Mr. Headen, rode.

During the afternoon following the races Lieut. Herbert Julian, the aviator who fell from a plane in New York some weeks ago, gave several exhibitions. With him was Harry Irwin of Columbus, Ohio, who also per-

CHAMPIONSHIP CEMENT COURTS BEING COMPLETED AT CASTAIC COUNTRY CLUB

Seventh Annual Southern California Championship Tourney Opens Sunday, August 31st.

"TROPHY DANCE" LABOR DAY, SEPT. 1ST, 8 P. M.
(By: William Mells Watson)

Now, listen fans, Messrs. F. L. Banks, L. R. Ingram and O. L. Banks of the East Side Realty Co., 1437 Central Ave., the high speed promoters of the Castaic Country Club project and a gang of other attractive features for our Seventh Annual Southern California king and queenship tourney are this week completing two of the finest regulation tennis courts in the Southland and the only championship courts owned by Black Americans in the country, so shove out your chest and look puffed up like a pizened pup, as we sure have something now to swell up about.

Huge Affair

Can't see how in the world this huge undertaking can fail to be the giant of all our former efforts not excepting San Diego, and on Race owned propertytoo—"ain't nature gran?" Each of the courts which are cement throughout, measure 60x120 of your biggest flat foot steps—ekly like those played on by the white champions the world over.

A. H. Sneed the local "Pie King" and "Barbecue Shark" who can do more with a pie crust and a stack of beef than a monkey can with a cocoanut has promised to supply enough broiled cow, stewed hound pups, self acting sandwiches and ice cold prohibition soft drams to feed Coxey's Army.

F. L., L. R. and O. L. have arranged for a bus rate from their office to the scene of action at $1.00 per round trip beginning at 7 A. M., both days, and you can't even tie that.

Tournament Committee

The tournament is to be manipulated by the following members of the Westside Tennis Club: William Mells Watson, chairman; Eddie Elmer Myers, referee; Eddie Carlisle, Osborn Johnson, Wm. Tatum, Charles onroe Cameron, Oscar J. Campbell, Parker Lee, Thomas Jefferson Pinchback, Thomas Reid, Lucian Douglas Miller and William Marshall Dunn.

Visitor Wants Scalps

R. A. Stallworth of Chicago a visitor and living in room 5 St. Agnes Hotel, phone MAin 1200 is shouting the "tennis scalp blues" this week because none of the local crop of paddle wielders will let the Chicagoan teach 'em how they smack the pill around the windy city. Some of our nearer champs better 'phone Stally, take him to Lincoln Park and show him the "Wild Wooly West's" tenderfoot cure in catgut.

Eddie and Nellie's 5th

Eddie and Nellie Magnolia Carlisle celebrated their fifth year in matrimonial harness last Wednesday, August 6th and four year old Jimmy Carlisle proves it. Ed. is the live wire prexy of the Federation, the Westside Club and Secretary of the Tennis Organizers Club while Nell is Secretary of the Westside Ladies' Club and Treasurer of the Ogranizers. You can't beat that combination.

ALEXANDER WINS DECISION OVER KID SAVAGE

L. A. Heavyweight Outpoints Opponent In Twenty-Round Bout at Owl Arent

RECORD CROWD PRESENT

Serb Fined $25 for Entering Ring With Tinfoil Concealed In Tape On Hands

Mexicali, Mexico, Sunday, Aug. 10.—Kid Savage was arrested by Mexicali police last night when he crossed over the line to collect his part of the purse, and fined $25 by the police judge.

He was charged with entering the ring for yesterday's bout with Vic Alexander with tinfoil and plaster paris concealed in the bandages on his hands. Manager Joe Flores forced him t oremove the tape from his hands before the fight

The Mexicali boxing commission, composed of Messrs Villareal, Lamberin and Vildosola caused his arrest. He made no denial of the charges and paid his fine without protest.

When Referee Harry Woodbury raised the hand of Vic Alexander to signal of victory at the end of 20 rounds in today's main event at Owl arena, fifteen hundred fans turned loose a roar of applause that has been accumulating for three years—awaiting the day when the terrible Serb met his master.

Alexander outboxed Savage in 10 of the 20 rounds in yesterday's battle.

Savage took out three rounds having a slight advantage in the fourth anr eighth, and finishing the 20th with a good lead.

Savage Re-Tapes Hands

The opening of the main bout was delayed several minutes when Alexander's manager objected to the bulky taping on Savage's hands. Promoter Joe Flores entered the ring and demanded that Savage removed the bandages. A heavy layer of tinfoil was found underneath. Members of the Mexicali boxing commission present at the ringside declared that Savage would be prosecuted for this evident violation of boxing sportsmanship. Savage retaped his hands in the ring, while the fans shouted their disapproval of the delay.

The fight opened with plenty of action in the first round, Alexander having a slight advantage in the sparing exchange an dSavage leading in the clinches.

In the second frome the Serb assumed his well known ring tactics—rushing into a clinch with head covered and then working on his opponents kidneys.

Uses Kidney Blow

Savage seldom directed a blow at his opponent' shead throughout the bout, contenting himself with hammering away with his right on Alexander's back and kidneys. He has worn down many an opponent with this body punch, but it had little effect on the colored boy. In the early rounds Alexander blocked many of these kidney blows, and often locked the Serb's arm.

After the tenth Alexander changed his tactics, keeping more in the open and avoiding the Savage clinches. It was his open fighting that won the bout. His most effective weapon was a feint with his left, followed by an overhand right to Savage's head. He landed it hard and often.

TE N. B. B.

By Martin

After a careful study of the athletic ability of each member of the Nil Nisi Bonum Club, I find that the club possesses the best material for a championship team of any organization of its kind in the city of Los Angeles, whether white or black. The following men are football players of experience who have made a name for themselves on the gridiron of L. A. First is Louis, "Luke" Rosser, considered one of the best ends at the U. C., at L. A.; William "Hook" Bisco, one of the best guards in the city prep. elevens; Jack Prayer, who showed that he was there with the goods. Dave "Richie" Horton, who can play it given a chance. Stonewall "Kid" Towns, who could make any high school eleven in the city. Sam Smith who made his letter, playing last year for Jeff.

Alonzo Allen, who can kick farther than the average fellow can throw. William "Buck" Rosser, a man who knows his off and is not afraid to spred it. Walter Towns, brother of Red, who can develop into one of the best backfield men in the city. He is fast and likes to hit hard. Theophilus Smith, who needs no heralding, because he has shown his wares on the L. A. Hi team. Then there are a few other heavy men who can be made to fit right in where they are needed. There are Osa Gresham, R. Arnold and the writer, Charles Martin, who has had little experience and likes the game. Watch for dope in basket ball and track team in next issue.

Watch the N. N. B.

The semi annual election of officers for the Nil Nisi Bonum Club took place Wednesday night, July 23rd. The newly elected officers of the club are as follows:

Mr. Louis Rosser, President; Mr. Ishmael Hary, Vice President; and Mr. Stonewall Towns, Treasurer. Mr. Alfred Johnson Sergeant at arms. The club was so pleased with the efficient work of the secretary that he was re-elected to serve another term. Much credit is due the retiring officers as they have served faithfully in every undertaking. Too much credit can't be given Mr. Samuel Smith, who was the orignator of the club. Sam has put his shoulder to the wheel and given a lift to everything the club has undertaken.

TED FRENCHIE WINS AT MEXICALI

Mexicali, Mexico, Aug. 10.—Ted Frenchie of Los Angeles won semi-wind up at the Owl arena Sunday when he knocked out K. Neal of San Diego in the fifth round of scheduled eight round event.

Neal was outclassed from the first round. He took his punishment gamely, however and came back from a knockdown in the third with plenty of courage.

"I'M JAMES BERRY—WHO ARE YOU FRIEND?"

By: JIMMIE SMITH

One of filmdom's newest stars and a real star I'm telling you is James G. Berry, he of the smiling countenance above.

The above smile is making James G. famous and he just buble sover with them, perhaps that is the reason they have rechristened him "Bubbles," his screen name.

If you have been a theatre goer you have probably seen "Bubbles" smile in person, because he has spent the majority of his few years on the stage and has entertained thousands between Chicago and Los Angeles. On the stake Bubbles always worked with his brother Annanias.

"Bubbles" first entry into pictures was last January soon after he had arrived in Los Angeles with his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. W. Berry.

Th eelder Berry has not stated whether he brought "Bubbles" to California with the intention of entering him in pictures but the fact remains that Bubbles worked in "The Sea Hawk" his first picture less than one month after his arrival here.

Now in a mere six months he has worked in some fourteen pictures ten of which he has been one of the featured players. He was under contract to Century films and made nine pictures with them. At present he is under contract with the Griffith-Goudling Company and will probably be with them for a year.

"Bubbles" was born in New Orleans, La., July 9, 1917 so he has just passed his seventh year.

His family move dto Chicago when he was in dresses and it was there that he began his professional career. He gained his first experience acting on church programs and concerts. He is well known in the windy city because of his many appearances there.

Our little star has probably made the greatest strides in the shortest period of any youngster that has ever entered pictures.

Everyone who has seen him claims that he is the find of the year. He is also a great favorite with the members of casts in which he has appeared and is a hard worker.

There is every reason to believe that "Bubbles" will reach heights never before attained by a youngster of his age and I am quite sure you will agree with me when you see his future releases.

BILLY TUCKER AND HIS FOLLIES ARRIVE FROM HONOLLU

With vivid tales of "poi" and "swipe" parties, full houses and return engagements, Billie Tucker and his "Darktown Follies" stepped from the steamship "City of Los Angeles," last Friday about noon.

The City of Los Angeles established a time record for the run from Honolulu to Los Angeles Harbor and she had on board a troupe of performers who had just broken all attendance records for Hawaiian show houses.

Billy Tucker the pilot and spokesman for the Follies reported the trip a tremendous success and is already laying plans for a return trip with a much larger company. Two of the company, Billy and Chick Moore, remained on the island.

Those who returned are: "Little Bits" Tucker, Fulton and Christine Alexander, Jesse Reese, Dorothy Yohe, James H. Jackson, Walter "Coots" Cox and Johnnie Mae Vinton.

It is as yet undecided whether Billy Tucker will keep his Follies together or disband.

IN THE MUSIC WORLD
By John A. Gray

A rather strange trait of the Negro is his apparent lack of appreciation or habit of being ungrateful. Sometimes this trait is so pronounced that it assumes the character of rudeness. If he were less emotional one could understand this "taking things for granted" attitude, but everyone knows that the race is an emotional one. Generally one finds this indifferent attitude among people of a more cold blooded type. People of the Latin type are generally usually warm, impulsive polite, quick to resent a wrong, and equally quick to thank on efor a favor.

A pronounced lack of politeness is a bad feature of American life, and it is one that the Negro has adopted in a large degree. Each generation seems to get farther and farther away from its natural inheritance. To point out a few instances. One may be brushed against roughly or have one's feet trod upon and the offender will not think it necessary to ask you to pardon him. One may be asked the time of day or a street direction and never be thanked. And so on. We could cite many instances of this lack of observance of the finer, higher, nobler things of life.

This same characteristic is found in all walks of life and especially in the world of music. Perhaps no group is more called upon for free service than is the musical group. Always in demand for all sorts of occasions and seldom paid, this overworked set of servers are, very often, not even thanked.

Time and again we have known of cases where some organization or individual has requested the services of some member of this group and while no pay was expected, thanks might have been extended them. We know of cases where participants on a program have been asked to pay admission. Just think of being asked to pay to hear oneself perform. We know of other cases wher ea performer has practiced, bought costumes, paid car fare and lost time and energy, and at the last moniunt be told that his services were not needed. And from another angle we can mention the lack or shal lwe call it politeness, where several performers of the seme kind are on on eprogram and the master of ceremonies will praise and boost one of them and hardly mention the others

Very often a performer's name is printed on a program when he does not know that he is to appear. This hurts his reputation and injures his standing in the community.

We mention here only a few of the things that come up in the musical world and we ask that our readers note this lack of politeness an dappreciation in all of the other walks of life.

As a race we are losing some of the finest and noblest things in life by failing to observe and practice the little things that develop the higher man. We musta realize that by asking a person for a match, or for the time, or for street directions or any other little hthnig of the sort, we have put ounrselves unde robligations to that uerson. The least we can do ns to say "thank you", even if we do noe get what w eask for.

Life is made up cf little things. The earth of tiny grains of sand, the ocean of drops of water, the clouds of minute particles of moisture and man's character of tiny deeds and thoughts. These things mark the difference between ma nand the beast.

AUTO ENTERPRISES AMONG RACE GROW

One would scarcely believe the progress the race is making in the automobile world were it not for the fact that the evidence is visible on every hand. Less than five years ago there were but two established businesses in this line. Today there is no less than twenty such enterprises, and they are forging ahead. Each day sees them nearer the goal of success.

Their businesses are no longer conducted in buildings with dilapidated entrances, but well appointed places dotted with salesmen who can deliver. And now that he is making good opportunity is rapping at his door. Big up town concerns are asking and seeking space in their show rooms to display their cars, and one by one they are gaining admission on their merits.

Within the past thirty days, over $15,000 in business has been transacted. A feat in itself unparalleled.

Their businesses engaged in, represent every phase of the automobile industry from sales department and show rooms to garages and wreckage shops.

At present there is a strong atmosphere in the air for some sort of organization and it is to be hoped that some one will take the lead and shape an organization for on such depends the future prosperity of the industry in so far as the Colored business man is concerned.

EMINENT SPEAKER TO ADDRESS N.A.A.C.P. SUNDAY, AUGUST 24th, AT A. M. E. ZION CHURCH

Prof. Cicero C. Simmons, Principal of Tuscon, Arizona School, will address the local N.A.A.C.P. Sunday afternoon, August 24th, at 3 o'clock, at the First A. M. E. Zion Church, corner of Pico and Paloma Streets.

The Association is planning this to be one of the largest and most interesting mass meetings held during the present year. Professor Simmons is one of the most advanced young men of the race and an orator of rare ability. This is the same courageous race man who dared to address the Ku Klux Klan meeting at Redlands, California, a few days ago, and held the hooded ones spellbound with his eloquent defense of the Negro.

In addition to the address by Prof. Simmons, there will be a splendid musical program arranged by Mr. Dewey Johnson, on the N.A.A.C.P. Musical Committee.

Several serious matters now affecting our racial well-being in Los Angeles make imperative that this meeting should be largely attended by all good citizens. The meeting is free to everybody.

FRESNO NEWS

A house packed to the doors greeted Charles Satchell Morris, Jr., on last Monday evening to hear him lecture from the subject, "The Measure of a Man". Mr. Morris was conceded to be the greatest orator that ever lectured here, and his gift of eloquence, and the rigid facts that he enumerated kept his large audience in a grip of interest, broken only by rounds of applause. William A. Bigby, Jr., was called upon to respond to the noted orator. Local talent rendered a very interesting program preceeding the lecture. During his sojourn in our city Mr. Morris was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Clarke at their suburban home in Kearney Drive.

Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Clarke entertained about a hundred guests in compliment to Mr. Morris, which was one of the largest and most brilliant affairs of the season. Cards were the principal mode of entertainment, with dancing as a secondary diversion, for the younger contingent. They were assisted in dispensing with their hospitality by their talented and charming daughter, Miss F. L. Clarke.

O. W. Wolfskill is convalescing from an illness of several weeks duration.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Bigby, Jr., have with them as their house guests, Mrs. S. V. Pankey and her two attractive daughters, Miss Mildred and Miss Gladys Pankey of Oakland. Mr. and Mrs. Bigby will keep "Open House" Sunday afternoon to about a hundred or more guests in honor of their lovely visitors, and will follow it up with several other more formal affairs.

Mrs. Will D. Williams, Jr., is in the bay cities for an indefinite sojourn.

THE TRIP TO SEATTLE

On July 4th, 1924 I went aboard the H. F. Alexander at 5 P. M. accompanied by Mrs. Sina Turner (who was also making the trip), at 5:30 the vessel blew its mighty whistle, this was a signal that we were ready to put to sea.

It was interesting for me to watch this huge vessel brinb up her lines and leave the dock to which it was fastened, without causnig some damage to smaller boats, but it was all very simple; at this point I had to laugh, when two small boats which seemed to be mere row boats in comparison with the H. F. A. put one line forward and astern and began to pull, as small as they were. In a few minutes they had pulled the great liner into the middle of the channel, where the lines were cast off, and with another blast of the H. F. A.'s whistle the gigantic vessel was creeping slowly out of San Pedro's harbor. In fifteen minutes the vibrations became stronger and the speed of the great liner was rapidly increasing, and after we were well at sea, she had reached a maximum of speed of twenty-three knots.

At first I felt fine, never having navigated before, but in half an hour I could not tell whether I was on my head or feet, because I was catching and holding to every thing available to keep from falling.

After a very restless night, we arrived in Frisco on the morning of the 6th at 10 A. M. I don't know who got out and unlocked the golden gate, but we had no trouble at all getting in. Our stay in Frisco was very short, although I was allowed time to put my feet on land again. (This I was very desirous to do).

At 5 P. M. we were at sea again. I would have gladly given a king's ransom for a piece of land the size of a dime.

I think someone must have left a stone or something in front of the Golden Gate because the minute we were outside the vessel ran over something which made it do an awful lot of rolling and pitching for about three hours. By this time we had reached Eureka, the last port of Northern California. Then we struck the coast of Oregon, and soon we were passing the point where the Columbia river empties into the Pacific ocean.

Forty-eight hours later we were in the very beautiful Puget Sound. The sound is very interesting because the water is clear and calm and there is no danger of seasickness. A few hours later we were in Seattle the city of hills and valleys, rain and fog. Nevertheless the people there were very courteous and hospitable, and are not below the standard in business.

I made the Golden West Hotel my headquarters, this hatel is owned and operated by Mr. Russell, but it is managed by Mr. Allen C. White.

I saw a number of old friends and made new acquaintances. I visited Tacoma, Mt. Vernon, Blaine and Bellingham, Washington. And along with some other friends I motored over to New Westminster, and Vancouver, B. C. I had a very interesting trip. On my return to Seattle I was greeted with invitations to various occasions, one of interest was at Bay View Lodge near Tacoma, as guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. Matthews. Seattle is so interesting that I can't name everything but I vicited the Elks Home on 18th and Madison and the first thing that I saw after shaking hands with Mr. Chaney (the Exalted Ruler), was the California Eagle". The Elks have a very beautiful home and in an exclusive part of the city. In conclusion, I had a wonderful trip and now I have returned to L. A. to serve my friends and the public as usual.

Elks Promise Inspiring Spectacle to Drill in New Uniforms

The Grand Hallowe'en Ball to be given at the Armory (Exposition Park) on the night of Wednesday, October 31st, promises to be one of the most brilliant and noteworthy events of the fall season.

A feature of the occasion will be the grand Uniform Drill, under Capt. J. P. Bratton, in which the mighty herd will appear in their new uniforms.

The drill will be staged at 10:30 p. m.

The public is urged to be present on this memorable occasion.

"PORO" CLUB TRIUMPHANT

The above cut is a picture of the multitude which attended the outing at Bruces Beach on October 11. About 800 went down on the red cars while fully 350 more came down in automobiles. It was a gala day. A special educational program was rendered, after which, all sorts of contests were pulled off, races of all kinds and variety. Mr. Malone superintended the contests while Mrs. Malone awarded prizes to the winners of the various events. Dinner was served to this multitude and the inneryman was satisfied to the highest degree. A menu fit for a king was served and such was the service that the vast crowd was handled in perfect order and everybody got all they cared to eat. No restrictions were placed on service.

The "Poro Club" was a revelation to the people of Los Angeles and this band of women who are the representatives of the great Malone product, presented a most inspiring sight in their beautiful and mose becoming uniforms. Forming a semi-circle on the beach, looking out over the Father of Waters, and in the immediate center, the founder of "Poro" the President, Mrs. Cooper the sister of Mrs. Malone and Mr. Turnbo her brother, truly the fruition of time had wrought wonders and no greater service could be wrought than to create such a wonderful organization on these shores as the Los Angeles Poro Club.

Mrs. C. H. Dodge of San Diego is visiting in the city. She is a special guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Malone. Mrs. Dodge having been a friend of many years standnig in St. Louis, Mo.

REV. J. LOGAN CRAW PASSES AWAY.

The many friends and acquaintances will doubtless be surprised at the news of the passing of Rev. James Logan Craw who for a number of years pastored 8th and Towne Ave A. M. E. church of this city.

Rev. Craw was a man of action and indeed had a brilliant future before him, and to his strenuous efforts toward serving the Master and to maintain this house of worship to the highest possible heights brought to him a complete nervous collapse from which he never recovered.

After pastoring successfully here for four years he transferred to the Puget Sound Conference, served as presiding elder, pastored Seattle and Portland, his health giving away he with his family went back to his old home in Kansas.

Rev. Craw was well and most favorably known in Los Angeles. The members of the 8th and Towne Ave especially will remember the great service which Dr. and Mrs. Craw rendered to this church. He came to a dismembered church and in a short time had gathered the fragments of its membership and made such a victorious battle for its re-establishment, that when victory perched on its banner, He was truly hailed as the "Miracle man."

Closely allied and responsible to a great degree for his success was his faithful and brilliant wife Mrs. Lillian J. Craw, who was idolized by all who knew her for her real worth and her sunny disposition. The Young People of the whole Community regardless of denomination were inspired by this young woman and she wrought wonders in the church life of the young folk.

The sympathy of all of these along with Los Angeles citizens goes out to her in this her sad hour of sorrow. The Eagle especially offers condolence to this faithful wife and christian woman. In the loss of Dr. Craw a true christian friend passes from the scene of action and with his loved ones we join in their sorrow.

Dr. Craw was a member of Golden Rule Lodge 5959 of this city, also of B. F. Tobbert Lodge of Masons. Both of whom have sent condolence and quick relief to the widow. He passed away at the home of his mother at Parsons, Kansas on last Monday night.

ST. VICTOR'S HALL—NEW SOCIAL CENTER

On next Sunday, October 21st, at 3 p. m. St. Victor's Hall will be formally declared open.

St. Victor's hall is situated at 16th and Essex street, one block West of 16th St. and Central avenue.

The building stands on a double corner lot. Albert C. Martin, a well-known Los Angeles architect, designed the hall in the mission style of architecture. It has a seating capacity of six to seven hundred. It has an elaborate stage and dressing room. There is a fully equipped kitchen attached. It boasts a handsome vestibule, with a large ladies' restroom in connection; a smoking room for gentlemen, cloak room and ticket room.

Arrangements have also been made for the installation of an up-to-date moving picture machine. The hall combined, in ideal degree, architectural beauty and utility.

It is conveniently located, as it is practicall yin the heart of the city, and can be easily reached by street car from any point.

The hall was erected for the purpose of providing a suitable home for social activity under Catholic auspices. It will serve as a center for cultural, social, recreational and educational activities. These activities will be open to all. The idea and aim is to be of service, not only yto the Catholic Colored people, but to the Race as a whole, without interferring in any way with the religious convictions of those who participate in these activities.

Many speakers, both clerical and lay, will grace the occasion on next Sunday with their presence. A brilliant musical program has been arranged and light refreshments will be served.

WHERE TO ATTEND CHURCH

PHILLIPS CHAPEL C. M. E. CHURCH
1106 Newton St.
Rev. R. W. Underwood, Pastor

We are still prospering at Phillips Chapel. We are having wonderful Sunday Schools. The pastor preached a wonderfully spiritualizing sermon Sunday morning: his text, Rev. 14.3. Phillips Chapel is one of the most progressive churches in the city. Two were added to the church Sunday morning. The choir sang Sunday night at one of the most prominent churches in Hollywood and the choir will sing at the Independent of Christ Sunday at 3: p. m. at 18th. and Paloma Streets

NEW HOPE BAPTIST CHURCH

It is nothing more than usual, now, for eight or ten persons to connect themselves with New Hope, each Sunday. The services are so inspiring and the Spirit of God seems to prevail to such an extent that persons only in the audience to visit, are forced by their own conscience to join.

The pastor preached in his usual soul stirring manner, Sunday morning, and in the evening, Rev. M. F. Mitchell filled the pulpit. Both sermons were enjoyed greatly. Newly elected officers of the Senior Missionary Society were installed in a beautiful manner by Mrs. Robinson at the morning service.

Soloists were: Mr. C. B. Brooks and Mr. J. B. Shotwell.

PHILLIPS CHAPEL C. M. E. CHURCH
1406 Newton Street.

Dr. R. W. Underwood, Pastor

Long before preaching hour the people were seen rushing to the church in order to get seats.

The pastor was at himself Sunday morning. He preached as never before from the 14th Chapter of the Revelation and the third verse. Subject: "Anthems of Earth Transferred to Heaven." Many tears were shed during the sermon.

The pastor sang a solo. He then opened the doors of the church and two persons came forward and joined the church. Prof. R. M. Mitchell and his choir are singing as never before. Come out and hear the new selections. They are thrilling. The pastor is preaching some strong sermons now adays.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Santa Barbara Street and Central Avenue
Rev E. E. Lightner, Pastor

The Pastor occupied the pulpit of both the splendid services held at this church the past Sunday, speaking in the morning on: "Doing Great Things." In the evening he gave the third in the series on: "New Testament Characters." The Subject for Sunday night being "Bartimeus."

This Sunday, Oct. 21st, Rev. J. M. Riddle will speak in the morning and the pastor will preach in the evening. Special music at both services. You are cordially invited to worship with us at all times.

WARD CHAPEL A.M.E. CHURCH
1252 E. 25th St.

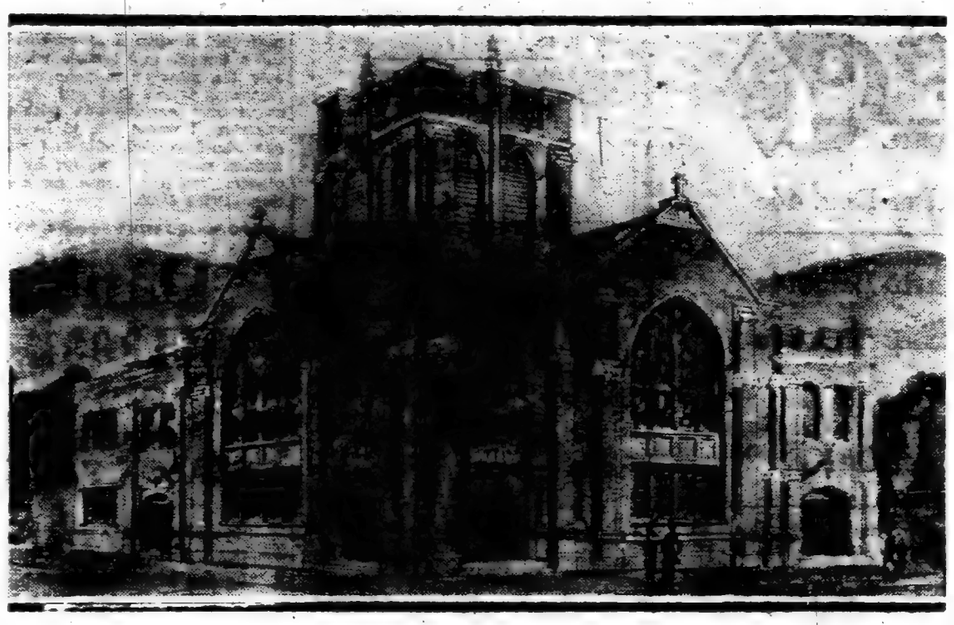
B. R. Guy, Pastor

Last Sunday, the Sunday School was conducted by Bro. E. A. Daniels, Superintendant. Attendance good, deportment credible, offering good.

At the morning service the Choir, Pastor and members consecrated themselves to the Lord, and the spirit of the Lord was manifested during the service. The Pastor spoke from the text, "What must I do with Jesus?" Rev. Jones, Hartnet and Redden worshipped with us. Each of them and visitors expressed their appreciation of the services. Both Endeavors held good sessions. At night Rev. Walker of Louisiana spoke from the text, "Were there not ten cleansed, where are the nine?" We are emphasizing the importance of soul saving as the most important part of the Christian life. Come and help us.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH.
Y. M. C. A.—9th and Hemlock Streets
Rev. H. D. Prowd, Pastor

We studied with hot breath and delight the Lesson in Sunday School and extended the usual welcome to our visitors. The Lord greatly blessed us.



At the 11 o'clock service Dr. Prowd preached from Exodus 25:22—"There I will Meet with Thee and I will Commune with Thee from Above the Mercy Seat." Truly the Lord was with us. All enjoyed the Son Service before the evening worship. The Lord's Supper was observed with solemnity and evidence of God's favor. Several joined the Church, and the hand of Fellowship was given to 10; it was a time of great refreshing from the Lord. There will be a One program this Sunday evenign at the B. Y. P. U. We cordially invite all—Come praying for a blessing.

WALL ST. CHRISTIAN CHURCH
8th and Wall Streets.

Our services last Lord's Day were excellent. We had a splendid Bible School. Rev. F. C. Cothran preached at the morning service and brought us a most beautiful measure. Subject: Continue in the Apostles' Doctrine. He explained that to do that meant Sacrafice and Self-Denial. At the evening service Rev. Kyle spoke for us and brought an encouraging message. Subj. and Text: Rom. 8:14—For as many as are led by the Spirit of God they are the sons of God. He explained that God's spirit could not lead anyone wrong, yet there are spirits of the devil one that would seek to lead us astray. Even the devil

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH
740 Maple Ave.
Rev. T. L. Griffith, Pastor

Our services last Lord's Day were up to the standard. Sunday School well attended review on the lesson by our able historian Miss Mary Banks is interesting and instructive. We hope to have a Junior Choir in the Sunday School under the direction of our own Miss Anna Mai Leiber Griffith which will add new life to the school. Pastor Griffith preached from the 16th division of the Psalms and the 11th verse—Thou will shew me the path of life: thy presence is fullness of joy at thy right hand there are pleasures forevermore. There were eight additions to the church. Rev. Watkins from Houston, Texas, Mrs. Antoinett Young Jackson from Kansas City and many other visitors worshipped with us.

The B. Y. P. U. has taken on new life under the leadership of Bro. Terrill. All are cordially welcome to our services.

GREAT REVIVAL CLOSES THIS SUNDAY AT WESLEY.

Singing Evangelist Lewis will be at Wesley at all services Sunday. Pastor Shaw will preach morning and evening. A great business mass meeting will be held in the afternoon at 3 o'clock. Those who missed this service last Sunday missed a great treat. This feature is being continued this Sunday for the benefit of our business people. It is not a money scheme. We want to help our business people.

The Revival has been a great success. More than fifty have been added to Wesley Church twenty of whom were converts. About twenty more have been sent to other churches.

Evangelist Lewis will preach his famous "Nail Sermon" Monday Night. Everybody is asked to bring a nail with you to the sermon. A Silver Offering will be taken.

Come and spend the day at Wesley Sunday.

Trinity Baptist Church
W. 36th St. and Normandie Ave.
Rev. J. A. H. Eldridge Pastor.

On Saturday evening Oct. 13. The Pastor's Aid Club celebrated its first annual banquett. Rev. J. A. H. Eldridge the progressive pastor of Trinity was the honored guest. The Auditorium of the church was thrown open to the invited guest of the Pastor and members of the club. The special guest of the pastor was Rev. L. B. Brown. Rev. Dr. Eugene Johnson, Rev. Major Prealon, Rev. M. C. Carter, Rev. W. H. Shipwith and Mrs. M. C. Carter. Mrs. Green was at the Organ and the Choir of Trinity rendered beautiful Anthems in keeping with the occasion, directed by Prof. A. A. Lassister. Prof. Lassister was Toastmaster and made it known that the club desired to honor their Pastor for his work which he was so earnestly striving to do.

Response came from Rev. Brown, Johnson, Prelean, Carter and Skipwith, each paying tribute to Rev. Eldridge for the progress Trinity has made under his leadership. The high standard to which she has been raised an dthe place Trinity ranks in regard to other churches of the city. But the pastor did not take all the credit to himself. He made it known it was the loyal support of the membership such as you now see. When he had finished Mrs. Green struck the key that sounded the line of March and the Pastor and Guest was ushered into the Dining Hall and there in the cool of the evening a feast of taste and delight was enjoyed.

Sunday morning Oct. 14, at 9:30 a. m. one of the largest S. S. of the city had assembled to study God's word. When you want to view a beautiful human boquet, see Trinities S. S. The hour of eleven found the pastor and choir marching to their post of worship singing Onward Christian Soldiers. Soloist Mrs. Lott at this service. Pastor filling the pulpit preaching from Exodus 20 Chpt., Ten Com. Additions to the Church—one. At 6 p. m. the B. Y. P. U. is always interesting. Mrs. Spikes, President. At 7:30 p. m. the Pastors Aid Club presented a program. Mrs. F. Spikes, Mistress of Sermons. Miss Fannie Harveys sang a sweet and beautiful solo. Mrs. Green and Master Lawrence Lassister instrumental solos. Miss Johnson an Essay of Inspiration. Mrs. Harold Garrison a reading. Sermonette, Bro. F. C. McCall. Mrs. Spikes the Annual Report of the Club. Mrs. F. Carpenter, President, spoke on the loyal membership. Closing remarks by Rev. J. Eldridge, pastor. A MISREPRESENTATION

ASSOCIATED PRESS GIVES OUT WRONG IMPRESSION UPON DEATH OF WILL ELLIS, DUKE OF ABYSSINIA

Los Angeles, Oct. 8th, 1923
Editor of The California Eagle:—
Dear Sir:—Your reprint from a New York paper reciting in part the life and labors of William Henry Ellis who died in the city of Mexico Sept. 24th is in part misrepresenting and far short o fthe truth, and knowing the policy of your paper from its insipiency, I know that you would not knowingly misrepresent any one, or any cause. The New York papers along with many other papers of the American people have not all times been faultless in their representations of the accomplishments of the members of our group, and their attempt to show the relations between King Menlik and Ellis is misleading and false. The relations of Ellis and Menelik were most cordial and congenial, their acquaintance had its insipiency with the meeting of Mr. Ellis and General Ras. Mocarna (commander in chief of Meneliks Army) at the Caronation of King Edward VII in London when Edward was crowned King of England on the invitation of General Ras. Mocarn Mr. Ellis visited the Kingdom of Abysinia about the year 1902 and presented King Menelik with gold mounted Revolver studded with diamonds, and also presented General Ras. Mocarna wit ha saddle built in the City of Mexico at a cost of $3500.00 King Menelik in turn presented Mr. Ellis with possession fronting 150 miles along the river Nile, they then organized the Menelik and Ellis National Bank of Abysinia with a capital stock of $2,000,000 and was at all times the best of friends. The mention of Ellis' attempt to overthrow King Menelik is base falsehood, and the gift of 150,000,000 acres is worse than false, there is not a 150,000,000 in the Kingdom of Abainia. I am enclosing you clippings from a writeup of Mr. Ellis and also one of my own which I can vouch for as being absolutely correct. I was Mr. Ellis' teacher until he was 15 when he left school to launch in the kids business. [illegible] unto this good day. William J. Pierce's writeup is from the time he opened business in N. Y. 1896. And if you desire to do justice to Mr. Ellis and his many friends on three continents you have in these articles the material with which to accomplish it.

Sincerely yours,
Dr. G. J. Starnes.

TOURING CAR AND HUNDREDS OF DOLLARS GIVEN AWAY—NOMINATIONS MUST BE MADE NOW

Booming rapidly along on the wings of popularity, with the stamp of public approval placed upon it, with interest increasing by leaps and bounds, The Eagle's $4000.00 "Everybody Wins" Grand Prize automobile and gold campaign is rapidly becoming the chief topic of interest and conversation.

Votes are being sent in by the hundreds. Every mail brings its envelopes with the 100 vote coupons clipped from the paper, being cast by friends for their favorite candidates. New nominations are being received every day, which goes to show that the public has been really convinced that The California Eagle is going to distribute these many prizes absolutely free—headed by that dandy $1,795.00 Reo Phaeton Automobile—to its own readers and friends. Some were skeptical at first, but they now realize that the Eagle is going to do just what its announcement says. Subscribers when paying up or renewing their subscriptions invariably cast their votes for their favorite candidate.

Everywhere in the community—ueverywhere The Eagle is read, intense interest is being shown in this wonderful offer, which presents the opportunity of obtaining a brand new Reo Phaeton Automobile simply in exchange for a little effort in spare moments.

Campaign Just Starting

The campaign, which is just starting, is open to any reputable reader of this paper. All that is necessary to enter the campaign is to clip out the nomination blank appearing on page 1. Fill in your name and address and send or bring t to The California Eagle Campaign Headquarters, 822 Central Ave. Upon receipt of this nomination blank a complete outfit will be given you, together with detailed information.

Thus equipped, you have but to see your friends and neighbors, relatives and acquaintances and have them save their free voting" coupons for you and get them to pay up a subscription to The Eagle. VVotes are allowed on new and old subscriptions alike. And the votes pile up mighty quickly when your friends know that you are in the campaign in earnest.

Friends of Candidates Active

So far, more votes have been brought or sent to The Eagle by friends of the candidates than most of those nominated have secured themselves. This shows the interest friends of the candidates have in helping their favorites win one of The Eagle's big prizes.

You Get More Votes Now.

Right now, while the big vote schedule is in force, is the time to get busy. Every new or renewal subscription to The Eagle counts you more votes now than it will at any other time. Soon—in a few days—the vote schedule will be DECREASED. The reason the vote schedule is REDUCED after the first part of the campaign is to assure everyone a fair and square deal and this prevents anyone coming at the last minute and running away with the big prize automobile.

Right now every yearly subscription counts you 15,000 votes. With the first subscription you turn in, you get 100,000 EXTRA FREE votes, which makes the first subscription worth 120,000 votes, including your nomination votes.

The effort you put forth these "BIG VOTE" days can easily bring you success. The laggards, unwilling to devote any of their spare time or thought to the campaign, will reap no reward. This is a campaign strictly for "live wires." So don't let—don't be timed. Go right to it and keep at it during your spare time. Did you ever before have the opportunity to cash your spare time for $1,795.00 in just a few weeks?

Remember the vote schedule is soon to be REDUCED. Get into the campaign now while you have an absolutely equal chance. Right now, while the campaign is just beginning get started—NOW is the time to enter and make yourself one of the winners of the Eagle's many and valuable prizes. You who are readinng this are one of those who can enter—one of those who can be one of the proud—Grand Prize Winners.

Office Open Until Eight o'Clock

Campaign headquarters, 822 Central avenue will be open each evening and you are invited to call for any information you desire. If unable to call personally, telephone—829.244. DO IT NOW.

Headquarters Busy

All during the past week, again, the campaign manager at The Eagle office has been busy answering questions from men and women who call to find out if they had read the liberal offer correctly and to know the details of this gigantic gift-giving proposition. Several candidates brought with them quite a few of the 100 vote coupons. Telephone calls were frequent—so much so that the pretty young lady who answers the office phone barely had time to go out for lunch and for her daily allotment of Cocoa Colas.

Interest is not being confined to any one sex, either. For one of the interesting feature is the fact that quite a few men have also inquired about the campaign. In fact, it appears from the indications that there will be about as many men as women and girls interested in the Grand Prize Distribution.

A Real Fortune

The one big feature of the election which instantly attracts the attention and amazes so many callers is the fact that a participant CANNOT LOSE. Every active candidate is guaranteed either a cash prize or one of the larger awards. And, when it is realized that the cash guarantee on every subscription is TWENTY per cent, it is easy to see how much

The above is a facsimile of the beautiful Loving Cup presented to Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Malone on the occasion of the Poro College graduating exercises on the 14th inst., held at 8th and Towne Ave. Church, before a large and appreciative public. It was indeed the high light of the evening and appreciative surprise to the Malones.

MRS. AUGUSTA C. McCALLISTER

Mrs. McCallister is another candidate who we class as a "Live Wire" in our Big $4000 Prize Campaign. She is affiliated with the S. M. T. Court of Calantnhe, and her numerous friends are supporting her in fine shape.

CARNIVAL CLOSES WITH SUCCESS

The Carnival held on the vacant lot near 12th and Central Ave., last week, closed on Saturday night after a week's stand which was very successful and which netted to the Old Folks Home quite a neat sum which will go a long way toward buying comforts for the old folks at the home.

We appreciate the that this Carnival has been held and cannot join in with our esteemed contemporary the New Age Dispatch in hitting the proposition a back-handed lick after the show is all over. We could not headline and front page in that way.

As to the merchants we admit (some few, not a majority by any means) are opposed to any sort of Carnival; they figure it takes something away from them or other reasons.

But we do not purpose to be guided wholly and solely in this case by these merchants who oppose Carnivals. We belong with that great common herd and we spend our money with our business men, in and out of season, and if they think for one moment that we are not going to have a little fun at the Carnival once in a while, they have got another thought coming.

Sure we are moving on and all these handkerchief head ideas must fade away. The Carnival that has been held was alright; some day we will hold another and will not ask any hide bound merchant or newspaper whether we can do so or not.

DR. J. A. SOMERVILLE RETURNS TO L. A.

Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Somerville returned this week from their long and interest-filled trip to the British West Indies, whither they went a few months ago to attend the Golden Wedding Anniversary of the Doctor's parents.

The voyagers journeyed via ew Orleans, Havana, etc., and returned to the Pacific Coast by way of the Panama Canal. The journey ws replete with novelty and interest, and Dr. Somerville's various letters from different points en voyage have been read with keen pleasure by Ye Eagle's subscribers.

MRS. GEO. JEFFERSON

Mrs. Jefferson is one of the enthusiastic candidates, who intends to go right after first honors, in the Eagle's Grand Prize Distribution.

SLEMP AND HARDING

CHANDLER OWEN

The Negroes seem to be getting by Slemp (Coolidge's secretary) to Coolidge more readily and often than they got by Christian (Harding's secretary) to Harding. Why so much consideration from the notorious lily-white Slemp? We'll accept the explanation.

Harding was attacked during his presidential campaign for having Negro blood in his veins. He could not regulate or get out the blood in his veins but he could check up his Negro sympathetic strains. It was imperative for the president to disprove his Negro blood, and the only way to do this was in action—action unsympathetic or indifferent to the colored people. This he did well.

On the contrary, Bascom Slemp was known as the lily-white, anti-Negro Secretary of President Coolidge. Only anti-Negro action was expected from him. This presumption must be overcome. So Slemp seems to go out of his way to disprove this logical allegation against him.

It is an interesting bit of philosophy that when men are supposed to be so bad, they are seldom as bad as their reputation. Likewise the alleged very good ones are seldom as good as they are supposed to be. James K. Vardaman once drove several miles when governor of Mississippi to prevent a Negro from being lynched. The notorious race-baiting Cole Blease pardoned scores of Negroes whom he regarded unjustly helb in prison. Woodrow Wilson and Cleveland, the alleged anti-Negro Democratic presidents, were about as republican as the Republican McKinley, Roosevelt, Taft or Harding were democratic. The alleged Ku Klux governors Richardson of California, and Hall of Oregon were so non Ku Klux that Richardson signed the California anti-Ku Klux Klan law, and Hall of Oregon proved so unsatisfactory that when we were in Oregon last June the Klan was getting out petitions for his recall.

There is yet another factor to be considered. Responsibility sobers one's action. The loose, unrestrained agitator may just chatter away, but when action has to be taken, one is inclined to consider the consequences of his action.

This no doubt accounts for the anti-Negro Slemp's being more considerate than the pro-Negro Harding.

Yes, if you expect special favors from a judge, by talking it all over the community prior to the trial,—you will certainly make it impossible for the judge to favor you. The best course is to feign opposition. This is how the accelerator in a show catches Barnum's suckers in his various schemes and games.

AFTERNOON TEA

One of the pleasant affairs of the week was the Tea given October 16th, from 3 to 6, by the daughter Elks of Hiawatha Temple No. 91, as a courtesy to Mrs. J. H. Kennedy, of Atlantic City, N. J. The first Past Grand Ruler of the I. B. P. O. E. of W., who is visiting with her cousin Mrs. Robert Smith of 1309 Central Avenue. The beautiful home of Mrs. Blackshear, 91 E. 29th Street, was decorated with cut flowers of white and pink. Those assisting the Daughter Ruler, Mrs. Monroe L. Elgin, were the Past Daughter Rulers, Mesdames V. Fingers, Mincie Blackshear, Eliza Warner and other members of the Temple. Mrs. Willie Jones and Mrs. Anna Hicks poured. About seventy-five ladies called during the afternoon.

LIFE TERM FOR KILLING WIFE

Yesterday in Department 17 of the Superior Court, before judge Hardy, the case of the: State, Vs. William Wooley was called, and the defendant's counsel changed a plea of not guilty to that of "guilty".

Whereupon judge Hardy sentenced Wooley to a life term in prison, at San Quentin Penitentiary.

It will be remembered that Wooley is the man who some months ago killed his wife in the Bryson Building because she had sought a lawyer to procure for her a divorce from him. He slashed her with a knife, severing her jugular vein, from which wound she died after a few moments. Thus comes to a close this most unfortunate affair.

MRS. ANNA McGEE

One of the pioneer citizens of L. A. who is going into the Big $4,000.00 Campaign with a determination to win.

WINS CASE IN SUPREME COURT

The valiant fight put up by attorney Afue McDowell in the case of L. C. Cosey Jr., Vs. the Los Angeles R. R. Company, has resulted in a signal victory for him. A decision yesterday by the Supreme court reversed the decision of the lower court in Los Angeles; which court, on the jury bringing in a verdict of $1000 for the Plaintiff, declared the damages allowed to be too much, and reduced the same to $500. Attorney McDowell appealed the case for his client, and through his untiring efforts the victory as above noted was acheived.

Mrs. Pearl Gallerson who has had a major operation at the General Hospital is reported as convalescent.

Mrs. Jos. De Laney of 742 Ceres Av. is reprted on the sick list this week.

WHERE TO ATTEND CHURCH

WALL STREET CHRISTIAN CHURCH—

Our services last Lord's day were fine. Our Bible School session was excellent. Rev. F. C. Cothran, our pastor, preached both morning and evening and brought us inspiring and stimulating messages.

Rev. Anderson, an old veteran of the Cross—72 years of age, again visited with us at the evening service.

We invite all to come and worship with us. We are trying to be true and faithful to God.

Order of services: Bible School, 9:45 a. m. Preaching 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

BIRCH STREET CHRISTIAN CHURCH—
Cor. 14th and Birch Sts.
Rev. A. W. Jacobs, Pastor

The memorial of Mr. A. C. Richardson brought to us an occasion that shall live long in our memories. The regular services were supplemented with a score of short lectures by the leading members of the Church and flowed by many lovely solos and remarks by business men of the city. It was inspiring to hear Rev. Dr. Gantt, Rev. Dr. Jones, Dr. Richardson, Mr. Shelton and Mrs. Hardeman speak out of their heart on the life of this good man. His wife, Mrs. Sallie Richardson had nothing to say, yet she spoke even more loudly by placing a lovely Art Glass Window in the church which will be unveiled and dedicated to the church upon its completion. This window is in memory of the late Mr. A. C. Richardson.

The following services of the day were in their regular order: Y. P. S. C. E., 7:00 p. m., preaching 8:00 p. m.

You are always met with a cordial welcome when you come to worship the Lord with us.

Sundays, 9:45 and 11 a. m., 7:00 and 8:00 p. m. Thursdays 8:00 p. m., Fridays 7:30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Jacobs, 1200 E. 24th St. wish to announce the birth of their son, A. W. Jacobs, Jr., October 20, 1923. Weight 10 3-4 lbs. Both mother and son are happy.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—
34th Street and Central Avenue
Rev. E. E. Lightner, Pastor

Two splendid service were held at this church the past Sunday. The pastor occupied the pulpit at both services. The morning text was: "Be not overcome of evil but overcome evil with good." (Rom. 12.21) At the evening hour "The Lord is not slack concerning His promises, as some count slackness," (2 Peter 3:9). This Sunday Oct. 28th will be observed as Home-coming Day." Every member of the church is expected to be present at one or both of the services. The pastor preaches at both services. Strangers cordially invited at all times.

WARD CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH
1252 East 25th Street
B. R. Guy, Pastor

Last Sunday was a record breaker in this church. Bro. E. A. Daniels the Superintendent had a very good Sunday School, one new teacher and a number of visitors. At the morning service. The pastor spoke from the text, Be Ye Steadfast, Unmovable, Always abounding in the Lord, for as much as you know your labor is not in vain in the Lord. A splendid congregation, including a number of visitors.

Both Endeavors were interesting and instructive. The attendance is increasing. At night, Rev. Redden spoke to a mixed audience from the text, If this earthly house were dissolved, I have a building not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. Five persons came to the altar for prayer. Oct. 28th will be our Trustee Day. Come over and help us.

WEST SIDE MISSION A. M. E. CHURCH
West 36th Street
Major G. W. Prioleau, Pastor

The reception given on Friday night in honor of the return of Chaplain Prioleau and wife to the Mission for the 3rd year was a beautiful and grand affair. The church was beautifull decorated with palms and flowers of all kinds. Rev. B. R. Guy, acted as Master of Ceremonies. Ministers and their wives who did honor to the occasion, were Rev. Jas. Washington, Presiding Elder of Los Angeles Dist. of the A. M. E. Church; Rev. Jas. H. Wilson; Rev. B. R. Guy and Mrs. Guy; Rev. A. M. and Mrs. Ward; Rev. Fletcher of 2nd Church; Mrs. Eldridge of Trinity Baptist Church; a large representation of out of town people whose names cannot be gotten at this writing did honor to the distinguished guests.

Remarks by Mr. Washington in behalf of the Trustees and Stewards. Remarks by Mrs. Davis in behalf of the Stewardess. Remarks by Miss Solle in behalf of the S. S. and lastly remarks in behalf of the A. C. E. League by Mrs. Adelaide Gladden which was indeed a treat to the large audience. All went away happy and with the parting remark: "God bless the Mission."

Sunday's services were well attended. The pastor preached at both services. Many visitors present. Two joined the church and still there is room. Come on, we can use you.

BETHEL CHURCH OF CHRIST HOLINESS
Rev. Wm. A. Washington, Pastor

We were blessed with showers of blessings throughout the day. The pastor delivered the sermon at 11 o'clock, and at 3 o'clock Dr. Underwood, pastor of Phillip's Chapel, brough to us a very spiritual and encouraging sermon; Isa. 26:3, "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee".

A very liberal sum of money was raised for our new church building, which we are looking forward to occupy at an early date.

The public is invited to worship with us on that day.

Evening services were very profitable. Souls were blessed and saved.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH—
Y. M. C. A.—9th and Hemlock Sts.
Rev. H. D. Prowd, Pastor

We are glad to report increased Interest in our Sunday School. Our Lesson was most profitably studied. The subject—"Israel among other nations" was easily applied to ourselves. The central truth was driven home by Superintendent Dr. Cornelia Evans—"Honoring the true God Everywhere." Hearty welcome was extended our visitors.

At the 11 o'clock service Dr. Prowd delivered a very helpful sermon from Psalm 61:2—"Lead me to the Rock that is Higher than I." The Lord truly was with us in the word and also in the gracious out-pouring of The Holy Spirit.

At the B. Y. P. U. session we were greatly favored with musical renditions from Mr. Barto Duncan and Miss Helen Duncan, while our friend Mr. Cloyd sang most beautifully and with pathos. The Subject was that of "Service" and all took part in its discussion. The sermon at night was on Dependence on Christ for effective service. Three were received into the fellowship of the church. There will be special services this Sunday. Come early and come praying for a blessing.

TRINITY BAPTIST CHURCH—
West 36th St. and Normandie Ave.
Rev. J. A. H. Eldridge, Pastor

We had a glorious time all day Sunday. Our Sunday School was up to the standard. At eleven o'clock Rev. W. H. Skipwith of Philadelphia, Pa. began a ten day's revival taking his text from John 11:39. There was one accession to the church. At seven-thirty after a half hour song service he spoke from the 71st Psalm 3rd verse. Rev. Skipwith is known all over the world as a powerful evangelist and a great gospel singer. A spiritual feast is in store for all those who avail themselves with the opportunity to hear him. Those who are spiritually weak can be strengthened and those who know not the Christ we especially invite you. Our B. Y. P. U. is still very much alive. Come, a hearty welcome awaits you.

FIRST A. M. E. ZION CHURCH
Cor. Pico and Paloma
Rev. W. E. Shaw, Pastor
Res. 1217 Paloma Ave.

Sunday, Oct. 28th, the pastor will speak morning and evening. The evening services will be short and of special interest. Don't fail to hear these worthwhile, instructive sermons.

Visit this church during second week in November known as "Zion's Jubilee Festival." A great time is anticipated.

Presiding Elder Clark preached last Sunday morning from Acts 13:30 and Sunday evening from Matt. 14:27. This was Quarterly Meeting day and a great day it proved to be. Both illustrative. Two new members added to the roll and two infants christened.

A number of visiting ministers were present making the services more impressive.

The Choir under Prof. Bynum and his co-musicians rendered extraordinary sweet music.

A standing invitation to mid-week services on Wednesday night is open all.

A cordial welcome always to visitors, strangers and friends.

CATHOLICS OPEN SOCIAL CENTER

St. Victor's Hall, a social center for Colored Catholics of Los Angeles and vicinity, located at Sixteenth and Essex streets, was formally opened Sunday afternoon.

More than 500 people were present, both Catholics and Protestants, to listen to the addresses and to learn of the purposes for which the edifice was built. Every line of activity among our group and practically every denomination was represented in the audience.

Speeches were made by Leon Powan, secretary of St. Augustine's Society, Dr. Ballard, Postmaster P. P. O'Brien, Mrs. Montegue, Louis S. Tennette, Rev. Dr. Lucey, Noah D. Thompson and Father Mullane. Mr. J. W. Palmer was master of ceremonies.

Mr. Powan, the first speaker, sketched briefly the purposes of the center and extended a welcome to the community to this new place of recreation.

Dr. Ballard stressed the importance of recreation among our people and pointed out the benefits to be derived from social activity under Christian guidance and Catholic supervision.

Postmaster O'Brien congratulated the Catholic men and women on the selection of the site for the center, indicating that it was situated in line of the future development of the city and afforded much convenience in accessibility to all parts of the city.

Mrs. Montegue, representing the St. Peter Claver's Guild of Catholic Women, brought a word of encouragement from the women and invited all Catholic women of the city to join the Guild to the end that it might do its work more effectively.

Mr. Tenette, a trustee of Angel City Court, Catholic Order of Foresters, in course of his remarks; said: "The opening of this center marks the beginning of a movement to unite Colored Catholics all over the land in an organized effort to secure equality of American citizenship and those rights guaranteed us in the organic law of the land. * * * * When our good Bishop announced that a center would be built for the Colored Catholics of this community which was to be an institution for the preservation of the faith among us and a place where our young people may enjoy themselves in physical comfort and spiritual tranquility, there arose a suspicion that a plan was on foot to segregate us into a separate church. But, my friends, this is an erroneous conclusion. No such action is contemplated for two reasons. In the first place the construction of this building would not lend itself readily for the purpose of a church and in the second place the present shortage of priests to minister in the churches now existing in this diocese make such an idea preposterous. I hope that this is sufficiently plain to set at rest now and forever any thought of a separate church in Los Angeles."

Dr. Lucey, head of the Bureau of Catholic Charities, praised the work so far accomplished in building the center, at the same time expressing the hope that the social program enacted there shall bear good fruit. He reviewed the great works of mercy and charity carried on by the Catholic Church throughout the ages and urged unceasing activity until the end.

Mr. Thompson, although not scheduled to speak, called attention to the significance of the name of the hall. St. Victor, the name so chosen, was an African Pope and one of three black men who sat on the throne of St. Peter at Rome as the earthly heads of the Catholic Church. It was St. Victor who issued the decree fixing our present system of reckoning the date for Easter Sunday.

Father Mullane, acting pastor of St. Vibiana's Cathedral, spiritual director and founder of the center, made the closing address. He thanked the audience for its presence and assured them that while this was primarily for Catholic social activity we did not come to Sixteenth and Essex in a spirit of competition with other denominations and that all, regardless of religious affiliations would be welcome and treated most courteously and considerately. He also assured his hearers that no attempt is being made to take non-Catholics away from their church, but, as a Catholic priest, he could not help but believe in the true righteousness and supremacy of his holy religion.

Miss Jackson, a juvenile pianiste, showed remarkable talent in a solo at the conclusion of the program.

The sincerest thanks of the committee is extended to Messrs. Smith & Williams Co. for the beautiful potted plant and to Messrs. Conner-Johnson & Co. for the lovely cut flowers. Also to Mrs. McManus, one of the founders, Mrs. Logan, president, Mrs. Montegue and all the ladies of St. Peter Claver's Guild for their untiring efforts in making the opening of the center a success.

The program of social will begin November 3rd with a card party and followed by a dancing party on the 10th. Upon the return of Bishop Cantwell from Europe the blessing and solemn dedication will take place.

ELECTRICITY TO AID IN WAR ON BOLL WEEVIL

With the dearth of Negro labor in the South, on account of the continuing migration northward, cotton-planters, it is said, will next turn to electricity in the war to be waged on the boll weevil, which causes an annual damage of approximately $400,000,000.

PEANUT MILLIONAIRES

Descendants of liberated African slaves, repatriated to Africa by American abolition societies in 1823, have petitioned the governor of the British possessions to specify the day in the next three months when they may celebrate the centennial of their establishment on MacCarthy Island in the Gambria River. The chief industry is agriculture, and the principal crops, cotton and sisal, have been neglected almost entirely in favor of peanuts, from which English chemists, during the war, extracted glycerine necessary to feed the guns. Three are several Negro peanut millionaires. The women are not generally educated; polygamy is practiced; and domestic slavery is recognized, although commerce in slaves is forbidden.

MARRIED MEN

In spite of the economic handicaps under which the average Negro male labors, he, not unlike his white brother, believes in the building up of home ties, a conclusion which is based on the fact that 394 colored males in each 1,000, who have reached the age of 15 years or more, are married, as compared with 407 among the white males. The state of Texas easily leads in the number of divorced colored males and females, and is followed by Alabama and Mississippi. Divorced females greatly outnumber the males who have dissolved the marriage contract by legal authority.

WILBERFORCE SHAKE-UP

In speaking of the "inside" troubles at Wilberforce University, which have caused a great deal of unfavorable comment throughout the country during recent times, Editor Smith of the Cleveland Gazette says: "The well-wishers of Wilberforce University will rejoice to learn that the 'inside' troubles have been straightened out and that the institution will take on new life and go forward as it never has before." This optimistic tone of Editor Smith is very commendable, and the many friends of the university will patiently wait, with the same spirit of optimism, the result of Governor Donehey's belated house-cleaning.
